Navy-Office, July 23, 1824.

THE Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having appointed money for the payment of half-pay to Sea Officers, from the 1st of April to the 30th of June last, according to His Majesty's establishment in that behalf; these are to give notice, that the several payments will begin to be made at the Pay-Office, by the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, at ten o'clock in the morning, on the following days, viz.

On the 2d, 3d, and 4th of August, to Admirals, Captains, and their Attornies.

On the 5th, 6th, 9th, 10th, and 11th of August, to Lieutenants and Chaplains, and their Attornies.

On the 12th and 13th of August, to Masters, Surgeons, and Pursers, and their Attornies.

After which the lists will be recalled the first and third Wednesday in every month; that all persons may then and there attend to receive what may become payable to them, and bring with them an affidavit as required by Order in Council of 30th July 1819, the forms of which were published in an advertisement from this Office, dated 16th September 1819, and may be procured at the Office of the Treasurer of the Navy; and in case any of the said Officers should not be able to attend themselves, but employ Attornies for that purpose, the said Attornies are to produce similar affidavits from the persons they are employed by.

Where Officers are abroad on leave, their agents are to produce attested copies of such leave, before the half-pay can be paid.

And as by Act of Parliament, passed in the thirty-fifth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for establishing a more easy and expeditious method for the payment of Officers belonging to His Majesty's Navy," it is enacted by the twentieth clause of the said Act, "that if any Commissioned or Warrant Naval Officer who shall be entitled to receive half-pay, and shall be desirous to receive and be paid the same at or near the place of his residence, he may apply to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, in London, to have such half-pay paid at or near the place of his residence, &c. in the manner pointed out by the said Act;" and by a further Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for enabling the Officers in His Majesty's Navy, and their representatives, to draw for and receive their half-pay," it is enacted by the first and third clauses of the said Act, "that if any Officer in His Majesty's Navy, who shall be entitled to receive any sum of money for or on account of his half-pay, shall be desirous of drawing a bill of exchange for the same upon the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, instead “ of receiving the same by remittance bill, he shall signify such desire, by letter, to the Treasurer of His Majesty’s Navy; and that if any Officer in His Majesty’s Navy, who shall be entitled to receive any sum of money for or on account of half-pay, shall be desirous of having his half-pay paid to him by extract at any of His Majesty’s Dock-Yards where Clerks for the payment of wages for the Navy shall reside, instead of receiving the same by remittance bill or bill of exchange, he is to apply either to the proper Clerk, at the Navy Pay-Office, in London, or at the Pay-Office at such Dock-Yard, signifying such his desire;” notice is hereby further given, that the half-pay ending the 30th of June 1824, will commence paying on the 2d of August; and all persons desirous of drawing for or of having their half-pay remitted to them, may apply as above directed. G. Smith.

MEM.—Bills of exchange drawn under or by virtue of the Act above recited, are not liable to the stamp duty.

No persons residing out of His Majesty’s dominions are entitled to the privileges of this Act; any bill, therefore, which is drawn or negotiated abroad, will be neither accepted nor paid.

*Office of the Tanjore Commissioners,
No. 11, Manchester-Buildings, Westminster, 19th July 1824.*

SIR Benjamin Hobhouse, Baronet, Thomas Cockburn, Esquire, and Sir Robert Harry Inglis, Baronet, who, under certain articles of agreement, bearing date the 11th day of February in the year of our Lord 1824, between the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, of the one part, and the parties thereto claiming to be creditors of His late Highness Ameer Sing, formerly Rajah of Tanjore, of the other part, have been appointed Commissioners for investigating the debts of His said late Highness, do hereby give notice to all persons claiming to be creditors of the said Ameer Sing, who are desirous of availing themselves of the benefit of the plan set forth in the said articles of agreement for liquidating the debts of the said Ameer Sing, and who have accordingly executed the said articles of agreement, that they, as Commissioners aforesaid, are ready to receive, forthwith, all claims that may be presented at their Office by parties claiming to be creditors, or by their agents.

The first of the said articles of agreement is here published for general information :

“ First,—That the said several parties hereto of the second part, and their heirs, executors, administrators, representatives, and assigns shall be considered creditors of the said Ameer Sing for such principal sums of money as they shall severally establish, to the satisfaction of the Commissioners hereinafter mentioned, to have been originally due and owing to them respectively by the said Ameer Sing for good, just, valid, lawful, and valuable considerations, together with simple interest thereon, at the rate of four per cent. per annum, from the time

“ when such debts were severally so contracted as aforesaid, computed to the 30th day of April 1823, first deducting from such principal or such interest, as the said Commissioners shall deem just, all such sum and sums of money, or the value of such other satisfaction as the said parties of the second part, or those whom they represent, or through or under or in right of whom they claim, may have received in part and on account of their said debts respectively, and the amount of such principal and interest, at the rate aforesaid, or the balance of such principal and interest, as the case may be, shall be satisfied by transferrable bonds or certificates to be issued by the Madras Government, by order of the Court of Directors of the said United Company, to the person or persons in whose favor the same shall be awarded, as hereinafter is mentioned; and such bonds or certificates for such consolidated principal and interest, or the balance thereof, shall bear interest at the rate of four pounds per cent. per annum from the said 30th day of April 1823, such interest to be payable half-yearly on the 30th day of October, and the 30th day of April in every year, so long as the revenues of Tanjore shall continue to be in the possession of the said United Company; and such interest shall be paid at Madras in money, or in case of creditors or holders of such bonds or certificates, bonâ fide resident in Europe, then at their option in money at Madras, or by bills of exchange on the said Court of Directors in London, at twelve months date, at an exchange equivalent to two shillings and one penny for the sicca rupee; that the principal be paid at Madras only, at the pleasure of the said United Company or their successors, upon fifteen calendar months notice thereof to be duly published at Madras; and that a sinking fund be established in the manner and for the purpose hereinafter agreed: PROVIDED ALWAYS, AND IT IS HEREBY DECLARED AND AGREED, that no person or persons shall be entitled to any bond or certificate, or satisfaction whatsoever, in respect of any debt or claim which originated on a present, gift, or gratuitous allowance, or other than on a valid, lawful, and valuable consideration; and all claims for any debts contracted gratuitously, illegally, or without a valid, lawful, and valuable consideration, shall be wholly disallowed; BUT, NEVERTHELESS, IT IS DECLARED AND AGREED, that reasonable fees to lawyers, physicians, and surgeons shall not be considered as presents, gifts, or gratuitous allowances: PROVIDED ALSO, AND IT IS HEREBY FURTHER DECLARED, that no sum whatever shall be allowed as for pay or salary, or allowance of any description, to any person or persons whomsoever, beyond what shall be considered by the said Commissioners as an adequate return for services rendered or performed bonâ fide by the person or persons who shall claim any pay, salary, or allowance, or under or in right of whom such claim shall be made.”

Notices to the effect of this notice will be published by the Commissioners to be appointed under the said articles of agreement to act in India.

It is provided by the eighth of the said articles, that the said Commissioners in India shall be competent to decide finally on every claim preferred to them, the amount of the original principal whereof shall not exceed the sum of one thousand rupees.

That the parties may be informed what particulars are to be stated in making their applications, the Commissioners further give notice, that the nature of each debt must be explained when the claim founded upon it is presented to them, and the consideration for the same when contracted, viz. if it arose from money lent or paid, or for articles supplied; the sum so bona fide paid or lent, or the things supplied; and if the debt be for services performed, what were the nature and length of those services.

When interest makes any part of the claim, the rate must be stated, and whether it be according to the rate specified in the obligation, or on what other ground it is claimed; and the amount of interest is to be distinguished from the amount of principal.

Where a party shall not appear in person, he must appoint an agent duly authorised to appear before the Commissioners.

When the original creditor, in respect to any claim, is not living, the heir or personal representative, or the person preferring the said claim, not being himself the original creditor, is required to state the circumstances under which the said claim came into his possession, whether in his own right or for the use of any other person.

Schedules of all claims, and of the names of the claimants, will be published in the London Gazette, and reference thereto will be thereupon given in the Morning Post, Morning Chronicle, Times, New Times, Public Ledger, and Courier, for the information of those who may be interested in supporting or opposing the same; and the Commissioners will give due notice to the party or his agent supporting or opposing any claim, of the day on which it is to be taken into consideration.

The Commissioners further give notice, that a schedule of each claim must be transmitted in the following form to this Office:

Claim of A. B. submitted for the consideration of the Commissioners:

Name of the Claimant.	Date of the Claim.	Amount of the Principal of the Claim in the Coin specified in the obligation.	Amount of the Interest and rate of do.	Aggregate Amount in the Coin specified in the obligation.	Vouchers produced in support of the Claim.	REMARKS.
					This column to contain the substance of the vouchers which are to be numbered in the order in which they are referred to, and to be sealed in a separate packet, endorsed "Packet of Vouchers in support of the Claim of A. B."	This column to contain whatever particular circumstances the individuals may have to state in further support of their Claims.

N. B. The said articles of agreement for the liquidation of the debts of the said Ameer Sing are open for the inspection and signature of persons claiming to be creditors of His said Highness, at the Office of the Commissioners every day (Sundays excepted) from eleven till three o'clock; another original of the said articles is deposited for the same purposes, at the Office of Henry Smith, Esq. Solicitor to the East India Company, Drapers-Hall, Throgmorton-street.

By order of the Board,
George Parkhouse, Secretary to the Tanjore Commission.

Office of the Tanjore Commissioners,
No. 11, Manchester-Buildings, Westminster, 19th July 1824.

THE Commissioners acting in execution of certain articles of agreement between the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, of the one part, and the parties thereto describing themselves as creditors of His late Highness Ameer Sing, formerly Rajah of Tanjore, of the other part, hereby give notice to all persons whom it may concern, that an Act of Parliament was passed on the 17th June, in the last session of Parliament (5 Geo. IV.), to enable the Commissioners the better to carry the said agreement into effect; and that its principal enactments are the following, viz.

The Commissioners are to be sworn to the faithful execution of the powers and trusts vested in them by the deed of agreement.

They are authorised to examine all persons, whether parties or witnesses, upon oath, or being Quakers, upon affirmation; and it is declared lawful for them, as well as for all Courts, Judges, Masters in Chancery, Magistrates, Justices of the Peace; and all persons authorised by any Court of Record to take affidavits, to administer an oath to any person making an affidavit or deposition in writing, touching any matter referred to the Commissioners, or relating to the execution of the trust reposed in them. And in case any person in such examination upon oath, or in any such affidavit so sworn, or being a Quaker, in any such affirmation, shall wilfully and corruptly give false evidence, or make any false answer, statement, or deposition, every person so offending is declared subject to the pains and penalties of wilful and corrupt perjury.

The Commissioners are authorised, if they shall see fit (either of their own accord, or at the instance of the Company, or of any person having an interest to support or oppose any of the claims), to summon, by their precept, any person to attend them, and to require the production of books, deeds, papers, accounts, or writings; and if any person shall abscond, or wilfully avoid being summoned by the precept, or after being summoned, shall wilfully neglect to appear before the Commissioners, or to produce the accounts or writings in his possession which have been required, or shall refuse to be sworn, or being sworn shall refuse to answer on oath, or being a Quaker, shall refuse to answer on affirmation the questions of the Commissioners, it is declared lawful for the Commissioners to issue their warrant for committing every such person to prison, there to remain, without bail or mainprize, until he shall submit to be sworn and examined, or, being a Quaker, to make affirmation, or to make the production required.

It is provided that no person resident in the United Kingdom shall be compelled, by virtue of this Act, to go and appear before the Commissioners in India, nor any person resident in India to come and appear before the Commissioners in England.

And it is provided that no person shall be compelled to appear before the Commissioners, unless at the service of the precept, or within a reasonable time before the day appointed for attendance, the probable amount of his expences, and a reasonable compensation for his loss of time, shall be tendered to him; every person who attends the Commissioners shall be entitled to this reimbursement, payable by those at whose instance the precept was issued. The Commissioners are authorised, at the request of any person entitled to reimbursement, to settle the amount, and to make an order, fixing a time and place for those liable in the payment to discharge it, and the person shall still be at liberty to make his election either to accept of the amount ordered by the Commissioners, or to proceed for the recovery of his expences and reasonable compensation by action at law, it being declared, that in case of his accepting the sum so ordered, if payment is not made, he shall recover that specific sum, together with double costs of suit.

By order of the Board,
George Parkhouse, Secretary to the Tanjore Commission.
