SATURDAY, APRIL 24, 1824.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, March 23, 1824.

NOTICE is hereby given, that, in consequence of St. George's Day this year being in Easter Week, the King will hold a Drawing-Room at St. James's-Palace, on Thursday the 29th of April next, at two o'clock, to celebrate His Majesty's Birth-day.

N. B. The Knights of the several Orders will wear their Collars.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 10th of March 1824.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by any Order or Orders in Council, in all cases in which British vessels, of less burthen than sixty tons, are not required by law to take pilots, to exempt foreign vessels, being of less burthen than sixty tons, from taking on board a pilot to conduct them into or from any of the ports of the United Kingdom, any law, custom, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding; His Majesty, by virtue of the power vested in him by the said Act, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date of this Order, all vessels belonging to the subjects of His Majesty the King of

Denmark, and being of less burthen than sixty tons, which shall enter in or clear out from any of the ports of the United Kingdom, shall be, and they are hereby exempted from taking on board a pilot to conduct them into or from any such port, in all cases where British vessels, being of less burthen than sixty tons, are not required by law to take pilots, any law, custom, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 10th of March 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by any Order or Orders in Council, in all cases in which British vessels, of less burthen than sixty tons, are not required by law to take pilots, to exempt foreign vessels, being of less burthen than sixty tons, from taking on board a pilot to conduct them into or from any of the ports of the United Kingdom, any law, custom, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding; His Majesty, by virtue of the power vested in him by the said Act, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date of this Order, all vessels belonging to the inhabitants of Hamburgh, and being of less burthen than sixty tons, which shall enter in or clear out from any of the ports of the United Kingdom, shall be, and they are hereby exempted from taking on board a pilot to conduct them into or from any such port, in all cases where British vessels, being of less burthen than sixty tons, are not required by law to take pilots, any law, custom, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 10th of March 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the present session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to indemnify all persons concerned in advising, issuing, or acting under a certain Order in Council for regulating the tonnage duties on certain foreign vessels, and to amend an Act of the last session of Parliament for authorising His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in any foreign vessels," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette (whenever it shall be deemed expedient), to levy and charge any additional or countervailing duty or duties of tonnage upon, or in respect of any vessels which shall enter any of the ports in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or in any of His Majesty's dominions, and which shall belong to any foreign country in which any duties of tonnage shall have been, or shall be levied upon, or in respect of British vessels entering the ports of such country, higher or greater than are levied or granted upon, or in respect of the vessels of such country; provided always that such additional or countervailing tonnage duties, so to be levied and charged as aforesaid, shall not be of greater amount than may be deemed fairly to countervail the difference of duty paid in such foreign country, upon or in respect of the tonnage of British vessels, more than the duty there charged or granted upon or in respect of the vessels of such country.

And whereas British vessels entering the ports of France from the ports of the United Kingdom are charged with a tonnage duty of 3 fcs. 75 cts., and 10 per cent. thereon, making in the whole 4 fcs. 12 cts. 5. per ton, from which duty French vessels arriving in the ports of France from this kingdom are exempt; His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in him by the said Act, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the date of this Order, there shall be charged on all French vessels which shall enter any of the ports of the United Kingdom a duty of three shillings and six pence per ton, such duty to be levied, collected, recovered, and applied in such and the like manner as any duties of customs are now by law levied, recovered, and applied:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 10th of March 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the first year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to continue, until the fifth day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, an Act of the fifty-seventh year of His late Majesty, for regulating the trade and commerce to and from the Cape of Good Hope, and for regulating the trade of the Island of Mauritius," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, by any Order or Orders to be issued from time to time, to give such directions, and to make such regulations touching the trade and commerce to and from all islands, colonies, or places, and the territories and dependencies thereof, to His Majesty belonging or in His possession, in Africa, or Asia to the eastward of the Cape of Good Hope, excepting only the possessions of the East India Company, as to His Majesty in Council shall appear most expedient and salutary, any thing contained in an Act, passed in the twelfth year of the reign of His Majesty King Charles the Second, intituled "An Act for the encouraging and increasing of shipping and navigation;" or in an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His Majesty King William the Third, intituled "An Act for preventing frauds and regulating abuses in the plantation trade," or any other Act or Acts of Parliament now in force relating to His Majesty's colonies and plantations, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament, law, usage, or custom to the contrary, in anywise notwithstanding; His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date of this present Order, all vessels under the French flag arriving at any port or ports of the Mauritius or its dependencies from the island of Madagascar laden with cattle, shall be permitted to enter and land their cargoes, and dispose of the same in the said ports, subject to such duties as may be there payable thereon:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 10th of March 1824.

PRESENT.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-seventh year of His late Majesty's reign, ch. 57, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend training, and to regulate the quotas of the militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders in Council, to suspend the calling out of the militia of the United Kingdom, or any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county, riding, shire, stewardry, city, town, or place, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in any year, and to order and direct that no training or exercising of the militia of the United Kingdom, or of any county or counties, riding or ridings, shire or shires, stewardry or stewardries, city or cities, town or towns, or place or places, specified in any such Order or Orders in Council, shall take place in any year, any thing contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the militia, to the contrary notwithstanding: And whereas it is deemed expedient that such training and exercising should be dispensed with in the present year; it is ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the calling out of the militia of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in the present year, be suspended, and that no training or exercising of the said militia do take place in the present year.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 10th of March 1824.

PRESENT.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the nineteenth of September last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar), will expire on the nineteenth of this instant March; and whereas it is judged expedient that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service), do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the nineteenth of this instant), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar) or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf, first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Navy-Office, April 23, 1824.

THE Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having appointed money for the payment of half-pay to Sea Officers, from the 1st January to the 31st March last, according to His Majesty's establishment in that behalf; these are to give notice, that the several payments will begin to be made at the Pay-Office, by the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, at ten o'clock in the morning, on the following days, viz.

On the 3d, 4th, and 5th of May, to Admirals, Captains, and their Attornies.

On the 6th, 7th, 10th, 11th, and 12th of May, to Lieutenants and Chaplains, and their Attornies.

On the 13th and 14th of May, to Masters, Surgeons, and Pursers, and their Attornies.

After which the lists will be recalled the first and third Wednesday in every month, that all persons may then and there attend to receive what may become payable to them, and bring with them an affidavit as required by Order in Council of 30th July 1819, the forms of which were published in an advertisement from this Office, dated 16th September 1819, and may be procured at the Office of the Treasurer of the Navy; and in case any of the said Officers should not be able to attend themselves, but employ Attornies for that purpose, the said Attornies are to produce similar affidavits from the persons they are employed by.

Where Officers are abroad on leave, their agents are to produce attested copies of such leave, before the half-pay can be paid.

And as by Act of Parliament, passed in the thirty-fifth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for establishing a more easy and expeditious method for the payment of Officers belonging to His Majesty's Navy," it is enacted by the twentieth clause of the said Act, "that if any Commissioned or Warrant Naval Officer who shall be entitled to receive half-pay, and shall be desirous to receive and be paid the same at or near the place of his residence, he may apply to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, in London, to have such half-pay paid at or near the place of his residence, &c. in the manner pointed out by the said Act;" and by a further Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for enabling the Officers in His Majesty's Navy, and their representatives, to draw for and receive their half-pay," it is enacted by the first and third clauses of the said Act, "that if any Officer in His Majesty's Navy, who shall be entitled to receive any sum of money for or on account of his half-pay, shall be desirous of drawing a bill of exchange for the same upon the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, instead of receiving the same by remittance bill, he shall signify such desire, by letter, to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy; and that if any Officer in His Majesty's Navy, who shall be entitled to receive any sum of money for or on account of half-pay, shall be desirous of having his half-pay paid to him by extract at any of His Majesty's Dock-Yards where Clerks for the payment of wages for the Navy shall reside, instead of receiving the same by remittance bill or bill of exchange, he is to apply either to the proper Clerk, at the Navy Pay-Office, in London, or at the Pay-Office at such Dock-Yard, signifying such his desire;" notice is hereby further given, that the half-pay ending the 31st March last, will commence paying on the 3d of May 1824; and all persons desirous of drawing for or of having their half-pay remitted to them, may apply as above directed, G. Smith.

MEM.—Bills of exchange drawn under or by virtue of the Act above recited, are not liable to the stamp duty.

No persons residing out of His Majesty's dominions are entitled to the privileges of this Act.

IN pursuance of an Order of the Honourable the House of Commons, made on the 12th day of April instant, notice is hereby given, that a petition has been presented to the Honourable House of Commons, praying that, in a Bill now depending in Parliament for making and maintaining a road from the Hampstead-road, in Camden-town, to the North-road at Holloway, in the parish of St. Mary, Islington, in the county of Middlesex, provision may be made for including therein, and for amending and keeping in repair the road leading along Park-street into the road called the Albany-road, and from thence along the said last-mentioned road to the New-road, near the end of Great Portland-street, in the several parishes of St. Pancras and St. Mary-le-bone, in the said county of Middlesex. Dated the 13th day of April 1824.

Francis Henchman, Solicitor, 24, Red-Lion-square.

Lottery-Office, Somerset-Place,
April 24, 1824.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Managers and Directors of the Lottery will draw the remainder of the tickets of the lottery, viz. five thousand four hundred tickets, on Saturday the 22d day of May next, being the fifth and last day of drawing the fourth lottery for the year 1822, at Coopers'-Hall, in Basinghall-Street, within the City of London. L. Hesse.

East India-House, April 23, 1824.

THE Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, do hereby give notice,

That a Quarterly General Court of the said Company will be held at their House, in Leadenhall-Street, on Wednesday the 23d day of June next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, for the purpose of declaring a dividend from Christmas last to Midsummer next:

That the transfer-books of the Company's stock will be shut on Thursday the 3d June next, at three o'clock, and opened again on Thursday the 15th July following:

And that the dividend warrants on the said Company's stock, due on the 5th July, will be ready to be delivered on Tuesday the 6th July next.

LEEDS.

NO be sold by auction, by Mr. Samuel Lumb, before Thomas Everard Upton, Gentleman, by order of the major part of the Commissioners named in a Commission of Bankrupt awarded against Richard Pullan, late of Leeds aforesaid, Merchant and Dyer, at the house of Mrs. Greaves, the Hotel, in Leeds, on Thursday the 6th day of May next, at Five o'Clock in the Afternoon, pursuant to such conditions as shall be then produced;

Lot 1. A very valuable freehold estate, situate at Buslingthorpe, in the Township of Leeds, consisting of extensive dye-houses, a drying-house, a press-shop, with valuable presses therein, calender-house, sizing-house, steam-engine house, warehouses, stable, three cottages, and other buildings, a large reservoir for water, center ground, and other conveniences for the trade of a Dyer, with the steam-engine, boilers, dyeing-rats, and other valuable fixtures and utensils, lately occupied by the said Richard Pullan, but now by William Norfolk, and his under tenants.

Lot 2. Thirteen copyhold cottages at Buslingthorpe aforesaid, parcel of the Manor of Leeds, and in the occupation of William Norfolk and others.

The premises may be viewed on application to Mr. William Norfolk, and for further particulars apply at the Office of Mr. Upton, Solicitor, Leeds; in London, to Mr. E. Parton, Solicitor, Bow-Church-Yard; or Mr. Maxon, Solicitor, Little Friday-Street.

CHEAPSIDE.

Lease of capital Business, Premises, and a Policy of Insurance for £499.

NO be sold by auction, by Mr. Tayler, at the Mart, on Tuesday, 27th April, at Twelve o'Clock, in two lots, before the Commissioners in the Bankruptcy of Saml. Lamb;

Lot 1. The lease for 17½ years of that convenient dwelling-house and conspicuous shop, No. 59, Cheapside, containing dining and drawing-rooms, kitchen, five bed-chambers, water-closet, &c.; a light attractive shop, a warehouse, and distinct entrance.

Lot 2. A policy of assurance with the Norwich Union-Office, taken out in March 1812, for £499, with two bonuses, which now increase the sum to £556, subject to the annual premium of £16 14s. 4d.

Particulars of Messrs. Fisher and Sudlow, Solicitors, Tavies-Isle; and of Mr. Tayler, Auction-Mart.

NO be peremptorily sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause wherein Edgar Walter Garland is plaintiff, and Nathaniel Garland and others are defendants, with the approbation of James William Farrer, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, on the 21st day of May 1824, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon, at the Public Sale Room of the said Court, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, in ten lots;

A far, in the County of Sussex, containing upwards of three hundred acres of rich arable and pasture land, with a farm-house and agricultural buildings, in good repair; a lease whereof is about to be granted to Mr. Geo. Awcock (the present tenant), for twelve years, at £350 per annum.

Another farm, in the Parish of Heathfield, in the said County of Sussex, containing eighty-seven acres of arable and pasture land, with a farm-house and out-buildings, let to Mr. Hicks, as tenant at will, at the rent of £42; and also sixty-two acres of wood land in hand.

Another farm, in the Parish of Ramsey, in the County of Essex, containing five hundred and twenty-seven acres, or thereabouts, of rich arable and pasture land, with farm-house and most extensive agricultural buildings, all in the best state of repair, together with the great tithes of this farm, let on lease to Mr. Thomas Woodruffe, for the remainder of a term of seven years, which will expire at Michaelmas 1827, at the yearly rent of £560.

Also sixteen dwelling-houses, situate in the Borough of Harwich, in the County of Essex, producing a net rental of £137 per annum.

Printed particulars may be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London; at the following Inns, the Star, Lewes; the Chequers, Maresfield; Three Cups, Harwich; Three Cups, Colchester; Blue Posts, Witham; the Black Boy, Chelmsford; and the White Horse, Ipswich; and of Mr. Stephen Williams, Solicitor, 16, Bedford-Row, London.

NO be sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause James against Parnell, before William Courtenay, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Public Sale-Room of the said Court, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on Wednesday the 2d day of June next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, in eight lots;

Certain freehold and copyhold estates, consisting of a detached and respectable family residence, with coach-house, stabling, and other out-buildings, and extensive garden and shrubbery, two brick cottages, and 14 acres of meadow land, situate at Winchmore-Hill, in the County of Middlesex, part whereof is freehold and part copyhold, now in the occupation of Samuel Compton, Esq.

And also several freehold messuages or tenements, situate in Artillery-Street, in the Old Artillery-Ground, within the Liberty of the Tower of London, and Parliament-Court, adjoining thereto, Queen's Arms-Alley, and George-Alley, Fleet-Market, Cable-Street, in the Parish of Saint George in the East; in the County of Middlesex; and Red Lion-Street, in the Parish of Christchurch, Spital-Fields.

Also a spacious Chapel or Meeting-House, in Artillery-Street aforesaid, and other premises.

The premises may be viewed by leave of the respective tenants, and printed particulars may be had on the premises; at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane; of Messrs. Vandereom and Conyn, Solicitors, 23, Bush-Lane, Cannon-Street; of Mr. Parnell, Solicitor, Church-Street, Spital-Fields; of Mr. A. Clarke, Solicitor, Bishopgate Church-Yard; Mr. Bolton, Solicitor, Austia-Friars; and Mr. E. Lewis, Solicitor, Crutched-Friars, London; and at the Inns, Wingham-Hill.

WHEREAS by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Kirkland against Reid, it was referred to William Courtenay, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire what is the law in the United States of America with regard to the distribution of intestate personal property, and what relations of John MacIver, formerly of Stornaway, in Scotland (and who died at Augusta, in Georgia, South Carolina, in the United States of America, in or about the month of November 1820), entitled to the benefit of distribution according to such law, were living at the time of the death of the said John MacIver, and if any such relations shall have since died; who is or are entitled to the share or shares of him, her, or them who shall have so died.—All persons claiming to be entitled to the benefit of distribution of the said John MacIver's personal estate according to the laws of the United States of America, are forthwith to come in and make out and prove their claims of relationship or representation before William Courtenay, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Kirkland against Reid, the Creditors of John MacIver, formerly of Stornaway, in Scotland (who died at Augusta, in Georgia, South Carolina, in the United States of America, in or about the month of November 1820), are forthwith to come in and prove their debts before William Courtenay, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Thomas Pearson, late of Herringthorpe, in the Parish of Whiston, in the County of York, Miller, Dealer and Chapman, are desired to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on the 10th day of May next, at Five o'Clock in the Afternoon, at the College Inn, in Rotherham, in the County of York, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees immediately selling, by public auction or otherwise, the said Bankrupt's estate, situate at Herringthorpe aforesaid; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees continuing to work the colliery now open on the said estate at Herringthorpe aforesaid; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees opening and sinking any new shaft or pit, or shafts or pits, in any part of the said Herringthorpe estate, for the purpose of getting coal therein; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for recovering of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Edward Baylis, of Painswick, in the County of Gloucester, Cloth-Manufacturer, Wool-Dealer, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Saturday the 1st day of May next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, at the Upper George Coffee-House, in the City of Gloucester, for the purpose of taking into consideration the propriety of admitting or resisting a claim made by some of the Creditors of the late father of the said Bankrupt to certain parts of the estates of the said Bankrupt, or a compensation in lieu of their demand; and also as to the admitting or resisting a claim set up on behalf of the wife of the said Bankrupt to an interest in part of the said Bankrupt's estate, by virtue of a settlement alleged to have been executed by the said Bankrupt, previously to his marriage with her; and also for the purpose of authorising the said Assignees to commence or defend any proceedings at law or in equity which may become necessary, in order to carry the resolutions of the Creditors at such meeting into effect, or to compromise such disputes and claims, or any of them, or to submit the same and any other matter, question, or dispute to arbitration; and also to authorise the said Assignees, if it shall be thought fit, to sell and dispose of all or any of the estates, claims, rights and interests, property, and effects of the said Bankrupt, by private contract, or otherwise; and generally to authorise the Assignees to pursue such measures as may best enable them to settle the accounts of the said Bankrupt with the least possible delay.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against William Phillips, of the City of Bristol, Linen-Draper, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Saturday the 1st of May next, at Two in the Afternoon, at the White Lion Inn, situate in Broad-Street, in the said City of Bristol, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees carrying into effect a certain arrangement made by them, in their character of Assignees of the estate and effects of the said William Phillips, chosen under a former Commission of Bankrupt against the said William Phillips, dated the 26th day of June last, and since superseded by order of the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor, with the petitioning Creditor under the said last mentioned Commission, and which arrangement was made under the previous authority of the unanimous resolution of a meeting of Creditors who had proved their debts under the same Commission; for the purpose of effecting an early supersedeas of the said Commission, with a view to the more speedy disposal of the Bankrupt's stock, and the earlier winding up of his affairs, and in order thereto to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees, at the expence of the said Bankrupt's estate, paying the costs of certain meetings held under the said superseded Commission, prior to the choice of Assignees thereunder; for the purpose of examining witnesses for discovery of the Bankrupt's property, and also the costs subsequent to the choice of Assignees under the said superseded Commission to the period of superseding thereof, including the costs of the said Assignees in petitioning for such supersedeas, and for obtaining the same, and the order therefore; and also to the said Assignees chosen under this present Commission coming to an agreement with the said petitioning Creditor to accept from her the sum of £150; in discharge of certain monies alleged to have been by her received from the said Bankrupt in fraudulent preference, the same £150 to be retained out of the dividends to arise on a proof of £800 made by her under the said superseded Commission, and now by the said Lord Chancellor's order, together with all the other proofs made thereunder, transferred to and standing part of the proceedings under this present Commission, the said petitioning Creditor waiving all claim of proving any further sum thereunder; and also to the said Assignees, at the expence of the said Bankrupt's estate, paying and discharging the Solicitor and Accountant employed by the Creditors under the said former Commission, for certain business done by them respectively; for the benefit of the Bankrupt's estate, previous to the said former choice of Assignees; and likewise to the said present Assignees, at the like costs and charges of the said Bankrupt's estate, applying, if necessary or advisable, by petition, to the Lord High Chancellor, in the matter of the said former petition, or otherwise, as they may be advised and see fit, for procuring the direction of the Court touching all or any of the matters aforesaid; or in any other manner relating thereto; and generally to the said Assignees taking such measures as they may be advised or see fit for carrying into effect the said arrangement, or any part thereof; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees employing an accountant to the said estate, and to their paying or allowing him such remuneration as they may deem reasonable; and also to their selling or disposing, by public auction or private contract, of the stock in-trade, household furniture, and any other the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, at such price or prices, and upon such terms and conditions, either for money or credit, and upon such security as the said Assignees may think fit; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing the same, or any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs:
