TUESDAY, APRIL 13, 1824.

Foreign-Office, April 13, 1824.

THE Right Honourable George Canning, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, has received His Majesty's commands to signify to the Ministers of Friendly and Neutral Powers, residing at this Court, that the necessary measures have been taken, by command of His Majesty, for the blockade of the port of Algiers; and that from this time all the measures, authorised by the Law of Nations, will be adopted and executed, with respect to all vessels which may attempt to violate the said blockade.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, March 23, 1824.

NOTICE is hereby given, that, in consequence of St. George's Day this year being in Easter Week, the King will hold a Drawing-Room at St. James's-Palace, on Thursday the 29th of April next, at two o'clock, to celebrate His Majesty's Birth-day.

N. B. The Knights of the several Orders will wear their Collars.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 10th of March 1824.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under " certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in " foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign " vessels from pilotage," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by any Order or Orders in Council, in all cases in which British vessels, of less burthen than sixty tons, are not required by law to take pilots, to exempt foreign vessels, being of less burthen than sixty tons, from taking on board a pilot to conduct them into or from any of the ports of the United Kingdom, any law, custom, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding; His Majesty, by virtue of the power vested in him by the said Act, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date of this Order, all vessels belonging to the subjects of His Majesty the King of Denmark, and being of less burthen than sixty tons, which shall enter in or clear out from any of the ports of the United Kingdom, shall be, and they are hereby exempted from taking on board a pilot to conduct them into or from any such port, in all cases where British vessels, being of less burthen than sixty tons, are not required by law to take pilots, any law, custom, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 10th of March 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the present session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to indemnify all persons concerned in advising, issuing, or acting under a certain Order in Council for regulating the tonnage duties on certain foreign vessels, and to amend an Act of the last session of Parliament for authorising His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in any foreign vessels," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette (whenever it shall be deemed expedient), to levy and charge any additional or countervailing duty or duties of tonnage upon, or in respect of any vessels which shall enter any of the ports in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or in any of His Majesty's dominions, and which shall belong to any foreign country in which any duties of tonnage shall have been, or shall be levied upon, or in respect of British vessels entering the ports of such country, higher or greater than are levied or granted upon, or in respect of the vessels of such country; provided always that such additional or countervailing tonnage duties, so to be levied and charged as aforesaid, shall not be of greater amount than may be deemed fairly to countervail the difference of duty paid in such foreign country, upon or in respect of the tonnage of British vessels, more than the duty there charged or granted upon or in respect of the vessels of such country.

And whereas British vessels entering the ports of France from the ports of the United Kingdom are charged with a tonnage duty of 3 fcs. 75 cts., and 10 per cent. thereon, making in the whole 4 fcs. 12 cts. 5. per ton, from which duty French vessels arriving in the ports of France from this kingdom are exempt; His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in him by the said Act, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the date of this Order, there shall be charged on all French vessels which shall enter any of the ports of the United Kingdom a duty of three shillings and six pence per ton, such duty to be levied, collected, recovered, and applied in such and the like manner as any duties of customs are now by law levied, recovered, and applied:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 10th of March 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the first year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to continue, until the fifth day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, an Act of the fifty-seventh year of His late Majesty, for regulating the trade and commerce to and from the Cape of Good Hope, and for regulating the trade of the Island of Mauritius," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, by any Order or Orders to be issued from time to time, to give such directions, and to make such regulations touching the trade and commerce to and from all islands, colonies, or places, and the territories and dependencies thereof, to His Majesty belonging or in His possession, in Africa, or Asia to the eastward of the Cape of Good Hope, excepting only the possessions of the East India Company, as to His Majesty in Council shall appear most expedient and salutary, any thing contained in an Act, passed in the twelfth year of the reign of His Majesty King Charles the Second, intituled "An Act for the encouraging and increasing of shipping and navigation;" or in an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His Majesty King William the Third, intituled "An Act for preventing frauds and regulating abuses in the plantation trade," or any other Act or Acts of Parliament now in force relating to His Majesty's colonies and plantations, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament, law, usage, or custom to the contrary, in anywise notwithstanding; His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date of this present Order, all vessels under the French flag arriving at any port or ports of the Mauritius or its dependencies from the island of Madagascar laden with cattle, shall be permitted to enter and land their cargoes, and dispose of the same in the said ports, subject to such duties as may be there payable thereon:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 10th of March 1824.

PRESENT.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-seventh year of His late Majesty's reign, ch. 57, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend training, and to regulate the quotas of the militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders in Council, to suspend the calling out of the militia of the United Kingdom, or any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county, riding, shire, stewartry, city, town, or place, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in any year, and to order and direct that no training or exercising of the militia of the United Kingdom, or of any county or counties, riding or ridings, shire or shires, stewartry or stewartries, city or cities, town or towns, or place or places, specified in any such Order or Orders in Council, shall take place in any year, any thing contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the militia, to the contrary notwithstanding: And whereas it is deemed expedient that such training and exercising should be dispensed with in the present year; it is ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the calling out of the militia of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in the present year, be suspended, and that no training or exercising of the said militia do take place in the present year.

NEXT OF KIN.

IF the next of kin or any of the lawful relations of Sarah Willis, late of Parker-Street, Drury-Lane, in the County of Middlesex, widow, deceased, (whilst living the relict, sole executrix and residuary legatee named in the will of William Willis, late of the same place, Coachsmith, deceased); will apply to Mr. A. R. Warrand, No. 8, Wardrobe-Place, Doctors'-Commons, Solicitor, they will hear of something to their advantage.

Field Head Estate, near Barnsley.

TO be peremptorily re-sold, on Tuesday the 4th day of May next, pursuant to an order of the Court of Exchequer, made in a Cause Pearson and others against Collett and others, before Richard Richards, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, Mitre-Court-Buildings, Inner-Temple, London;

A very valuable freehold title-free estate, containing iron and coal-mines, called Field Head, situate in the Township of Dodworth and Parish of Silkstone, in the County of York, within three miles of the Town of Barnsley, in the West Riding of the same County, late the estate of William Parker, Esquire, deceased, containing two hundred acres, or thereabouts.

A valuable bed of iron-stone, known by the name of the Tankesley Mine, and also a valuable bed of coal, called the furnace-coal, lie under the greater part of this estate, and will be sold with it. There is likewise understood to be in the roof of the furnace-coal, a thin bed of iron-stone, which would well repay the expence of getting that bed of coal.

On the estate also are erected a furnace, blast-engine, casting-house, dwelling-house and counting-house, workmens cottages, workshops and other buildings, which are at a convenient distance from the Barnsley Canal and Barnby Bridge, to which there is a road made by the late Mr. Parker, under the powers contained in the Barnsley Canal Act.

The estate may be seen on application to James Ingham, on the premises, and particulars may be had (gratis), at the said Master's Office; also of Messrs. J. and I. Wheat, Solicitors, Sheffield; Mr. Knowles, Solicitor, New Inn, London; Mr. Robert Hoyland, Solicitor, Brierley, near Pontefract; Messrs. Perkins and Frampton, Solicitors, Gray's-Inn, London; Messrs. Clarke and Shepherd, Solicitors, Barnsley, and of Messrs. Collett, Winburn and Collett, Solicitors, Chancery-Lane, London, at whose Office, as well as at the above Offices in Sheffield and Barnsley, a map of the estate may be seen.

TO be sold, sometime in or about the month of May 1824, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, in a cause wherein Edgar Walter Garland is plaintiff, and Nathaniel Garland and others are defendants, with the approbation of James William Farrer, Esq., one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Public Sale Room of the said Court, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, in lots;

A farm, in the County of Sussex, containing upwards of three hundred acres of rich arable and pasture land, with a farm-house, and agricultural buildings in good repair, a lease whereof is about to be granted to Mr. Geo. Awoock, (the present tenant), for twelve years, at £350 per annum.

Another farm, in the Parish of Heathfield, in the said County of Sussex, containing eighty-seven acres of arable and pasture land, with a farm-house, and out-buildings; and also sixty-two acres of wood land in hand, let to Mr. Hicks, as tenant at will, at the rent of £42.

Another farm, in the Parish of Ramsey, in the County of Essex, containing five hundred and twenty-seven acres, or thereabouts, of rich arable and pasture land, with farm-house, and most extensive agricultural buildings, all in the best state of repair, together with the great titles of this farm, let on lease to Mr. Thomas Woodruffe, for the remainder of a term of seven years, which will expire at Michaelmas 1827, at the yearly rent of £560.

Also sixteen dwelling houses, situate in the Borough of Harwich, in the County of Essex, producing a net rental of £137 per annum.

Printed particulars may shortly be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane; at the following Inns, the Star, Lewes; the Chequers, Marefield; Three Cups, Harwich; Three Cups, Colchester; Blue Posts, Witham; the Black Boy, Chelmsford; and the White Horse, Ipswich; and of Messrs. Winter and Williams, Solicitors, 16, Bedford-Row, London.

TO be sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Langton against Savill, before William Courtenay, Esq., one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Public Sale Room of the said Court, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on Thursday the 6th day of May 1824, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon, in one lot;
