

Whitehall, December 2, 1823.

WHILEAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, in the evening of the 14th of November last, a barn, called "The King's House Barn," and an adjoining lodge, in the parish of Warbleton, in the county of Sussex, in the joint occupation of Messrs. John Waters and Thomas Martin, were discovered to be on fire, both of which, with their contents, were totally consumed; and that there is every reason to suppose, that the same were wilfully set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said premises), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEELE

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence; the said reward to be paid, on conviction, on application to Mr. G. Darcy, of the Admiralty.

Admiralty-Office, November 17, 1823.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Session of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery, for the trial of offences committed on the High Seas within the jurisdiction of the Admiralty of England, will be held at Justice-Hall, in the Old Bailey, London, on Friday the 19th day of December next, at eight o'clock in the morning.

And all Sheriffs, Gaolers, and Keepers of Prisons, in whose custody any prisoners, charged with offences committed on the High Seas, or within the said jurisdiction, may be, are hereby required to transmit a copy of the commitment of every such prisoner to Mr. Bicknell, the Solicitor of the Admiralty, on Spring-Garden-Terrace, London, in order that the necessary measures may be taken, for removing all such prisoners to His Majesty's Gaol of Newgate, for trial at the said intended session.

J. W. Croker.

My Lords, Cornhill, November 28, 1823.
