By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, R.

WHEREAS Our Parliament stands prorogued to Tuesday the twenty-fifth day of this instant November; We, with the advice of Our Privy Council, do hereby publish and declare, that the said Parliament shall be further prorogued, on the said twenty-fifth day of this instant November, to Tuesday the third day of February next; and We have given order to Our Chancellor of that part of Our United Kingdom called Great Britain, to prepare a commission for proroguing the same accordingly; and We do further hereby, with the advice aforesaid, declare Our Royal Will and Pleasure, that the said Parliament shall, on the said third day of February next, be held and sit for the dispatch of divers urgent and important affairs: And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs of the House of Commons, are hereby required and commanded to give their attendance accordingly, at Westminster, on the said third day of February next.

Given at Our Court at Windsor, the eighteenth day of November one thousand eight hundred and twenty-three, and in the fourth year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 18th of November 1823.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under " certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and " drawbacks on goods imported or exported in " foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign " vessels from pilotage," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by any Order or Orders in Council, in all cases in which British vessels, of less burthen than sixty tons, are not required by law to take pilots, to exempt foreign vessels, being of less burthen than sixty tons, from taking on board a pilot to conduct them into or from any of the ports of the United Kingdom, any law, custom, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding; His Majesty, by virtue of the power vested in him by the said Act, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date of this Order, all vessels belonging to the subjects of His Majesty the King of Hanover, and being of less burthen than sixty tons, which shall enter in or clear out from any of the ports of the United Kingdom, shall be, and they are hereby exempted from taking on board a pilot to conduct them into or from any such port, in all cases where British vessels, being of less burthen than sixty tons, are not required by law to take pilots, any law, custom, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding: and the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions therein accordingly.

William Edward Powell, Esq. to be Lieutenant-Colonel-Commandant. Dated 15th November 1823.

John William Lewis, Esq. to be Major. Dated as above.

Crown-Office, January 27, 1824.

MEMBER returned to serve in this present PARLIAMENT.

Borough of Liskeard.

The Honourable Edward Granville Eliot, commonly called Lord Eliot, of Port Eliot, in the county of Cornwall, in the room of the Honourable William Eliot, now a Peer of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

Whitehall, January 17, 1824

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about seven o'clock in the afternoon of the 7th day of January instant, a warehouse, belonging to Messrs. George Duncan and James Currie Duncan, of Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, Rope-Makers, situate in or near Brownlow-hill and St. Andrew-street, in Liverpool aforesaid, was discovered to be on fire, which totally consumed the same, and also a flour-mill adjoining, belonging to the said George Duncan, in the occupation of Thomas Middlehurst;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually set fire to the said premises), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof

GEORGE CANNING.

And, as a further encouragement, the following rewards are hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence, viz.

ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS, by the said George Duncan and James Currie Duncan; and

ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS, by the Eagle Insurance Office in London.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill for lighting with gas the city of Aberdeen, or parish of St. Nicholas, as well as the suburbs of said city, situated within the said parish of St. Nicholas, and the parish of Old Macliar, both in the county of Aberdeen.

Aberdeen, 17th January 1824.

NOTICE is hereby given, that it is intended to apply to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill for erecting a patent wrought iron bar bridge of suspension upon and over the River Thames and the adjoining lands and premises, for carriages, carts, waggons, horses, cattle, and foot passengers, and for making the necessary roads and communications thereto; such intended bridge, lands, premises, roads, and communications, to pass over and lying in the Waters of the Thames within the Conservancy of the City of London and the several parishes of St. Botolph, Aldgate, and St. Catherine near the Tower, in the county of Middlesex; and St. John, Horselydown, and St. Mary Magdalen, Bermondsey, in the county of Surrey; and the height of the said bridge to admit of ships and vessels to pass under it, at spring tides, without striking or lowering their masts.

Frederick's-place, Old Jewry.*

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the fifty-sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for enclosing lands, in the parish of Whiston, in the county of York," it is, amongst other things, enacted as follows, "That the said Commissioners shall, and are hereby required to inquire into and ascertain from the London Gazette, and by such other ways and means as they shall think proper, what has been the average price of good marketable wheat, in the county of York, during the term of seven years next preceding the first day of January now next ensuing; and shall in and by their award ascertain, and distinctly set forth, what quantity of such wheat shall in their judgement, according to such average prices, be equal in value to such yearly rents or sums of monies as are made to issue and become payable out of the said commons and ancient inclosures, within the manor of Whiston aforesaid, by the several owners or occupiers thereof; and it shall and may be lawful, as well for the said Rector and his successors, as for any one or more of the said owners and proprietors of lands and estates, subject to the payment of the said annual rents or sums of money respectively, who shall be assessed to the poor's rate at the sum of one hundred pounds and upwards, at their respective proper expence, by writing, under their respective hands, to apply at the first Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be held in and for the west riding of the county of York, in the week after the Feast of Easter, after the expiration of seven years from the making of the said award (having given notice of such intended application in the London Gazette, and also in some newspaper usually circulated in the said county of York, in the month of January next preceding) to have two persons named and appointed by the Justices then and there assembled, to be (together with a third person, to be named and chosen by such two persons), arbitrators or referees for enquiring into and ascertaining (by or from, or by means of, the London Gazette, so long as the returns of the average prices of corn and grain shall be published therein, and in case of no such publication, then by such ways or means as they shall think equitable or proper), the average price of a Winchester bushel of good marketable wheat within the said county of York, for the seven years then last past; which said three arbitrators or referees, or the major part of them, shall, by their report to be made and delivered to the Court of Quarter

Sessions to be held in and for the west riding of the county of York, in the first week after the Feast of the Translation of St. Thomas the Martyr then next ensuing, set forth such average price: and in case it shall, by such report, appear that such average price of a bushel of such wheat as aforesaid, is more or less than the average price thereof set forth in the said award, by the value of three pence or upwards, then the said respective yearly rents or sums of money shall be increased or diminished as shall be declared by order of the said Court, and the same shall, from the quarterly day of payment preceding such order, remain and continue issuing and payable as aforesaid, out of the several lands and estates charged by the said award, with such respective yearly rents or sums of money, until the same shall, at or after the end of seven years then next ensuing, be again varied by such application, and in such manner as hereinbefore mentioned, and so from time to time, at or after the end of every seven years for ever; notice is therefore hereby given, that I, the undersigned, John Boomer, of the parish of Whiston aforesaid, owner and proprietor of lands and estates, subject to the payment of the said annual rents or sums of money, and assessed to the poors rate at the sum of 100*l.* and upwards, do intend, at my proper expence, by writing under my hand to apply at the next General Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be held at Pontefract, in and for the west riding of the county of York, on the 26th day of April next (being the first Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be held in and for the said riding in the week after the Feast of Easter next, after the expiration of seven years from the making of the said award), to have two persons named and appointed by the Justices then and there assembled, to be (together with a third person to be named and chosen by such two persons) arbitrators or referees for ascertaining by means aforesaid, and as in and by the said Act is directed, the average price of a Winchester bushel of good marketable wheat within the said county of York, for the seven years now last past, for the purposes in the hereinbefore recited clause of the said Act particularly mentioned: As witness my hand this 19th day of January 1824.
