SATURDAY, DECEMBER 27, 1823.

By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, R.

WHEREAS Our Parliament stands prorogued to Tuesday the twenty-fifth day of this instant November; We, with the advice of Our Privy Council, do hereby publish and declare, that the said Parliament shall be further prorogued, on the said twenty-fifth day of this instant November, to Tuesday the third day of February next; and We have given order to Our Chancellor of that part of Our United Kingdom called Great Britain, to prepare a commission for proroguing the same accordingly; and We do further hereby, with the advice aforesaid, declare Our Royal Will and Pleasure, that the said Parliament shall, on the said third day of February next, be held and sit for the dispatch of divers urgent and important affairs: And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs of the House of Commons, are hereby required and commanded to give their attendance accordingly, at Westminster, on the said third day of February next.

Given at Our Court at Windsor, the eighteenth day of November one thousand eight hundred and twenty-three, and in the fourth year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 18th of November 1823.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under " certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and " drawbacks on goods imported or exported in " foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign " vessels from pilotage," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by any Order or Orders in Council, in all cases in which British vessels, of less burthen than sixty tons, are not required by law to take pilots, to exempt foreign vessels, being of less burthen than sixty tons, from taking on board a pilot to conduct them into or from any of the ports of the United Kingdom, any law, custom, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding; His Majesty, by virtue of the power vested in him by the said Act, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date of this Order, all vessels belonging to the subjects of His Majesty the King of Hanover, and being of less burthen than sixty tons, which shall enter in or clear out from any of the ports of the United Kingdom, shall be, and they are hereby exempted from taking on board a pilot to conduct them into or from any such port, in all cases where British vessels, being of less burthen than sixty tons, are not required by law to take pilots, any law, custom, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding: and the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions therein accordingly.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 19th of September 1823.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council, bearing date the 24th day of September 1814, to establish certain regulations therein set forth, touching the trade and commerce to and from the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, and the territories and dependencies thereof; and whereas His Majesty was pleased by the said Order, amongst other things, to direct that goods, wares, or merchandise, the growth, produce, or manufacture of the countries to the eastward of the Cape of Good Hope, legally imported into the said settlement, or into the territories or dependencies thereof, might be exported from the said settlement, or the territories or dependencies thereof, to the ports of the United Kingdom, subject to the rules and regulations contained in an Act, passed in the fifty-third year of His late Majesty's reign; intituled "An Act for continuing in the East India Company, for a further term, the possession of the British territories in India, together with certain exclusive privileges; for establishing further regulations for the government of the said territories; and the better administration of justice within the same; and for regulating the trade to and from the places within the limits of the said Company's charter," or to any ports or places to which a trade in such articles was permitted to be carried on from the said settlement, or the territories or dependencies thereof, under the provisions of an Act, passed in the fifty-fourth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the further regulation of the trade to and from the places within the limits of the Charter of the East India Company," and subject to the rules and regulations in the said Act contained, provided, however, that nothing in that Order contained should extend, or be construed to extend, to permit any vessel, under the burthen of three hundred and fifty tons, to export from the said settlement, or the territories or dependencies thereof, to the ports of the United Kingdom, any articles the growth, produce, or manufacture of any countries, situated within the limits of the East India Company's Charter; And whereas by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to consolidate and amend the several laws now in force with respect to trade to and from places within the limits of the Charter of the East India Company, and to make further provisions with respect to such trade; and to amend an Act of the present session of Parliament, for the registering of vessels, so far as it relates to vessels registered in India," so much of the said Act of the fifty-third year of His said late Majesty's reign, as authorises His Majesty's subjects to carry on trade and traffic to and from the ports and places within the limits of the said Company's Charter, with all the provisions, restrictions, and limitations in the same Act contained, for the regulation of such trade, and for the disposition in the United Kingdom of all articles manufactured of silk, hair, or cotton-wool, or any mixture thereof, imported under the authority of the said last mentioned Act, from any port or place within the limits of the said Company's Charter; and the whole of the said Act, passed in the fifty-fourth year of the reign of His late Majesty, together with certain other Acts, passed in the fifty-fifth, fifty-seventh, and fifty-ninth years of His said late Majesty's reign, and an Act passed in the second year of the reign of His present Ma-

esty, all which Acts relate to trade to, from, or between ports and places within the limits of the Charter of the East India Company, have been repealed: His Majesty is pleased, in virtue of the power vested in His Majesty by several Acts, passed in the forty-seventh and forty-ninth years of His late Majesty's reign, and in the first year of His present Majesty's reign, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that so much of the said Order in Council, bearing date the 24th day of September 1814, as relates to the tonnage of vessels importing, from the said settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, its territories and dependencies, to the ports of the United Kingdom, goods, wares, and merchandise, the growth, produce, or manufacture of countries to the eastward of the said settlement; and also so much of the said Order as subjects the exportation of such goods, wares, and merchandise to the provisions of the said Acts of the fifty-third and fifty-fourth years of His late Majesty's reign, be, and the same are, hereby revoked: And His Majesty is hereby further pleased to order, that such goods, wares, and merchandise so exported, shall be subject to the provisions of the said Act of the last session of Parliament, so far as the same are applicable thereto, in like manner, as if such goods, wares, and merchandise had been exported from any port or place within the limits of the Charter of the East India Company:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.
C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 19th of September 1823,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the twenty-first of February last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder, salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Straights of Gibraltar), has expired; and whereas it is judged expedient that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service), do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the date of this Order), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Straights of Gibraltar) or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf, first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition; and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 25, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

At the Court at Windsor, the 19th of September 1823,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to repeal certain duties of customs in Great Britain, and to grant other duties in lieu thereof; to grant certain bounties on salted provisions and silk manufactures exported; and to make more effectual regulations for collecting the duties of customs," certain duties are respectively imposed and directed to be levied on chocolate and cocoa paste of the British plantations; and cocoa nut husks, and shells; and on pepper, viz. Capsicum or Chillies, Cayenne, Guinea pepper, and long pepper; and on segars manufactured from tobacco, and on tobacco manufactured imported into Great Britain from foreign parts; And whereas His Majesty is empowered by the said Act to declare and direct by His Order in Council, that certain import duties of customs and excise (of which the duties upon the articles above enumerated form a part), shall be placed under the sole management of the Commissioners of the Customs, or under the sole management of the Commissioners of Excise, as shall be expressed and directed in such Order; and for a time to be mentioned in such Order; His Majesty having taken the same into consideration, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to declare and direct that all the several duties upon the articles above enumerated, imposed by the aforesaid Act, in the schedules A. and B. thereof, and each and every of them shall be placed and shall be under the sole management of His Majesty's Commissioners of Excise, according to the provisions and directions of the said Act, from the tenth day of October next, during the time that the aforesaid duties shall continue to be payable:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greville.

IN pursuance of the directions of an Act, passed in the twenty-fourth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to repeal so much of two Acts, made in the tenth and fifteenth years of the reign of His present Majesty, as authorises the Speaker of the House of Commons to issue his warrant to the Clerk of the Crown for making out writs for the election of Members to serve in Parliament in the manner therein mentioned; and for substituting other provisions for the like purposes;"

I do hereby give notice, that it hath been certified to me in writing, under the hands of two Members serving in this present Parliament, that the Honourable William Eliot, late Member serving in this present Parliament for the borough of Liskeard, is become a Peer of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and to whom a writ of summons hath been issued under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom, to summon him to Parliament; and that I shall issue my warrant to the Clerk of the Crown to make out a new writ for the electing of a Member to serve in this present Parliament for the said borough of Liskeard, in the room of the said Honourable William Eliot, now a Peer of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and to whom a writ of summons hath been issued as aforesaid, at the end of fourteen days after the insertion of this notice in the London Gazette.

Given under my hand, the 26th day of December 1823,

CHARLES MANNERS SUTTON, Speaker.

December 27, 1823.By Authority of Parliament,
THOMAS NETTLESHIPP, Clerk of the Grocers' Company.

East India-House, December 23, 1823.

THE Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, do hereby give notice,

That they have received a communication from the Honourable Board of Customs, of which the following is an extract, viz.

" Gentlemen,
" Custom-House, London,
16th August 1823.

" The Lords of the Treasury having authorised us to cause the cargoes of all ships which have arrived from places within the East India Company's charter, up to the 31st December 1815 (with the exceptions of camphor refined or unrefined, lac lake or lac dye, red wood or red saunders, and also prohibited goods), to be cleared forthwith, either for home consumption or exportation, and in the event of a price not being obtained for them at a resale, equal at least to the full amount of the duties of Customs and Excise, together with the expenses thereon, that they be destroyed in the manner directed by the Act, 43d Geo. 3d. cap. 132, sect. 29, for goods warehoused under that Act.

" We, in obedience to their directions, call upon you, as required by the Act, 39th Geo. 3d. cap. 59, sect. 9, to cause such goods, wares, or merchandise, as shall have so remained in the said warehouses (with the exceptions aforesaid), to be sold, in case they shall not have been sold, and in case they shall have been sold, then to be resold, either for exportation or home consumption.

" And we request you to give public notice of our having thus called upon you, and that the goods will be disposed of according to law, unless cleared from the warehouses within two months from the date of such notice.

(Signed)

W. F. Roe.
G. Wilson.
J. Buller.
J. Williams.To the Court of Directors of the East India Company."

And the said Court of Directors hereby inform all persons whom it may concern, that, in pursuance of the above communication, they have caused lists to be prepared of all such goods, wares, and merchandise, falling within the description specified by the Board of Customs, as are now remaining in the Company's Warehouses; which lists may be inspected by any persons who shall apply to the Company's Warehouse Keepers for that purpose; and any information respecting the goods will be given by the said Warehouse Keepers to the holders of warrants or other parties interested therein. Catalogues of the goods, wares, and merchandise, which are still in a merchantable condition, will also be printed forthwith, in which the goods will be fully and particularly set forth.

And the said Court of Directors do hereby give further notice, that all the goods, wares, and merchandise, falling within the above description, which shall not be actually cleared and taken out of the East India Company's Warehouses, on or before Monday the 23d day of February 1824, will be sold or resold, as the case may be, at the Company's candle, upon Tuesday the 24th day of February 1824, at the usual hour of ten o'clock in the forenoon.
Joseph Dart, Secretary.

East India-House, December 23, 1823.

THE Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, do hereby give notice,

That the Committee of Buying and Warehouses will be ready to receive proposals in writing, sealed up, on or before Wednesday the 14th of January next, from such persons as may be willing to supply the Company with

British Copper;

And the conditions of the contract may be seen on application to the Clerk of the said Committee, with whom the proposals must be left before eleven o'clock in the forenoon of the said 14th January, after which hour the Committee will not receive any tender.

Joseph Dart, Secretary.

York, December 17, 1823.

THE Creditors of Grace Eliza Norton, late of Sawley-Hall, in the County of York, Widow, deceased, are requested to send the particulars and amount of their several demands, and the nature of their securities, to Mr. Robert Smithson, Attorney at Law, York, one of her Trustees and Executors.

THE Creditors of Thomas Cutting, late of Kesgrave, in the County of Suffolk, Farmer, deceased, are requested to meet at the Coach and Horses Inn, in Ipswich, in the said County, on Friday the 2d day of January next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, for the purpose of nominating a proper person, to be appointed by the Court of Chancery, to prove the amount of their debts under a Commission against James Thorndike, of Ipswich, in the County of Suffolk, Cheese and Butter-Factor, Dealer and Chapman, who was one of the Executors of the said Thomas Cutting, and to receive such dividend or dividends thereon as will be payable from the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt.

CARMARTHENSHIRE.

TO be sold by auction, at the Castle Inn, in the Town of Llandovery, in the said County, on Saturday the 10th day of January next, between the hours of Two and Four o'Clock in the Afternoon, by order of the major part of the Commissioners named in a Commission of Bankrupt issued against Samuel Davies, of Llandovery aforesaid, Grocer, subject to such conditions of sale as shall be then produced;

All those several freehold dwelling-houses and out-houses, with the appurtenances, situate in Stone-Street and Heol-darygeRddi, in the said Town of Llandovery, in the several occupations of the said Samuel Davies, Elinor Davies, Widow, and David Davies, Blacksmith.

For a view of the premises apply to the said Samuel Davies, and for particulars apply to Mr. Wade, 3, Queen-Square, Bristol, or to Mr. John Morgan, Attorney at Law, Llandovery, if by letter, post paid.

IN THE EXCHEQUER.

Pearson and others against Collett and others.

TO be peremptorily sold, on Wednesday the 21st day of January 1824, pursuant to a Decree of the Court of Exchequer, made in this Cause, before Richard Richards, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, No. 17, Mitre-Court-Buildings, Inner-Temple, London;

A very valuable freehold tythe free estate, containing iron and coal mines, called Field Head (formerly advertised to be sold early in this month), situate in the Township of Dodworth, and Parish of Silkstone, in the County of York, within three miles of the Town of Barnsley, in the West Riding of the same County, late the estate of William Parker, Esq. deceased, containing 200 acres or thereabouts;

A valuable bed of ironstone, known by the name of the Tankersley Mine, and also a valuable bed of coal, called the Furnace Coal, and, as it is understood, a valuable bed of coal, called the Silkstone Coal, lie under the greater part of this estate, and will be included in the purchase. There is likewise understood to be in the roof of the Furnace Coal, a thin bed of ironstone, which would well repay the expence of getting that bed of coal.

On the estate also are erected a furnace, blast engine, casting-house, dwelling-house, and counting-house, workmen's cottages, workshops, and other buildings, which are at a convenient distance from the Barusley Canal and Barnley Bridge.

The estate may be seen on application to Joseph Ingham on the premises; and particulars may be had (gratis) at the said Master's Office; also of Messrs. J. and J. Wheat, Solicitors, Sheffield; Mr. Knowles, Solicitor, New-Inn, London; Mr. Robert Hoyland; Solicitor, Brierley, near Pontefract; Messrs. Perkins and Frampton; Solicitors, Gray's-Inn, London; Messrs. Clark and Shepherd, Solicitors, Barnsley; and of Messrs. Collett, Wimburn, and Collett, Solicitors, Chancery-Lane, London, at whose office, as well as at the above offices in Sheffield and Barnsley, a map of the estate may be seen.

TO be sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause of Gray v. Lord Huntingfield, with the approbation of Samuel Compton Cox, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Public Sale Room, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery Lane, London, on Thursday the 29th day of January 1824, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, in two lots;

Three fourth parts of the Manor called Trewarne Haile Tyasas, as being formerly part of the Manor of Tywartine, alias Trewarne Haile, with the fines, quit rents, and toll tin; and also 162 tin bounds and shares of tin bounds, within the Parishes of St. Agnes and Perran, in Zebulo, in the County of Cornwall.

Printed particulars whereof may be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London; of Mr. Crosland, Solicitor, Old Broad-Street; and of Messrs. S. and R. Wadson, Solicitors, Austin-Friars, London; of Mr. Scott, Solicitor, Helston; of Mr. J. W. Chilcott, Solicitor, Truro; and of Mr. Philip Roberts, Saint Agnes, in Cornwall; at Pearce's Hotel, Truro; at the Bush Tavern, Bristol; and at the White Hart Inn, Bath.

TO be sold, pursuant to a Decree and subsequent Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause of Nicholson versus Watdie, with the approbation of Francis Paul Stratford, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court;

Two dwelling-houses and premises, situate at Dalston, in the County of Cumberland, in the occupation of tenants at will, the property of Thomas Stubbs, deceased.

The time and place of sale will shortly be advertised, when printed particulars may be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London; of Messrs. Helder, Solicitors, 17, Clement's-Inn, London; of Mr. Dobinson, Solicitor, Carlisle; and at the place of sale.

TO be peremptorily re-sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, bearing date the 6th day of December 1823, made in a cause FitzJohn against FitzJohn, with the approbation of Sir John Simeon, Baronet, one of the Masters of the said Court, at the White Horse Inn, in Baldock, in the County of Hertford, on Friday the 9th day of January 1824, at Eleven of the Clock in the Forenoon, in one lot;

A valuable freehold estate, consisting of a convenient dwelling-house, with a barn, stables, coach-house, and other out-offices, yard, garden, and excellent malting, capable of wetting about forty quarters, with large barley and malt lofts, and upwards of twenty-four acres of rich pasture and arable land, situate in or near the Town of Baldock aforesaid.

Particulars may be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane; of Messrs. Milne and Parry, Solicitors, Temple, London; and of Messrs. Nicholson and Hawkins, Solicitors, Hertford.

WHeteas by a Decree of the Court of Chancery of the County Palatine of Lancaster, bearing date the 9th day of January 1823, and made in a Cause Jenkinson and others against Tyson and others, it was amongst other things referred to the Registrar of the said Court, to enquire and certify who were the next of kin of William Fléniitig, late of Little Arrow, within the Parish of Ulverstone, in the said County, Yeoman, living at the time of his decease; and whether any and which of such next of kin were living, and if any of them were dead when they respectively died; and who were the personal representatives of such of the said next of kin as might be dead since the death of the said William Fleming; and it was also referred to the said Registrar to take an account of the debts and funeral expenses of the said William Fleming.—All persons claiming to be such next of kin and the personal representatives of such deceased next of kin, are to come in and substantiate their claims, and the Creditors of the said William Fleming are to come in and prove their debts before William Shawe, Esq. the Registrar of the said Court, at his Office in Preston, in the said County, on or before the 7th day of February 1824, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.
