No. 11, Manchester-Buildings, Westminster, 19th July 1824.

SIR Benjamin Hobhouse, Baronet, Thomas Cockburn, Esquire, and Sir Robert Harry Inglis, Baronet, who, under certain articles of agreement, bearing date the 11th day of February in the year of our Lord 1824, between the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, of the one part, and the parties thereto claiming to be creditors of His late Highness Ameer Sing, formerly Rajah of Tanjore, of the other part, have been appointed Commissioners for investigating the debts of His said late Highness, do hereby give notice to all persons claiming to be creditors of the said Ameer Sing, who are desirous of availing themselves of the benefit of the plan set forth in the said articles of agreement for liquidating the debts of the said Ameer Sing, and who have accordingly executed the said articles of agreement, that they, as Commissioners aforesaid, are ready to receive, forthwith, all claims that may be presented at their Office by parties claiming to be creditors, or by their agents.

The first of the said articles of agreement is here published for general information:

“ First,—That the said several parties hereto
“ of the second part, and their heirs, executors, “ administrators, representatives, and assigns shall “ be considered creditors of the said Ameer Sing “ for such principal sums of money as they shall “ severally establish, to the satisfaction of the “ Commissioners hereinafter mentioned, to have “ been originally due and owing to them respec“ tively by the said Ameer Sing for good, just, “ valid, lawful, and valuable considerations, to“ gether with simple interest thereon, at the rate “ of four per cent. per annum, from the time “ when such debts were severally so contracted as “ aforesaid, computed to the 30th day of April “ 1823, first deducting from such principal or such “ interest, as the said Commissioners shall deem “ just, all such sum and sums of money, or the “ value of such other satisfaction as the said “ parties of the second part, or those whom they “ represent, or through or under or in right of “ whom they claim, may have received in part and “ on account of their said debts respectively, and “ the amount of such principal and interest, at “ the rate aforesaid, or the balance of such prin“ cipal and interest, as the case may be, shall be “ satisfied by transferrable bonds or certificates to “ be issued by the Madras Government, by order “ of the Court of Directors of the said United Com“ pany, to the person or persons in whose favor the “ same shall be awarded, as hereinafter is men“ tioned; and such bonds or certificates for such “ consolidated principal and interest, or the balance “ thereof, shall bear interest at the rate of four “ pounds per cent. per annum from the said 30th “ day of April 1823, such interest to be payable “ half-yearly on the 30th day of October, and the “ 30th day of April in every year; so long as the re“ venues of Tanjore shall continue to be in the “ possession of the said United Company; and “ such interest shall be paid at Madras in money,
“ or in case of creditors or holders of such bonds
“ or certificates, bonâ fide resident in Europe, “ then at their option in money at Madras, or by “ bills of exchange on the said Court of Directors
“ in London, at twelve months date, at an ex“ change equivalent to two shillings and one penny
“ for the sicca rupee; that the principal be paid
“ at Madras only, at the pleasure of the said “ United Company or their successors, upon fifteen

“ calendar months notice thereof to be duly published at Madras; and that a sinking fund be established in the manner and for the purpose hereinafter agreed: provided always, and it is hereby declared and agreed, that no person or persons shall be entitled to any bond or certificate, or satisfaction whatsoever, in respect of any debt or claim which originated on a present, gift, or gratuitous allowance, or other than on a valid, lawful, and valuable consideration; and all claims for any debts contracted gratuitously, illegally, or without a valid, lawful, and valuable consideration, shall be wholly disallowed; but, nevertheless, it is declared and agreed, that reasonable fees to lawyers, physicians, and surgeons shall not be considered as presents, gifts, or gratuitous allowances: provided also, and it is hereby further declared, that no sum whatever shall be allowed as for pay or salary, or allowance of any description, to any person or persons whomsoever, beyond what shall be considered by the said Commissioners as an adequate return for services rendered or performed bona fide by the person or persons who shall claim any pay, salary, or allowance, or under or in right of whom such claim shall be made.”

Notices to the effect of this notice will be published by the Commissioners to be appointed under the said articles of agreement to act in India.

It is provided by the eighth of the said articles, that the said Commissioners in India shall be competent to decide on every claim preferred to them, the amount of the original principal whereof shall not exceed the sum of one thousand rupees.

That the parties may be informed what particulars are to be stated in making their applications, the Commissioners further give notice, that the nature of each debt must be explained when the claim founded upon it is presented to them, and the consideration for the same when contracted, viz. if it arose from money lent or paid, or for articles supplied; the sum so bona fide paid or lent, or the things supplied; and if the debt be for services performed, what were the nature and length of those services.

When interest makes any part of the claim, the rate must be stated, and whether it be according to the rate specified in the obligation, or on what other ground it is claimed; and the amount of interest is to be distinguished from the amount of principal.

Where a party shall not appear in person, he must appoint an agent duly authorised to appear before the Commissioners.

When the original creditor, in respect to any claim, is not living, the heir or personal representative, or the person preferring the said claim, not being himself the original creditor, is required to state the circumstances under which the said claim came into his possession, whether in his own right or for the use of any other person.

Schedules of all claims, and of the names of the claimants, will be published in the London Gazette, and reference thereto will be thereupon given in the Morning Post, Morning Chronicle, Times, New Times, Public Ledger, and Courier, for the information of those who may be interested in supporting or opposing the same; and the Commissioners will give due notice to the party or his agent supporting or opposing any claim, of the day on which it is to be taken into consideration.

The Commissioners further give notice, that a schedule of each claim must be transmitted in the following form to this Office:

Claim of A. B. submitted for the consideration of the Commissioners:

Name of the Claimant.	Date of the Claim.	Amount of the Principal of the Claim in the Coin specified in the obligation.	Amount of the Interest and rate of do.	Aggregate Amount in the Coin specified in the obligation.	Vouchers produced in support of the Claim.	REMARKS.

The Commissioners are authorised, if they shall see fit (either of their own accord, or at the instance of the Company, or of any person having an interest to support or oppose any of the claims), to summon, by their precept, any person to attend them, and to require the production of books, deeds, papers, accounts, or writings; and if any person shall abscond, or wilfully avoid being summoned by the precept, or after being summoned, shall wilfully neglect to appear before the Commissioners, or to produce the accounts or writings in his possession which have been required, or shall refuse to be sworn, or being sworn shall refuse to answer on oath, or being a Quaker, shall refuse to answer on affirmation the questions of the Commissioners, it is declared lawful for the Commissioners to issue their warrant for committing every such person to prison, there to remain, without bail or mainprize, until he shall submit to be sworn and examined, or, being a Quaker, to make affirmation, or to make the production required.

And it is provided that no person shall be compelled to appear before the Commissioners, unless at the service of the precept, or within a reasonable time before the day appointed for attendance, the probable amount of his expences, and a reasonable compensation for his loss of time, shall be tendered to him; every person who attends the Commissioners shall be entitled to this reimbursement, payable by those at whose instance the precept was issued.
