SATURDAY, MARCH 20, 1824.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 10th of March 1824.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by any Order or Orders in Council, in all cases in which British vessels, of less burthen than sixty tons, are not required by law to take pilots, to exempt foreign vessels, being of less burthen than sixty tons, from taking on board a pilot to conduct them into or from any of the ports of the United Kingdom, any law, custom, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding; His Majesty, by virtue of the power vested in him by the said Act, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date of this Order, all vessels belonging to the subjects of His Majesty the King of Denmark, and being of less burthen than sixty tons, which shall enter in or clear out from any of the ports of the United Kingdom, shall be, and they are hereby exempted from taking on board a pilot to conduct them into or from any such port, in all cases where British vessels, being of less burthen than sixty tons, are not required by law to take pilots, any law, custom, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Jas. Butler.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 10th of March 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by any Order or Orders in Council, in all cases in which British vessels, of less burthen than sixty tons, are not required by law to take pilots, to exempt foreign vessels, being of less burthen than sixty tons, from taking on board a pilot to conduct them into or from any of the ports of the United Kingdom, any law, custom, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding; His Majesty, by virtue of the power vested in him by the said Act, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date of this Order, all vessels belonging to the inhabitants of Hamburg, and being of less burthen than sixty tons, which shall enter in or clear out from any of the ports of the United Kingdom, shall be, and they are hereby exempted from taking on board a pilot to conduct them into or from any such port, in all cases where British vessels, being of less burthen than sixty tons, are not required by law to take pilots, any law, custom, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 10th of March 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the present session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to indemnify all persons concerned in advising, issuing, or acting under a certain Order in Council for regulating the tonnage duties on certain foreign vessels, and to amend an Act of the last session of Parliament for authorising His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in any foreign vessels," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette (whenever it shall be deemed expedient), to levy and charge any additional or countervailing duty or duties of tonnage upon, or in respect of any vessels which shall enter any of the ports in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or in any of His Majesty's dominions, and which shall belong to any foreign country in which any duties of tonnage shall have been, or shall be levied upon, or in respect of British vessels entering the ports of such country, higher or greater than are levied or granted upon, or in respect of the vessels of such country; provided always that such additional or countervailing tonnage duties, so to be levied and charged as aforesaid, shall not be of greater amount than may be deemed fairly to countervail the difference of duty paid in such foreign country, upon or in respect of the tonnage of British vessels, more than the duty there charged or granted upon or in respect of the vessels of such country.

And whereas British vessels entering the ports of France from the ports of the United Kingdom are charged with a tonnage duty of 3 fcs. 75 cts., and 10 per cent. thereon, making in the whole 4 fcs. 12 cts. 5. per ton, from which duty French vessels arriving in the ports of France from this kingdom are exempt; His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in him by the said Act, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the date of this Order, there shall be charged on all French vessels which shall enter any of the ports of the United Kingdom a duty of three shillings and six pence per ton, such duty to be levied, collected, recovered, and applied in such and the like manner as any duties of customs are now by law levied, recovered, and applied:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 10th of March 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the first year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to continue, until the fifth day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, an Act of the fifty-seventh year of His late Majesty, for regulating the trade and commerce to and from the Cape of Good Hope, and for regulating the trade of the Island of Mauritius," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, by any Order or Orders to be issued from time to time, to give such directions, and to make such regulations touching the trade and commerce to and from all islands, colonies, or places, and the territories and dependencies thereof, to His Majesty belonging or in His possession, in Africa, or Asia to the eastward of the Cape of Good Hope, excepting only the possessions of the East India Company, as to His Majesty in Council shall appear most expedient and salutary, any thing contained in an Act, passed in the twelfth year of the reign of His Majesty King Charles the Second, intituled "An Act for the encouraging and increasing of shipping and navigation;" or in an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His Majesty King William the Third, intituled "An Act for preventing frauds and regulating abuses in the plantation trade," or any other Act or Acts of Parliament now in force relating to His Majesty's colonies and plantations, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament, law, usage, or custom to the contrary, in anywise notwithstanding; His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date of this present Order, all vessels under the French flag arriving at any port or ports of the Mauritius or its dependencies from the island of Madagascar laden with cattle, shall be permitted to enter and land their cargoes, and dispose of the same in the said ports, subject to such duties as may be there payable thereon:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 10th of March 1824.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-seventh year of His late Majesty's reign, ch. 57, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend training, and to regulate the quotas of the militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders in Council, to suspend the calling out of the militia of the United Kingdom, or any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county, riding, shire, stewartry, city, town, or place, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in any year, and to order and direct that no training or exercising of the militia of the United Kingdom, or of any county or counties, riding or ridings, shire or shires, stewartry or stewardries, city or cities, town or towns, or place or places, specified in any such Order or Orders in Council, shall take place in any year, any thing contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the militia, to the contrary notwithstanding: And whereas it is deemed expedient that such training and exercising should be dispensed with in the present year; it is ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the calling out of the militia of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in the present year, be suspended, and that no training or exercising of the said militia do take place in the present year.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 10th of March 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the nineteenth of September last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar), will expire on the nineteenth of this instant March; and whereas it is judged expedient that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service), do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the nineteenth of this instant), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar) or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf, first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas. Buller.

INHERITANCE.—DIED AT WEIMAR.

MISS ANNE DILLON, many years in the Court service of Her Imperial Highness, Maria Pawlowna, the Princess Hereditary of Saxe Weimar Eisenach, born at Dublin, 1752, deceased, at Weimar, the Metropolis of the Grand Duchy Saxony, the 1st of March 1823, without a last will, leaving a considerable estate to heirs being quite unknown; her heirs, and all those who claim this inheritance, by whatsoever title, are therefore cited to appear before the High Court of Justice, the Grand Ducal Regency, at Weimar, Saxony, on the 25th of May 1824, either in person, or by sufficiently empowered and instructed Attorney, for which reason the advocates of Court Blunse, Lubeck, Hase, Ackermann, Boettner, Lindig, and Steps, at Weimar, are hereby named to be chosen in that quality, and to form and prove their claims to this heirship, on pain, that every claim and title that cannot be proved sufficiently the day fixed, as well as every claim, that, after the fixed day elapsed, would be intended to lay to the said inheritance, cannot be regarded upon, and must be excluded by a judicial sentence; for this purpose the 27th of August 1824, has been fixed to the publication of this definitive sentence, to which Act all heirs, claimants, creditors, and pretenders of every kind to this heirship, are likewise cited on pain of loss of all their exceptions and of the appellation against this published sentence.—Weimar, the 5th of August 1823.

The Grand Ducal Regency,

(Signed) V. GERSTENBERGK, Vice-Chancellor.

TO COTTON SPINNERS AND MANUFACTURERS.

TO be sold by auction, before the major part of the Commissioners named in a Commission of Bankrupt, at the Old Bull, in Blackburn, in the County of Lancaster, on Wednesday the 14th day of April 1824, at Six o'Clock in the Afternoon, subject to such conditions as shall be then produced;

All those two substantial and newly erected cotton-mills, with the steam-engine, drums, shafts, fixtures, apparatus and appurtenances thereto respectively belonging; situate and being at White Ash, in Oswaldwise, near Blackburn aforesaid, and late in the possession of William Hargreaves.

And also all those twenty-seven cottages or dwelling-houses, with their appurtenances and several pieces of land thereto belonging and occupied therewith.

The higher mill is about thirty yards in length and thirteen yards wide, and worked by an excellent steam-engine of twenty horse power, and a water-wheel of twelve horse power.

The lower mill is fourteen yards in length and nine yards in breadth, and three stories high, and has constant supply of water, and is worked by a water-wheel equal to a ten horse power.

The premises are well calculated for any person desirous of establishing power looms, as there is a considerable portion of the above-mentioned power at present unemployed. The mills are well situated both for spinning and manufacturing, being in the immediate vicinity of extensive print-works. Coal is cheap and hands abundant, and the Leeds and Liverpool canal passes within a quarter of a mile of the premises.

The premises are freehold of inheritance, and the buildings are in good repair.

Mr. George Towers on the premises will shew the same to any person desirous of viewing them, and further information may be had on application to Mr. Thomas Jewsbury, of Manchester, Factor, and Mr. Thomas Brown, of Blackburn, Accountant, the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate, or at the Office of Mr. Robert Dewhurst, Solicitor to the said Assignees, at his Office, in Blackburn, or at the Office of Mr. Henry Gaskell, of Wigan, Solicitor to the mortgagees.

Field Head Estate, near Barnsley.

TO be re-sold, early in the month of May next, pursuant to an order of the Court of Exchequer, made in a cause Peason and others against Collett and others, before Richard Richards, Esquire, one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, Mite-Court-Buildings, Inner-Temple, London;

A very valuable freehold tithe-free estate, containing iron and coal-mines, called Field Head, situate in the Township of Dodworth and Parish of Silksone, in the County of York, within three miles of the Town of Barnsley, in the West Riding of the same County, late the estate of William Parker, Esquire, deceased, containing two hundred acres, or thereabouts.

A valuable bed of iron-stone, known by the name of the Tankersley Mine, and also a valuable bed of coal, called the furnace-coal, lie under the greater part of this estate, and will be sold with it. There is likewise understood to be in the roof of the furnace-coal, a thin bed of iron-stone, which would well repay the expense of getting that bed of coal.

On the estate also are erected a furnace, blast-engine, casting-house, dwelling-house and counting-house, workmen's cottages, workshops and other buildings, which are at a convenient distance from the Barnsley Canal and Barnby Bridge, to which there is a road made by the late Mr. Parker, under the powers contained in the Barnsley Canal Act.

The estate may be seen on application to James Ingham, on the premises, and particulars may be had (gratis), at the said Master's Office; also of Messrs. J. and I. Wheat, Solicitors, Sheffield; Mr. Knowles, Solicitor, New Inn, London; Mr. Robert Hoyland, Solicitor, Brierley, near Pontefract; Messrs. Perkins and Frampton, Solicitors, Gray's-Inn, London; Messrs. Clarke and Shepherd, Solicitors, Barnsley, and of Messrs. Collett, Winburn and Collett, Solicitors, Chancery-Lane, London, at whose Office, as well as at the above Offices in Sheffield and Barnsley, a map of the estate may be seen.

WHEREAS by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Russell against Beechey, it was referred to William Courtenay, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to enquire who were the next of kin of Joseph Noltekens, late of Mortimer-Street, in the Parish of Saint Mary-le-Bone, in the County of Middlesex, Sculptor, R. A. deceased (who died in the month of April 1823), living at the time of his death, and in case any of them have since died, who is or are the personal representative or representatives of him, her, or them so dying.—All persons claiming to be such next of kin of the said Joseph Noltekens, or the reprerepresentatives of such of them as are since dead, are forthwith to come in and make out and prove their kindred or representation before the said Master Courtenay, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.—N. B. The said Joseph Nollekens was the son of Joseph Francis Nollekens, a Landscape Painter, formerly of Antwerp, but who died in the Parish of Saint Ann, Soho, in the County of Middlesex, in the month of January 1748.

Pursuant to an Order of the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, made in the matter of Thomas Parkinson, Esq. a lunatic, the Creditors of the said Thomas Parkinson, who resides at Lancaster, in the County-Palatine of Lancaster, are, on or before the 24th day of April next, to come in and prove their debts before John Springett Harvey, Esq. one of the Masters of the Court of Chancery, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will peremptorily be excluded the benefit of the said Order.
