Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, MARCH 16, 1824.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 10th of March 1824.

PRESENT.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-seventh year of His late Majesty's reign, ch. 57, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend training, and to regulate the quotas of the militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders in Council, to suspend the calling out of the militia of the United Kingdom, or any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county, riding, shire, stewartry, city, town, or place, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in any year, and to order and direct that no training or exercising of the militia of the United Kingdom, or of any county or counties, riding or ridings, shire or shires, stewartry or stewartries, city or cities, town or towns, or place or places, specified in any such Order or Orders in Council, shall take place in any year, any thing contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the militia, to the contrary notwithstanding: And whereas it is deemed expedient that such training and exercising should be dispensed with in the present year; it is ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the calling out of the militia of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in the present year, be suspended, and that no training or exercising of the said militia do take place in the present year.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 10th of March 1824.

PRESENT.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the nineteenth of September last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar), will expire on the nineteenth of this instant March; and whereas it is judged expedient that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service), do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the nineteenth of this instant), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar) or ship or laden any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf, first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of “ salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council :

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. Jas. Buller.

Whitehall, February 23, 1824.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto Alexander Levi, of Bury-street, St. Mary Axe, in the city of London, merchant, His royal licence and authority, that out of respect to the memory of his late father in law Moses Levi Newton, sometime of Prescott-street, Goodman's-fields, in the county of Middlesex, merchant, deceased, he may take and use the surname of Newton, in addition to and after his present surname:

And also to order, that the said royal concession and declaration be recorded in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, March 9, 1824.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that the dwelling-house of Richard Morris, of the Green-Dingle, in the township of Gwenthrew, in the parish of Kerry, in the county of Montgomery, was on Monday the 9th day of February last, about two o'clock in the afternoon, entered by two men, who turned Maria Morris, wife of the said Robert Morris, and her little girl out of the house, where she found two other men waiting, who threatened to murder them if they made any alarm; that shortly afterwards the two men left the house, after robbing it of several articles and 7s. 6d. in money, and joined the other two men who were outside, and the four went away together.

One of the men above-mentioned has a red face, his teeth out fully before, and his smock frock not quite to his knees; another of them is very tall, a red face, and red whiskers which came down to his chin, and he was not shaved under the chin, two teeth in his upper jaw projecting beyond the rest, he had on a round black hat, a coloured neckhandkerchief, and a long round smock frock to the calf of his leg—The other two men, who were out of doors, had on light jackets which came round in front of their thighs:

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEELE

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the Magistrates acting in the upper division of the hundred of Montgomery, in the said county, to any person who shall discover the said offenders, so that they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Custom-House, London, March 13, 1824.

THE Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs do hereby give notice, that in consequence of directions from the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, founded upon the following resolutions of the Honourable House of Commons of the 9th and 11th, and 12th instant, they have instructed their Officers at the several Ports in the United Kingdom, and at the places specified in the margin, * to receive into Wharchooses, under the King's Lock, at the expence and risk of the parties, all raw and thrown silk, and all silk-manufactures upon which the duties shall have been paid, provided the same shall be in quantities of not less than 300 lbs. weight, and in the name of one party, and provided that all raw and thrown silk be deposited in such Warehouses on or before the 25th March instant, and that all silk-manufactures, the same being new, uncut, and wholly of silk, be deposited in such Warehouses on or before the 5th April next, in order to enable the several parties to avail themselves of the return of the duties on the raw and thrown silk, and of the payment of bounties and allowances on silk-manufactures, in conformity with the said resolutions.

By order of the Commissioners,

T. Whitmore, Acting Secretary.

Custom-House, London, March 16, 1824.

THE Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs do hereby give notice, that, in furtherance of directions received from the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, founded upon the resolutions of the Honourable House of Commons, of the 9th and 11th and 12th instant, they have approved of the following warehouses in London, for the reception of manufactured silk goods, viz. Nos. 70, 71, and 74, in the East India Company's warehouses, situated in New-street, Bishopsgate-street; and of the following warehouses for the reception of raw and thrown silk, viz. Nos. 36 and 88, belonging to the East India Company, and situated in New-street, Bishopsgate-street; and that the King's Warehouse, at the Custom-House, will likewise be open for the reception of raw and thrown silk.

The whole of the said warehouses will be ready for the reception of such goods from and after Wednesday the 17th instant, at each of which Officers of the Revenue will be stationed to receive and take an account of the same; and the said warehouses will continue open from nine o'clock in the morning until three in the afternoon.

Printed forms of the specifications, which will be required to be delivered with each parcel of goods, may be had on application to the Officers stationed at the respective warehouses.

By order of the Commissioners,

(Signed) T. Whitmore, Acting Secretary.

NOTICE is hereby given by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, that all persons desirous of signifying their assent to receive £3 10s. per Centum Annuities, in lieu of £4 per Centum Annuities, directed to be paid off, in pursuance of a Resolution of the House of Commons, of the 24th February 1824, in the manner therein specified, must signify such assent on or before the 6th April 1824, to the Governor and Company of the Banks of England or of Ireland, according as the dividends may be payable.

Forms for expressing such assent have been sent to the several Country Bankers in Great Britain and Ireland, and may also be had of the Postmasters of every Market Town in Great Britain and Ireland, as well as at the Banks of England and Ireland respectively.

N.B. The assents addressed to the Banks of England and Ireland respectively, will be delivered free of postage; but care must be taken that they are put into the Post-Office in sufficient time to be delivered in London or in Dublin, as the case may be, on or before the 6th April 1824.

IN pursuance of an Order of the Honourable the House of Commons, of the 5th instant, notice is hereby given, that application is now making to Parliament, for a Bill to establish an additional Company for more effectually lighting with gas certain places within the borough of Southwark, and certain other parishes and places in the counties of Surrey and Kent; that is to say, the parishes and townships of Saint Olave, Saint John, Saint George the Martyr, Saint Saviour, and Saint Thomas, in the borough of Southwark and county of Surrey; and the parishes of Saint Mary Lambeth, Saint Giles Camberwell, Saint Mary Rotherhithe, Christchurch, Saint Mary Newington, Saint Mary Magdalen Bermondsey, Dockhead and Horseleydown, the Clink Liberty, Clapham, Walworth, Streatham, Blackman-street in the borough of Southwark, Vauxhall and Stockwell, and other roads, streets, and places in the east half hundred of Brixton, in the county of Surrey; Wandsworth, Tooting, Battersea, and Putney, and other roads, streets, and places in the west half hundred of Brixton, in the said county of Surrey, and the several parishes and places of Saint Paul Deptford, Croydon, Mitcham, and Dulwich, in the said county of Surrey; and the several parishes and places of Saint Paul Deptford, Saint Nicholas Deptford, Lewisham, Lea, and Greenwich, in the county of Kent, and the several places adjacent or contiguous thereto.—Dated this 6th day of March 1824.

Young and Vallings, Solicitors for the said Bill.
