TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 10, 1824.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 18th of November 1823.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by any Order or Orders in Council, in all cases in which British vessels, of less burthen than sixty tons, are not required by law to take pilots, to exempt foreign vessels, being of less burthen than sixty tons, from taking on board a pilot to conduct them into or from any of the ports of the United Kingdom, any law, custom, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding; His Majesty, by virtue of the power vested in him by the said Act, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date of this Order, all vessels belonging to the subjects of His Majesty the King of Hanover, and being of less burthen than sixty tons, which shall enter in or clear out from any of the ports of the United Kingdom, shall be, and they are hereby exempted from taking on board a pilot to conduct them into or from any such port, in all cases where British vessels, being of less burthen than sixty tons, are not required by law to take pilots, any law, custom, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions therein accordingly.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 19th of September 1823,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the twenty-first of February last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder, salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Straights of Gibraltar), has expired; and whereas it is judged expedient that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service), do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the date of this Order), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Straights of Gibraltar) or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre,

"gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. C. C. Greville.

To be peremptorily sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Haydon v. Bonsey, with the approbation of James Stephen, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the White Hart Inn, at Guildford, in the County of Surrey (instead of the Public Sale-Room of the said Court, in Southampton-Buildings, as stated in the first advertisement), on Saturday the 13th day of March next, at Three o'Clock in the Afternoon, in one lot;

An estate, situate in the Parish of Oakham, in the County of Surrey, distant about 22 miles from London, and 7 miles from the market-town of Guildford, consisting of a dwelling-house, eight cottages and gardens, with suitable and convenient out-buildings, and 183A. 1R. 19P. of arable, meadow, pasture, orchard, and coppice land, in the occupation of Mr. Richard Bonsey, tenant at will, at a rent of 143l. 10s.

The estate is freehold, except a very small part, consisting of a barn, yard, stables, cow-house, cart-house, and pigstyes (not at the principal homestead), which is leasehold, for a long term of years.—The land-tax is redeemed.

Printed particulars may be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London (where a plan of the estate may be seen); of Messrs. Jenkins and Abbott, Solicitors, New-Inn; Mr. William Price, Solicitor, Lincoln's-Inn; and of Messrs. Smallpiece and Shebbear, Solicitors, Guildford, Surrey.

Whereas by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Dawson against Wright, it is referred to John Springett Harvey, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire whether John Marshall, the son of John Marshall, the testator in the said Cause, be living or dead, and if dead when he died, and whether he died in the lifetime of Martha Marshall, the widow of the said testator, and if he died, whether he was ever married, and left any issue; and in case he survived the said Martha Marshall, to inquire who are his personal representatives?—The said John Marshall, the son, if living, or if he is dead, having survived the said Martha Marshall.—All persons claiming to be his personal representatives, are, on or before the 10th day of March next, to come in and prove their claims before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, in order that they may not peremptorily be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.—The said John Marshall was the son of John Marshall and Sarah, his wife (formerly Sarah Elliott, Spinster), who lived at Waterthorpe, in the Parish of Beighton, in the County of Derby, where the said John Marshall, the son, was born.—It is supposed that in the year 1796 he enlisted in the Louth Volunteers as a private soldier, but being an invalid he was not enrolled; that he was marched to Portsmouth, and when at Hilsey Barracks enlisted again into the Botany-Bay Rangers, and went, with the Captain who enlisted him, to London, and has not since been heard of by his family.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Hall against Hall, the Creditors of William Hall, late of Vale-Place, Hammersmith, in the County of Middlesex, Esq. deceased (who died in the month of May last), are, by their Solicitors, to come in and prove their debts before John Edmund Dowdeswell, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Office, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on or before the 6th day of March next, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to the Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Clark against Tunks, the Creditors of Stephen Tunks, late of Ringwood, in the County of Hants, Banker and Brewer, deceased (who died on or about the 28th day of June 1821,) are, on or before the 8th day of March 1824, to come in and prove their debts before William Courtenay, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Martinez against Goddard, the Creditors of John Harvey Goddard, late of West Woodgates, in the County of Dorset, Gentleman deceased (who died in the year 1797), are forthwith to come in and prove their debts before William Courtenay, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause wherein James Vallance and others are plaintiffs, and John Ellis and John Bull are defendants, the Creditors of Sarah Mighell, late of Lewes, in the County of Sussex, Widow (who died on or about the 25th day of November 1815), are forthwith to come in and prove their debts before William Courtenay, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Joseph Corsbie and John Corsbie (carrying on business with Thomas King Creak, at Durand's-Wharf, Rotherhithe, in the County of Surrey, Mast and Block-Makers, Wharfingers, Dealers and Chapman; the said Joseph Corsbie and John Corsbie also carrying on trade in New Broad-Street-Court, London, as Merchants, under the firm of Joseph and John Corsbie), are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Friday the 13th day of February instant, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees, according to a compromise proposed for settling a suit now depending in the High Court of Chancery, intitled Bowles and others against Yorke and others, respecting the estate of Samuel Barnard, deceased, the particulars of which compromise will be stated at the meeting; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees agreeing to the arrangement with the other Creditors of the said Samuel Barnard, deceased, and of the house of Barnard and Sons, heretofore carrying on business as Bankers, at Boston, and executing all deeds and instruments for carrying such compromise and arrangement into effect; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Thomas Dawson, of St. Thomas's-Mill, in or near the Parish of St. Mary, in the County of Stafford, Miller, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on the 2d day of March next, at Twelve of the Clock at Noon, at the Office of Messrs. Wheatley and Barlow, Solicitors, in Stone aforesaid, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing the action at law commenced by the said Assignees against a certain person, to be named at the meeting, and the unsettled account between the said Bankrupt and his late landlord; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of, or otherwise compounding certain other debts due to the said Bankrupt's estate from divers persons, who will be then named; and also to take into consideration the propriety of abandoning certain other debts due to the said Bankrupt's estate, which will be then specified, and which are considered desperate; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Thomas Kirby, late of Market-Weighton, in the County of York, Common-Brewer, are desired to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on the 21st day of February instant, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, at the house of Thomas Rotsey, Innholder, in Market-Weighton aforesaid, to assent to or dissent from the Commissioners under the said Commission of Bankrupt, or the said Assignees releasing, surrendering, or assuring the equity of redemption or other the estate and interest of the said Creditors of and in certain parts of the copyhold estate of the said Bankrupt, situate at Market-Weighton aforesaid, in mortgage to Rebecca Whitwell, of the City of York, Spinster, and Thomas Stilborn, now or late of Beningbrough-Hall, in the said County of York, Gentleman, Executors named in the last will and testament of William Smith, late of Beningbrough-Hall aforesaid, Gentleman, deceased, and also of and in certain other parts of the copyhold estate of the said Bankrupt, situate at Market-Weighton aforesaid, in mortgage to Robert Leighton, of Market-Weighton aforesaid, Gentleman, to the mortgagees thereof respectively, without receiving any consideration for the same, or of making such other arrangement or arrangements respecting the same premises, or any part thereof, as shall be by the said Assignees deemed and considered expedient and proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees making such arrangement or arrangements respecting the fixtures in and upon the premises, in mortgage to the said Rebecca Whitwell and Thomas Stilborn as aforesaid, as shall be considered by the said Assignees expedient and proper; and on other special business.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against John Duncalfe the elder, of Donnington-Wood-Mill, near Shiffnal, in the County of Salop, Miller, Dealer and Chapman, are particularly requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Tuesday the 17th day of February instant, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the Pheasant Inn, in Wellington, in the County of Salop, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of the share and interest of the said Bankrupt in or to a certain mill, called Donnington Wood-Mill, and also a certain messuage or tenement, and other erections, buildings, and premises appurtenant thereto, and situate at Donnington-Wood aforesaid, and also all the share and interest of the said Bankrupt of and in the Copartnership business, stock, book debts, implements, and effects belonging to the same, and carried on as the Donnington-Wood-Mill Company, at the place aforesaid, either by private contract or public auction, at such sum or sums of money, and to such person or persons as shall be named and proposed at such meeting, or to such other person or persons, and for such other sum or sums of money as the said Assignee may deem beneficial to the said estate, or think fit; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee paying and allowing, out of the monies arising from such sale as aforesaid, a certain claim, in the nature of an equitable mortgage, for the sum of £500 and interest, alledged to be charged on the said
