

Whitehall, June 28, 1824.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Valentine Willis, of Luton, in the county of Bedford, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Court of King's-Bench, June 26, 1824.

THE following Warrant, under the King's Sign Manual, having been issued under the authority of the Statute 3 George IVth, cap. 102, was this day openly and publicly notified and declared in this Court, in pursuance of the said Statute, viz.

GEORGE, R.

Whereas by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the third year of Our reign, intituled "An Act to repeal an Act, of the first and second year of His present Majesty, for facilitating the dispatch of business in the Court of King's-Bench, and to make further provisions in lieu thereof," it is, among other things, enacted, that from and after the passing of the said Act, it shall and may be lawful to and for Us, Our heirs and successors, and We and They are thereby authorized, from time to time, as to Us or Them shall seem meet, by Warrant under Our or Their Sign Manual, directed to the Judges of Our said Court, to direct and require the Judges of Our said Court, or any two or more of them, to meet at Serjeants-Inn-Hall, Westminster-Hall, or some other convenient place to be by them appointed, on such and so many days in the vacation or interval between any Terms as to Us, Our heirs and successors, shall seem fit and proper, for the dispatch of such matters as at the end of the Term mentioned in such Warrant may be depending in Our said Court, whether on the Crown or Plea side thereof; and whereas We have been given to understand, that numerous matters are now depending in Our said Court, which cannot be dispatched during this present Trinity Term, and which ought to be dispatched with all convenient speed; now, therefore, We do hereby, in pursuance of the said Act, direct and require you the Lord Chief Justice and the other Judges of Our said Court before Us, or any two or more of you, to meet at Serjeants-Inn-Hall, Westminster-Hall, or some other convenient place to be by you appointed according to the said Act, on Monday the twelfth day of July now next coming, and from thence until Tuesday the twentieth day of July inclusive, and on Monday the twenty-fifth day of October next until the commencement of the ensuing Michaelmas Term, for the dispatch of such matters as may be depending in Our said Court at the end of the present Trinity Term, whether on the Crown or Plea side thereof; provided, always, that if the attendance of any one of you at the Session of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol delivery, for the county of Middlesex, shall be found requisite during any part of the time herein mentioned, and another of you shall also during such attendance be sitting for the Trial of Causes at Nisi Prius, then it shall be in the discretion of the remaining two of you either to meet or not to meet in obedience hereto, ac-ording to the nature of the business that may be likely to come before you during such attendance.

Given at Our Court at Carlton-House, the twenty-fifth day of June one thousand eight hundred and twenty-four, in the fifth year of Our reign.

By His Majesty's command,
ROBERT PEEL,

To the Lord Chief Justice and other the Judges of Our Court before Us.

OFFICE OF COMMISSIONERS FOR BRITISH AND SPANISH CLAIMS, 12, Manchester-Buildings, June 28, 1824.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the term for receiving the claims of British and Spanish subjects, under the Convention of the 12th of March 1823, which, according to the notification published by the mixed Commission on the 11th of October 1823, expired on the 11th of April last, is, under due authority from the High Contracting Parties concerned, extended until the 11th day of October next ensuing.

And all claimants under the said Convention are hereby invited to take advantage of the said extension of the term, by sending in claims, with due documents annexed, between the present time and the 12th of October next, to the Office of the Commissioners, No. 12, Manchester-buildings.

NORTH RIDING OF YORKSHIRE.

North Allerton, June 26, 1824.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a general meeting of His Majesty's Lieutenancy of the said riding will be holden at the Golden Lion Inn, North Allerton, on Wednesday the 14th day of July next, at twelve o'clock at noon; for the purpose of carrying further into execution the several Acts of Parliament relative to the militia of the said riding.

By order of the Lord Lieutenant,
Henry Hurst, Clerk of the General Meetings.

Christ's-Hospital, June 19, 1824.

WHEREAS John West, late of London, scrivener, and Frances his wife, both deceased, did, in their several lifetimes, settle on the Governors of the said Hospital, divers estates in and about the City of London and elsewhere; and the said Frances West did also by her will give a sum of money to the said Governors, to be laid out in the purchase of lands, &c.; the profits of the whole of the said estates to be applied for the payment of annuities or pensions of £5 each to poor men and poor women, of the age of fifty years and upwards, during their natural lives, and directed that their relations by consanguinity should have the preference; the said Governors do, therefore, hereby give notice, that if any person or persons, qualified
