NEW LONDON BRIDGE.

Guildhall, London, December 5, 1823.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the fourth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the rebuilding of London-bridge, and for improving and making suitable approaches thereto," the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, are authorised, empowered, and directed, without delay, to erect and build, or cause to be erected and built, a new bridge across the River Thames, in manner therein particularly mentioned; and the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons are thereby authorised and empowered to appoint one or more Committee or Committees to carry the said Act into execution; and whereas it is in and by the said Act, amongst other things, enacted, that previous to the making of any contract for the performance of any of the works to be performed by virtue or in pursuance of the said Act, notice shall be given in some of the daily newspapers, that such Committee intend to make such contract, and that all persons willing to engage therein may make proposals to the said Committee, at a certain time and place in every such notice to be specified;

Now, therefore, the Committee appointed by the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, to carry the said Act into execution, do hereby, pursuant to the said Act, give notice, that they intend to make a contract for building such bridge, and that all persons willing to engage therein may make proposals to the said Committee, who will meet at Guildhall, on Tuesday the 27th day of January next, at one o'clock in the afternoon precisely, to receive the same. Further information may be obtained at my Office, any day (Sundays excepted), between the hours of ten and three.

H. Woodthorpe, jun. Clerk of the said Committee.

Sewer's-Office, Guildhall, London, the 28th of October and 9th December 1823.

THE Commissioners of Sewers of the City of London and liberties thereof, having resolved to redeem or pay off the bonds or instruments charged on the credit of the Sunday Tolls, as far as the sum of one thousand pounds will extend, have (in order to make all the holders of the said bonds or instruments creditors in equal degree, without preference in any respect whatever), decided by way of lottery, that the following of the said bonds or instruments shall be paid off or redeemed, viz. Nos. 30, 72, 107, 203, 1, 143, 149, 156, 189, and 219. The said Commissioners hereby give notice, that the holders of the said bonds or instruments, numbered as above, may receive the several sums first advanced thereon respectively, at the Chamberlain's Office, Guildhall, on the 24th day of June next, together with all the interest which shall be due thereon to the said 24th day of June, from which day the interest on the said bonds or instruments respectively will cease.
