VICE-CHANCELLOR.—Tuesday the 27th day of April, in the 5th year of the Reign of his Majesty King George the Fourth, 1824, between William White and another, plaintiffs, Robert Buncombe and others, defendants.

FORasmuch as this Court was this present day informed by Mr. Smith of Counsel for the plaintiffs, that the plaintiffs on the 4th day of February last exhibited their bill in this Court against the defendants (as by the six clerks' certificate now read appears,) and took out process of subpoena requiring the said defendant, Robert Buncombe, to appear to and answer the same, but he hath not yet appeared to the said bill. That it appears by the affidavit of Nicholas Broadmead, now produced and read, that he has caused diligent enquiry to be made at the late dwelling house of the said defendant, Robert Buncombe, at Trull, in the county of Somerset, where he resided up to the time of his absconding as thereinafter mentioned, for the purpose of serving him with such subpoena, and the said Robert Buncombe is not to be found there, but on the contrary thereof his said late dwelling-house is wholly shut up and unoccupied, and the said deponent is informed and believes that the said Robert Buncombe became insolvent about three years since, and then absconded from Trull aforesaid, that he has not since returned, and is now in some distant part of England, and the said deponent verily believes that the said Robert Buncombe so absconded to avoid legal processes at the suits of the above-named plaintiffs and his other creditors; and that since issuing the said subpoena he, the said deponent, made enquiries of Mr. John Whitmarsh, of Taunton, in the said county, one of the defendants in this suit, and son-in-law of the said Robert Buncombe, who would give the said deponent no information about him; but the said deponent has been informed by another person that the said John Whitmarsh is acquainted with his present residence; and the said deponent also requested Mr. John Stevens, who lately made an application to him on behalf of the said Robert Buncombe to allow him to return with a promise that he should not be arrested at the suit of the plaintiffs, to forward the said subpoena to the said Robert Buncombe which he refused to do, saying, that he did not know where he now lives, and that he, the said John Stevens, informed him the said deponent that the said Robert Buncombe is living somewhere near London; and another friend of the said Robert Buncombe that he is fifty or sixty miles from London; but they say they don't know his residence; whereas the said deponent believes they know his residence but refuse to discover the same to prevent his being served with any process at the suit of the plaintiffs. It is thereupon ordered that the said Defendant, Robert Buncombe, do appear to the plaintiff's bill on or before the last day of next Easter Term.
