By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, R.

WHEREAS Our Parliament stands prorogued to Tuesday the twenty-fifth day of this instant November; We, with the advice of Our Privy Council, do hereby publish and declare, that the said Parliament shall be further prorogued, on the said twenty-fifth day of this instant November, to Tuesday the third day of February next; and We have given order to Our Chancellor of that part of Our United Kingdom called Great Britain, to prepare a commission for proroguing the same accordingly; and We do further hereby, with the advice aforesaid, declare Our Royal Will and Pleasure, that the said Parliament shall, on the said third day of February next, be held and sit for the dispatch of divers urgent and important affairs: And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs of the House of Commons, are hereby required and commanded to give their attendance accordingly, at Westminster, on the said third day of February next.

Given at Our Court at Windsor, the eighteenth day of November one thousand eight hundred and twenty-three, and in the fourth year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 18th of November 1823.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under " certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by any Order or Orders in Council, in all cases in which British vessels, of less burthen than sixty tons, are not required by law to take pilots, to exempt foreign vessels, being of less burthen than sixty tons, from taking on board a pilot to conduct them into or from any of the ports of the United Kingdom, any law, custom, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding; His Majesty, by virtue of the power vested in him by the said Act, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date of this Order, all vessels belonging to the subjects of His Majesty the King of Hanover, and being of less burthen than sixty tons, which shall enter in or clear out from any of the ports of the United Kingdom, shall be, and they are hereby exempted from taking on board a pilot to conduct them into or from any such port, in all cases where British vessels, being of less burthen than sixty tons, are not required by law to take pilots, any law, custom, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding: and the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions therein accordingly. Jas. Bullen.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 19th of September 1823.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council, bearing date the 24th day of September 1814, to establish certain regulations therein set forth, touching the trade and commerce to and from the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, and the territories and dependencies thereof; and whereas His Majesty was pleased by the said Order, amongst other things, to direct that goods, wares, or merchandise, the growth, produce, or manufacture of the countries to the eastward of the Cape of Good Hope, legally imported into the said settlement, or into the territories or dependencies thereof, might be exported from the said settlement, or the territories or dependencies thereof, to the ports of the United Kingdom, subject to the rules and regulations contained in an Act, passed in the fifty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for continuing in the East India Company, for a further term, the possession of the British territories in India, together with certain exclusive privileges; for establishing further regulations for the government of the said territories, and the better administration of justice within the same; and for regulating the trade to and from the places within the limits of the said Company's charter," or to any ports or places to which a trade in such articles was permitted to be carried on from the said settlement, or the territories or dependencies thereof, under the provisions of an Act, passed in the fifty-fourth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the further regulation of the trade to and from the places within the limits of the Charter of the East India Company," and subject to the rules and regulations in the said Act contained, provided, however, that nothing in that Order contained should extend, or be construed to extend, to permit any vessel, under the burthen of three hundred and fifty tons, to export from the said settlement, or the territories or dependencies thereof, to the ports of the United Kingdom, any articles the growth, produce, or manufacture of any countries, situated within the limits of the East India Company's Charter: And whereas by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to consolidate and amend the several laws now in force with respect to trade to and from places within the limits of the Charter of the East India Company, and to make further provisions with respect to such trade; and to amend an Act of the present session of Parliament, for the registering of vessels, so far as it relates to vessels registered in India," so much of the said Act of the fifty-third year of His said late Majesty's reign, as authorises His Majesty's subjects to carry on trade and traffic to and from the ports and places within the limits of the said Company's Charter, with all the provisions, restrictions, and limitations in the same Act contained, for the regulation of such trade, and for the disposition in the United Kingdom of all articles manufactured of silk, hair, or cotton-wool, or any mixture thereof, imported under the authority of the said last mentioned Act, from any port or place within the limits of the said Company's Charter; and the whole of the said Act, passed in the fifty-fourth year of the reign of His late Majesty, together with certain other Acts, passed in the fifty-fifth, fifty-seventh, and fifty-ninth years of His said late Majesty's reign, and an Act passed in the second year of the reign of His present Ma-

esty, all which Acts relate to trade to, from, or between ports and places within the limits of the Charter of the East India Company, have been repealed: His Majesty is pleased, in virtue of the power vested in His Majesty by several Acts, passed in the forty-seventh and forty-ninth years of His late Majesty's reign, and in the first year of His present Majesty's reign, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that so much of the said Order in Council, bearing date the 24th day of September 1814, as relates to the tonnage of vessels importing, from the said settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, its territories and dependencies, to the ports of the United Kingdom, goods, wares, and merchandise, the growth, produce, or manufacture of countries to the eastward of the said settlement; and also so much of the said Order as subjects the exportation of such goods, wares, and merchandise to the provisions of the said Acts of the fifty-third and fifty-fourth years of His late Majesty's reign, be, and the same are, hereby revoked: And His Majesty is hereby further pleased to order, that such goods, wares, and merchandise so exported, shall be subject to the provisions of the said Act of the last session of Parliament, so far as the same are applicable thereto, in like manner, as if such goods, wares, and merchandise had been exported from any port or place within the limits of the Charter of the East India Company:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

At the Court at Windsor, the 19th of September 1823,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the twenty-first of February last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder, salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Straights of Gibraltar), has expired; and whereas it is judged expedient that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service), do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the date of this Order), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Straights of Gibraltar) or ship, or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf, first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. C. C. Greville.

At the Court at Windsor, the 19th of September 1823,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to repeal certain duties of customs in Great Britain, and to grant other duties in lieu thereof; to grant certain bounties on salted provisions and silk manufactures exported; and to make more effectual regulations for collecting the duties of customs," certain duties are respectively imposed and directed to be levied on chocolate and cocoa paste of the British plantations; and cocoa nut husks, and shells; and on pepper, viz. Capsicum or Chillies, Cayenne, Guinea pepper, and long pepper; and on segars manufactured from tobacco, and on tobacco manufactured imported into Great Britain from foreign parts: And whereas His Majesty is empowered by the said Act to declare and direct by His Order in Council, that certain import duties of customs and excise (of which the duties upon the articles above enumerated form a part), shall be placed under the sole management of the Commissioners of the Customs, or under the sole management of the Commissioners of Excise, as shall be expressed and directed in such Order, and for a time to be mentioned in such Order; His Majesty having taken the same into consideration, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to declare and direct that all the several duties upon the articles above enumerated, imposed by the aforesaid Act, in the schedules A. and B. thereof, and each and every of them shall be placed and shall be under the sole management of His Majesty's Commissioners of Excise, according to the provisions and directions of the said Act, from the tenth day of October next, during the time that the aforesaid duties shall continue to be payable:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greville.

The Earl of Courtown has been pleased to appoint William Grinley, Esq. to be a Gentleman Pensioner in Ordinary to His Majesty, in the room of Henry Bromley Henrich, Esq. promoted.

Whitehall, December 2, 1823.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto John Wescomb, of Thrumpton, in the county of Nottingham, and of Langford-grove, in the county of Essex, Esq. eldest son and heir of Nicholas Wescomb, late of Langford-grove aforesaid, Esq. deceased, His royal licence and authority, that he and his issue may, in compliance with an injunction contained in the last will and testament of John Emmerton, formerly of Thrumpton aforesaid, Esq. deceased, take and use the surname of Emmerton in addition to and after his present surname of Wescomb; provided the said royal concession and declaration be recorded in His Majesty's College of Arms, otherwise the said licence and permission to be void and of none effect.

Whitehall, December 12, 1823.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about five o'clock in the morning of the 2d day of December instant, a house or warehouse, the property of Messrs. George Duncan and James Currie Duncan, of Liverpool, rope-manufacturers, situate in or near Brownlow-hill and St. Andrew-street, in Liverpool, was discovered to be on fire; and that there is reason to believe that the said premises were wilfully and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set the said premises on fire), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, the following rewards are hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, viz. FIFTY GUINEAS by the said Messrs. Duncans, and a further sum of FIFTY GUINEAS by the Eagle Insurance Company, London.

Whitehall, December 16, 1823

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that some evil-disposed person or persons did, on the night of the 27th of November last, wilfully and maliciously shoot at and wound Thomas Carter, the game-keeper of Sir Henry Philip Hoghton, Bart. near to a plantation in Hoghton, in the county of Lancaster, with intent to do him some grievous bodily harm;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually shot at the said Thomas Carter), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWENTY-FIVE GUINEAS is hereby offered by the said Sir H. P. Hoghton, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid, on conviction, by Messrs. Pilkington and Sons, Solicitors, at Preston, in the said county.

AFTER our hearty commendations—Having considered your report of the 24th ultimo, on a memorial from the Court of Directors of the East India Company, praying that their warehouses may be authorised for the deposit of goods under the Act of 4 Geo. 4, cap. 24, we do hereby approve of the warehouses in question being used for warehousing goods under the said Act, being the produce of places within their charter, from whatsoever place or by whomsoever imported; for which this shall be your warrant.

Notice to the Creditors of James Greenhill, Merchant and Corn-Dealer, in Newburgh.

Perth, December 17, 1823.

JAMES BRODIE, City-Chamberlain of Perth, hereby intimates, that his election to the office of Trustee on the sequestrated estate of the said James Greenhill has been confirmed; that the Sheriff of Fifeshire has fixed Monday the 5th and Monday the 19th of January next, within the Sheriff-Court-Room, at Cupar, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon of each day, for the public examination of the Bankrupt and others connected with his affairs; and that on Tuesday the 20th day of January next, a meeting of the Creditors will be held within the Office of John and James Miller, Writers, Perth, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon; and another meeting, at the same place and hour, on Tuesday the 3d day of February next,—all in terms of the Statute. And the Creditors are hereby required to produce in the Trustee's hands, at or previous to the said meeting, their claims and oaths of verity thereon; certifying those who fail to do so, on or before the 10th day of September next, that they will receive no share of the first dividend, under the exceptions provided for by the Statute.

Notice to the Creditors of James Smith and Sons, sometime Bankers and Merchants, in Brechin, and of James Smith, John Smith, and Colin Smith, the Individual Partners thereof.

December 16, 1823.

THE Trustee on the sequestrated estates of the said James Smith and Sons, as a Company, and as Individuals, hereby intimates to their Creditors, that having realized the whole outstanding effects belonging to the Bankrupts (so far as recoverable), a general meeting is to be held within the house of John Ross, Vintner, in Brechin, upon Tuesday the 20th day of January next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, for the purpose of determining at what period a final dividend shall be made, and the affairs of the trust brought to a close. Such Creditors as cannot attend personally, will authorize others to act and vote for them.

The Trustee further intimates, that such of the Creditors as may have omitted or neglected to lodge their claims, with affidavits thereon, will, without delay, give in the same to Charles and Alexander Thomson, Writers, in Montrose, otherwise they will be deprived of any part of the funds for division.

Notice to the Creditors of Auld and Melkicjohn, Merchants, in Inverkeithing, and of Jabez Auld, one of the Partners of said Company, as an Individual.

THE office of Trustee on said sequestrated estates having become vacant by the death of David Black, Town-Clerk, of Inverkeithing, the Lords of the First Division of the Court of Session, upon an application for two of the Creditors, and upon a minute given in for James Russel, Writer, in Dunfermline, Trustee elected in succession to the said David Black, agreeing to accept the office of Trustee, have, of this date (18th December 1823), appointed a meeting of the Creditors to be held within Laidlaw's Inn, Dunfermline, upon Thursday the 8th day of January next, for the purpose of settling and adjusting the said James Russel's caution, as directed by the Statute.—Of which meeting notice is hereby given to all concerned.

Notice to the Creditors of William Gibson, Jun. Merchant, Edinburgh.

Edinburgh, December 18, 1823.

JOHNS LOCKHART, Writer, in Edinburgh, the Trustee, intimates, that he has been directed by the Commissioners to call a general meeting of the Creditors, for the purpose of receiving their instructions as to applying to the Court for authority to accelerate a first dividend of 6s. 3d. per pound among the Creditors ranked,—the period assigned by the Statute for the Trustee making a first dividend, having expired before the heritable estate of the Bankrupt could be brought to sale, and realized, in consequence of a proposal of composition being made, which was afterwards withdrawn. The Creditors are, therefore, requested to attend a meeting, which is to be held for this purpose, and generally for the purpose of instructing the Trustee in relation to the estate, within the Trustee's Chambers, No. 26, James-Square, upon Wednesday the 7th day of January 1824, at One o'Clock Afternoon.

Meantime, states of his intromissions with the estate, up to the 13th instant, as docketed and approved of by the Commissioners, lie in the Trustee's hands, for the inspection of the Creditors.

Notice to the Creditors of Lauchlin and James Sharp, Road-Contractors, at Kinnaird, near Dunkeld, as a Company, or Joint Concern, and Lauchlan Sharp, residing at Kinnaird, and James Sharp, residing at Smiddyhaugh, the individual Partners.

Edinburgh, December 19, 1823.

THIS day the Court of Session (First Division) upon the application of the said Lauchlin and James Sharp, and Lauchlan Sharp and James Sharp, with the requisite concurrence, sequestrated their whole estates, heritable and moveable, and appointed their Creditors to meet within the Hammerman's Inn, Perth, on Friday the 2d day of January next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, to name an Interim Factor; and to meet again, at the same place and hour, on Friday the 23d of said month, to name a Trustee.
