The King has been pleased to give and grant unto Alexander Levi, of Bury-street, St. Mary Axe, in the city of London, merchant, His royal licence and authority, that out of respect to the memory of his late father in law Moses Levi Newton, sometime of Prescott-street, Goodman's-fields, in the county of Middlesex, merchant, deceased, he may take and use the surname of Newton, in addition to and after his present surname:

And also to order, that the said royal concession and declaration be recorded in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, March 9, 1824.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that the dwelling-house of Richard Morris, of the Green-Dingle, in the township of Gwenthrew, in the parish of Kerry, in the county of Montgomery, was on Monday the 9th day of February last, about two o'clock in the afternoon, entered by two men, who turned Maria Morris, wife of the said Robert Morris, and her little girl out of the house, where she found two other men waiting, who threatened to murder them if they made any alarm; that shortly afterwards the two men left the house, after robbing it of several articles and 7s. 6d. in money, and joined the other two men who were outside, and the four went away together.

One of the men above-mentioned has a red face, his teeth out fully before, and his smock frock not quite to his knees; another of them is very tall, a red face, and red whiskers which came down to his chin, and he was not shaved under the chin, two teeth in his upper jaw projecting beyond the rest, he had on a round black hat, a coloured neckhandkerchief, and a long round smock frock to the calf of his leg—The other two men, who were out of doors, had on light jackets which came round in front of their thighs:

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL:

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the Magistrates acting in the upper division of the hundred of Montgomery, in the said county, to any person who shall discover the said offenders, so that they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Custom-House, London, March 13, 1824.
