TUESDAY, MAY 18, 1824.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, May 15, 1824.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the King will hold a Drawing-Room at St. James's-Palace, on Thursday next the 20th instant, at two o'clock, to celebrate His Majesty's Birth-day.

No person can be admitted in mourning.

N. B. The Knights of the several Orders will wear their Collars.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, May 8, 1824.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE COURT OF ST. JAMES'S.

THE Ladies who propose to attend the Drawing-Room, to be held on Thursday the 20th instant, are requested to bring with them two cards with their names thereon written, one to be left with the King's Page in Attendance in the Presence Chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, who will announce the name to His Majesty; and those Ladies who are to be presented, are hereby informed it is absolutely necessary that their names, with the name of the Lady who is to present them, should be sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's-Office, on Wednesday the 19th of May, before twelve o'clock, in order that they may be submitted for the King's approbation, it being His Majesty's command, that no presentations at the Drawing-Room shall hereafter be made by the Lord in Waiting, but by the Lady whose name, with that of the Lady to be presented, shall appear on the card, to be delivered as before directed, corresponding with the names sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's-Office.

No Lady can be received by His Majesty at the Drawing-Room, but in conformity to the above regulations.

The State Apartments will not be open for the reception of Company coming to Court, until one o'clock.

Veneris, 14^o. die Maij, 1824.

WHEREAS the Select Committee appointed to try and determine the merits of the petition of Edward Rose Tunno, Esq. complaining of an undue election and return for the borough of Bossinney, in the county of Cornwall, have this day reported to the House of Commons:

That it appeared to the said Committee, that the merits of the petition depended upon the right of election; and that therefore the said Committee required the Counsel for the parties to deliver to the Clerk of the said Committee, statements in writing of the right of election for which they contend:

That in consequence thereof the Counsel for the petitioner delivered in a statement as follows:

“ That the right of voting is in the freeholders of “ lands within the borough, being also inhabitant
“ householders therein :”

That the Counsel for the sitting Member delivered in a statement as follows:

“ That the right of voting in the borough of “ Bossinney is in the free Burgesses of the said “ borough, possessed of lands of inheritance within
“ the same, and resident within the parish of Tin“ tagel; such free Burgesses having been pre“ viously presented by a jury at one of the Courts
“ Leet of the said borough, and sworn in accord“ ingly.”

That upon the statement delivered in by the Counsel for the petitioner, the said Committee have determined,

That the right of voting as set forth in the said statement, is not the right of voting for the borough of Bossinney, in the county of Cornwall.

That upon the statement delivered in by the Counsel for the sitting Member, the said Committee have determined,

That the right of voting as set forth in the said statement, is the right of voting for the said borough of Bossinney.

I do hereby give notice, in pursuance of the directions of the Act, made in the twenty-eighth year of His late Majesty, intituled

Excise-Office, May 13, 1824.

ADDITIONAL SCHEDULE of New Rates of Duty and Drawback of Excise, directed by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, under the Act of 4 Geo. IV, cap. 66, to be levied and allowed in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

IN GREAT BRITAIN.

IN lieu of the present countervailing duty and drawback on flint, phial, enamel, stained, or paste glass, a countervailing duty of £5 8s. 4d. cwt. to be charged on importation from Ireland, and a drawback of the same amount to be allowed on the exportation of such glass to Ireland, provided the packages do not contain each less than 100lb weight avoirdupois, and that they be not imported in any vessel of less than seventy tons burthen.

Tho. Burton, Secretary.

Excise-Office, May 15, 1824.

ADDITIONAL RULES and ORDERS for Regulating the Trade between Great Britain and Ireland, directed by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury to be observed.

ARTICLES OF FOREIGN PRODUCE.

THAT articles of the following description, for which the duties have been paid, be accompanied, on the removal from one country to the other, by Excise permits, testifying the payment of the duties, viz. foreign spirits, tea, tobacco and snuff, wine, coffee, and cocoa-nuts, and pepper.

Regulations are established by Act of 4 Geo. IV, cap. 24, for the removal of such of the before-mentioned articles, except tea, as have not paid the duties, but are taken from the warehouses in which they have been lodged upon bond, and tea may be removed from the East India Company's warehouses to Ireland, without payment of duty, under regulations established by Act of 41 Geo. III, cap. 75.

ARTICLES OF HOME GROWTH OR MANUFACTURE.

That articles subject to countervailing duties (except bricks and tiles, and common glass bottles) be put into convenient packages, marked and numbered; and that each of the packages of candles, soap, starch, hair-powder, and British gum contain not less than 100lb avoirdupois, net weight.

That all paper, button-board, mill-board, scale-board, and paste-board be removed in the original packages, having the stamp and other marks, denoting that the duty, payable in the country from which removed, has been duly charged, perfect thereon.

That sweets or made wines, passing from the premises of the maker for sale, be accompanied by certificates to shew that the duties have been paid.

That British hops continue in the original bags or pockets, with the marks required by law to be placed thereon perfect, and the package unbroken.

The trade in spirits between Great Britain and Ireland is regulated by Act of 54 Geo. III, cap. 149.

That on the arrival of articles liable to countervailing duties in Great Britain, in addition to the entry required to be made with the Collector of the Customs, an entry be made thereof with the Collector of Excise, and the countervailing duties paid to him, and the goods not landed without his warrant.

And that the drawback allowed in this case be paid, under all the rules and regulations which are established by law, in regard to the exportation of exciseable commodities with drawback.

Tho. Burton, Secretary.

Navy-Office, May 14, 1824.

POOR KNIGHTS OF WINDSOR.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice to such Lieutenants in His Majesty's Navy as are desirous of being recommended for the appointment of Poor Knight of Windsor, under the will of the late Samuel Travers, Esq. that they must apply at this Office, on or before the 1st of July next, when they will be informed of the nature of the certificates and testimonials which are required to shew that they come within the meaning of the said will, which expresses that they "are to be superannuated or disabled Lieutenants of English men of war," and shall be "single men without children, inclined to lead a virtuous, studious, and devout life, to be removed if they give occasion for scandal."

G. Smith.

IN obedience to an order of the Court of Lord Mayor and Aldermen, dated the 11th day of May 1824, made in pursuance of an Act of Parliament, passed in the eighteenth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for empowering the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the city of London, in Common Council assembled, to make a street or opening from Moorfields, opposite Chiswell-street, towards the East, into Bishopsgate-street, and also from the East end of Chiswell-street Westward, into Barbican, and to raise upon the credit of the surpluses to arise out of a certain fund commonly called the Orphan's Fund, the sum of £16,500, for that purpose;" and also of another Act of Parliament, made and passed in the said year, intituled "An Act for paving the high street or road leading from Aldersgate-bars, in the parish of Saint Botolph Without, Aldersgate, London, to the turnpike near the end of Goswell-street, in the county of Middlesex, and for applying the sum of £5000, to be raised upon the credit of the surpluses to arise out of a certain fund commonly called the Orphan's Fund, for such purpose;" and also of another Act, passed in the said year, intituled "An Act for authorising the Justices of the Peace for the county of Middlesex to sell the present Sessions-house for the said county, and for enabling them to build another Sessions-house in a more convenient situation, and to keep the same in repair, and for applying the sum of £11,000, to be borrowed upon the credit of the surpluses of a certain fund commonly called the Orphan's Fund, towards defraying the expence of building the said Sessions-house;" and of a certain other Act of Parliament, made and passed in the fifty-second year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for increasing the fund for watching, lighting, cleansing, watering, and repairing Blackfriars-bridge;" I do hereby give notice, that between the hours of ten in the forenoon and two in the afternoon, on the 11th day of November next ensuing, at my Office of Chamberlain of the City of London, in Guildhall, London, the principal sums of money, together with all interest due on the said 11th day of November next ensuing, upon the under-mentioned bonds, being part of the said sums, raised by the authority of the aforesaid Acts of the 18th Geo. 3, under the common seal of this city, some part of which are made payable to Benjamin Hopkins, Esq. his executors, administrators, or assigns, and the remainder thereof made payable to John Wilkes, Esq. his executors, administrators, or assigns (by indorsement), will then be paid off, at my said Office at Guildhall, to the several and respective person or persons respectively entitled to receive the same; and that from thenceforth the interest on the said bonds will cease and determine. And, in further obedience to the said order, I do hereby give notice, that if the said several persons respectively entitled to the said bonds, or any of them, shall be minded to be paid the said several principal sums, with such interest as may become due in respect thereof, at any time previous to the said 11th day of November, and will severally declare such their intention, in writing under their hands, and deliver such declaration at my said Office of Chamberlain of the City of London, between the hours of ten in the morning and two in the afternoon, ten days previously to the day on which they, or any of them, shall elect to receive the same (the usual holidays of the said Office excepted), I will, on the day expressed in such declaration, at my said Office, pay to the several persons the principal sums respectively due to them in discharge of the said bonds, together with all interest as shall on the day specified in such declaration for the payment thereof have become due thereon; and which interest or annuity will, upon the said day expressed in such declaration for payment, cease and determine, viz.

One hundred and seventy-five bonds, of one hundred pounds each, numbered 432 to 603, both inclusive, and 616 to 618, both inclusive.

Richard Clark, Chamberlain.
