Vienna, Jan. 31. The Treaty of Alliance, Negotiated by the Baron Leydel, between the Emperor and the Elector of Bavaria, is, it's said, concluded, and an Express has been sent to Municken to give his Electoral Highness an Account of it. The Preparations for the War are made here with great application, that the Imperial Army may be early in the Field; The Emperor will be himself at the Rendezvous, which is appointed to be the beginning of April. The Letters we receive from Hungary Advise, That the Turks continue to have an Eye upon the Island Schuz, and that we may expect to hear very quickly that they have made a fresh attempt upon it; That Count Teckley was preparing to meet the States of Upper-Hungary at Caschaw, and that he gave out, the chief design of his calling them together, was to give them an opportunity to take such Resolutions as might preserve the Peace between them and the Turks, and that at the same time Count Teckley was Concerting with the Turkish Bassa's, the Preparations for the next Campaign.

Ratisbonne, Feb. 3. The Term which the French King allowed the Count de Crecy to receive the Proposals of the Empire in, being expired, nothing can be done here upon those Resolutions of the Dyet to Treat with him, till he receive new Instructions from the King his Master; In order to the receiving of which, he has, as we understand, sent an Express to acquaint his Majesty with the said Resolutions of the Dyet, communicated to him by the Imperial Commissioner, the Bishop of Aichstadt, and with the Declaration of the Electoral Colledge, That they do adhere to their Conclusion of the 12th of December, of which he received an Account from the Deputy of Mentz by Order of the said Colledge, together with an Authentick Copy of the said Conclusion of the 12th of December; wherein they declared, That they thought it necessary at this time that a firm Peace should be established.

blished between the Empire and the Crown of France, that the Proposals which the Most Christian King had made in order thereunto, ought to be accepted, if better could not be obtained.

Frankfort, Feb. 5. At Ratisbona they are with some impatience expecting the return of the Countess which the Count de Crecy has sent to Paris, the Term that was given by the French King expiring the first Instant. From Vienna they write, That the Emperor had appointed a Rendezvous of his Troops the latter end of the next month, at which he intended to be present, and afterwards to remove to Prague; That Count Teckley's Secretary continued still at Vienna, but without power to do anything, as if he was sent thither only to observe the motions of that Court; That the Count de Saphira was returned to Count Teckley, but without any likelihood of effecting any thing with him, in case what is said of his having obliged himself by a fifth Engagement to take the Field with the Turks, be true, as there is great ground to believe it is.

Cologne, Feb. 9. The Commonalty of this City grow very disorderly, and a great Commotion is feared. The Alliance between the Emperor and the Elector of Bavaria is concluded. The Troops of the Circles of Pranconia and the Upper Rhine have Orders to be in a readiness to march on the 16 Instant. From Strasbourg they write of the fifth Instant, That one of the Count de Crecy's Secretaries was passed through the City in his way to Paris.

Hague, Feb. 16. The States General have received a Letter from the Princes of East Frizeland, giving them an Account of the Attempt which the Imperial Troops had made upon Uredembourg, and of their having quitted it upon her Assembling the Militia of the County under the Command of Major Lintel. The States have likewise written to the said Princes and to the States of that Country, very earnestly exhorting them to accommodate their Differences, and thereby preserve the peace and quiet of their Country. The Secur de Roy is arrived here in the Quality of Envoy Extraordinary from the Duke of Nenburg, his business is, to solicit the payment of the Arrears of Subsidies due to that Prince from this State since the last War. We are told that the Resolution of this State to fit out a Squadron of 14 Men of War, for the assistance (as it's not doubted) of the Suedes, does give the King of Denmark a great deal of jealousy, and that his Ministers have expressed it to the Resident of this State at Copenhagen. Monsieur Sammerdyke, who, we formerly told you, was the choice of to go to Surinam, as Governor of that Colony, is still treating with the West-India Company, concerning several matters which he pretends to have done; He demands among other things 800 Soldiers for the defence of the Colony, which, it's believed, will be granted him.

Paris, Feb. 17. The Kings Journey for Compeigne is fixed, as we have already told you, for the beginning of the next month, and the Troops of the Household will, it's said, begin to march the next week; In the mean time the Court at Versailles continues to be entertained with Balls, Maquets, &c. Here in Town some Disorders happen'd the last week at a Ball, and to prevent the like for the future, the King has Commanded, That no Person that is Muffled shall wear any Arms, or suffer his Servants to wear any.

London, Feb. 10. The Right Honourable the Lord North and Grey having been highly Scandalized in a Pamphlet Entituled, A Modest Vindication, &c. and his Lordship having for the same brought an Action of Scandalum Magnatum against Mr. Adam Elliot, it was this day Tried at the Guildhall before my Lord Chief Justice Saunders, where it being proved, that Mr. Elliot was Author of the said Libel, upon his Submission and Acknowledgement of the Wrong he had done his Lordship, and asking Pardon of the King and his Lordship upon his Knees in the Court for the same, his Lordship was pleased to remit the farther Prosecution, and to forgive the Offence.

Whitehall, Feb. 12. His Majesty has been graciously pleas'd to grant to Robert Wadman Esq; and his Heirs, a Fair to be kept yearly for ever on the 25th and 26th days of September, for the buying and selling of all sorts of Cattel and Merchandizes, on a certain place called Comfess-Court-Fields, in the Parish of, and near adjoining to the Town of Amesbury, in the County of Wilts.
