The Claimants for the English Catholic College have declared their intention of appealing to His Majesty's Council against the award of rejection made in their case, and the Commissioners have accordingly resolved, that if on such appeal the award of the Board shall be affirmed, they will proceed forthwith, in application of the principle on which that award is founded, to the rejection of the Claims of the other Catholic Establishments, unless the Claimants for such other Establishments should be enabled to shew, from the particular nature of their cases, that such principle is not applicable to them, and they have farther resolved, that if, on the contrary, their award of rejection be rescinded, they will then proceed forthwith to the examination and adjudication of each particular case of the said Catholic Establishments.

The Commissioners have since paid a farther dividend of 10 per cent. on all such sums, according to their notification in the Gazette of the said 19th July last, thus making the whole amount paid on sums found to be due to be 33.6363 per cent.
