SATURDAY, JANUARY 3, 1824.

By the KING.
A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, R.

WHEREAS Our Parliament stands prorogued to Tuesday the twenty-fifth day of this instant November; We, with the advice of Our Privy Council, do hereby publish and declare, that the said Parliament shall be further prorogued, on the said twenty-fifth day of this instant November, to Tuesday the third day of February next; and We have given order to Our Chancellor of that part of Our United Kingdom called Great Britain, to prepare a commission for proroguing the same accordingly; and We do further hereby, with the advice aforesaid, declare Our Royal Will and Pleasure, that the said Parliament shall, on the said third day of February next, be held and sit for the dispatch of divers urgent and important affairs: And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs of the House of Commons, are hereby required and commanded to give their attendance accordingly, at Westminster, on the said third day of February next.

Given at Our Court at Windsor, the eighteenth day of November one thousand eight hundred and twenty-three, and in the fourth year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 18th of November 1823.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under " certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by any Order or Orders in Council, in all cases in which British vessels, of less burthen than sixty tons, are not required by law to take pilots, to exempt foreign vessels, being of less burthen than sixty tons, from taking on board a pilot to conduct them into or from any of the ports of the United Kingdom, any law, custom, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding; His Majesty, by virtue of the power vested in him by the said Act, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date of this Order, all vessels belonging to the subjects of His Majesty the King of Hanover, and being of less burthen than sixty tons, which shall enter in or clear out from any of the ports of the United Kingdom, shall be, and they are hereby exempted from taking on board a pilot to conduct them into or from any such port, in all cases where British vessels, being of less burthen than sixty tons, are not required by law to take pilots, any law, custom, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding: and the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions therein accordingly.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 19th of September 1823.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council, bearing date the 24th day of September 1814, to establish certain regulations therein set forth, touching the trade and commerce to and from the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, and the territories and dependencies thereof; and whereas His Majesty was pleased by the said Order, amongst other things, to direct that goods, wares, or merchandise, the growth, produce, or manufacture of the countries to the eastward of the Cape of Good Hope, legally imported into the said settlement, or into the territories or dependencies thereof, might be exported from the said settlement, or the territories or dependencies thereof, to the ports of the United Kingdom, subject to the rules and regulations contained in an Act, passed in the fifty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for continuing in the East India Company, for a further term, the possession of the British territories in India, together with certain exclusive privileges; for establishing further regulations for the government of the said territories, and the better administration of justice within the same; and for regulating the trade to and from the places within the limits of the said Company's charter," or to any ports or places to which a trade in such articles was permitted to be carried on from the said settlement, or the territories or dependencies thereof, under the provisions of an Act, passed in the fifty-fourth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the further regulation of the trade to and from the places within the limits of the Charter of the East India Company," and subject to the rules and regulations in the said Act contained, provided, however, that nothing in that Order contained should extend, or be construed to extend, to permit any vessel, under the burthen of three hundred and fifty tons, to export from the said settlement, or the territories or dependencies thereof, to the ports of the United Kingdom, any articles the growth, produce, or manufacture of any countries, situated within the limits of the East India Company's Charter: And whereas by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to consolidate and amend the several laws now in force with respect to trade to and from places within the limits of the Charter of the East India Company, and to make further provisions with respect to such trade; and to amend an Act of the present session of Parliament, for the registering of vessels, so far as it relates to vessels registered in India," so much of the said Act of the fifty-third year of His said late Majesty's reign, as authorises His Majesty's subjects to carry on trade and traffic to and from the ports and places within the limits of the said Company's Charter, with all the provisions, restrictions, and limitations in the same Act contained, for the regulation of such trade, and for the disposition in the United Kingdom of all articles manufactured of silk, hair, or cotton-wool, or any mixture thereof, imported under the authority of the said last mentioned Act, from any port or place within the limits of the said Company's Charter; and the whole of the said Act, passed in the fifty-fourth year of the reign of His late Majesty, together with certain other Acts, passed in the fifty-fifth, fifty-seventh, and fifty-ninth years of His said late Majesty's reign, and an Act passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty, all which Acts relate to trade to, from, or between ports and places within the limits of the Charter of the East India Company, have been repealed: His Majesty is pleased, in virtue of the power vested in His Majesty by several Acts, passed in the forty-seventh and forty-ninth years of His late Majesty's reign, and in the first year of His present Majesty's reign, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that so much of the said Order in Council, bearing date the 24th day of September 1814, as relates to the tonnage of vessels importing, from the said settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, its territories and dependencies, to the ports of the United Kingdom, goods, wares, and merchandise, the growth, produce, or manufacture of countries to the eastward of the said settlement; and also so much of the said Order as subjects the exportation of such goods, wares, and merchandise to the provisions of the said Acts of the fifty-third and fifty-fourth years of His late Majesty's reign, be, and the same are, hereby revoked: And His Majesty is hereby further pleased to order, that such goods, wares, and merchandise so exported, shall be subject to the provisions of the said Act of the last session of Parliament, so far as the same are applicable thereto; in like manner, as if such goods, wares, and merchandise had been exported from any port or place within the limits of the Charter of the East India Company:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

At the Court at Windsor, the 19th of September 1823,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the twenty-first of February last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder, salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar), has expired; and whereas it is judged expedient that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service), do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the date of this Order), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar) or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf, first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain: C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 19th of September 1823,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to repeal certain duties of customs in Great Britain, and to grant other duties in lieu thereof; to grant certain bounties on salted provisions and silk manufactures exported; and to make more effectual regulations for collecting the duties of customs," certain duties are respectively imposed and directed to be levied on chocolate and cocoa paste of the British plantations; and cocoa nut husks, and shells; and on pepper, viz. Capsicum or Chillies, Cayenne, Guinea pepper, and long pepper; and on segars manufactured from tobacco, and on tobacco manufactured imported into Great Britain from foreign parts. And whereas His Majesty is empowered by the said Act to declare and direct by His Order in Council, that certain import duties of customs and excise (of which the duties upon the articles above enumerated form a part), shall be placed under the sole management of the Commissioners of the Customs, or under the sole management of the Commissioners of Excise, as shall be expressed and directed in such Order, and for a time to be mentioned in such Order; His Majesty having taken the same into consideration, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to declare and direct that all the several duties upon the articles above enumerated, imposed by the aforesaid Act, in the schedules A. and B. thereof, and each and every of them shall be placed and shall be under the sole management of His Majesty's Commissioners of Excise, according to the provisions and directions of the said Act, from the tenth day of October next, during the time that the aforesaid duties shall continue to be payable:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 21st of July 1823,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the third year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade between His Majesty's possessions in America and the West Indies; and other places in America and the West Indies," certain articles enumerated in the schedule B annexed to the said Act, are permitted to be imported into certain ports in His Majesty's said dominions; and whereas some of the said articles are subject, on importation into the said ports, to the payment of certain duties, according to the rates set forth in schedule C annexed to the said Act; and whereas by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, whenever it shall be deemed expedient, to levy and charge any additional duty or duties of Customs, or to withhold the payment of any drawbacks, bounties, or allowances upon any goods, wares, or merchandise imported into or exported from the United Kingdom, or imported into or exported from any of His Majesty's dominions, in vessels belonging to any foreign country, in which higher duties shall have been levied, or smaller drawbacks, bounties, or allowances granted upon goods, wares, or merchandise when imported into or exported from such foreign country in British vessels, than are levied or granted upon similar goods, wares, or merchandise when imported or exported in vessels of such country, provided always that such additional or countervailing duties so to be imposed, and drawbacks, bounties, or allowances so to be withheld as aforesaid, shall not be of greater amount than may be deemed fairly to countervail the difference of duty, drawback, bounty, or allowance paid or granted on goods, wares, or merchandise imported into or exported from such foreign country in British vessels, more or less than the duties, drawbacks, bounties, or allowances there charged or granted upon similar goods, wares, or merchandise imported into or exported from such foreign country in vessels of such country; and whereas British vessels entering the ports of the United States, from the ports of His Majesty's possessions in America, or the West Indies, with cargoes consisting of articles of the growth, produce, or manufacture of the said possessions, are charged with a duty of one dollar per ton for tonnage duties and light money, and a discriminating duty of ten per cent. is charged on the cargoes of such vessels, to which vessels of the United States, and cargoes of the same description, entering the ports of those States from the ports of the said dominions are not subject; His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in him by the said last recited Act, and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date of this Order there shall be charged on all vessels of the United States which shall enter any of the ports of His Majesty's possessions in America, or the West Indies, with articles of the growth, production, or manufacture of the said States, a duty of four shillings and three pence sterling for each and every ton burthen of such vessels, equal (as nearly as may be) to ninety-four cents of the money of the United States, and being the difference between the tonnage duty payable by vessels of the United States and British vessels entering any of the ports of the said United States, from any ports of His Majesty's dominions in America or the West Indies above enumerated, and further an addition of ten per cent. upon the duties set forth in table C above referred to, on any of the articles therein enumerated, which may be imported in any such vessel of the said States; such duties to be levied, collected, and applied in the same manner, and to the same purposes, as the duties levied under the authority of the said Act of the third year of His Majesty's reign: and the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 6th of June 1823.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade between His Majesty's possessions in America and the West Indies, and other places in America and the West Indies," it is enacted, that if His Majesty shall deem it expedient to extend the provisions of the said Act to any port or ports not enumerated in the schedule marked A, annexed to the said Act, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, to extend the provisions of the said Act to such port or ports; His Majesty is thereupon pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, that from and after the passing of this Order, all articles permitted by the said Act to be imported into and exported from the ports enumerated in schedule A annexed to the said Act, shall and may be in like manner imported into and exported from the port of Old Harbour, in the island of Jamaica, on payment of the duties, and subject to the rules, regulations, penalties, and forfeitures enacted by the said Act:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Summons by Edict.

BY virtue of authority received from His Excellency Henry Beard, Esq. Lieutenant-Governor and Commander in Chief, in and over the Colony Barbice, and its dependencies, &c. &c. &c. President in all Courts and Colleges within the same, &c. &c. &c. dated the 23d September 1823;

I, the undersigned, at the instance of Colin Douglas, for the late firm of Douglas, Galloway and Co, do hereby, for the first time, summon by edict all known and unknown Creditors and Claimants against the proceeds of plantation Letter Kenny, cum annexis, and slaves, situate on the Corentyn coast of this Colony, sold at execution sale on the 27th January last past, to appear before the bar of the Honourable Court of Civil Justice of this Colony, at their Session, to be held in the month of January 1824, and following days, for the purpose of there rendering in their respective claims, properly substantiated, and in due form and time, against the proceeds of the above-named plantation Letter Kenny, cum annexis, and slaves.—Whereas in default of which, and after the expiration of the fourth and last edictal, will be proceeded against the non-appearsers according to law.

This first proclamation published as customary.—Barbice, 2d October 1823.

K. FRANCKEN, First Marshal.

WHEREAS by an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause wherein His Majesty's Attorney General is informant, and George Maule, Esq. is plaintiff, and James Lowe is defendant, it was referred to William Courtenay, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to enquire whether there was or were any, and (if any), what next of kin of the testatrix, Mary Hambrough, in the said Order named, late of Stepney-Green, in the County of Middlesex, Spinster (who died on or about the 25th day of November 1816), living at her death, and if any of them are since dead, who are their legal personal representatives.—All persons claiming to be such next of kin of the said Mary Hambrough, or the representatives of such of them as are since dead, are forthwith to come in and make out and prove their kindred or representation before the said Master Courtenay, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Order.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Charles Tomes, late of Lincoln's-Inn-Fields, in the County of Middlesex, Scrivener, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Wednesday the 7th day of January instant, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of the said Bankrupt's furniture, estate or effects, by public auction or private contract, as they shall deem expedient; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery or protection of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any questions, accounts, matters, or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against William John Arnold, of Idol-Lane, Tower-Street, in the City of London, Wine and Spirit-Broker, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignee of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Monday the 12th day of January instant, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee selling the Bankrupt's furniture to the said Bankrupt, or any other person, at a price to be agreed on at the said meeting; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Robert Simpson Hall, late of Bank-Buildings, in the City of London, Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Wednesday the 7th day of January instant, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling or disposing of, by private contract, one quarter part or share of the ship Barton, late belonging to the Bankrupt, to such person or persons, and for such sum or sums of money as the said Assignees shall in their discretion think fit.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Luke Evill, late of the Parish of Walcot, Money-Scrivener, Bill-Broker, Dealer and Chapman, are desired to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on the 17th day of January instant, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon precisely, at the Castle and Ball Inn and Tavern, in the City of Bath, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees compromising with Me-srs. Samuel and William Slack a suit instituted by the said Assignees, to recover the possession of a messuage or tenement in Grosvenor-Place, in the said Parish of Walcot; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees appointing an agent at Bourdeaux, to act for them, and in their names, in and about the collecting and recovering of a debt due to the said Bankrupt's estate from the late Viscountesse de Richemont and the Duke de Harcourt, with full powers to such agent to compound with the said Duke and the representatives of the said Viscountesse, and take a less sum for the same, if to such agent it should be deemed advisable, or to the sending out from this country an agent duly authorised for the sole purpose to settle and adjust the said debt: and the Creditors are requested to meet upon other special matters.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against William Heydon, late of South Audley-Street, in the Parish of St. George, Hannover-Square, in the County of Middlesex, Painter and Plumber, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Thursday the 8th day of January instant, at Two of the Clock in the Afternoon, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to consider a proposal for the Assignees assigning all their, or the Bankrupt's right and title, to certain leasehold premises, in Upper Seymour-Street, Portman-Square, upon such terms as shall then be stated; and also as to prosecuting a certain action which will also then be stated.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against William Morgan, now or late of the City of Bristol, Victualler, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the surviving Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Monday the 18th day of January instant, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, at the Offices of John Kerie Habersfield, Solicitor, situate in Nicholas Street, in the City of Bristol, to assent to or dissent from authorizing and empowering the said Assignees carrying into full and complete effect on behalf and for the benefit of the Creditors, an arrangement which has been long pending touching the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; and to their selling and disposing of the effects and property so claimed by them of and from certain persons to be named at the said meeting, as part of the estate and property of the said Bankrupt, or of the said Bankrupt in right of his wife under the deed of settlement made on the marriage of the said Bankrupt with his present wife; and to the said Assignees executing and delivering all such deeds and assurances as shall be considered to be necessary to carry such arrangement into effect; and also to their releasing and discharging certain persons therein-named, as the trustees of the aforesaid deed of settlement, and their trust estates and premises, from all claims and demands which the said Assignees have or claim thereon, or on the said Trustees or otherwise howsoever, and ratifying and confirming all and whatsoever matters and things which have already been done by the said Assignees in and about the premises; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Robert Coit, of Cow Cross-Street, West Smithfield, in the County of Middlesex, Carrier and Leather-Cutter, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Tuesday the 6th day of January instant, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions at law, suits in equity, or other proceedings, for or relating to the recovery of any part of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt; or otherwise to their compounding, submitting to arbitration, or giving time to debtors, or taking any promissory notes, acceptances, bills of exchange, or other security from them for the payment, or on account of their debts, within a given time, or otherwise, and agreeing any other matter or thing relating thereto; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying to the provisional Assignee, petitioning Creditor, or other person, any legal or other expences, of what nature or kind soever, he or they may have been put unto or expended in or about, or concerning, or in anywise relating to the prosecution of this Commission, or incident thereto, or which he or they might previously have incurred in and about the arresting or apprehension of the said Bankrupt, or otherwise, for the benefit of his estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying off, compounding, or otherwise arranging with any mortgagee or mortgagees of any part of the said Bank-rupt's estate, or with any person or persons having a legal or equitable lien on the lease and other deeds relating to the house and premises, in Cow Cross-Street aforesaid, in which the said Bankrupt lately resided; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling, either by public auction or private contract, at appraisement or valuation, or otherwise, the interest of the said Assignees in such deeds and writings relating to the said premises in Cow Cross-Street aforesaid, either jointly with, or separately from such mortgagee, or person or persons having any such lien thereon as aforesaid, or their abandoning any such interest therein; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing, either by public sale or private contract as aforesaid, either together or in parcels, the stock in trade, fixtures, and other effects of the said Bankrupt, or any part or parts thereof, or continuing the said trade by and out of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, and for that purpose employing the necessary shopmen, assistants, and servants; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees employing an accountant, or other person or persons, at the expence of the estate, to assist in the investigation of the Bankrupt's books of account, and to make up, balance, and adjust the same, and to their employing such accountant or some other person or persons, to collect the outstanding debts and effects due to the said estate, and to pay such accountant or other person such sum or sums of money by way of compensation as may be deemed expedient by the said Assignees, and to their employing such accountant or other person as aforesaid, without taking any security for the due accounting, for any sum or sums of money to be received or collected by him or them; also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying in full the wages due to the shopmen and servants of the said Bankrupt, or to such of them as they shall think proper; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Richard Grace, of Fenchurch-Street, in the City of London, Hat-Manufacturer, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Wednesday the 7th day of January instant, at Twelve of the Clock at Noon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees accepting a proposal made for the purchase of all the stock in trade, fixtures, furniture, agreement for a lease, articles and other goods and chattels of the said Bankrupt, for the sum whereat the same have been valued by the sworn appraiser employed under the said Commission to take the inventory thereof; and also of the good debts due to the said Bankrupt, at the sum of fifteen shillings in the pound, paying one half of the amount thereof forthwith, and securing the payment of the remainder thereof at the end of six calendar months, and in case the Creditors shall assent to the same proposal, then to authorise the Assignees to do all things necessary to carry the same into effect, but in case the Creditors shall dissent from the said proposal, then to authorise the said Assignees to sell and dispose of the stock in trade, fixtures, furniture, agreement for a lease, goods and chattels, and other articles of the said Bankrupt, separately, or together, by public auction or private contract, at such prices, on such credit, and on such security, as they shall approve; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees being authorised to commence, prosecute or defend any actions at law, or suits in equity, for the recovery, defence or preservation of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise arrange any debt, claim, matter or thing relating thereto; and also to assent to or dissent from the payment by the said Assignees, in full or in part, of the salaries and wages of the clerks, shopmen, and servants of the said Bankrupt; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees being authorised to appoint and employ such agents, accountants, clerks, servants, or such other persons as they shall think proper, to arrange and settle the accounts and concerns of the said Bankrupt, and to complete and dispose of the unmanufactured or manufactured stock of the said Bankrupt, either on the premises occupied by the said Bankrupt or elsewhere, and to purchase and pay out of the said Bankrupt's estate, for such articles as may be necessary for the purposes of completing and disposing of such stock; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees appointing and employing such agents, accountants, clerks, servants, or other persons, as they shall think proper, to collect and give discharges for the outstanding debts due to the estate of the said Bankrupt, and to pay or allow to all or any of the persons so appointed and employed, out of the said Bankrupt's estate, such salary, commission, remuneration, or compensation, for their respective services as the said Assignees shall think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees contesting a claim made by the father of the said Bankrupt to part of his household furniture and effects being on the premises at Mile End, occupied by the said Bankrupt; and on other special affairs.
