Published by Authority.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 6, 1823.

By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, R.

WHEREAS Our Parliament stands prorogued to Tuesday the twenty-fifth day of this instant November; We, with the advice of Our Privy Council, do hereby publish and declare, that the said Parliament shall be further prorogued, on the said twenty-fifth day of this instant November, to Tuesday the third day of February next; and We have given order to Our Chancellor of that part of Our United Kingdom called Great Britain, to prepare a commission for proroguing the same accordingly; and We do further hereby, with the advice aforesaid, declare Our Royal Will and Pleasure, that the said Parliament shall, on the said third day of February next, be held and sit for the dispatch of divers urgent and important affairs: And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs of the House of Commons, are hereby required and commanded to give their attendance accordingly, at Westminster, on the said third day of February next.

Given at Our Court at Windsor, the eighteenth day of November one thousand eight hundred and twenty-three, and in the fourth year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 18th of November 1823.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under " certain circumstances, to regulate the duties, and " drawbacks on goods imported or exported in " foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign " vessels from pilotage," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by any Order or Orders in Council, in all cases in which British vessels, of less burthen than sixty tons, are not required by law to take pilots, to exempt foreign vessels, being of less burthen than sixty tons, from taking on board a pilot to conduct them into or from any of the ports of the United Kingdom, any law, custom, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding; His Majesty, by virtue of the power vested in him by the said Act, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date of this Order, all vessels belonging to the subjects of His Majesty the King of Hanover, and being of less burthen than sixty tons, which shall enter in or clear out from any of the ports of the United Kingdom, shall be, and they are hereby exempted from taking on board a pilot to conduct them into or from any such port, in all cases where British vessels, being of less burthen than sixty tons, are not required by law to take pilots, any law, custom, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding: and the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions therein accordingly.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 19th of September 1823.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council, bearing date the 24th day of September 1814, to establish certain regulations therein set forth, touching the trade and commerce to and from the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, and the territories and dependencies thereof; and whereas His Majesty was pleased by the said Order, amongst other things, to direct that goods, wares, or merchandise, the growth, produce, or manufacture of the countries to the eastward of the Cape of Good Hope, legally imported into the said settlement, or into the territories or dependencies thereof, might be exported from the said settlement, or the territories or dependencies thereof, to the ports of the United Kingdom, subject to the rules and regulations contained in an Act, passed in the fifty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for continuing in the East India Company, for a further term, the possession of the British territories in India, together with certain exclusive privileges; for establishing further regulations for the government of the said territories, and the better administration of justice within the same; and for regulating the trade to and from the places within the limits of the said Company's charter," or to any ports or places to which a trade in such articles was permitted to be carried on from the said settlement, or the territories or dependencies thereof, under the provisions of an Act, passed in the fifty-fourth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the further regulation of the trade to and from the places within the limits of the Charter of the East India Company," and subject to the rules and regulations in the said Act contained, provided, however, that nothing in that Order contained should extend, or be construed to extend, to permit any vessel, under the burthen of three hundred and fifty tons, to export from the said settlement, or the territories or dependencies thereof, to the ports of the United Kingdom, any articles the growth, produce, or manufacture of any countries, situated within the limits of the East India Company's Charter: And whereas by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to consolidate and amend the several laws now in force with respect to trade to and from places within the limits of the Charter of the East India Company, and to make further provisions with respect to such trade; and to amend an Act of the present session of Parliament, for the registering of vessels, so far as it relates to vessels registered in India," so much of the said Act of the fifty-third year of His said late Majesty's reign, as authorises His Majesty's subjects to carry on trade and traffic to and from the ports and places within the limits of the said Company's Charter, with all the provisions, restrictions, and limitations in the same Act contained, for the regulation of such trade, and for the disposition in the United Kingdom of all articles manufactured of silk, hair, or cotton-wool, or any mixture thereof, imported under the authority of the said last mentioned Act, from any port or place within the limits of the said Company's Charter; and the whole of the said Act, passed in the fifty-fourth year of the reign of His late Majesty, together with certain other Acts, passed in the fifty-fifth, fifty-seventh, and fifty-ninth years of His said late Majesty's reign, and an Act passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty, all which Acts relate to trade to, from, or between ports and places within the limits of the Charter of the East India Company, have been repealed: His Majesty is pleased, in virtue of the power vested in His Majesty by several Acts, passed in the forty-seventh and forty-ninth years of His late Majesty's reign, and in the first year of His present Majesty's reign, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that so much of the said Order in Council, bearing date the 24th day of September 1814, as relates to the tonnage of vessels importing, from the said settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, its territories and dependencies, to the ports of the United Kingdom, goods, wares, and merchandise, the growth, produce, or manufacture of countries to the eastward of the said settlement; and also so much of the said Order as subjects the exportation of such goods, wares, and merchandise to the provisions of the said Acts of the fifty-third and fifty-fourth years of His late Majesty's reign, be, and the same are, hereby revoked: And His Majesty is hereby further pleased to order, that such goods, wares, and merchandise so exported, shall be subject to the provisions of the said Act of the last session of Parliament, so far as the same are applicable thereto, in like manner, as if such goods, wares, and merchandise had been exported from any port or place within the limits of the Charter of the East India Company:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 19th of September, 1823.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to repeal certain duties of customs in Great Britain, and to grant other duties in lieu thereof; to grant certain bounties on salted provisions and silk manufactures exported; and to make more effectual regulations for collecting the duties of customs," certain duties are respectively imposed and directed to be levied on chocolate and cocoa paste of the British plantations; and cocoa nut husks, and shells; and on pepper, viz. Capsicum or Chillies, Cayenne, Guinea pepper, and long pepper; and on segars manufactured from tobacco, and on tobacco manufactured imported into Great Britain from foreign parts: And whereas His Majesty is empowered by the said Act to declare and direct by His Order in Council, that certain import duties of customs and excise (of which the duties upon the articles above enumerated form a part), shall be placed under the sole management of the Commissioners of the Customs, or under the sole management of the Commissioners of Excise, as shall be expressed and directed in such Order, and for a time to be mentioned in such Order; His Majesty having taken the same into consideration, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to declare and direct that all the several duties upon the articles above enumerated, imposed by the aforesaid Act, in the schedules A and B. thereof, and each and every of them shall be placed and shall be under the sole management of His Majesty's Commissioners of Excise, according to the provisions and directions of the said Act, from the tenth day of October next, during the time that the aforesaid duties shall continue to be payable :

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 19th of September 1823,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the twenty-first of February last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder, salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Straights of Gibraltar), has expired; and whereas it is judged expedient that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service), do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the date of this Order), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre; or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Straights of Gibraltar) or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf, first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and " more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council :

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Fleming St. John, of the city of Worcester, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, November 29, 1823.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, in the night of Saturday the 8th instant, a cotton mill at Fazeley, near Tamworth, in the county of Stafford, in the occupation of Mr. John Hunter, was destroyed by fire, and that there is every reason to suppose that the same was wilfully and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said mill), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the said John Hunter, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, December 2, 1823.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, in the evening of Friday the 14th of November last, a barn, called "Boring-House Barn," and an adjoining lodge, in the parish of Warbleton, in the county of Sussex, in the joint occupation of Messrs. John Waters and Thomas Martin, were discovered to be on fire, both of which, with their contents, were totally consumed; and that there is every reason to suppose, that the same were wilfully set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said premises), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence; the said reward to be paid, on conviction, on application to Mr. G. Darby, of Markly.

NOTICE is hereby given, that it is intended to apply to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill for erecting a patent wrought iron bar bridge of suspension, upon and over the River Thames and the adjoining lands and premises, for carriages, carts, waggons, horses, cattle, and foot passengers, and for making the necessary roads and communications thereto; such intended bridge, lands, premises, roads, and communications to pass over and lying in the Waters of the Thames within the Conservancy of the City of London, and the several parishes of St. Botolph, Aldgate, in the county of Middlesex, and St. Mary Magdalen, Bermondsey, in the county of Surrey; and the height of the said bridge to admit of ships and vessels to pass under it at spring tides, without striking or lowering their masts.

Labie, Oliverson, and Denby, Solicitors, Frederick's-place, Old Jewry.

Admiralty-Office, November 17, 1823.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Session of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery, for the trial of offences committed on the High Seas within the jurisdiction of the Admiralty of England, will be held at Justice-Hall, in the Old Bailey, London, on Friday the 19th day of December next, at eight o'clock in the morning.

And all Sheriffs, Gaolers, and Keepers of Prisons, in whose custody any prisoners, charged with offences committed on the High Seas, or within the said jurisdiction, may be, are hereby required to transmit a copy of the commitment of every such prisoner to Mr. Bicknell, the Solicitor of the Admiralty, on Spring-Garden Terrace, London, in order that the necessary measures may be taken, for removing all such prisoners to His Majesty's Gaol of Newgate, for trial at the said intended session.

ONE HUNDRED POUNDS REWARD.

Whereas John Crane, a man of weak intellect, left his home, at Dundonald, County Down, Ireland, in September 1812.—It is believed he went to Scotland, and if now living he is afflicted with rupture, is about 55 years of age, five feet eight inches high, dark hair, marked with the small pox, grey eyes, red beard and whiskers, full faced, and a little round shouldered; had on when he left his home a short dark coat, striped waistcoat, corduroy breeches, and grey stockings.—Any person who will discover his present residence (that he may be comfortably provided for) to George Dyson, Esq. of Hackney, Mr. Wm. Parnell, of Botolph-Lane, or Mr. James Moore French, of the Royal-Exchange, London, shall receive a reward of One Hundred Pounds sterling; and if any person can give a satisfactory account of the death of the said John Crane, a reward of Twenty Pounds sterling will be paid by the said George Dyson, Wm. Parnell, or James Moore French.

IN pursuance of authority granted by His Honour the President of the Honourable Court of Criminal and Civil Justice for the United Colony of Demerary and Essequibo, bearing date the 12th instant;

I, the undersigned, Deputy First Marshal of said United Colony, do hereby, in the name and behalf of Thomas Frankland, in capacity as deliberating Executor, for himself and derate executors, the other Executors, in Europe, named under the will of Peter Grant, deceased, summoned by edict, ad valvas curiæ, all known and unknown creditors of the estate of Peter Grant, deceased, late planter of Lequan, Island Essequibo, to appear in person, or by proxy, before the Honourable Court of Criminal and Civil Justice for the aforesaid United Colony, at their Session, to be holden at the Court-House, in George-Town, on the 15th day of December 1823, and following days, in order to render in their respective claims, duly attested and in due form; whereas in default of which, will be proceeded against the non-appearing according to law.—Demerary and Essequibo, the 18th July 1823.

J. D. HALEY, Deputy First Marshal.

Marshal's-Office, Berbice.—Sale by Execution.

First Proclamation.

Whereas I, the undersigned, by virtue of authority received from His Excellency Henry Beard, Esq. Lieutenant-Governor and Commander in Chief, &c. &c. &c. President of the Honourable the Courts of Justice, sole Judge of the Court of Vice-Admiralty of the Colony Barbice and its Dependencies, &c. &c. &c. dated 22d May and the 4th of June 1823, granted upon the petition of M. Daly, as the Attorney of the mercantile firm of Jones and Halliday of Demerara, plaintiff, versus John Quarlliss, defendant, have caused to be taken in execution, and placed under sequestration, the coffee estate, called Plegt Anker, cum annexis, and 22 slaves, situate on the east bank of the River Barbice, with all its buildings, the property of the said Quarlliss:

Be it therefore known, that I, the undersigned, or the Marshal at the time being, intend to sell at public execution sale (after the expiration of one year and six weeks, from the 5th day of June 1823), the before-named coffee estate, called Plegt Anker, with all its cultivations, slaves, buildings, and further appurtenances whatever thereto belonging, and specified in the inventory, now laying at the Marshal's Office, for the inspection of those concerned, subject, however, to a certain mortgage, in favour of John Parley, and vested on said plantation Plegt Anker, and 13 slaves, in order to recover, by execution, sale of said estate, cum annexes, and slaves; such sum of money as wherefore the same has been taken in execution and placed under sequestration, all conformable to the regulations of the Honourable the Court of Civil Justice of this Colony, dated the 20th day of December 1817, respecting the sale of estates by execution in this Colony.

This first Proclamation published as customary.—Barbice, August 31, 1823.

K. FRANCKEN, First Marshal.

[Inserted by Mr. Guillard, Notary Public, No. 27, Birchington-Lane, Cornhill.]

Summons by Edict.

BY virtue of authority granted from His Excellency Henry Beard, Esq. Lieutenant-Governor and Commander in Chief, &c. &c. &c. President of the Honourable the Courts of Justice, sole Judge of the Court of Vice-Admiralty of the Colony Barbice and its dependencies, &c. &c. &c. dated the 4th September 1823;

I, the undersigned, at the instance of Johan Scoullar and Wm. Kewley, Executors of the last will and testament of the late John Smith, Surgeon, of this Colony, deceased, do hereby, for the first time, summon by edict all known and unknown Creditors or Claimants against the estate of the late John Smith, Surgeon, of this Colony, deceased, to appear before the bar of the Honourable the Court of Civil Justice of this Colony, at their Session, to be held in the month of January 1824, and following Sessions, for the purpose of there rendering in their respective claims, properly substantiated; and in due form and time, against the above-named estate.—Whereas in default of which, and after the expiration of the fourth and last edictal, will be proceeded against the non-appears according to law.

This first summons by edict, published as customary.—Barbice, 4th September 1823.

K. FRANCKEN, First Marshal.

Valuable Property in Church-Street.

TO be sold by auction, on Monday the 29th day of December instant, at the George Inn, in Dale-Street, Liverpool, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon, before the major part of the Commissioners in a Commission of Bankrupt against William Stoakes, late of Liverpool, Carver and Gilder;

All that piece or parcel of land, with the extensive buildings and premises thereon erected, situate and being on the South West side of Church-Street, in Liverpool aforesaid, and commonly called or known by the name of Stoakes Rooms, together with the cabinet-makers shop at the back part thereof, fronting into Brook's-Alley, containing in front to Church-Street and to Brook's-Alley severally, nine yards or thereabouts, and running in depth backwards on the South East side thereof thirty-eight yards, one foot, five inches, and on the North West side thereof thirty-eight yards or thereabouts, exclusive of the privilege of an area to the front of Church-Street of six feet wide, for the purpose of an approach to the house and steps to the vaults underneath.

Immediate possession may be had of the property which will be sold, for the remainder of a term of one thousand years commencing in 1802.

Any further information may be had by applying to Mr. Thomas Leicester, Solicitor, Dale-Street, Liverpool.

TO be sold by private contract, pursuant to an order of the High Court of Chancery, made in certain causes intitled Garrick against Earl Camden, and Patton against Garrick, with the approbation of William Alexander, Esquire, one of the Masters of the said Court, to the person or persons who shall, on the 23d day of January 1824, appear to be the highest bidder for the same;

The mansion-house, pleasure-grounds, and premises at Hampton, in the County of Middlesex, adjoining Bushy Park, and on the Banks of the river Thames, known as Garrick's Villa, late in the occupation of the widow of David Garrick, Esquire, deceased.

Printed particulars whereof, and the terms and conditions upon which the same will be sold, may be had at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London; of Mr. Carr, John-Street, Bedford-Row; and of Mr. Hine, Solicitor, No. 3, Essex-Court, Temple; and the villa may, until the said 23d day of January 1824, be viewed every day (Sundays excepted) between the hours of Ten and Five o'Clock, with tickets, which may be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London; at Mr. Carr's Office, in John-Street, Bedford-Row; and at Mr. Hine's Office, in the Temple.

W Hereas by an order of the High Court of Chancery, in England, made in a cause wherein James Horridge and others are plaintiffs, and John William Ferguson and others are defendants, it is, amongst other things, referred to James Stephen, Esquire, one of the Masters of the said Court, to enquire whether the defendant Mary Henley, be living or dead, and if dead when and where she died, and whether she died unmarried and without issue and intestate or not.—The said Mary Henley, who was one of the daughters of William Henley, late of Hailsham, in the County of Sussex, Bricklayer, deceased, is supposed to have gone to America, in or about the year 1798, with a family of the name of Johnson, one of whom it is believed a Mrs. Johnson, was a Performer belonging to the Canterbury company of players, and that she afterwards resided at Montreal, in America: the said Mary Henley, if living, or her issue, or personal representative, is or are on or before the first day of June next, to come in before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, and make out their claim, or in default thereof she and they will be peremptorily excluded from the benefit of the said Order.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Orchard and others v. Sandys, Bart. and others, the mortgagees and incumbancers of Sir Edward Baynton Sandys, of Misserdine-Park, in the County of Gloucester, Bart. whose mortgages and incumbrances affect the estate comprised in the trust-deed in the said Decree mentioned, are to come in and establish their demands before James Power, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on or before the 23d day of January 1824, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Hine against Bailey, the Creditors of Benjamin Waters, late of Burford, in the County of Oxford, Attorney at Law, deceased (who died on or about the 8th day of September 1814), are, on or before the 12th day of February 1824, to come in and prove their debts before William Courtenay, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Ball against Baddeley, the Creditors of William Baddeley the younger, late of the Hamlet of Sneyd, in the Parish of Burslem, in the County of Stafford, Farmer (who died in or about the year 1782), are, by their Solicitors, on or before the 29th day of December 1823, to come in before William Alexander, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, and prove their debts or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause of Hammerton against Saunt, the Creditors of Anthony Brown, late of Benefield, in the County of Southampton, Chancery. (who died in or about the month of May, 1808), are, by their Solicitors, forthwith to come in and prove their debts before William Alexander, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, bearing date the 19th day of April 1820, made in a Cause wherein John Plummer, Esq. is plaintiff, and Ann Gilman and Ann Power, and others, are the defendants, it is, amongst other things, referred to Samuel Compton Cox, Esq. one of the Masters of the High Court of Chancery, to inquire whether Anthony Power, in the pleadings in such Cause named, was living or dead at the death of the testator, Francis Robins Power, in the pleading also named (which said Francis Robins Power was a resident of Cornwall, in Jamaica, and is supposed to have died on or about the 20th of July, 1815), and if he, the said Anthony Power, was then living, whether he is since dead, and who is his personal representative.—Any person or persons, claiming to be the child or children, or personal representative or representatives of the said Anthony Power, is or are, on or before the 2d day of June 1825, to come in before the said Samuel Compton Cox, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, and prove himself, herself, or themselves, to be such child or children, or personal representative or representatives, of the said Anthony Power, or in default thereof he, she, or they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

The said Anthony Power is presumed to have died at Baton-Rouge, in New Orleans, in North America, some time prior to the year 1808.

Pursuant to the Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Osborne against Osborne, the Creditors of John Osborne, late of Melchett-Park, in the County of Wilts, Esq. deceased (who died in or about the month of January 1821), are, on or before the 3d day of January next, to come in and prove their debts before James Stephen, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Thomas Atkinson, of Ludgate-Hill, in the City of London, Upholsterer, are desired to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Wednesday the 10th day of December instant, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London (by Adjournment from the 3d instant), further to consider and determine on the several matters and things then submitted to the Creditors present at the said meeting.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Allan Cornfoot, of No. 18, Houndsditch, in the City of London, Baker, Dealer, and Chapman, are desired to meet the Assignee of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Tuesday, the 9th day of December instant, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee disposing of the said Bankrupt's household goods and other effects, by private contract; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Isaac Prosser, of Abergavenny, in the County of Monmouth; Grocer, Dealer and Chapman, are desired to meet the Assignee of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Friday the 12th day of December instant, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the Angel Inn, Abergavenny, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee selling, by public auction or private contract, or by valuation and appraisement, or otherwise, the stock in trade and fixtures of the said Bankrupt, in his shops and premises, situate in Cross-Street, in Abergavenny aforesaid, or elsewhere, and also the whole or any part of the household furniture, goods, wares, and other effects of the said Bankrupt, and the lease, or agreement for a lease, under which he holds the said shops and premises, to any person or persons who may be disposed to take or purchase the same, and to the said Assignee giving time for payment of all or any part of the purchase monies for the same, on the personal or other security of the purchaser or purchasers thereof, as the said Assignee may deem right; and also to the said Assignee keeping open the shops and carrying on the business of the said Bankrupt, until an advantageous sale shall take place of the stock, fixtures, lease, and effects, and to his making necessary disbursements and advances attending the same; and also to the said Assignee deputing any fit person or persons to superintend and carry on the said business, and to make up and adjust the books and accounts of the said Bankrupt, and to collect and receive the debts due and to become due to the said estate, and to his making such allowance and compensation in respect thereof as the said Assignee shall think proper; also to empower the said Assignee to discharge in full, out of the Bankrupt's estate, the wages due to the servants of the said Bankrupt, if he shall think proper, and to pay the expences incurred in carrying on the business of the said Bankrupt, prior to the issuing of the said Commission against him; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee presenting any petition or petitions, and commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action, suit, or other proceeding, either at law or in equity, for the recovery or protection of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, or any part thereof; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise settling and agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto, or in anywise connected therewith; and on other special matters.
