By the KING.
A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE. R.

WHEREAS Our Parliament stands prorogued to Tuesday the twenty-fifth day of this instant November; We, with the advice of Our Privy Council, do hereby publish and declare, that the said Parliament shall be further prorogued, on the said twenty-fifth day of this instant November, to Tuesday the third day of February next; and We have given order to Our Chancellor of that part of Our United Kingdom called Great Britain, to prepare a commission for proroguing the same accordingly; and We do further hereby, with the advice aforesaid, declare Our Royal Will and Pleasure, that the said Parliament shall, on the said third day of February next, be held and sit for the dispatch of divers urgent and important affairs: And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs of the House of Commons, are hereby required and commanded to give their attendance accordingly, at Westminster, on the said third day of February next.

Given at Our Court at Windsor, the eighteenth day of November one thousand eight hundred and twenty-three, and in the fourth year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 18th of November 1823.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under " certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and " drawbacks on goods imported or exported in " foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign " vessels from pilotage," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by any Order or Orders in Council, in all cases in which British vessels, of less burthen than sixty tons, are not required by law to take pilots, to exempt foreign vessels, being of less burthen than sixty tons, from taking on board a pilot to conduct them into or from any of the ports of the United Kingdom, any law, custom, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding; His Majesty, by virtue of the power vested in him by the said Act, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date of this Order, all vessels belonging to the subjects of His Majesty the King of Hanover, and being of less burthen than sixty tons, which shall enter in or clear out from any of the ports of the United Kingdom, shall be, and they are hereby exempted from taking on board a pilot to conduct them into or from any such port, in all cases where British vessels, being of less burthen than sixty tons, are not required by law to take pilots, any law, custom, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding: and the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions therein accordingly.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Peard Jillard, of Shepton Mallet, in the county of Somerset, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, December 12, 1823.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Joseph Blanshard Burland, of the town and county of the town of Kingston-upon-Hull, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, December 13, 1823.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Thomas Buckby Lefevre, of Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, December 12, 1823.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about five o'clock in the morning of the 2d day of December instant, a house or warehouse, the property of Messrs. George Duncan and James Currie Duncan, of Liverpool, rope-manufacturers, situate in or near Brownlow-hill and St. Andrew-street, in Liverpool, was discovered to be on fire; and that there is reason to believe that the said premises were wilfully and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set the said premises on fire), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, the following rewards are hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, viz. FIFTY GUINEAS by the said Messrs. Duncans, and a further sum of FIFTY GUINEAS by the Eagle Insurance Company, London.

Admiralty-Office, November 17, 1823.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Session of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery, for the trial of offences committed on the High Seas within the jurisdiction of the Admiralty of England, will be held at Justice-Hall, in the Old Bailey, London, on Friday the 19th day of December next, at eight o'clock in the morning.

And all Sheriffs, Gaolers, and Keepers of Prisons, in whose custody any prisoners, charged with offences committed on the High Seas, or within the said jurisdiction, may be, are hereby required to transmit a copy of the commitment of every such prisoner to Mr. Bicknell, the Solicitor of the Admiralty, on Spring-Garden-Terrace, London, in order that the necessary measures may be taken, for removing all such prisoners to His Majesty's Gaol of Newgate, for trial at the said intended session.

NEW LONDON BRIDGE.

Guildhall, London, December 5, 1823.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the fourth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the rebuilding of London-bridge, and for improving and making suitable approaches thereto," the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, are authorised, empowered, and directed, without delay, to erect and build, or cause to be erected and built, a new bridge across the River Thames, in manner therein particularly mentioned; and the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons are thereby authorised and empowered to appoint one or more Committee or Committees to carry the said Act into execution; and whereas it is in and by the said Act, amongst other things, enacted, that previous to the making of any contract for the performance of any of the works to be performed by virtue or in pursuance of the said Act, notice shall be given in some of the daily newspapers, that such Committee intend to make such contract, and that all persons willing to engage therein may make proposals to the said Committee, at a certain time and place in every such notice to be specified;

Now, therefore, the Committee appointed by the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, to carry the said Act into execution, do hereby, pursuant to the said Act, give notice, that they intend to make a contract for building such bridge, and that all persons willing to engage therein may make proposals to the said Committee, who will meet at Guildhall, on Tuesday the 27th day of January next, at one o'clock in the afternoon precisely, to receive the same. Further information may be obtained at my Office, any day (Sundays excepted), between the hours of ten and three.

H. Woodthorpe, jun. Clerk of the said Committee.

Sewer's-Office, Guildhall, London, the 28th of October and 9th December 1823.

THE Commissioners of Sewers of the City of London and liberties thereof, having resolved to redeem or pay off the bonds or instruments charged on the credit of the Sunday Tolls, as far as the sum of one thousand pounds will extend, have (in order to make all the holders of the said bonds or instruments creditors in equal degree, without preference in any respect whatever), decided by way of lottery, that the following of the said bonds or instruments shall be paid off or redeemed, viz. Nos. 30, 72, 107, 203, 1, 143, 149, 156, 189, and 219. The said Commissioners hereby give notice, that the holders of the said bonds or instruments, numbered as above, may receive the several sums first advanced thereon respectively, at the Chamberlain's Office, Guildhall, on the 24th day of June next, together with all the interest which shall be due thereon to the said 24th day of June, from which day the interest on the said bonds or instruments respectively will cease.

W. Bond, P. Clk.

Christ's-Hospital, December 13, 1823.

WHEREAS John West, late of London, scrivener, and Frances his wife, both deceased, did, in their several lifetimes, settle on the Governors of the said Hospital divers estates, in and about the City of London and elsewhere; and the said Frances West did also by her will give a sum of money to the said Governors, to be laid out in the purchase of lands, &c.; the profits of the whole of the said estates to be applied for the payment of annuities or pensions of £5 each to poor men and poor women, of the age of fifty years and upwards, during their natural lives, and directed that their relations by consanguinity should have the preference; the said Governors do, therefore, hereby give notice, that if any person or persons, qualified as aforesaid, shall stand in need or desire the benefit of the said Charity, such persons may, within forty days from the date hereof, apply to the said Governors at the Counting-House in the said Hospital, and make out their relationship to the donors, or either of them, otherwise they will be excluded the said Charity.

A Committee will sit in the Counting-House of the said Hospital, on Wednesday the 28th day of January next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, to elect pensioners in the room of such as are deceased.

Thomas Wilby, Clerk.

Navy-Office, November 29, 1823.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Tuesday the 16th of next month, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, Commissioner Shield will put up to sale, in His Majesty's Yard at Plymouth, the following vessels, viz.

Further notice to Debtors and Creditors of Mr. Thomas Brown, late of the Hotel, Lyme-Regis, Dorset.

Lyme-Regis, December 8, 1823.

Notice is hereby given, that all persons to whom the said Thomas Brown stood indebted at the time of his executing the Deed of Assignment of his estate and effects, in July last, and have omitted to send in their accounts, as desired by a former advertisement, are now requested to give in particulars of their respective demands, on or before the 1st day of January next, to Messrs. Drayton and Davie, of Lyme-Regis aforesaid, the Trustees named in the said Deed, and in default they will be excluded receiving any benefit from the estate and effects of the said Thomas Brown, as a final dividend thereof will be immediately thereafter made to such Creditors as shall have executed the said Deed, and proved their debts; and all persons indebted to the said estate and effects are requested to pay their respective debts to the said Trustees aforesaid, on or before the said 1st day of January next, or they will be sued for recovery thereof.

ONE HUNDRED POUNDS REWARD.

Whereas John Crane, a man of weak intellect, left his home, at Dundonald, County Down, Ireland, in September 1812.—It is believed he went to Scotland, and if now living he is afflicted with rupture, is about 55 years of age, five feet eight inches high, dark hair, marked with the small pox, grey eyes, red beard and whiskers, full faced, and a little round shouldered; had on when he left his home a short drab coat, striped waistcoat, corduroy breeches, and grey stockings.—Any person who will discover his present residence (that he may be comfortably provided for) to George Dyson, Esq. of Hackney, Mr. Wm. Parnell, of Botolph-Lane, or Mr. James Moore French, of the Royal-Exchange, London, shall receive a reward of One Hundred Pounds sterling; and if any person can give a satisfactory account of the death of the said John Crane, a reward of Twenty Pounds sterling will be paid by the said George Dyson, Wm. Parnell, or James Moore French.

Marshal's-Office, Berbice.—Sale by Execution.
First Proclamation.

Whereas I, the undersigned, by virtue of authority received from His Excellency Henry Beard, Esq. Lieutenant-Governor and Commander in Chief, &c. &c. &c. President of the Honourable the Courts of Justice, sole Judge of the Court of Vice-Admiralty of the Colony Berbice and its Dependencies, &c. &c. &c. dated 22d May and the 4th of June 1823, granted upon the petition of M. Daly, as the Attorney of the mercantile firm of Jones and Halliday of Demerara, plaintiff, versus John Quarliss, defendant, have caused to be taken in execution, and placed under sequestration, the coffee estate, called Plegt Anker, cum annexis, and 22 slaves, situate on the east bank of the River Berbice, with all its buildings, the property of the said Quarliss:

Be it therefore known, that I, the undersigned, or the Marshal at the time being, intend to sell at public execution sale (after the expiration of one year and six weeks, from the 5th day of June 1823), the before-named coffee estate, called Plegt Anker, with all its cultivations, slaves, buildings, and further appurtenances whatever thereto belonging, and specified in the inventory, now laying at the Marshal's Office, for the inspection of those concerned, subject, however, to a certain mortgage, in favour of John Farley, and vested on said plantation Plegt Anker, and 13 slaves, in order to recover, by execution sale of said estate, cum annexes, and slaves, such sum of money as wherefore the same has been taken in execution and placed under sequestration, all conformable to the regulations of the Honourable the Court of Civil Justice of this Colony, dated the 20th day of December 1817, respecting the sale of estates by execution in this Colony.

This first Proclamation published as customary.—Berbice, August 31, 1823.

K. FRANCKEN, First Marshal.

[Inserted by Mr. Guitard, Notary-Public, No. 27, Birchbin-Lane, Cornhill.]

Summons by Edict.

By virtue of authority granted from His Excellency Henry Beard, Esq. Lieutenant-Governor and Commander in Chief, &c. &c. &c. President of the Honourable the Courts of Justice, sole Judge of the Court of Vice-Admiralty of the Colony Berbice and its dependencies, &c. &c. &c. dated the 4th September 1823;

I, the undersigned, at the instance of Johan Scoullar and Wm. Kewley, Executors of the last will and testament of the late John Smith, Surgeon, of this Colony, deceased, do hereby, for the first time, summon by edict all known and unknown Creditors or Claimants against the estate of the late John Smith, Surgeon, of this Colony, deceased, to appear before the bar of the Honourable the Court of Civil Justice of this Colony, at their Session, to be held in the month of January 1824, and following Sessions, for the purpose of there rendering in their respective claims, properly substantiated, and in due form and time, against the above-named estate.—Whereas in default of which, and after the expiration of the fourth and last edictal, will be proceeded against the non-appears according to law.

This first summons by edict, published as customary.—Berbice, 4th September 1823.

K. FRANCKEN, First Marshal.

By Authority of Parliament,

THOMAS NETTLESHIPP, Clerk of the Grocers' Company.

FREEHOLD, KENT.

TO be sold, to the best bidder, in several lots, pursuant to a Decree of His Majesty's Court of Exchequer, made in a certain Cause now pending in the said Court, wherein John Minet Fector, now deceased, and others, are plaintiffs, and John Philpot and His Majesty's Attorney-General are defendants; before Jefferies Spranger, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at a time and place to be hereafter appointed for that purpose;

Certain freehold houses or tenements, with gardens and appurtenances, situate in the Parish of Charlton, within the Town and Port of Dover, in the County of Kent.

Particulars may shortly be had (gratis) of Messrs. Dawes and Chatfield, Solicitors, Angel-Court, Throgmorton-Street, London; John Shipden, Esq. Solicitor, Dover; at the Chambers of the said Master, Mitre-Court-Buildings, Temple; and at the principal Inns, Dover.

Pursuant to an Order of the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, made in the matter of Robert Wright, a Lunatic, the Creditors of the said Robert Wright, who was late of Green-Street, Grosvenor-Square, in the County of Middlesex, Esq. and formerly of Mansfield, in the County of Nottingham, and against whom a Commission of Lunacy issued on the 1st day of May 1823, are to come in and prove their debts before Francis Paul Stratford, Esq. one of the Masters of the High Court of Chancery, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on or before the 23d day of January 1824, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Order.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Holman v. Wood, the Creditors of Robert Cooke, late of High-Street, in the Parish of Saint Giles, in the County of Middlesex, House-Painter, deceased (who died in the month of December 1821), are, by their Solicitors, forthwith to come in and prove their debts before John Edmund Dowdeswell, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Office, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause wherein Mary Ann Bendy is plaintiff, and William Firth and others are defendants, the Creditors of Charles William Bendy, late of Hautboys, in the County of Norfolk, Surgeon, the testator in the pleadings named (who died on the 25th of November 1815), are, on or before the 16th of January 1824, to come in and prove their debts before Sir John Simeon, Bart. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree or Decretal Order of the High Court of Chancery, bearing date the 23d day of July 1823, made in four several Causes, in the first of which Richard Le Hunte, an infant, is plaintiff, William Evans and others are defendants; in the second of such Causes Richard Le Hunte is plaintiff, Sir John Owen, Bart. defendant; in the third of such Causes Samuel Mead Hobson and Maria, his wife, and others are plaintiffs, and Sir John Owen, Bart. defendant; and in the fourth of such Causes the said Samuel Mead Hobson and Maria, his wife, are plaintiffs, and the said Sir John Owen and others defendants, it is, amongst other things, referred to Samuel Compton Cox, Esq. to inquire and state to the Court, who were the next of kin of Richard Le Hunte, late of St. Botolphs, and Orielton, in the County of Pembroke, Esq. deceased, the late infant plaintiff in the two first mentioned Causes, living at the time of his death, which happened on or about the 22d day of September 1821, and in case any of them have since died, who is or are the personal representative or representatives of him, her, or them so dying.—Any person or persons, therefore, who were the next of kin of the said Richard Le Hunte, living at the time of his death, or to be the personal representative or representatives of such next of kin, who have since died, is or are forthwith to come in before the said Samuel Compton Cox, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, and make themselves out to be such next of kin, or personal representative or representatives as aforesaid, or in default thereof, he, she, or they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Parker against Middleton, the Creditors of Thomas Athorpe, late of Dinnington, in the West Riding of the County of York, Esq. deceased (who died in or about the month of November 1820), are, by their Solicitors, on or before the 23d day of January 1824, to come in before William Alexander, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, and prove their debts or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Weir against Bund, the Creditors of John Weir, late of Broughton-House, otherwise Meer-Green-Hall, in the County of Worcester, Esq. deceased (who died on or about the 21st day of May 1812), are, on or before the 23d day of January 1824, to come in and prove their debts before Francis Cross, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof, they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Barnes against Lloyd, the Creditors of Thomas Nicholls, late a Major-General in the service of the East India Company (who changed his name to Broadhurst, and resided at Drayton-Lodge, in the County of Salop, and died there in the year 1812), are, on or before the 23d day of January next, to come in and prove their debts before John Springett Harvey, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause wherein William Tagg and another are plaintiffs, and Samuel Roberts and others are defendants, the Creditors of Ann Reynolds, late of Lordship-Lane, in the Parish of Camberwell, in the County of Surrey, Widow (who died in or about September 1819), are to come in and prove their debts before Francis Paul Stratford, Esq., one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on or before the 23d day of January 1824, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause wherein William Tagg and another are plaintiffs, and Samuel Roberts and others are defendants, the Next of Kin of Ann Reynolds, late of Lordship-Lane, in the Parish of Camberwell, in the County of Surrey, Widow (who died in or about the month of Sept. 1819), living at the time of her death, or the representatives of any of such Next of Kin who may be since deceased, are to come in before Francis Paul Stratford, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on or before the 23d day of January 1824, and prove their kindred, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Whereas a meeting of the Creditors of Isaac Ablett, of Bucklersbury, in the City of London, and of Manchester, in the County of Lancaster, Fusian and Velveteen-Manufacturer, Dealer and Chapman, against whom a Commission of Bankrupt has been awarded and issued, was held at the Dog and Partridge Inn, Market-Street, Manchester aforesaid, on the 2d of December instant, pursuant to public advertisement in the London Gazette, in order to consider and determine upon the propriety of allowing or disallowing certain expences, incurred by the Assignees and Creditors in and under the said Commission, in and about the affairs of the said Bankrupt, particularly with reference to the expences incurred by several of the Creditors in and about the affairs, as well previously as subsequently to the opening of the said Commission, in and about the choice of Assignees, and also with reference to the expences incurred by two of the Assignees in their several journeys to London, the particulars of which will be submitted to the said Creditors at the meeting; and also to allowing the sum of £10 to the petitioning Creditor, claimed by him as his expences in taking a journey to London, to open the said Commission; and also to confirm all acts done by the said Assignees in and about the management of the said Bankrupt's affairs, particularly as to the sale, by public auction and private contract, already made, of the whole or certain parts of the Bankrupt's estate and effects; and also to the appointment of an accountant to make up and examine the books of the said Bankrupt; and to consider and determine as to the necessity of continuing to employ the said accountant to assist the said Assignees in the management of the said Bankrupt's affairs, and of the allowing to such accountant such reasonable sum for compensation as the said Assignees shall think fit; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; and particularly as to the expediency of bringing an action at law, to try the validity of a certain execution under which the goods of the said Bankrupt were seized, previously to the issuing of the Commission; and also in opposing any petition or petitions already presented, or that may hereafter be presented, by the Bankers of the said Bankrupt, for liberty to sell certain of the estates, upon which they claim to have a lien for alleged advances of money made by them to the said Bankrupt; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing to these, or any other matters or things relating to the said Bankruptcy; and on other special affairs; when certain resolutions were agreed to by the Creditors then present.—The Creditors who have proved their debts under the said Commission, are desired to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on the 30th day of December instant, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the resolutions agreed to as aforesaid, or so much and such part or parts thereof, as they may think fit, and which resolutions or agreement will be submitted at the time and place aforesaid.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Philip Chabert, of Penton-Place, Pentonville, in the County of Middlesex, Merchant, are requested to meet the Assignee of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Friday the 19th day of December instant, at One in the Afternoon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, for the purpose of authorising the Assignee of the said Bankrupt's estate to make, execute, and give Powers of Attorney to the said Bankrupt, and such other persons as he shall see fit, to collect, get in, and receive the debts and effects due and belonging to the said estate; and to commence and prosecute such actions, suits, and proceedings for that purpose as the said Assignee shall think fit; and also to make up, settle, and adjust all losses claimed against the said Bankrupt's estate, policies of insurance, and to adjust all accounts between the said Bankrupt's estate and any person or persons; and to compromise and compound for any debts, or other property, belonging to the said estate; and also to authorise the said Assignee to give to the said Bankrupt his furniture and other effects which were seized in his dwelling-house by the messenger under the said Commission, as a compensation for his time and trouble in collecting in the debts due to the said estate, and investigating the losses which may be claimed thereon upon policies of insurance, and to make to the said Bankrupt, and any other Attorneys to be appointed, such further and other allowance for his and their said time and trouble as the said Assignee shall deem reasonable, just, and proper.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against James Upton, of Tadcaster, in the County of York, Money-Scrivener, Dealer and Chapman, are desired to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Monday the 22d day of December instant, at Three o'Clock in the Afternoon, at the Crown Inn, at Tadcaster aforesaid, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of, either together or in parcels, or otherwise, and either by public auction or private contract, or by appraisement or valuation, to the said Bankrupt, or to any person or persons on his behalf, or to any other person or persons, and either for ready money or upon credit, and to accept such security or securities, and to grant such time for the payment of the same, or any part thereof, as the said Assignees may think proper, all the household goods and furniture and other the personal estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, also the reversionary life estate of the said Bankrupt, expectant on the death of a person, to be named at the said meeting, of and in the interest of the sum of £3000, now secured on mortgage, as also the life estate and interest of the said Bankrupt of and in the equity of redemption of a certain leasehold messuage and buildings, situate in Oxford-Street, in the County of Middlesex; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for recovery of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Robert Hamilton, of Stoke-upon-Trent, in the County of Stafford, Manufacturer of Earthenware, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Saturday the 3d day of January next (being the day fixed for the said Bankrupt's last examination), at Three o'Clock in the Afternoon, at the Legs of Man Inn, in Barslem, in the County of Stafford, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling or disposing of all or any part of the stock in trade, fixtures and utensils, household furniture, and other estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, either by public sale, private contract, appraisement or otherwise, and either for ready money or upon credit, and with or without security, from the purchaser or purchasers thereof, as the said Assignees may think fit; and also to assent to or dissent from the Assignees paying out of the proceeds of the Bankrupt's stock, goods, and effects, certain arrears of rent, for which distresses have been executed upon the premises, and which distresses are at present waived or suspended; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees accepting of certain leases and leasehold premises, held by the Bankrupt under several lessors, the particulars of which leases will be explained at such meeting; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees employing and paying an accountant or other person as they shall think fit to assist them in examining and making out the Bankrupt's accounts, and in collecting the outstanding debts due to his estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees allowing to the said Bankrupt such reasonable sum or sums of money or other recompence, from and out of his effects, as they shall think proper, for the services and assistance he may render to them the said Assignees in the settlement and adjustment of his affairs; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery, getting in, defending, or protecting any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.
