TUESDAY, JUNE 8, 1824.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, June-5, 1824.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Majesty will hold a Levee at Carlton-House, on Wednesday next the 9th instant, at two o'clock.

By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, R.

WHEREAS William Marquis of Lothian was duly elected and returned to be one of the sixteen Peers of Scotland, to sit in the House of Peers in the present Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and is since deceased; in order to the electing another Peer of Scotland to sit in his room, We do, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, issue forth this Proclamation, strictly charging and commanding all the Peers of Scotland to assemble and meet at Holyrood-House, in Edinburgh, on Thursday the eighth day of July next, between the hours of twelve and two in the afternoon, to nominate and choose another Peer of Scotland, to sit and vote in the House of Peers of this present Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the room of the said William Marquis of Lothian, deceased, by open election and plurality of voices of the Peers that shall then be present, and of the proxies of such as shall be absent (such proxies being Peers, and producing a mandate in writing, duly signed before witnesses, and both constituent and proxy being qualified according to law), and the Lord Clerk Register, or such two of the Principal Clerks of the Session as shall be appointed by him to officiate in his name, are hereby respectively required to attend such meeting, and to administer the oaths required by law to be taken there by the said Peers, and to take their votes; and immediately after such election made and duly examined, to certify the name of the Peer so elected, and sign and attest the same in the presence of the said Peers the electors, and return such certificate into the High Court of Chancery of Great Britain. And We strictly charge and command that this Proclamation be duly published at the Market-Cross at Edinburgh, and in all the county towns in Scotland, twenty-five days, at least, before the time hereby appointed for the meeting of the said Peers to proceed on such election.

Given at Our Court at Carlton-House, the twenty-fifth day of May one thousand eight hundred and twenty-four, and in the fifth year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 25th of May 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by any Order or Orders in Council, in all cases in which British vessels, of less burthen than sixty tons, are not required by law to take pilots, to exempt foreign vessels, being of less burthen than sixty tons, from taking on board a pilot to conduct them into or from any of the ports of the United Kingdom, any law, custom, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding; His Majesty, by virtue of the power vested in him by the said Act, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date of this Order, all vessels belonging to the inhabitants of Lubeck, and being of less burthen than sixty tons, which shall enter in or clear out from any of the ports of the United Kingdom, shall be, and they are hereby exempted from taking on board a pilot to conduct them into or from any such port, in all cases where British vessels, being of less burthen than sixty tons, are not required by law to take pilots, any law, custom, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Jas. Buller.

Westminster, June 3, 1824.

The premises may be viewed, and printed particulars had on the premises of Messrs. Tooke and Carr, Holborn-Court; of Messrs. Winter and Williams, Bedford-Row; and of Mr. Ellis, 36, Fenchurch-Street.

Whereas by an Order of the High Court of Chancery made in a certain Cause intitled Burnie against Anderson, and Burnie against Stewart, it was referred to William Wingfield, Esquire, one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire who, at the death of William Milligan, late of Charlston, in the State of South Carolina, North America, Merchant, (which happened on the 22d day of September 1810), were the eldest son and the eldest daughter of John Sutherland, late of Fish-Street-Hill, in the City of London, Grocer, deceased, and who at the death of the said John Sutherland (which happened in or about the month of June 1817), were the eldest son and eldest daughter of the said John Sutherland; pursuant, therefore, to the said Order, any persons claiming to be such eldest son and eldest daughter of the said John Sutherland, living at the respective times hereinbefore-mentioned, are, by their Solicitors, on or before the 3d day of July 1824, to come in before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Building, Chancery-Lane, London, and prove their claims, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Order.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Wilkinson and another against Beall and others, the Creditors of John Dewsbury, late of Allerton, in the County of York, Gentleman, deceased (who died some time in the year 1794), are forthwith to come in and prove their debts before James William Farrer Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to an Order of the Right Honourable the Lord High-Chancellor of Great Britain, made in the matter of James Southby (a lunatic) bearing date the 10th day of April 1824, the issue, if any, of the marriage of the said James Southby, formerly of Shrewsbury, and now of Brace-Meole, in the County of Salop, Gentleman, and Elizabeth Southby, his late wife, formerly Elizabeth Hodges, Spinster (and who died on or about the 25th day of July 1819), are, on or before the 16th day of July next, to come in and prove their relationship before James Trower, Esq. one of the Masters of the High Court of Chancery, in his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Order; and in pursuance of the said Order, any will or deed made or executed by the said Elizabeth Southby disposing of the settled fund, or any part thereof, mentioned in the settlement made previous to the marriage of the said James Southby and Elizabeth Hodges; bearing date the 6th day of March 1795, is to be produced and proved before the said Master; and in default thereof, all persons having or claiming any benefit or advantage under any such will or deed will be excluded the benefit of the said Order.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause wherein John Jackson is the plaintiff, and Mary Cunit is the defendant, the Creditors of Thomas Brailsford, late of Bolsover, in the County of Derby Esq. (who died on the 2d day of April 1820), are forthwith to come in and prove their debts before Francis Paul Stratford, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause the Attorney-General v. Newson, the Creditors of Mary Wood, formerly of Hemming's-Row, and late of Saint Martin's-Lane, in the Parish of Saint Martin's in the Fields, in the County of Middlesex, Spinster (who died on or about the 30th day of November 1823), are, personally, or by their Solicitors, to come in and prove their debts before James Trower, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on or before the 1st day of July 1824; or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

ADAMSON'S CREDITORS.

Doncaster, June 7, 1824.

THE Creditors of William Adamson, late of Doncaster, Carver and Gilder, are requested to meet the Assignees of his estate and effects, at the Office of Mr. Frederick Fisher, Solicitor, in Doncaster, on Friday the 25th day of June instant, at Three o'Clock in the Afternoon, to take into consideration a claim made by an individual to prove a debt of £390 4s. 3d. against the insolvent's estate; to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees resisting such claim, or to their submitting to arbitration, referring, or otherwise agreeing the same; and on other business.

CARDWELL and SMITH'S CREDITORS.

Doncaster, June 7, 1824.

THE joint Creditors of Henry Cardwell and John Smith (Bankrupts), are particularly requested to meet the Assignee of the said Bankrupts' estate and effects, at the Office of Mr. Frederick Fisher, Solicitor, in Doncaster, on Saturday the 26th day of June instant, at Three o'clock in the Afternoon, to take into consideration the claim made by a mortgagee to the entire proceeds of sale of the said Bankrupts' machinery; to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery of any part of the said Bankrupts' effects; and on other special business.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against William Goodall and John Turner, late of Garlick-Hill, in the City of London, Merchants, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, on Thursday the 17th day of June instant, at Twelve o'clock at Noon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees allowing an inspection of the Bankrupt's books, for the purpose of enabling the party requiring such inspection to prove a debt under the said Commission.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Samuel Morris, of Cheltenham, in the County of Gloucester, Builder, Dealer and Chapman, are desired to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on the 15th day of June instant, at Twelve o'clock at Noon precisely, at the King's Head Inn, in the City of Gloucester, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of, to the said Bankrupt, a certain strip of ground, containing 15 feet, or thereabouts, in front, and 153 feet in depth, situate on the east side of the turnpike-road leading from Cheltenham towards Prestbury, subject to a right of road through and over the same, to and from the ground lying behind the two messuages, adjoining to and on the south side of the said strip of ground, belonging to Richard Pruett, Esq.; and generally to the doing any other matter or thing touching or in anywise concerning the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against (the late) Robert Brearley, of Spottland Bridge, near Rochdale, in the County of Lancaster, Dealer and Chapman, are desired to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on the 24th day of June instant, at Twelve o'clock at Noon, at the Office of Messrs. Alexander, Solicitors, in Halifax, in the County of York, to vary so much of one of the resolutions of the Creditors made at the same place, on the 10th day of December last past, as relates to the price at which the Assignees have power to sell the Bankrupt's colliery, by private contract, and to give other powers to the said Assignees, or to other persons, to be then named, for selling the said colliery at another price, to be then fixed; and also to authorise the said Assignees meantime, and until such sale, to let the said colliery, or any part thereof, upon such terms and conditions as the said Assignees shall think fit; and to give authority generally to the said Assignees to take such steps with respect to the letting or taking possession of and disposing of the said colliery, partially or wholly, either mediately through a third person, or directly in their own names, as the said Creditors at such meeting, on the said 24th day of June instant, shall determine upon.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against George Holgate and Thomas Holgate, both of Burnley, in the County of Lancaster, Bankers, Merchants, Dealers, Chapman, and Copartners (trading under the style of John, George, and Thomas Holgate), are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupts' estate and effects, on Tuesday the 23d day of June instant, at Eleven in the Forenoon precisely, at the Thorn Inn; within Burnley aforesaid, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees employing the said Bankrupts, both or either of them, to assist in managing and winding up the affairs of the said Bankrupts, and in collecting and getting in the monies and debts due to their estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees employing Thomas Farrer and Jonathan Marshall, both or either of them, in collecting and getting in the smaller debts due to the said Bankrupts' estate, for goods sold and delivered; and to the said Assignees paying to the said persons to be so employed, for their trouble in assisting in the management of the said affairs, and getting in of the said debts, out of the Bankrupts' estate, such remuneration as may by the said Assignees be deemed proper and necessary; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees compounding a certain debt due from a certain person, to be named at the meeting, to the said Bankrupts' estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees making such arrangements as they may be advised or think proper, relative to the liquidation of a certain debt due from the firm of Messrs. Holgate, Massey, and Company, of Burnley aforesaid, Cotton, Worsted, and Woollen-Manufacturers and Merchants, to the said Bankrupts' estate, and for the settlement of the said Bankrupts' shares and interests in the last-mentioned firm; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees prosecuting, carrying on, compounding, or agreeing the several matters in dispute in a certain suit in the High Court of Chancery, wherein one John Aspinall, the said Bankrupts, and another are plaintiffs, and Elizabeth Petrin and others are defendants; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying in full to the said John Aspinall certain instalments due to him on or by virtue of two certain indentures, bearing date respectively the 28th day of February, and the 27th day of June 1822, and made between the said Bankrupts of the one part, and the said John Aspinall of the other part; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying the costs hitherto incurred in prosecuting the said suit, on behalf of the said John Aspinall and the said Bankrupts, out of a certain fund left in their hands for that purpose; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying to the Trustees of the Burnley Gas Light Company a final instalment of £15 per Cent. now called for and due to them upon certain shares in the capital stock of the said Company, and now standing in the Bankrupts' names in the said Company's books; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees completing or relinquishing certain agreements entered into by the said Bankrupts, for the purchase of certain real property within Burnley aforesaid, the particulars whereof will be explained to the Creditors present at the said meeting; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against John Nelson, of Cheltenham, in the County of Gloucester, Tea-Dealer, Dealer and Chapman, are desired to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Saturday the 12th day of June instant, at Twelve of the Clock at Noon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing, either by public sale or private contract, of the stock in trade, goodwill, furniture, and effects, of and belonging to the Bankrupt at the time of his bankruptcy, at the best price or prices that can be procured for the same; and to their taking such security, and giving such time and indulgence for payment of the same, as the said Assignees may think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery of or relative to any part of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees employing the Bankrupt, or any other person, to collect and get in the debts due to the estate, and to the said Assignees making such allowance or compensation for the same as they may see fit; and to the said Assignees compounding or compromising, or taking less than the whole of or for any debt or debts due and owing to the said Bankrupt's estate, and giving such time and indulgence for payment of the same as to them may seem advisable; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and also to the said Assignees paying the salary or wages of servants and shopmen employed to carry on the said Bankrupt's business since his bankruptcy; and on other special matters.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Peter Atkinson, of Rathbone-Place, Oxford-Street, in the County of Middlesex, Haberdasher, Dealer and Chapman, are desired to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Friday the 11th of June instant, at Seven in the Evening precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees allowing and paying to a person then to be named, the whole or any part of certain disbursements and charges made and incurred in and about the affairs of one William Steel, a Bankrupt, who was a considerable Debtor to their estate; and also certain costs, charges and expences incurred by their Solicitor, relative to the Bankruptcy of the said William Steel; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Thomas Thurtell, late of the Cock Tavern, Haymarket, in the County of Middlesex, Victualler, Dealer and Chapman, are desired to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Saturday the 12th day of June instant, at One in the Afternoon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees prosecuting or defending; compromising or discontinuing certain proceedings at law and in equity now pending between the said Bankrupt and the said Assignees, and the managing Director of the County Fire Office; and also for the purpose of authorising the said Assignees to do whatsoever they shall think fit and advisable with and relative to the Policy of Insurance effected by the said Bankrupt with the said County Fire-Office.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against James Tweed, of Darby-Street, Rosemary-Lane, in the County of Middlesex, Cabinet-Maker, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on the 10th day of June instant, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of all and every the stock in trade, (Manufactured and unmanufactured), household furniture, and other the effects of the said Bankrupt, or any of them, or any part or parts thereof respectively, either by public auction or private contract; and also to take into consideration the nature of the tenure or holding of the said Bankrupt, to the premises in Darby-Street aforesaid; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees taking to the same, as part of the said Bankrupt's estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the appropriation of part of the assets of the said estate in the repayment of certain sums of money heretofore made by the Solicitor and Auctioneer employed, to certain journey-men for wages due for their skill and labour, in continuing and completing of certain articles of furniture, found in an unfinished state, upon the Messenger seizing the effects, and to the sanctioning the continuance of the same work until such respective articles are finished and fit for sale; also to assent to or dissent from the Assignees, or any two of them taking the proper steps to the due investigation of the validity of certain debts upon the proceedings, and other debts that have been attempted to be proved, and stand over by direction of the Commissioners in the said Commission named and if they the Assignees, or any two of them, after such inquiry in their discretion think fit, to be at liberty to petition the Lord High Chancellor, for the expunction of such as are now upon the proceedings, or any one, or more of them or any such other or others, as may hereafter get thereon; also to assent to or dissent from the allowance out of the said assets unto the petitioning Creditor, of certain costs, charges and expences he was put unto in instructing Counsel to examine the Bankrupt, and certain other persons upon oath, at a private meeting before the Commissioners, antecedent to the choice of Assignees; and also to assent to or dissent from the Assignees employing an accountant or other person to examine and investigate the Bankrupt's books and affairs, and, if carried in the affirmative, to authorise the said Assignees to compensate and pay the said Accountant or other person out of the said assets as they in their discretion shall hereafter think reasonable and just; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees saving out of or setting apart a certain portion of the household furniture of the said Bankrupt from the general sale, for the benefit of the said Bankrupt, if the said Assignees, or the majority of them, shall hereafter in their discretion think the Bankrupt entitled to the same; and generally to authorise and sanction the Assignees in commencing, prosecuting or defending (in case of need), any action or actions, suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery and protection of all or any part of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.
