

MEMORANDUM.

The appointments of Ensign Senhouse to the 2d Royal Veteran Battalion and Lieutenant Milne to the 3d ditto, as stated in the Gazette of the 7th instant, have not taken place.

Commission in the Royal Glamorgan Light Infantry Battalion of Militia, signed by the Vice-Lieutenant of the County of Glamorgan.

Charles James Colin Collins, Gent. to be Second Lieutenant, vice Ray, resigned. Dated 7th February 1824.

Commission in the Western Regiment of Northumberland Local Militia, signed by the Lord Lieutenant of the County of Northumberland.

The Right Honourable Thomas Wallace to be Lieutenant-Colonel-Commandant, vice Lieutenant-Colonel Thomas Wentworth Beaumont, resigned. Dated 29th January 1824.

Whitehall, February 10, 1824.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto Richard-Bulkeley-Philipps Grant, of Picton-castle, in the county of Pembroke, Esq. His royal licence and authority, that he and his issue may assume, take, and use the surname of Philipps, instead of that of Grant, and also bear the arms of Philipps only, in testimony of his grateful and affectionate respect for the memory of his noble kinsman, the Right Honourable Richard late Baron Milford, of that part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, deceased, and also in compliance with an injunction contained in his Lordship's last will and testament, bearing date the 21st day of January 1820; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Herald's Office, otherwise the said royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to order, that this His Majesty's concession and declaration be registered in His College of Arms.

Whitehall, February 13, 1824.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Herbert Phillips Howell, of the county of the borough of Carmarthen, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, February 13, 1824.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the 23d day of November last, Mary Downes was found at Heaton Norris, in the parish of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, inhumanly murdered by some person, or persons unknown; and that by an inquest held on her body, it was found that she had been murdered by one James Horsefield, but their is reason to suppose that some other person or persons, besides the said James Horsefield, were engaged in the said murder;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the said murder, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually inflicted the mortal wound on the said Mary Downes), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FORTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the Constables of the township of Heaton Norris aforesaid, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, besides the said James Horsefield, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of His present Majesty, cap. 24, sec. 3, intituled "An Act to make more effectual provision for permitting goods imported to be secured in warehouses or other places, without payment of duty on the first entry thereof," it is enacted, "that it shall and may be lawful for the importer, proprietor, or consignee of any goods or merchandise whatever, and of what nature or kind soever (tea only excepted), imported from any port or place whatever (the dominions of the Emperor of China excepted), to lodge in warehouses or other approved places (but for the purpose of exportation only), without payment of any duty, either of Customs or Excise, at the time of the first entry of such goods or merchandise, although the importation may be in any way prohibited or restrained by any Act or Acts in force immediately before the commencement of this Act;" And whereas after reciting, "that it is expedient for the protection of the manufactures of this country, that the several goods and merchandise, the importation of which hath been prohibited by any Act or Acts in force immediately before the passing of this Act, but which, by virtue of this Act, may be imported and warehoused for the purpose of exportation only, should be lodged and deposited in warehouses or places of special security,"

It is further enacted, "that all such goods and merchandise, the importation whereof hath been so prohibited, but which shall at any time after the commencement of this Act be imported under the provisions of this Act, shall be lodged and secured, and kept separate from all other goods and merchandise, in warehouses which are or shall be erected and built in places inclosed by and surrounded with walls, or in such other places of special security as shall be approved and appointed by warrant of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any three of
