TUESDAY, MARCH 9, 1824.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, March 5, 1824.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Majesty will hold a Levee at Carlton-House, on Wednesday next the 10th instant, at one o'clock.

Westminster, March 5, 1824.

THIS day, the Lords being met, a message was sent to the Honourable House of Commons by the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, acquainting them, that The Lords, authorised by virtue of a Commission under the Great Seal, signed by His Majesty, for declaring His Royal Assent to several Acts agreed upon by both Houses, do desire the immediate attendance of the Honourable House in the House of Peers to hear the Commission read; and the Commons being come thither, the said Commission, empowering the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and several other Lords therein named, to declare and notify the Royal Assent to the said Acts, was read accordingly, and the Royal Assent given to

An Act for granting and applying certain sums of money for the service of the year one thousand eight hundred and twenty-four.

An Act for raising the sum of fifteen millions by Exchequer Bills, for the service of the year one thousand eight hundred and twenty-four.

An Act to indemnify all persons concerned in advising, issuing, or acting under a certain Order in Council for regulating the tonnage duties on certain foreign vessels; and to amend an Act of the last session of Parliament, for authorising His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in any foreign vessels.

An Act to amend an Act, made in the first and second years of the reign of His present Majesty, for regulating the proceedings in the civil side of the Court of King's Bench, and also in the Court of Common Pleas, and in the pleas or common law side of the Court of Exchequer in Ireland.

An Act for enabling a conveyance to be made of part of a house in Lombard-street, vested in the Right Honourable Henry Frederick Lord Carteret, formerly His Majesty's Postmaster-General.

AT the Court at Brighton, the 19th of January 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board, the humble Memorial of Sir Henry Hallford, Baronet, Physician to His Majesty, and President of the College or Commonalty of the Faculty of Physic in London, setting forth, that the said President and College have, with great care, pains, and industry, revised, corrected, and reformed a book by them formerly published, intitled, Pharmacopœia Collegii Regalis Medicorum Londinensis, prescribing and directing the manner of preparing all sorts of medicines therein contained, together with the true weights and measures by which they ought to be made; which book is now perfected and ready to be published, and it is conceived will contribute to the public good of His Majesty's subjects by preventing all deceits, differences, and uncertainties in making or compounding of medicines, if for the future the manner and form prescribed therein should be practised by apothecaries and others in their compositions of medicines; the Memorialist, therefore, most humbly prays, that His Majesty will be graciously pleased
