RULES AND ORDERS FOR REGULATING THE TRADE BETWEEN GREAT BRITAIN AND IRELAND.

AFTER our hearty commendations—whereas by an Act of Parliament, passed in the fourth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled “An Act to repeal the several duties and drawbacks of Customs chargeable and allowable in Ireland, on the importation and exportation of certain foreign and colonial goods, wares, and merchandises, and to grant other duties and drawbacks in lieu thereof, equal to the duties and drawbacks chargeable and allowable thereon in Great Britain;” it is, amongst other things, enacted, that at any time after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer, or for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or any three of them, by any warrant or order, in writing, signed by him or them, and published in the London and Dublin Gazettes, to direct and declare that from a day, to be named in such warrant or order, the trade between Great Britain and Ireland shall be taken and deemed to be a coasting trade, and from and after the day mentioned in such warrant or order, such trade shall be and become a coasting trade accordingly, and all ships and vessels in which goods, wares, or merchandise shall be transported, carried, and conveyed from any port in Great Britain, to any port in Ireland, or from any port in Ireland, to any port in Great Britain, respectively, shall be deemed and taken and held to be coasting ships and vessels to all intents and purposes whatsoever, subject nevertheless to such rules, regulations, restrictions, and conditions, and to such penalties and forfeitures as are hereinafter provided and contained;

We, the undersigned, Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, pursuant to and in execution of the powers vested in us, in and by the said Act, do hereby direct and declare, that the trade between Great Britain and Ireland shall, from and after the 10th day of October 1823, be taken and deemed to be a coasting trade; and we hereby approve of the following rules and orders for the mode of entry of all ships and vessels, and of all goods, wares, and merchandises, inwards and outwards, in Great Britain and Ireland respectively:

RULES AND ORDERS OUTWARDS.

That the entry of every ship or vessel, required by the said Act to be made, before any goods are laden on board the same, to be carried from one country to the other, shall be in form and manner following, that is to say;

The master of such ship or vessel, or his agent, shall sign a bill of entry of the same, setting forth the name of the vessel, and of the port to which she belongs, and the tonnage according to the register of such vessel, and the name of the master, and of the port for which she is bound, and the place where she takes in her lading, and shall deliver such bill to the Collector of the Customs at the port at which it is intended that such vessel shall be laden, who shall register the same in a book to be kept by him for that purpose.

And the entry of all such goods, wares, and merchandise, as are subject to duty of Customs or Excise in either country, or are prohibited to be exported from either country to foreign parts, required by the said Act to be made, before the same be laden on board any ship or vessel to be exported from one country to the other, shall be in form and manner following, that is to say:

The importer, or his agent, shall sign a bill of entry of such goods, written in words at length, setting forth the name of the ship, and of the master, and of the port where the same were shipped, and of the importer, and the quantity and description of the goods, and the number and denomination of the package containing the same, and of the place where the goods are intended to be landed ; and in the margin of such bill of entry shall delineate the respective marks and numbers of such package, and shall deliver the same, together with two copies thereof, to the Collector or Comptroller, who shall each retain one of such copies, and shall sign such bill of entry, and transmit the same, as their warrant, to the Coastwaiter, or other proper Officer, in whose presence, or by whose authority, the goods are to be unladen, and who is to retain such warrant as his authority for delivery of the goods expressed therein.

And if such goods be liable to any duty of Customs upon importation into one country from the other, the importer, or his agent, shall, at the time of delivery of such bill of entry to the Collector or Comptroller, and before the same shall be signed by either of them, pay down to such Collector the full amount of such duties.

COLONY OF DEMERARY AND ESSEQUEBO.

Demerary, August 2, 1823.

IN pursuance of authority obtained by an order of the Honourable Court of Justice of this Colony, bearing date the 23d day of May last, the undersigned Curators, appointed to administer the Insolvent estate and effects of Milliken Craig, late of this Colony, deceased; will in the month of April 1824 (the precise day to be hereafter fixed), expose and sell to the highest bidder, at public auction, upon the premises,

The sugar plantation Vrou Anna, otherwise called Craig Adam, situated on the South West Point of the Island of Legnan, within this Government; together with all the buildings, slaves, cultivations, live stock, craft, boats, and punts, and other appurtenances and dependencies thereto belonging or appertaining.

This estate consists of 311 acres of land, more or less, and combines with an extraordinary fertility of soil, suited equally well for sugar, coffee, or plantains, every other advantage. The drainage is excellent; the shipping the most convenient in the Colony, and the sugar works and other buildings, and most of the negro houses, entirely new; and the quality of the produce is not surpassed by any estate in the West Indies.

The sugar works and steam engine are on a large scale, and equal to take off 1000 hogsheads within the year with facility.

The magas logies are extensive, new, of the best materials, calculated to contain fuel for boiling 150 hogsheads sugar, and are covered with wallaba shingles, with covered gallery, connecting them with the engine house and stock hole shed: in short, the property is at present in the highest state of productiveness; the buildings in the most complete order, and the negroes healthy. Further particulars, as well as the terms and conditions of sale, may be had on application to Messrs. Hall, M'Gareld, and Co. London; Messrs. Sandbach, Tennet, and Co. Liverpool; Messrs. M'Inroy, Parker, and Co. Glasgow; Messrs. T. Daniell and Sons, Bristol; where also the official inventory and appraisement, taken by order of the Court, on 7th of September 1821, can be seen on application.
