

the felony above mentioned (if it shall prove to have been committed), is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually committed the same), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of THREE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered by the family of the said Charles Pierce, residing at No. 26, Richmond-terrace, Clifton, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid, on conviction, by Mr. Palmer, solicitor, Broad-street, Bristol.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill for lighting with gas the city of Aberdeen, or parish of St. Nicholas, as well as the suburbs of said city, situated within the said parish of St. Nicholas, and the parish of Old Machar, both in the county of Aberdeen.

Aberdeen, 17th January 1824.

South Holland Drainage, Rents, and Purchase Monies.

Spalding, January 21, 1824.

THE Committee of Trustees of the South Holland Drainage do hereby give notice, that they are prepared to pay all rents and purchase monies due to the owners (or the personal representatives of the deceased owners) of land taken and used by the Commissioners of the Act of thirty-third George III., for the purposes of this drainage; and that after the 6th day of April next they will take measures for the disposition of the unclaimed purchase monies, pursuant to the directions of the Act of fifty-seventh George III., and that thenceforth all rents of the lands taken as aforesaid will cease.

Persons entitled to the said purchase monies are desired to apply to the undersigned Clerk to Committee Men, and to produce evidence of their title to receive the same.

By order of the said Committee Men,
Cha. Bonner, their Clerk.

Navy-Office, January 22, 1824.

THE Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having appointed money for the payment of half-pay to Sea Officers, from the 1st October to the 31st December 1823, according to His Majesty's establishment in that behalf; these are to give notice, that the several payments will begin to be made at the Pay-Office, by the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, at ten o'clock in the morning, on the following days, viz.

On the 2d, 3d, and 4th of February, to Admirals, Captains, and their Attornies.

On the 5th, 6th, 9th, 10th, and 11th of February, to Lieutenants and Chaplains, and their Attornies.

On the 12th and 13th of February, to Masters, Surgeons, and Pursers, and their Attornies.

After which the lists will be recalled the first and third Wednesday in every month, that all persons may then and there attend to receive what may become payable to them, and bring with them an affidavit as required by Order in Council of 30th July 1819, the forms of which were published in an advertisement from this Office, dated 16th September 1819, and may be procured at the Office of the Treasurer of the Navy; and in case any of the said Officers should not be able to attend themselves, but employ Attornies for that purpose, the said Attornies are to produce similar affidavits from the persons they are employed by.

Where Officers are abroad on leave, their agents are to produce attested copies of such leave, before the half-pay can be paid.

And as by Act of Parliament, passed in the thirty-fifth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for establishing a more easy and expeditious method for the payment of Officers belonging to His Majesty's Navy," it is enacted by the twentieth clause of the said Act, "that if any Commissioned or Warrant Naval Officer who shall be entitled to receive half-pay, and shall be desirous to receive and be paid the same at or near the place of his residence, he may apply to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, in London, to have such half-pay paid at or near the place of his residence, &c. in the manner pointed out by the said Act;" and by a further Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for enabling the Officers in His Majesty's Navy, and their representatives, to draw for and receive their half-pay," it is enacted by the first and third clauses of the said Act, "that if any Officer in His Majesty's Navy, who shall be entitled to receive any sum of money for or on account of his half-pay, shall be desirous of drawing a bill of exchange for the same upon the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, instead of receiving the same by remittance bill, he shall signify such desire, by letter, to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy; and that if any Officer in His Majesty's Navy, who shall be entitled to receive any sum of money for or on account of half-pay, shall be desirous of having his half-pay paid to him by extract at any of His Majesty's Dock-Yards where Clerks for the payment of wages for the Navy shall reside, instead of receiving the same by remittance bill or bill of exchange, he is to apply either to the proper Clerk, at the Navy Pay-Office, in London, or at the Pay-Office at such Dock-Yard, signifying such his desire;" notice is hereby further given, that the half-pay ending the 31st
