SATURDAY, MARCH 13, 1824.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 10th of March 1824.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-seventh year of His late Majesty's reign, ch. 57, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend training, and to regulate the quotas of the militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders in Council, to suspend the calling out of the militia of the United Kingdom, or any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county, riding, shire, stewartry, city, town, or place, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in any year, and to order and direct that no training or exercising of the militia of the United Kingdom, or of any county or counties, riding or ridings, shire or shires, stewartry or stewartries, city or cities, town or towns, or place or places, specified in any such Order or Orders in Council, shall take place in any year, any thing contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the militia, to the contrary notwithstanding: And whereas it is deemed expedient that such training and exercising should be dispensed with in the present year; it is ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the calling out of the militia of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in the present year, be suspended, and that no training or exercising of the said militia do take place in the present year.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 10th of March 1824.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the nineteenth of September last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar), will expire on the nineteenth of this instant March; and whereas it is judged expedient that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service), do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the nineteenth of this instant), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar) or ship or lade any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf, first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 10th of March 1824,

PRESENT.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS Majesty in Council was this day pleased to appoint Charles Godfrey Mundy, of Burton on the Wolds, Esq. to be Sheriff of the county of Leicester, in the room of Edmund Major, of Blaby, Esq.

Whitehall, March 9, 1824

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that the dwelling-house of Richard Morris, of the Green-Dingle, in the township of Gwenthrew, in the parish of Kerry, in the county of Montgomery, was on Monday the 9th day of February last, about two o'clock in the afternoon, entered by two men, who turned Maria Morris, wife of the said Robert Morris, and her little girl out of the house, where she found two other men waiting, who threatened to murder them if they made any alarm; that shortly afterwards the two men left the house, after robbing it of several articles and 7s. 6d. in money, and joined the other two men who were outside, and the four went away together.

One of the men above-mentioned has a red face, his teeth out fully before, and his smock frock not quite to his knees; another of them is very tall, a red face, and red whiskers which came down to his chin, and he was not shaved under the chin, two teeth in his upper jaw projecting beyond the rest, he had on a round black hat, a coloured neckbandkerchief, and a long round smock frock to the calf of his leg.—The other two men, who were out of doors, had on light jackets which came round in front of their thighs:

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the Magistrates acting in the upper division of the hundred of Montgomery, in the said county, to any person who shall discover the said offenders, so that they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Custom-House, London, March 13, 1824.

THE Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs do hereby give notice, that in consequence of directions from the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, founded upon the following resolutions of the Honourable House of Commons of the 9th and 11th and 12th instant, they have instructed their Officers at the several Ports in the United Kingdom, and at the places specified in the margin, * to receive into Wharchooses, under the King's Lock, at the expence and risk of the parties, all raw and thrown silk, and all silk-manufactures upon which the duties shall have been paid, provided the same shall be in quantities of not less than 300 lbs. weight, and in the name of one party, and provided that all raw and thrown silk be deposited in such Warehouses on or before the 25th March instant, and that all silk-manufactures, the same being new, uncut, and wholly of silk, be deposited in such Warehouses on or before the 5th April next, in order to enable the several parties to avail themselves of the return of the duties on the raw and thrown silk, and of the payment of bounties and allowances on silk-manufactures, in conformity with the said resolutions.

By order of the Commissioners,
T. Whitmore, Acting Secretary.

* Coventry, Nottingham, Macclesfield.

Copy of Resolution of the House of Commons, dated 9th March 1824.

1st. That from and after the 25th March 1824, the several duties and drawbacks on the importation and exportation of the several sorts of silk hereinafter mentioned shall cease and determine; and also that from and after the 5th July 1826, the prohibitions on the importation of silk manufactures shall cease and determine, and that the following duties shall be paid in lieu thereof, that is to say,

| | | | |
|--|---|----|-----|
| On silk from and after the 25th day of March 1824, viz. on raw or knubs or husks of silk, or waste of floss silk | £ | s. | d. |
| the lb. | - | 0 | 0 3 |
| On thrown silk not dyed, the lb. | - | 0 | 7 6 |
| On manufactured silk from and after the 5th July 1826 for every £100 of the value thereof | - | 30 | 0 0 |

2d. That from and after the 5th April 1824, the bounties on the exportation of silk manufactures shall cease and determine, save and except on any of such manufactures as shall have been duly shipped for exportation, or shall have been warehoused for that purpose, on or before the said 5th day of April 1824.

3d. That upon all silk imported, upon which the duties shall have been paid, and which shall be warehoused on or before, and remain warehoused until after, the 25th day of March 1824, there shall be granted the following allowances, viz.:

| | | | |
|--|---|----|------|
| On raw silk imported from any part except the British Territories in the | £ | s. | d. |
| East Indies the lb. | - | 0 | 5 3 |
| On silk thrown from raw silk so imported the lb. | - | 0 | 5 10 |

| | | | |
|--|---|----|------|
| On raw silk imported from the British Territories in the East Indies the lb. | £ | s. | d. |
| On silk thrown from raw silk so imported the lb. | 0 | 3 | 9 |
| On foreign thrown silk imported not dyed the lb. | - | 0 | 4 1½ |
| | - | 0 | 7 2 |

Copy of Resolutions of the House of Commons, dated the 11th and 12th March 1824.

That one half of the bounties on the exportation of silk manufactures shall be allowed on all such manufactures as, having been warehoused, shall be taken out for home consumption within thirty days after the 5th day of April 1824.

NOTICE is hereby given by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, that all persons desirous of signifying their assent to receive £3 10s. per Centum Annuities, in lieu of £4 per Centum Annuities, directed to be paid off, in pursuance of a Resolution of the House of Commons, of the 24th February 1824, in the manner therein specified, must signify such assent on or before the 6th April 1824, to the Governor and Company of the Banks of England or of Ireland, according as the dividends may be payable.

Forms for expressing such assent have been sent to the several Country Bankers in Great Britain and Ireland, and may also be had of the Postmasters of every Market Town in Great Britain and Ireland, as well as at the Banks of England and Ireland respectively.

N.B. The assents addressed to the Banks of England and Ireland respectively, will be delivered free of postage; but care must be taken that they are put into the Post-Office in sufficient time to be delivered in London or in Dublin, as the case may be, on or before the 6th April 1824.

Admiralty-Office, March 9, 1824.

IN pursuance of an Act of Parliament, passed in the twenty-sixth year of the reign of King George the Second, notice is hereby given, that information has been received at this Office, that the brig Sisters, George Rippon Donthwaite, Master, bound from Demerara to London, with a cargo, consisting principally of West India produce and Madeira wines, ran on shore upon a reef on the south side of the island of Antigua, on the night of the 19th of December last, when she bilged and was totally lost; cargo and crew saved.

John Burrow.

Admiralty-Office, March 11, 1824.

WIDOWS' PENSIONS.

NOTICE is hereby given, that all widows who receive pensions from the charity for the relief of the widows of Commission and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy, must send or bring to this Office, between the 20th and 31st of this month, the affidavit required by the rules of the charity, in order to their being inserted on the Pension List, which will be prepared next month, and paid on the 10th of May next.

All letters from widows respecting their pensions, or requesting supplies of blank affidavits, must state the rank their husbands held in the Navy.

AFTER our hearty commendations—whereas by an Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled “An Act to make more effectual provision for permitting goods imported to be secured in warehouses or other places, without payment of duty on the first entry thereof,” it is enacted, “that it shall and may be lawful for the importer, proprietor, or consignee of any goods or merchandise whatever, and of what nature or kind soever (tea only excepted), imported from any port or place whatever (the dominions of the Emperor of China excepted), to lodge such goods and merchandise in warehouses or other approved places (but for the purpose of exportation only), without payment of any duty, either of Customs or Excise, at the time of the first entry of such goods or merchandise, although the importation may be in any way prohibited or restrained by any Act or Acts in force immediately before the commencement of this Act;” And whereas after reciting, “that it is expedient for the protection of the manufacturers of this country, that the several goods and merchandise, the importation of which hath been prohibited by any Act or Acts in force immediately before the passing of this Act, but which, by virtue of this Act, may be imported and warehoused for the purpose of exportation only, should be lodged and deposited in warehouses or places of special security,”

It is further enacted, “that all such goods and merchandise, the importation whereof hath been so prohibited, but which shall at any time after the commencement of this Act be imported under the provisions of this Act, shall be lodged and secured, and kept separate from all other goods and merchandises, in warehouses which are or shall be erected and built in places inclosed by and surrounded with walls, or in such other places of special security as shall be approved and appointed by warrant of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any three of them, and in no other warehouse or place whatsoever;”

We, the undersigned Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, in pursuance of the powers vested in us as aforesaid, do hereby approve of the Warehouse No. 2, on the North side of the London Docks; and of the warehouse No. 10, nearest the Blackwall Basin, at the West India Docks; and of the warehouse called the Auxiliary Warehouse No. 4, at the East India Docks, respectively; for the deposit of prohibited goods imported into the port of London, for the purpose of exportation only, under the rules, regulations, conditions, and securities of the said Act.

And we do hereby further direct, that such goods shall be kept separate from all other goods and merchandise whatever.

For which this shall be your warrant.
