

April next, from ten o'clock in the forenoon to two o'clock in the afternoon, to take in and enter the benefit tickets drawn on Wednesday the 17th day of March instant, being the second day of drawing the same lottery, to be exchanged for certificates, pursuant to the Act of Parliament in that behalf.

And for further dispatch thereof, the said Commissioners will take in and enter the tickets numbered from No. 1 to No. 7000, at one seat, and the tickets numbered from No. 7001 to No. 14,000, at another seat; and the persons possessed thereof are directed to bring with their tickets separate lists thereof, marked A and B, distinguishing stock from money prizes, formed in numerical order, adapted to each of the said seats, and at the bottom of each list to write the name and proper additions of the person entitled to the value of the said tickets.

And the said Commissioners also give further notice, that certificates for the value of the said tickets will be delivered out on Thursday the 8th day of April next, at twelve o'clock at noon; after which the said Commissioners will take in and enter tickets in their usual monthly entry; and all persons are desired to observe, they must bring duplicates of their lists when they come for their certificates.

The Commissioners also give further notice, that a bond of indemnity must be entered into by two respectable housekeepers (to be approved by the said Commissioners), together with the person entitled to the value of any ticket or tickets which may have been lost, or to any ticket or tickets the checks of which may have been torn or destroyed, before the Commissioners can grant certificates for the same; and that in case of a lost ticket, an affidavit must also be made of the circumstances attending the loss of the same, before one of the Honourable Barons of His Majesty's Court of Exchequer.

East India-House, March 23, 1824.

THE Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, do hereby give notice,

That certain goods imported from places within the limits of the Company's charter, previous to the 1st January 1816, and now remaining in the Company's warehouses, which from their perishable nature have become of no value, and were not therefore put up at the Rummage Sale held at this House on the 24th and 25th February last, will be destroyed, with the sanction and in the presence of the Officers of the Honourable Board of Customs, on Saturday the 1st day of May next, unless the owners thereof shall actually clear and take the same out of the East India Company's Warehouses, on or before Wednesday the 28th day of April preceding.

The Court of Directors further give notice, that in the mean time every information respecting the goods will be given by the Company's Warehouse-keepers to the holders of warrants for other parties interested therein.
