

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

SATURDAY, JUNE 19, 1824.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 25th of May 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to authorise the importation into or exportation from the United Kingdom, or from any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any goods, wares, or merchandise, which may be legally imported or exported in foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties only, and with the like drawbacks, bounties, and allowances, as are charged or granted upon similar goods, wares, or merchandise, when imported or exported in British vessels, provided always, that before any such Order or Orders shall be issued, satisfactory proof shall have been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise, imported into or exported from the foreign country in whose favour such remission of duties, or such drawbacks, bounties, or allowances, shall be granted, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances, when imported into or exported from such foreign country in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise, when imported or exported in vessels of such country: And whereas, by an Act, passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled

"An Act to indemnify all persons concerned in advising, issuing, or acting, under a certain Order in Council for regulating the tonnage duties on certain foreign vessels; and to amend an Act of the last Session of Parliament, for authorising His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in any foreign vessels," His Majesty is authorised (in certain cases), by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to permit and authorise the entry into any port or ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or of any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties of tonnage only as are or may be charged or granted upon or in respect of British vessels: And whereas by a Convention, bearing date the second day of April last, His Majesty the King of Prussia has engaged that, from and after the first day of May then next ensuing, British vessels and their cargoes entering or departing from the ports of Prussia shall be placed on the same footing as Prussian vessels, in respect of the articles permitted to be imported or exported, and of the duties, bounties, drawbacks, and allowances, on such British vessels and cargoes; His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in Him by the Acts above recited, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the first of this instant May, Prussian vessels entering or departing from the ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, shall not be subject to any other or higher duties or charges whatever than are or shall be levied on British vessels entering or departing from such ports: That all articles of the growth, produce, or manufacture, of any of the dominions of His Prussian Majesty, which are or shall be permitted to be imported into or exported from the ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in British vessels, shall, in like manner, be permitted to be imported into and exported from the said ports in Prussian vessels: That all articles not of the growth, produce, or manufacture, of the dominions of His Prussian Majesty, which can legally be imported from Prussia into the ports of the United Kingdom in Prussian vessels, shall be subject only to the same duties as are payable upon the like articles if imported in British ships: That all goods, wares, and merchandise, which can legally be imported into the ports of the United Kingdom, shall be admitted at the same rate of duty when imported in Prussian vessels that is charged on similar articles imported in British vessels; and that all goods, wares, or merchandize, which can be legally exported from the ports of the United Kingdom shall be entitled to the same bounties, drawbacks, and allowances, when exported in Prussian vessels that are granted, paid, or allowed, on similar articles when exported in British vessels.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 25th of May 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to authorise the importation into or exportation from the United Kingdom, or from any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any goods, wares, or merchandise, which may be legally imported or exported in foreign vessels upon payment of such and the like duties only, and with the like drawbacks, bounties, and allowances as are charged or granted upon similar goods, wares, or merchandise when imported or exported in British vessels; provided always, that, before any such Order or Orders shall be issued, satisfactory proof shall have been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into or exported from the foreign country in whose favour such remission of duties, or such drawbacks, bounties, or allowances shall be granted, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances when imported into or exported from such foreign country in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported or exported in vessels of such country: and whereas by an Act, passed in the present session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to indemnify all persons concerned in advising, issuing, or acting under a certain Order in Council, for regulating the tonnage duties on certain foreign vessels; and to amend an Act of the last session of Parliament, for authorising His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in any foreign vessels," His Majesty is authorised (in certain cases), by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to permit and authorise the entry into any port or ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or of any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties of tonnage only as are or may be charged or granted upon or in respect of British vessels; and whereas satisfactory proof has been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise, imported into or exported from the ports of Sweden, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances, when imported or exported in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported or exported from Sweden in Swedish vessels; and that British vessels are charged with no other or higher tonnage duties on their entrance into the ports of Sweden, than are levied on Swedish vessels; His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in him by the Acts above recited, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the first day of June next, Swedish vessels entering the ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in ballast or laden, or departing from the ports of the said United Kingdom, together with the cargoes on board the same, such cargoes consisting of articles which may be legally imported or exported, shall not be subject to any other or higher duties or charges whatever, than are or shall be levied on British vessels entering or departing from such ports, or on similar articles when imported into or exported from such ports in British vessels; and also that such articles, when exported from the said ports in Swedish vessels, shall be entitled to the same bounties, drawbacks, and allowances that are granted on similar articles when exported in British vessels:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 25th of May 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to authorise the importation into or exportation from the United Kingdom, or from any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any goods, wares, or merchandise which may be legally imported or exported in foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties only, and with the like drawbacks, bounties, and allowances as are charged or granted upon similar goods, wares, or merchandise when imported or exported in British vessels; provided always, that before any such Order or Orders shall be issued, satisfactory proof shall have been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into or exported from the foreign country in whose favour such remission of duties, or such drawbacks, bounties, or allowances shall be granted, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances when imported into or exported from such foreign country in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported or exported in vessels of such country: And whereas by an Act, passed in the present session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to indemnify all persons concerned in advising, issuing, or acting under a certain Order in Council, for regulating the tonnage duties on certain foreign vessels; and to amend an Act of the last session of Parliament, for authorising His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in any foreign vessels," His Majesty is authorised (in certain cases), by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to permit and authorise the entry into any port or ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or of any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties of tonnage only as are or may be charged or granted upon or in respect of British vessels: And whereas satisfactory proof has been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into or exported from the Kingdom of Hanover, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances when imported or exported in British vessels as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported or exported from the said Kingdom of Hanover, in Hanoverian vessels; and that British vessels are charged with no other or higher tonnage duties on their entrance into the ports of the Kingdom of Hanover, than are levied on Hanoverian vessels; His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in him by the Acts above recited, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the first of this instant May, Hanoverian vessels entering or departing from the ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, together with the cargoes on board the same, such cargoes consisting of articles which may be legally imported or exported, shall not be subject to any other or higher duties or charges whatever than are or shall be levied on British vessels entering or departing from such ports, or on similar articles when imported into or exported from such ports in British vessels; and also that such articles when exported from the said ports in Hanoverian vessels, shall be entitled to the same bounties, drawbacks, and allowances, that are granted on similar articles when exported in British vessels:

Grocers' Hall,
June 19, 1824.

By Authority of Parliament,

THOMAS NETTLESHIP, Clerk of the Grocers' Company.

WHEREAS by a Decretal Order of the Court of Chancery of the County-Palatine of Lancaster, bearing date the 14th day of April 1824, and made in a Cause Taylor and others against Grocock, it was, amongst other things, referred to the Registrar of the said Court to inquire and certify who was or were the next of kin of James Taylor, late of Manchester, in the said County, Hatter, deceased (the testator in the pleadings of the said Cause named), living at the time of his decease; and whether any and which of such next of kin were living, and if any of them were dead, when they respectively died, and who were the personal representative or representatives of such of the said next of kin as had died since the death of the said testator.—All persons claiming to be such next of kin, and claiming any share or interest in one-sixth part of the residuary personal estate given and bequeathed by the said testator's will to Ann Taylor, in the said will named (who died in the lifetime of the said testator), and the personal representatives of such deceased next of kin, are to come in and substantiate their claims before William Shawe, Esq. the Registrar of the said Court, at his Office, in Preston, in the said County, on or before the 17th of July 1824, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decretal Order.

WHEREAS by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery made in a Cause Kirkland against Reid, it was referred to William Courtenay, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire what is the law in the United States of America with regard to the distribution of intestates personal property, and what relations of John MacIver, formerly of Stornaway, in Scotland (and who died at Augusta, in Georgia, South Carolina, in the United States of America, in or about the month of November 1820), entitled to the benefit of distribution according to such law, were living at the time of the death of the said John MacIver, and if any such relations shall have since died, who is or are entitled to the share or shares of him, her, or them who shall have so died.—All persons claiming to be entitled to the benefit of distribution of the said John MacIver's personal estate according to the laws of the United States of America, are, on or before the 31st day of July 1824, to come in and make out and prove their claims of relationship or representation before William Courtenay, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to the Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Kirkland against Reid, the Creditors of John MacIver, formerly of Stornaway, in Scotland (who died at Augusta, in Georgia, in South Carolina, in the United States of America, in or about the month of November 1820), are, on or before the 31st day of July 1824, to come in and prove their debts before William Courtenay, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of His Majesty's Court of Exchequer at Westminster, made in a Cause intitled Hartley against Tootal, the Creditors and Legatees of Thomas Tootal, late of Clivet, in the Parish of Rayston, in the County of York, Farmer and Corp-Factor, deceased (who died on or about the 24th day of March 1802), are forthwith, by their Solicitors, to come in and prove their respective debts, and claim their respective legacies, before Jefferies Spranger, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, Mitre-Court-Buildings, Temple, London, or in default thereof the said Creditors will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to an Order of the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, made in the matter of James Southby (a lunatic) bearing date the 10th day of April 1824, the issue, if any, of the marriage of the said James Southby, formerly of Shrewsbury, and now of Brace-Meole, in the County of Salop, Gentleman, and Elizabeth Southby, his late wife, formerly Elizabeth Hodges, Spinster (and who died on or about the 25th day of July 1819), are, on or before the 16th day of July next, to come in and prove their relationship before James Trower, Esq. one of the Masters of the High Court of Chancery, in his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof, they will be excluded the benefit of the said Order; and in pursuance of the said Order, any will or deed made or executed by the said Elizabeth Southby disposing of the settled fund, or any part thereof, mentioned in the settlement made previous to the marriage of the said James Southby and Elizabeth Hodges, bearing date the 6th day of March 1795, is to be produced and proved before the said Master, and in default thereof, all persons having or claiming any benefit or advantage under any such will or deed will be excluded the benefit of the said Order.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Christie v. Squire, Widow, the Creditors of William Squire, late of the Town of Hertford, Mealman, deceased, are, personally or by their Solicitors, to come in and prove their debts before James Trower, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on or before the 1st day of July next, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against John Baptist Austin, of Cheapside, in the City of London, and of Farnham, in the County of Surrey, Druggist, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Wednesday the 23d day of June instant, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of the lease of the Bankrupt's premises at Farnham, and his stock, furniture, and effects there, and also his stock and effects, at Cheapside aforesaid, or any part or parts thereof, to any person or persons, by public sale or private contract, and their taking such security, and giving such time for payment of the price or prices of any part or parts thereof as they shall think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or suit at law or in equity, relative to any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; and their paying certain expenses incurred, previously to the opening of the said Commission, in trying to arrange the said Bankrupt's affairs; and their compounding, referring to arbitration, or otherwise settling any matter or thing relating to any part of the said Bankrupt's estate; and their paying the salary or wages of servants and shopmen employed to carry on the said Bankrupt's business since his Bankruptcy; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Thomas Twynam, of Plymouth, in the County of Devon, Flour-Factor, are desired to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Wednesday the 7th day of July next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Royal Hotel, in Plymouth aforesaid, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees defending a certain suit in Chancery, instituted against them and others, by James Boyle, a Purser in the Royal Navy, to establish a mortgage of certain messuages or dwelling houses, quay, lofts, and other hereditaments, in Plymouth aforesaid, alleged to have been made to or in trust for him by the said Bankrupt, to secure a large sum of money, or to establish an equitable lien claimed thereon, in respect of £2000, said to have been paid by the said James Boyle to certain persons, to be named at the said meeting; and also to assent or dissent from the commencement, by the said Assignees, of an action or actions of ejectment, for recovery of the said hereditaments and premises; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing and prosecuting certain actions at law against certain persons indebted to the said estate, or having property of the said Bankrupt's in their possession, such persons to be also named at the said meeting; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing to any matter or thing relating to all or any of the matters aforesaid; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Thomas Smith, Clerk, now or late of Gordon-House, Kentish Town, in the County of Middlesex, Bookseller, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Wednesday the 23d day of June instant, at One of the Clock in the Afternoon precisely at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees confirming or annulling a sale, stated to have been made by the Bankrupt to a person, who will be named at the meeting, of the lease, fixtures, furniture, and effects of Gordon-House aforesaid, and the good-will of the school carried on there, as from Lady-Day last, and if to annul such sale, then to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling such lease, fixtures, furniture, effects, and good-will, by public or private sale, to such person or persons, and for such price or prices as they shall think proper, and with power, if they shall deem it advisable so to do, to sell the same wholly or in part, on credit, taking such security for the payment of the purchase money, or such part thereof for which credit shall be given, by bills of exchange, or otherwise, as they shall think proper, and likewise with full power for the said Assignees to make such arrangements with the purchaser or purchasers of the said premises for taking to the same, and the debts and credits of the school as from Lady-Day last, or such other arrangements respecting the same, and the remuneration, if any, to be given to the person or persons who have carried on the school as from Lady-Day last, as they shall deem advisable; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees confirming or contesting certain claims of lien made by certain of the Creditors of the said Bankrupt to property in their hands, and if to contest such claims, for the said Assignees to take such measures at law or in equity for that purpose as they shall deem advisable; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees employing an accountant or other person to examine the books of the said Bankrupt, to make up the said Bankrupt's accounts, and to collect in the debts, or for all or any such purposes, and to paying such accountant or other persons such compensation for his trouble as they may think proper; also to their paying and discharging the several servants of the said Bankrupt their salaries and wages in full, or such part thereof, as they may think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees managing and conducting the said Bankrupt's estate as they might deem fit and necessary for the interest of the Creditors; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for recovery of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Thomas Wells the elder, of Union-Street, Southwark, in the County of Surrey, Hat-Manufacturer, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Tuesday the 22d day of June instant, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling or disposing of all or any part of the Bankrupt's least-valued estate, household furniture, stock in trade, fixtures and effects, together or in parcels, and either by public auction or private contract, or by valuation or appraisement, to any person or persons who may be disposed to take or purchase the same, and upon such terms and credit, or upon such security or securities as the said Assignees may think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying certain costs and charges incurred by the opening of a former Commission of Bankrupt against the said Thomas Wells, and superseding the same; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees redeeming the lease of the Bankrupt's house and premise in Union-Street aforesaid, or of disputing the lien or mortgage on the same as they should think fit; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, or to their presenting or opposing any petition or petitions for the recovery, defence or prosecution of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE joint and several Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Samuel Henry Leah, late of Old-Street, in the County of Middlesex, Watch-Maker, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Wednesday the 23d day of June instant, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees putting the said Samuel Henry Leah into the possession of the Rum Punchon Public House, Old-Street aforesaid, and into receipt of the rents of the other parts of the property yet remaining unsold, upon terms which will be explained at the meeting; and on other special affairs.

THE joint and several Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Samuel Henry Leah the younger, late of Old-Street, in the County of Middlesex, Spirit-Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Wednesday the 23d day of June instant, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees putting Mr. Leah, senior, into possession of the Rum Punchon Public House, Old-Street aforesaid, and into receipt of the rents of the other parts of the property yet remaining unsold, upon terms which will be explained at the said meeting; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Job Whitehouse the younger and William Nicklin Whitehouse, of Wolverhampton, in the County of Stafford, Copartners, Factors, Dealers and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupts' estate and effects, on Monday the 21st day of June instant, at Ten o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Offices of Mr. George Robinson, Solicitor, in Wolverhampton aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee compromising with Messrs. Wrottesley and Holyoke, of Wolverhampton aforesaid, Bankers, a certain claim made by them to certain books, debts, and effects of the said Bankrupts, upon certain terms, to be named at the said meeting; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee commencing, prosecuting, or defending any actions or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery of any part of the said Bankrupts' estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Francis Fisher, of Austin-Friars, in the City of London, Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, are desired to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Tuesday the 22d day of June instant, at Three o'Clock in the Afternoon, precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying and discharging certain expences incurred in the employment of an accountant in and about the affairs of the Bankrupt, previously to the issuing of the Commission, and choice of Assignees thereunder; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees continuing to employ such accountant or other persons, in case of need, as they may think proper, in the arrangement and settlement of the said Bankrupt's affairs, and to their making such accountant or other persons so to be employed by them such remuneration or allowance as the Assignees shall deem proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling or disposing of the household furniture and effects of the said Bankrupt, either by public auction or private contract, and at or for such prices, and on such credit as they shall think fit; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees adjusting, referring, or settling accounts with the Assignees of certain persons, who will be named at such meeting; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying the wages of the clerks and servants of the said Bankrupt; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees consenting to a sale, either by public auction or private contract, by the equitable mortgagee of certain securities held by him, or to his taking such securities, or any part thereof, at a specific sum in reduction of his debt in the discretion of the Assignees; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

C. 2

Notice to the Creditors of Thomson and Goodsir, Muslin and Lace-Merchants, in Edinburgh, and of William Thomson, and Joseph Goodsir, the Partners of that Company, as Individuals.

THE Lords of the First Division of the Court of Session have sequestrated the real and personal estates of the said Thomson and Goodsir, and of William Thomson and Joseph Goodsir, the Partners thereof, as individuals; and have appointed their Creditors to meet within the Waterloo Tavern, Regent's-Bridge, Edinburgh, on Tuesday the 23d day of June current, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon, to name an Interim Factor; and to meet again, at same place and hour, on Thursday the 8th July next, for the purpose of choosing a Trustee.—Of which intimation is hereby given, in terms of the Statute.—June 14, 1824.

NOTICE.

THE Court of Session, of this date, sequestrated the whole estates and effects, heritable and moveable, real and personal, of William and James Paul, Distillers and Merchants, in Stirling, and of William Paul and James Paul, the individual Partners of said Company; and appointed their Creditors to meet at Stirling, within the Saracen's Head Inn there, on Thursday the 24th of June current, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon, to choose an Interim Factor; and, at the same place and hour, on Friday the 9th of July next, to elect a Trustee or Trustees on said sequestrated estates.—Of which notice is hereby given, in terms of the Statute.

Notice to the Creditors of Peter Christie, Grocer and Spirit-Dealer, in Perth.

JOHAN CHRISTIE, Distiller, at Fowls, hereby intimates, that his appointment as Trustee on the sequestrated estate of the said Peter Christie has been confirmed; that the Sheriff of Perthshire has fixed Wednesday the 23d June current, and Friday the 9th day of July next, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon each day, within the Sheriff-Court-House, at Perth, for the public examination of the Bankrupt, or others connected with his business. And that two general meetings of the Creditors will be held within the Office of John and James Miller, Writers, High-Street, Perth, the one on Saturday the 10th day of July, and the other on Saturday the 24th of July, both next, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon each day, the last of those meetings being for the purpose of electing Commissioners and giving directions, in terms of the Statute. The Trustee further requires the Creditors to produce in his hands their grounds of debt, and oaths of verity thereon, at or previous to said first meeting; certifying, those who fail to do so on or before the 5th day of March next, that they will receive no share of the first dividend, under the exceptions provided for by the Statute.

Notice to the Creditors of Charles Sutherland, late Merchant, in Golspie.

THE Trustee on the sequestrated estate of the said Charles Sutherland, hereby intimates, that in terms of the 56th section of the Bankrupt Act, a meeting of the said Creditors will be held within Ross's Inn, Dornoch, on Monday the 5th July next, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon, for the purpose of authorising and directing the Trustee to sell off by public auction the remaining outstanding debts belonging to the said estate.

Notice to the Creditors of Lee and Myers, Jewellers, Auctioneers, and General Agents, in Glasgow, Moss Lee and Daniel Myers, the individual Partners of that Company.

Edinburgh, June 15, 1824.

THIS day the Court of Session sequestrated the whole estates, real and personal of the said Lee and Myers, as a Company, and Moss Lee and Daniel Myers, as individuals; and appointed their Creditors to meet within the Lyceum-Rooms, Nelson-Street, Glasgow, on Monday the 21st of June current, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, for the purpose of choosing an Interim Factor on said sequestrated estates; and again, at the same place and hour, on Tuesday the 6th day of July next, for the purpose of electing a Trustee thereon. Of which notice is hereby given, in terms of the Statute.

Notice to the Creditors of the late James McEwen, Rope-Spinner, in Perth.

Perth, June 12, 1824.

THE Trustee and Commissioners on the said sequestrated estate, hereby intimate, that a general meeting of the Creditors will be held within the George Inn, Perth, on Saturday 3d of July next, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon, for the purpose of considering business of importance.

1. The first part of the paper is devoted to a discussion of the general principles of the theory of the structure of the human brain. It is shown that the brain is a complex system of interconnected parts, each of which has its own specific function. The author emphasizes the importance of the study of the structure of the brain for the understanding of the human mind.

2. The second part of the paper is devoted to a discussion of the methods of research in the field of the structure of the human brain. The author describes the various techniques used by scientists to study the brain, including anatomical, physiological, and psychological methods. He also discusses the limitations of these methods and the need for further research.

3. The third part of the paper is devoted to a discussion of the results of research in the field of the structure of the human brain. The author presents a summary of the findings of various studies and discusses their implications for our understanding of the human mind. He also points out the areas where further research is needed.

4. The fourth part of the paper is devoted to a discussion of the applications of the theory of the structure of the human brain. The author shows how the knowledge of the structure of the brain can be used to improve our understanding of the human mind and to develop new methods of treatment for mental disorders.

5. The fifth part of the paper is devoted to a discussion of the future of research in the field of the structure of the human brain. The author predicts that further research will lead to a better understanding of the human mind and to the development of new methods of treatment for mental disorders.

6. The sixth part of the paper is devoted to a discussion of the conclusions of the author. He summarizes the main points of his paper and emphasizes the importance of the study of the structure of the human brain for the understanding of the human mind.

7. The seventh part of the paper is devoted to a discussion of the bibliography. The author lists the various sources of information used in his paper and provides a brief description of each source.

8. The eighth part of the paper is devoted to a discussion of the index. The author provides a list of the various topics covered in his paper and indicates the pages where each topic is discussed.

9. The ninth part of the paper is devoted to a discussion of the appendix. The author provides a list of the various figures and tables included in his paper and provides a brief description of each figure and table.
