TUESDAY, MARCH 9, 1824.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, March 5, 1824.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Majesty will hold a Levee at Carlton-House, on Wednesday next the 10th instant, at one o'clock.

Westminster, March 5, 1824.

THIS day, the Lords being met, a message was sent to the Honourable House of Commons by the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, acquainting them, that The Lords, authorised by virtue of a Commission under the Great Seal, signed by His Majesty, for declaring His Royal Assent to several Acts agreed upon by both Houses, do desire the immediate attendance of the Honourable House in the House of Peers to hear the Commission read; and the Commons being come thither, the said Commission, empowering the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and several other Lords therein named, to declare and notify the Royal Assent to the said Acts, was read accordingly, and the Royal Assent given to

An Act for granting and applying certain sums of money for the service of the year one thousand eight hundred and twenty-four.

An Act for raising the sum of fifteen millions by Exchequer Bills, for the service of the year one thousand eight hundred and twenty-four.

An Act to indemnify all persons concerned in advising, issuing, or acting under a certain Order in Council for regulating the tonnage duties on certain foreign vessels; and to amend an Act of the last session of Parliament, for authorising His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in any foreign vessels.

An Act to amend an Act, made in the first and second years of the reign of His present Majesty, for regulating the proceedings in the civil side of the Court of King's Bench, and also in the Court of Common Pleas, and in the pleas or common law side of the Court of Exchequer in Ireland.

An Act for enabling a conveyance to be made of part of a house in Lombard-street, vested in the Right Honourable Henry Frederick Lord Carteret, formerly His Majesty's Postmaster-General.

AT the Court at Brighton, the 19th of January 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board, the humble Memorial of Sir Henry Hallford, Baronet, Physician to His Majesty, and President of the College or Commonalty of the Faculty of Physic in London, setting forth, that the said President and College have, with great care, pains, and industry, revised, corrected, and reformed a book by them formerly published, intituled, Pharmacopœia Collegii Regalis Medicorum Londinensis, prescribing and directing the manner of preparing all sorts of medicines therein contained, together with the true weights and measures by which they ought to be made; which book is now perfected and ready to be published, and it is conceived will contribute to the public good of His Majesty's subjects by preventing all deceits, differences, and uncertainties in making or compounding of medicines, if for the future the manner and form prescribed therein should be practised by apothecaries and others in their compositions of medicines; the Memorialist, therefore, most humbly prays, that His Majesty will be graciously pleased to enforce the observance thereof, in such manner as to His Majesty shall seem meet; His Majesty this day took the said Memorial into His Royal consideration, and being desirous to provide, in all cases, for the common good of His people, and being persuaded that the establishing the general use of the said book may tend to the prevention of such deceits in the making and compounding medicines, wherein the lives and health of His Majesty's subjects are so highly concerned, hath, therefore, thought fit, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, hereby to notify to all apothecaries and others concerned, to the intent they may not pretend ignorance thereof, that the said book, called Pharmacopœia Collegii Regalis Medicorum Londinensis, is perfected and ready to be published; and His Majesty doth, therefore, strictly require, charge, and command all and singular apothecaries and others, whose business it is to compound medicines, or distil oils or waters, or make other extracts, within any part of His Majesty's kingdom of Great Britain called England, dominion of Wales, and town of Berwick-upon-Tweed, that they and every of them, immediately after the said Pharmacopœia Collegii Regalis Medicorum Londinensis shall be printed and published, do not compound or make any medicine or medicinal receipt or prescription, or distil any oil or waters, or make other extracts that are or shall be in the said Pharmacopœia Collegii Regalis Medicorum Londinensis mentioned or named, in any other manner or form than is or shall be directed, prescribed, and set down by the said book, and according to the weights and measures that are or shall be therein limited, except it shall be by the special direction or prescription of some learned physician in that behalf: And His Majesty doth hereby declare, that the offenders to the contrary shall not only incur His Majesty's just displeasure, but be proceeded against for such their contempt and offences according to the utmost severity of law.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 18th of November 1823.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by any Order or Orders in Council, in all cases in which British vessels, of less burthen than sixty tons, are not required by law to take pilots, to exempt foreign vessels, being of less burthen than sixty tons, from taking on board a pilot to conduct them into or from any of the ports of the United Kingdom, any law, custom, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding; His Majesty, by virtue of the power vested in him by the said Act, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date of this Order, all vessels belonging to the subjects of His Majesty the King of Hanover, and being of less burthen than sixty tons, which shall enter in or clear out from any of the ports of the United Kingdom, shall be, and they are hereby exempted from taking on board a pilot to conduct them into or from any such port, in all cases where British vessels, being of less burthen than sixty tons, are not required by law to take pilots, any law, custom, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions therein accordingly.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 19th of September 1823,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the twenty-first of February last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder, salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Straights of Gibraltar), has expired; and whereas it is judged expedient that the said prohibition should be continued, for some time longer, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service), do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the date of this Order), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Straights of Gibraltar) or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf, first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of " salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council :

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 19th of September 1823.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled " An Act to repeal certain duties of customs in Great Britain, and to grant other duties in lieu thereof ; to grant certain bounties on salted provisions and silk manufactures exported ; and to make more effectual regulations for collecting the duties of customs," certain duties are respectively imposed and directed to be levied on chocolate and cocoa paste of the British plantations ; and cocoa nut husks, and shells ; and on pepper, viz. Capsicum or Chillies, Cayenne, Guinea pepper, and long pepper ; and on segars manufactured from tobacco, and on tobacco manufactured imported into Great Britain from foreign parts : And whereas His Majesty is empowered by the said Act to declare and direct by His Order in Council, that certain import duties of customs and excise (of which the duties upon the articles above enumerated form a part), shall be placed under the sole management of the Commissioners of the Customs, or under the sole management of the Commissioners of Excise, as shall be expressed and directed in such Order, and for a time to be mentioned in such Order ; His Majesty having taken the same into consideration, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to declare and direct that all the several duties upon the articles above enumerated, imposed by the aforesaid Act, in the schedules A. and B. thereof, and each and every of them shall be placed and shall be under the sole management of His Majesty's Commissioners of Excise, according to the provisions and directions of the said Act, from the tenth day of October next, during the time that the aforesaid duties shall continue to be payable :

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greville.

Whitehall, March 8, 1824.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto William Ongley, of Minster, in the Isle of Sheppey, in the county of Kent, Esq. Captain on the half-pay of His Majesty's 7th Garrison Battalion, His royal licence and authority, that he and his issue may, in compliance with a clause contained in the last will and testament of William Hopson, late of the parish of Saint Margaret next the city of Rochester, in the aforesaid county of Kent, Esq. deceased, take and use the surname and bear the arms of Hopson only ; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise His Majesty's said licence and permission to be void and of none effect :

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, March 9, 1824.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto Mary Fellows, of Camberwell, in the county of Surrey, widow and relict of John Fellows, late of Eynsford, in the county of Kent, Gentleman, deceased, on behalf of Henry Woodbridge Fellows, her only issue, a minor, His royal licence and authority, that he the said Henry Woodbridge Fellows may assume and henceforth use the surname of Woodbridge only, instead of that of Fellows :

And also to order, that this His royal concession and declaration be registered in His College of Arms.

Crown-Office, March 9, 1824.

MEMBERS returned to serve in this present PARLIAMENT.

Burghs of Annan, Kirkcudbright, Dumfries, Sanquhar, and Lockmahaven.

William Robert Keith Douglas, Esq.

Burghs of Wigtown, Whithorn, New Galloway, and Stranreer.

Nicolas Conyngham Tindal, Esq. of No. 9, Brunswick-square, London, in the room of Sir John Osborn, Bart. who has accepted the office of one of the Commissioners of Public Accounts.

Whitehall, March 9, 1824.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that the dwelling-house of Richard Morris, of the Green-Dingle, in the township of Gwenthrew, in the parish of Kerry, in the county of Montgomery, was on Monday the 9th day of February last, about two o'clock in the afternoon, entered by two men, who turned Maria Morris, wife of the said Robert Morris, and her little girl out of the house, where she found two other men waiting, who threatened to murder them if they made any alarm ; that shortly afterwards the two men left the house, after robbing it of several articles and 7s. 6d. in money, and joined the other two men who were outside, and the four went away together.

One of the men above-mentioned has a red face, his teeth out fully before, and his smock frock not quite to his knees; another of them is very tall, a red face, and red whiskers which came down to his chin, and he was not shaved under the chin, two teeth in his upper jaw projecting beyond the rest, he had on a round black hat, a coloured neckhandkerchief, and a long round smock frock to the calf of his leg.—The other two men, who were out of doors, had on light jackets which came round in front of their thighs:

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the Magistrates acting in the upper division of the hundred of Montgomery, in the said county, to any person who shall discover the said offenders, so that they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

NOTICE is hereby given by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, that all persons desirous of signifying their assent to receive £3 10s. per Centum Annuities, in lieu of £4 per Centum Annuities, directed to be paid off, in pursuance of a Resolution of the House of Commons, of the 24th February 1824, in the manner therein specified, must signify such assent on or before the 6th April 1824, to the Governor and Company of the Banks of England or of Ireland, according as the dividends may be payable.

Forms for expressing such assent have been sent to the several Country Bankers in Great Britain and Ireland, and may also be had of the Postmasters of every Market Town in Great Britain and Ireland, as well as at the Banks of England and Ireland respectively.

N.B. The assents addressed to the Banks of England and Ireland respectively, will be delivered free of postage; but care must be taken that they are put into the Post-Office in sufficient time to be delivered in London or in Dublin, as the case may be, on or before the 6th April 1824.

AFTER our hearty commendations—whereas by an Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled “An Act to make more effectual provision for permitting goods imported to be secured in warehouses or other places, without payment of duty on the first entry thereof,” it is enacted, “that it shall and may be lawful for the importer, proprietor, or consignee of any goods or merchandise whatsoever, and of what nature and kind soever, which shall be legally imported into the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, to lodge and deposit or secure such goods and merchandises in warehouses or other approved places, without payment of any duty, either of Customs or Excise, at the time of the first entry of any such goods and merchandise;”

And whereas by the said recited Act, the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland are authorised, by warrant under their hands, or the hands of any three or more of them, from time to time to select, appoint, approve, and declare at what ports in Great Britain and Ireland respectively, and in what warehouses or places in such ports, goods and merchandise of every description, or goods and merchandise of any particular description, or any particular articles of merchandise, shall and may be lodged in warehouses, or otherwise secured, without payment of duty as aforesaid; every such warrant to be published three times in the London Gazette or Dublin Gazette respectively;

We, the undersigned Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, in pursuance of the powers vested in us as aforesaid, do hereby approve of the Warehouses within the premises of the London Dock Company (except the warehouse No. 2 on the North side of the said Docks, and the warehouses appointed for the reception of tobacco and snuff); also the warehouses within the premises of the East India Dock Company (except the warehouse called the Auxiliary Warehouse No. 4, at the said Docks); also of the warehouses within the premises of the West India Dock Company (except the warehouse No. 10, nearest the Blackwall Basin, at the said Docks);

for the deposit of all goods (except prohibited goods, tobacco, and snuff) imported into the port of London, under the rules, regulations, conditions, and securities of the said Act.

For which this shall be your warrant.

Whitehall, Treasury Chambers, this 16th day of February 1824.

To the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs.

Certain Premises at the London, East India, and West India Docks, approved for the reception of Goods and Merchandise, per Act 4 Geo. 4th.

AFTER our hearty commendations—whereas by an Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled “An Act to make more effectual provision for permitting goods imported to be secured in warehouses or other places, without payment of duty on the first entry thereof,” it is enacted, “that it shall and may be lawful for the importer, proprietor, or consignee of any goods or merchandise whatever, and of what nature or kind soever (tea only excepted), imported from any port or place whatever (the dominions of the Emperor of China excepted), to lodge such goods and merchandise in warehouses or other ap“ proved places (but for the purpose of exportation only), without payment of any duty, either of Customs or Excise, at the time of the first entry of such goods or merchandise, although the importation may be in any way prohibited or restrained by any Act or Acts in force immediately before the commencement of this Act ;”

And whereas after reciting, “ that it is expedient for the protection of the manufacturers of this country, that the several goods and merchandise, the importation of which hath been prohibited by any Act or Acts in force immediately before the passing of this Act, but which, by virtue of this Act, may be imported and warehoused for the purpose of exportation only, should be lodged and deposited in warehouses or places of special security,”

It is further enacted, “ that all such goods and merchandise, the importation whereof hath been so prohibited, but which shall at any time after the commencement of this Act be imported under the provisions of this Act, shall be lodged and secured, and kept separate from all other goods and merchandises, in warehouses which are or shall be erected and built in places inclosed by and surrounded with walls, or in such other places of special security as shall be approved and appointed by warrant of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any three of them, and in no other warehouse or place whatsoever ;”

We, the undersigned Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, in pursuance of the powers vested in us as aforesaid, do hereby approve of the Warehouse No. 2, on the North side of the London Docks; and of the warehouse No. 10, nearest the Blackwall Basin, at the West India Docks; and of the warehouse called the Auxiliary Warehouse No. 4, at the East India Docks, respectively ;

for the deposit of prohibited goods imported into the port of London, for the purpose of exportation only, under the rules, regulations, conditions, and securities of the said Act.

And we do hereby further direct, that such goods shall be kept separate from all other goods and merchandise whatever.

For which this shall be your warrant.

RULES AND ORDERS FOR REGULATING THE TRADE BETWEEN GREAT BRITAIN AND IRELAND.

AFTER our hearty commendations—whereas by an Act of Parliament, passed in the fourth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled

“ An Act to repeal the several duties and drawbacks of Customs chargeable and allowable in Ireland, on the importation and exportation of certain foreign and colonial goods, wares, and merchandises, and to grant other duties and drawbacks in lieu thereof, equal to the duties and drawbacks chargeable and allowable thereon in Great Britain ;” it is, amongst other things, enacted, that at any time after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer, or for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or any three of them, by any warrant or order, in writing, signed by him or them, and published in the London and Dublin Gazettes, to direct and declare that from a day, to be named in such warrant or order, the trade between Great Britain and Ireland shall be taken and deemed to be a coasting trade, and from and after the day mentioned in such warrant or order, such trade shall be and become a coasting trade accordingly, and all ships and vessels in which goods, wares, or merchandise shall be transported, carried, and conveyed from any port in Great Britain, to any port in Ireland, or from any port in Ireland, to any port in Great Britain, respectively, shall be deemed and taken and held to be coasting ships and vessels to all intents and purposes whatsoever, subject nevertheless to such rules, regulations, restrictions, and conditions, and to such penalties and forfeitures as are hereinafter provided and contained ;

We, the undersigned, Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, pursuant to and in execution of the powers vested in us, in and by the said Act, do hereby direct and declare, that the trade between Great Britain and Ireland shall, from and after the 10th day of October 1823, be taken and deemed to be a coasting trade ; and we hereby approve of the following rules and orders for the mode of entry of all ships and vessels, and of all goods, wares, and merchandises, inwards and outwards, in Great Britain and Ireland respectively :

RULES AND ORDERS OUTWARDS.

That the entry of every ship or vessel, required by the said Act to be made, before any goods are laden on board the same, to be carried from one country to the other, shall be in form and manner following, that is to say ;

The master of such ship or vessel, or his agent, shall sign a bill of entry of the same, setting forth the name of the vessel, and of the port to which she belongs, and the tonnage according to the register of such vessel, and the name of the master, and of the port for which she is bound, and the place where she takes in her lading, and shall deliver such bill to the Collector of the Customs at the port at which it is intended that such vessel shall be laden, who shall register the same in a book to be kept by him for that purpose.

And the entry of all such goods, wares, and merchandise, as are subject to duty of Customs or Excise in either country, or are prohibited to be exported from either country to foreign parts, required by the said Act to be made, before the same be laden on board any ship or vessel to be exported from one country to the other, shall be in form and manner following, that is to say :

The exporter of such goods, or his agent, shall sign a bill of entry of such goods, expressed in words at length, setting forth the quantity and description of such goods, and the name of the exporter, and the name of the vessel in which the same are to be exported, and of the master of such vessel, and of the port to which the goods are to be conveyed, and shall deliver such bill of entry, together with two copies of the same, expressed in figures, to the Collector and Comptroller of the port at which such goods are to be laden, who shall each retain one such copy, and shall sign such bill of entry, and return the same to the exporter, or his agent, as a suffrance for the shipment of the goods intended and authorised to be shipped by virtue of the same, and such exporter, or his agent, shall endorse upon such suffrance the particulars of the goods intended to be so shipped, setting forth the marks and numbers and descriptions of all the packages, and the quantities and descriptions of the goods contained therein, and shall sign such indorsement, and deliver the same, together with a copy thereof, also signed by him, to the Coastwaiter or other proper Officer, in whose presence, or by whose authority, the goods are to be shipped, who is to retain such copy, and to certify, on the back of the suffrance, the due shipment of the goods, returning the same to the Collector and Comptroller, in order that they may prepare a full and particular transire for the exportation of the goods, to accompany the same to the port of destination.

And if such goods be prohibited to be exported to foreign parts, or liable to duty on such exportation (except the duty of ten shillings per cent. on the value of the goods exported), the Collector or Comptroller shall require the exporter to give the usual coast bond for the removal of such goods, but such bond shall not be required for any other goods.

The goods to be shipped within the legal hours, and at one of the legal quays, or at a suffrance wharf.

RULES AND ORDERS INWARDS.

And the entry of any ship or vessel which is required by the said Act to be made, upon oath, within twenty-four hours after her arrival in any port of either country from the other, shall be in form and manner following, that is to say:

The master of such ship or vessel shall declare, upon oath, before the Collector or Comptroller of such port, to the best of his knowledge, the particular marks, numbers, and descriptions of every package or parcel of such goods on board his vessel as are liable to duties of Customs or Excise in either country, or of a sort the like of which is prohibited to be imported into either country from foreign parts, and the description and quantities of the goods in each package or parcel, and shall deliver to the Collector or Comptroller the transire or several transires which accompanied the same from the port of exportation in the other country.

And the entry required by the said Act to be made of such goods, before the same be unladen, shall be in form and manner following, that is to say:

The importer, or his agent, shall sign a bill of entry of such goods, written in words at length, setting forth the name of the ship, and of the master, and of the port where the same were shipped, and of the importer, and the quantity and description of the goods, and the number and denomination of the package containing the same, and of the place where the goods are intended to be landed; and in the margin of such bill of entry shall delineate the respective marks and numbers of such package, and shall deliver the same, together with two copies thereof, to the Collector or Comptroller, who shall each retain one of such copies, and shall sign such bill of entry, and transmit the same, as their warrant, to the Coastwaiter, or other proper Officer, in whose presence, or by whose authority, the goods are to be unladen, and who is to retain such warrant as his authority for delivery of the goods expressed therein.

And if such goods be liable to any duty of Customs upon importation into one country from the other, the importer, or his agent, shall, at the time of delivery of such bill of entry to the Collector or Comptroller, and before the same shall be signed by either of them, pay down to such Collector the full amount of such duties.

The goods to be landed in legal hours, and at one of the legal quays, or at a suffrance wharf.

For which this shall be your warrant.
