Admiralty-Office, February 21, 1824.

DISPATCHES, dated the 31st of last month and 1st instant, have this morning been received at this Office from the Honourable Captain Spencer, of His Majesty's ship Naiad (who had been directed to proceed to Algiers to make, in conjunction with His Majesty's Consul at that Regency, a remonstrance against some late proceedings of the Dey), stating that his negotiation had ended unsatisfactorily, and that the Consul was obliged to strike the British flag, and embark on board His Majesty's ship.

Captain Spencer further reports, that having met an Algerine corvette, he felt it, under his instructions, his duty to attack her, and that she was laid on board, and captured in the most handsome manner, by His Majesty's brig Camelion, when Captain Spencer had the satisfaction to find that he had rescued seventeen Spaniards, whom the Algerine was carrying into slavery.
