Published by Authority.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 7, 1824.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 25th of May 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to authorise the importation into or exportation from the United Kingdom, or from any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any goods, wares, or merchandise which may be legally imported or exported in foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties only, and with the like drawbacks, bounties, and allowances as are charged or granted upon similar goods, wares, or merchandise when imported or exported in British vessels; provided always, that before any such Order or Orders shall be issued, satisfactory proof shall have been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into or exported from the foreign country in whose favour such remission of duties, or such drawbacks, bounties, or allowances shall be granted, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances when imported into or exported from such foreign country in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported or exported in vessels of such country: And whereas by an Act, passed in the present session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to indemnify all persons concerned in advising, issuing, or acting under a certain Order in Council, for regulating the tonnage duties on certain foreign vessels; and to amend an Act of the last session of Parliament, for authorising His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in any foreign vessels," His Majesty is authorised (in certain cases), by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to permit and authorise the entry into any port or ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or of any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties, of tonnage only as are or may be charged or granted upon or in respect of British vessels: And whereas satisfactory proof has been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into or exported from the Kingdom of Hanover, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances when imported or exported in British vessels as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported or exported from the said Kingdom of Hanover, in Hanoverian vessels; and that British vessels are charged with no other or higher tonnage duties on their entrance into the ports of the Kingdom of Hanover, than are levied on Hanoverian vessels; His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in him by the Acts above recited, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the first of this instant May, Hanoverian vessels entering or departing from the ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, together with the cargoes on board the same, such cargoes consisting of articles which may be legally imported or exported, shall not be subject to any other or higher duties or charges whatever than are or shall be levied on British vessels entering or departing from such ports, or on similar articles when imported into or exported from such ports in British vessels; and also that such articles when exported from the said ports in Hanoverian vessels, shall be entitled to the same bounties, drawbacks, and allowances, that are granted on similar articles when exported in British vessels:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 25th of May 1824.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to authorise the importation into or exportation from the United Kingdom, or from any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any goods, wares, or merchandise, which may be legally imported or exported in foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties only, and with the like drawbacks, bounties, and allowances, as are charged or granted upon similar goods, wares, or merchandise, when imported or exported in British vessels; provided always, that before any such Order or Orders shall be issued, satisfactory proof shall have been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise, imported into or exported from the foreign country in whose favour such remission of duties, or such drawbacks, bounties, or allowances, shall be granted, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances, when imported into or exported from such foreign country in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise, when imported or exported in vessels of such country: And whereas by an Act, passed in the present session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to indemnify all persons concerned in advising, issuing, or acting, under a certain Order in Council for regulating the tonnage duties on certain foreign vessels; and to amend an Act of the last session of Parliament, for authorising His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in any foreign vessels," His Majesty is authorised (in certain cases), by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to permit and authorise the entry into any port or ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or of any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties of tonnage only as are or may be charged or granted upon or in respect of British vessels: And whereas by a Convention, bearing date the second day of April last, His Majesty the King of Prussia has engaged that, from and after the first day of May then next ensuing, British vessels and their cargoes entering or departing from the ports of Prussia shall be placed on the same footing as Prussian vessels, in respect of the articles permitted to be imported or exported, and of the duties, bounties, drawbacks, and allowances, on such British vessels and cargoes; His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in him by the Acts above recited, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the first of this instant May, Prussian vessels entering or departing from the ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, shall not be subject to any other or higher duties or charges whatever than are or shall be levied on British vessels entering or departing from such ports: That all articles of the growth, produce or manufacture, of any of the dominions of His Prussian Majesty, which are or shall be permitted to be imported into or exported from the ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in British vessels, shall, in like manner, be permitted to be imported into and exported from the said ports in Prussian vessels: That all articles not of the growth, produce, or manufacture, of the dominions of His Prussian Majesty, which can legally be imported from Prussia into the ports of the United Kingdom in Prussian vessels, shall be subject only to the same duties as are payable upon the like articles if imported in British ships: That all goods, wares, and merchandise, which can legally be imported into the ports of the United Kingdom, shall be admitted at the same rate of duty when imported in Prussian vessels that is charged on similar articles imported in British vessels; and that all goods, wares, or merchandise, which can be legally exported from the ports of the United Kingdom shall be entitled to the same bounties, drawbacks, and allowances, when exported in Prussian vessels that are granted, paid, or allowed, on similar articles when exported in British vessels.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 23d of June 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage." His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to authorise the importation into or exportation from the United Kingdom, or from any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any goods, wares, or merchandise, which may be legally imported or exported in foreign vessels upon payment of such and the like duties only, and with the like drawbacks, bounties, and allowances as are charged or granted upon similar goods, wares, or merchandise when imported or exported in British vessels; provided always, that, before any such Order or Orders shall be issued, satisfactory proof shall have been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into or exported from the foreign country in whose favour such remission of duties, or such drawbacks, bounties, or allowances shall be granted, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances when imported into or exported from such foreign country in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported or exported in vessels of such country: and whereas by an Act, passed in the present session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to indemnify all persons concerned in advising, issuing, or acting under a certain Order in Council, for regulating the tonnage duties on certain foreign vessels; and to amend an Act of the last session of Parliament, for authorising His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in any foreign vessels," His Majesty is authorised (in certain cases), by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to permit and authorise the entry into any port or ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or of any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties of tonnage only as are or may be charged or granted upon or in respect of British vessels; and whereas satisfactory proof has been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise, imported into or exported from the ports of Norway, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances, when imported or exported in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported or exported from Norway in Norwegian vessels; and that British vessels are charged with no other or higher tonnage duties on their entrance into the ports of Norway, than are levied on Norwegian vessels; His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in him by the Acts above recited, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the date of this Order, Norwegian vessels entering the ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in ballast or laden, or departing from the ports of the said United Kingdom, together with the cargoes on board the same, such cargoes consisting of articles which may be legally imported or exported, shall not be subject to any other or higher duties or charges whatever, than are or shall be levied on British vessels entering or departing from such ports, or on similar articles when imported into or exported from such ports in British vessels; and also that such articles, when exported from the said ports in Norwegian vessels, shall be entitled to the same bounties, drawbacks, and allowances that are granted on similar articles when exported in British vessels:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Admiralty-Office, August 3, 1824.

CAPTAIN PARRY, of His Majesty's ship Hecla, reports, that Lieutenant Graah, of the Danish Navy, employed in surveying the west coast of Greenland, had communicated to him the position of a rock lately discovered off Liefle, in the island of Disko, as under mentioned, viz.

The rock, which is dry at low water, lies from Liefle Point, S. 49 deg. W. (true), distant  $7\frac{1}{2}$  miles.

The latitude of Liefle, by Lieutenant Graah's observations, is 69 deg. 14 min. 32 seconds.

The longitude, 53 deg. 42 min. West of Greenwich.

As this rock is stated to lie in the track of the whalers visiting Disko Sound, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty have thought fit to give this public notice thereof.

J. W. Croker,

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

NEW LIGHTS ON THE COAST OF IRELAND.

THE Corporation for preserving and improving the port of Dublin, &c. give notice, that the undermentioned light stations will be illuminated, for the first time, on Wednesday 1st of September next, and will continue to be lit in future from sun-set to sun-rise.

Coningbeg Floating Light Ship, situate off the coast of Wexford; it bears by compass S. E.  $\frac{1}{4}$  E. from the great Saltee Island, distant  $2\frac{1}{2}$  miles, 22 miles from Tusker Rock, W.  $\frac{1}{2}$  S. from Coningbeg to Hook Tower, N. W.  $\frac{1}{4}$  W. 14 miles.

The vessel is fitted with three masts, on two of which lights will be hoisted.

Kilkadraan Light House, situate on the North side of the River Shannon, 8 miles within Loop Head; it bears from Kerry Head N. E. by E.  $\frac{1}{2}$  E. distant  $12\frac{1}{2}$  miles, and from Dunmore Head E. by S.  $\frac{1}{2}$  S. distant 7 miles.

This light will be steady, of a deep red colour towards the sea, and to the interior of the River Shannon a bright light.

Carlingford Light House, placed on the Haul-bowling Rock, at the entrance of Carlingford Lough, off the coast of the county of Down; vessels approaching this harbour from the Northward, and giving the South Rock a birth of 2 miles, also Hellyhunter a birth of 2 miles, the course will be W. by S.  $\frac{1}{2}$  S. until they bring this light house N. W.  $\frac{1}{2}$  W. in passing give it a birth of half a cable's length; Hellyhunter, on which a flag buoy will be placed, is distant from the South Rock 31 miles.

The old light on Cranfield Point, is to be discontinued, and the building removed, when Carlingford Light commences.

By order, John Cossart, Secretary. Ballast-Office, Dublin, July 2, 1824.

THIRD CALCUTTA TONTINE.

THE term of the third Calcutta Tontine having expired on the 1st instant, notice is hereby given, that the Subscribers claiming to participate in the funds of the Society are required to produce to the Treasurers at Calcutta, Messrs. Cruttenden, Mackillop, and Co. satisfactory proof, by affidavits, of the existence of the parties on whose lives shares have been taken; and further, that Subscribers failing to produce such proof before the 1st January 1826, forfeit all claim, conformably to the regulations of the Society.

London, July 23, 1824.

IN obedience to an order of the Court of Lord Mayor and Aldermen, dated the 20th day of July 1824, made in pursuance of an Act of Parliament, passed in the eighteenth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for authorising the Justices of the Peace for the county of Middlesex to sell the present Sessions-house for the said county, and for enabling them to build another Sessions-house in a more convenient situation, and to keep the same in repair, and for applying the sum of £11,000, to be borrowed upon the credit of the surpluses of a certain fund commonly called the Orphan's Fund, towards defraying the expence of building the said Sessions-house;" and of a certain other Act of Parliament, made and passed in the fifty-second year of the reign of His said Majesty, intituled "An Act for increasing the fund for watching, lighting, cleansing, watering, and repairing Blackfriars-bridge;" I do hereby give notice, that between the hours of ten in the forenoon and two in the afternoon, on the 20th day of January next ensuing, at my Office of Chamberlain of the City of London, in Guildhall, London, the principal sums of money, together with all interest due on the said 20th day of January next ensuing, upon the under-mentioned bonds, being part of the said sums, raised by the authority of the aforesaid Acts of the 18th Geo. 3, under the common seal of this city, some part of which are made payable to Benjamin Hopkins, Esq. his executors, administrators, or assigns, and the remainder thereof made payable to John Wilkes, Esq. his executors, administrators, or assigns (by indorsement), will then be paid off, at my said Office at Guildhall, to the several and respective person or persons respectively entitled to receive the same; and that from thenceforth the interest on the said bonds will cease and determine. And, in further obedience to the said order, I do hereby give notice, that if the said several persons respectively entitled to the said bonds, or any of them, shall be minded to be paid the said several principal sums, with such interest as may become due in respect thereof, at any time previous to the said 20th day of January, and will severally declare such their intention, and the day on which they, or any of them, shall elect to receive the same, in writing under their hands, and deliver such declaration at my said Office of Chamberlain of the City of London, between the hours of ten in the morning and two in the afternoon, I will, at the expiration of ten days from the delivery of such declaration, in writing, at my said Office, pay to the several persons the principal sums respectively due to them in discharge of the said bonds, together with all interest as shall on the day specified in such declaration for the payment thereof have become due thereon; and which interest or annuity will, upon the said day expressed in such declaration for payment, cease and determine, viz.

Eighty-five bonds, of one hundred pounds each, numbered 619 to 703, both inclusive.

Richard Clark, Chamberlain.

Guildhall, July 28, 1824.

British Linen Company's Bank; Edinburgh,
August 2, 1824.

THE Directors of the British Linen Company hereby give notice, that a Quarterly General Court of Proprietors will be held at their Office here, on Monday the 6th day of September next, at one o'clock in the afternoon, in terms of their charter.

William Henderson, Secretary.

Imperial Gas Light and Coke Company's Office, No. 15, King's Arms-Yard, Coleman-Street, August 6, 1824.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Directors of the Imperial Gas Light and Coke Company, at a meeting held at the Company's Office, on Friday the 6th day of August instant, did make a further call of £5 per share from the Proprietors of and in the additional capital of the said Company upon each of their respective shares therein, by virtue of and according to the provisions of two several Acts of Parliament, made and passed in the second and fourth years of the reign of His present Majesty respectively, for incorporating the said Company, and for the several purposes in the said Acts mentioned, and the said Proprietors are hereby required to pay the same, on or before the 10th day of September ensuing, to or for Samuel George Smith, Esq. Treasurer to the said Company, at the Banking-house of Messrs. Smith, Payne, and Smiths, Mansion-house-place, London.

By order of the Court of Directors,

Henry Clarke, Clerk to the Company.

London, August 2, 1824.

NOTICE is hereby given to the officers and company of His Majesty's ship Hyperion, Captain W. P. Cumby, who were actually on board at the capture of Le Charles Eugene and La Rose Madeleine, on the 29th June 1815, that they will be paid their respective proportions of a further sum recovered on account of the said captures, on Thursday the 2d September next, between the hours of eleven and three, at No. 9, New Broad-Street; and all shares not then claimed will be recalled at the same place every Tuesday and Thursday for three months, agreeably to Act of Parliament.

In the several Counties of North and South Wales,

In the several Counties in North Britain,

And in the Islands of Alderney, Guernsey, and Jersey;

That the deliveries are to commence on and for the 25th day of September next; that proposals in writing, sealed up and marked "Tender for Army Supplies," will be received at this Office on or before Thursday the 26th day of August next; but none will be received after twelve o'clock on that day.

Proposals must be made separately for each county and island, except for the counties comprising North and South Wales, all of which must be included in one tender, likewise the islands of Alderney, Guernsey, and Jersey, as also the several counties in North Britain; and each proposal must have the letter which is annexed to the tender properly filled up by two persons of known property, engaging to become bound with the party tendering, in the amount stated in the printed particulars, for the due performance of the contract; and no proposal will be noticed unless made on a printed tender, and the prices expressed in words at length; and should it so happen that during the continuance of the contract no troops should be supplied by virtue of the same, the amount of the stamps on the contract and bond, paid in the first instance by the contractor, will be refunded to him.

Particulars of the contracts may be had upon application at this Office, between the hours of ten and four.

London, August 3, 1824
