Published by Authority.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 21, 1824.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 14th of August 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to authorise the importation into or exportation from the United Kingdom, or from any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any goods, wares, or merchandise which may be legally imported or exported in foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties only, and with the like drawbacks, bounties, and allowances as are charged or granted upon similar goods, wares, or merchandise when imported or exported in British vessels; provided always, that before any such Order or Orders shall be issued, satisfactory proof shall have been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into or exported from the foreign country in whose favour such remission of duties, or such drawbacks, bounties, or allowances shall be granted, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances when imported into or exported from such foreign country in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported or exported in vessels of such country: And whereas by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to indemnify all persons concerned in advising, issuing, or acting under a certain Order in Council, for regulating the tonnage duties on certain foreign vessels; and to amend an Act of the last session of Parliament, for authorising His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in

Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to indemnify all persons concerned in advising, issuing, or acting under a certain Order in Council, for regulating the tonnage duties on certain foreign vessels; and to amend an Act of the last session of Parliament, for authorising His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in any foreign vessels," His Majesty is authorised (in certain cases), by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to permit and authorise the entry into any port or ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or of any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties of tonnage only as are or may be charged or granted upon or in respect of British vessels: And whereas satisfactory proof has been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into or exported from the territories of the Free Hanseatic Republic of Bremen, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances, when imported or exported in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported or exported from Bremen in Bremen vessels; and that British vessels are charged with no other or higher tonnage duties on their entrance into the territories of Bremen, than are levied on Bremen vessels; His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in him by the Acts above recited, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the tenth day of July last, Bremen vessels entering the ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in ballast or laden, or departing from the ports of the said United Kingdom, together with the cargoes on board the same, such cargoes consisting of articles which may be legally imported or exported, shall not be subject to any other or higher duties or charges whatever, than are or shall be levied on British vessels entering or departing from such ports, or on similar articles when imported into or exported from such ports in British vessels; and also that such articles, when exported from the said ports in Bremen vessels, shall be entitled to the same bounties, drawbacks, and allowances that are granted on similar articles when exported in British vessels:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 14th of August 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by His Majesty in Council, that the Parliament be prorogued from Tuesday the twenty-fourth day of this instant August to Thursday the fourth day of November next.

At the Court at Carlton-House, the 23d of June 1824.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the present session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for the transportation of offenders from Great Britain," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time to appoint any place or places beyond the seas, either within or without His Majesty's dominions, to which felons and other offenders under sentence or order of transportation or banishment should be conveyed; His Majesty was this day pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to appoint the islands of New South Wales and Van Dieman's Land, and all islands adjacent thereto, to be places to which felons and other offenders now being or hereafter to be under sentence or order of transportation or banishment, shall be conveyed under the provisions of the said recited Act: And whereas by the same Act it is further enacted, that it should be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders in Council, to declare His royal will and pleasure that male offenders, convicted in Great Britain, and being under sentence or order of transportation, should be kept to labour in any part of His Majesty's dominions out of England, to be named in such Order or Orders in Council, His Majesty was further pleased, by and with the advice aforesaid, to declare His royal will and pleasure, that male offenders, convicted in Great Britain, and being under sentence or order of transportation, shall be kept to hard labour in His Majesty's colony of Bermuda: And His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the time being are to take the necessary measures herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 30th of June 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to authorise the importation into or exportation from the United Kingdom, or from any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any goods, wares, or merchandise, which may be legally imported or exported in foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties only, and with the like drawbacks, bounties, and allowances, as are charged or granted upon similar goods, wares, or merchandise, when imported or exported in British vessels, provided always, that before any such Order or Orders shall be issued, satisfactory proof shall have been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise, imported into or exported from the foreign country in whose favour such remission of duties, or such drawbacks, bounties, or allowances, shall be granted, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances, when imported into or exported from such foreign country in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise, when imported or exported in vessels of such country: And whereas by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to indemnify all persons concerned in advising, issuing, or acting, under a certain Order in Council for regulating the tonnage duties on certain foreign vessels; and to amend an Act of the last session of Parliament, for authorising His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in any foreign vessels," His Majesty is authorised (in certain cases), by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to permit and authorise the entry into any port or ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or of any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties of tonnage only as are or may be charged or granted upon or in respect of British vessels; and whereas satisfactory proof has been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise, imported into or exported from the ports of Denmark, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances, when imported or exported in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported or exported from Denmark in Danish vessels; and that British vessels are charged with no other or higher tonnage duties on their entrance into the ports of Denmark, than are levied on Danish vessels; His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in him by the Acts above recited, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the first day of July next, Danish vessels entering the ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in ballast or laden, or departing from the ports of the said United Kingdom, together with the cargoes on board the same, such cargoes consisting of articles which may be legally imported or exported, shall not be subject to any other or higher duties or charges whatever, than are or shall be levied on British vessels entering or departing from such ports, or on similar articles when imported into or exported from such ports in British vessels; and also that such articles, when exported from the said ports in Danish vessels, shall be entitled to the same bounties, drawbacks, and allowances that are granted on similar articles when exported in British vessels :

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 23d of June 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to authorise the importation into or exportation from the United Kingdom, or from any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any goods, wares, or merchandise, which may be legally imported or exported in foreign vessels upon payment of such and the like duties only, and with the like drawbacks, bounties, and allowances as are charged or granted upon similar goods, wares, or merchandise when imported or exported in British vessels; provided always, that, before any such Order or Orders shall be issued, satisfactory proof shall have been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into or exported from the foreign country in whose favour such remission of duties, or such drawbacks, bounties, or allowances shall be granted, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances when imported into or exported from such foreign country in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported or exported in vessels of such country: and whereas by an Act, passed in the present session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to indemnify all persons concerned in advising, issuing, or acting under a certain Order in Council, for regulating the tonnage duties on certain foreign vessels; and to amend an Act of the last session of Parliament, for authorising His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in any foreign vessels," His Majesty is authorised (in certain cases), by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to permit and authorise the entry into any port or ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or of any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties of tonnage only as are or may be charged or granted upon or in respect of British vessels; and whereas satisfactory proof has been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise, imported into or exported from the ports of Norway, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances, when imported or exported in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported or exported from Norway in Norwegian vessels; and that British vessels are charged with no other or higher tonnage duties on their entrance into the ports of Norway, than are levied on Norwegian vessels; His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in him by the Acts above recited, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the date of this Order, Norwegian vessels entering the ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in ballast or laden, or departing from the ports of the said United Kingdom, together with the cargoes on board the same, such cargoes consisting of articles which may be legally imported or exported, shall not be subject to any other or higher duties or charges whatever, than are or shall be levied on British vessels entering or departing from such ports, or on similar articles when imported into or exported from such ports in British vessels; and also that such articles, when exported from the said ports in Norwegian vessels, shall be entitled to the same bounties, drawbacks, and allowances that are granted on similar articles when exported in British vessels:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 25th of May 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to authorise the importation into or exportation from the United Kingdom, or from any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any goods, wares, or merchandise which may be legally imported or exported in foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties only, and with the like drawbacks, bounties, and allowances as are charged or granted upon similar goods, wares, or merchandise when imported or exported in British vessels; provided always, that before any such Order or Orders shall be issued, satisfactory proof shall have been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into or exported from the foreign country in whose favour such remission of duties, or such drawbacks bounties, or allowances shall be granted, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances when imported into or exported from such foreign country in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported or exported in vessels of such country: And whereas by an Act, passed in the present session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to indemnify all persons concerned in advising, issuing, or acting under a certain Order in Council, for regulating the tonnage duties on certain foreign vessels; and to amend an Act of the last session of Parliament, for authorising His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in any foreign vessels," His Majesty is authorised (in certain cases), by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to permit and authorise the entry into any port or ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or of any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties of tonnage only as are or may be charged or granted upon or in respect of British vessels: And whereas satisfactory proof has been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into or exported from the Kingdom of Hanover, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances when imported or exported in British vessels as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported or exported from the said Kingdom of Hanover, in Hanoverian vessels; and that British vessels are charged with no other or higher tonnage duties on their entrance into the ports of the Kingdom of Hanover, than are levied on Hanoverian vessels; His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in him by the Acts above recited, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the first of this instant May, Hanoverian vessels entering or departing from the ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, together with the cargoes on board the same, such cargoes consisting of articles which may be legally imported or exported, shall not be subject to any other or higher duties or charges whatever than are or shall be levied on British vessels entering or departing from such ports, or on similar articles when imported into or exported from such ports in British vessels; and also that such articles when exported from the said ports in Hanoverian vessels, shall be entitled to the same bounties, drawbacks, and allowances, that are granted on similar articles when exported in British vessels:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 23d of June 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 38, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend the ballot or enrolment for the local militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order in Council, to direct that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia shall take place; but that such ballot and enrolment shall remain and continue suspended for the period specified in any such Order of Council, and from time to time, by any like Order or Orders in Council, to continue such suspension so long as His Majesty shall deem the same expedient, any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding: and whereas by an Order in Council, made the sixteenth of July last, it was ordered by His Majesty in Council, that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia should take place for the space of one year from the sixteenth of July last, but that the ballot and enrolment for the local militia should remain and continue suspended for the space of one year from the said sixteenth day of July last: and whereas it is deemed expedient to continue such suspension of the ballot and enrolment for the local militia for the space of one year from and after the sixteenth day of July next; it is, therefore, ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia do take place for the space of one year from and after the sixteenth day of July next, but that the ballot and enrolment for the local militia do remain and continue suspended for the space of one year from and after the said sixteenth day of July next.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto James-Robins Prichard, of Long Ashton, in the county of Somerset, Esq. and Caroline his wife, youngest daughter and coheir of John Croft, late of Worle, in the said county of Somerset, Esq. deceased, His royal licence and authority, that they and their issue may assume, and from henceforth use, the surname of Croft only, and that the arms of Croft may also be borne by the said James-Robins Prichard and his issue by the said Caroline, his wife, pursuant to the last will and testament of Sir John Croft, sometime of Russell-place, in the parish of St. Pancras, in the county of Middlesex, Bart. likewise deceased; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise His Majesty's said royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to order, that the said royal concession and declaration be recorded in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, July 21, 1824.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto Lionel Courtier, of Cornwall-road, in the parish of St. Mary, Lambeth, in the county of Surrey, His royal licence and authority that he may, in compliance with a clause in the last will and testament of his maternal great uncle Peter Dutton, late of St. Martin's-place, in the city of Chester, Esq. deceased, henceforth assume and use the surname of Dutton, in addition to and after his present surname of Courtier:

And also to command, that His Majesty's said concession and declaration be recorded in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, July 31, 1824.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto Simon-Fraser Cooke, of Lincoln's-inn, in the county of Middlesex, Esq. Barrister at Law (second son of Henry Cooke, of Highgate, in the said county, Esq.) and unto Jane Piggott, spinster, the eldest daughter and coheir of James Piggott, late of Fitzhall, in the parish of Iping, in the county of Sussex, Esq. in the commission of the peace for the said county, deceased, His royal licence and authority, that from and immediately after the solemnization of their intended marriage they may take and use the surname of Piggott only, that the said Simon-Fraser Cooke may bear the arms of Piggott, and that the said surname and arms may in like manner be taken and borne by the issue of their said intended marriage; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise the said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, August 20, 1824.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed James Edward Wright, of Margate, in the county of Kent, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Exchequer Bill-Office, August 19, 1824.

THE Exchequer Bills dated in the months of July, August, and September 1823, viz. 58 Geo. 3, cap. 45, for building additional churches; 3 Geo. 4, cap. 86, for carrying on public works and fisheries; 4 Geo. 4, cap. 4, £20,000,000, 1823; 4 Geo. 4, cap. 100, £14,700,000, 1823, with the interest due thereon, will be paid off on the 20th day of September 1824, when the interest will cease. Such bills will be received daily (holidays excepted), from ten o'clock till one, until and including the 13th day of September, at this Office, where lists are to be obtained, containing instructions for arranging the bills. The bearers must endorse each bill with their usual signatures, and write their names and residences at the bottom of each list; and where the names of holders are inserted in bills, the bearers, not being such holders, must previously obtain their endorsements. The bearers must attend to give receipts for the payment.

Payment may be obtained, if required, previous to the said 20th day of September, upon leaving the bills for examination one day prior to that on which such payment is desired.

New bills, bearing an interest of one penny half-penny by the day upon every one hundred pounds, and dated the said 20th day of September, may be obtained in whole or in part payment of principal, upon stating the required amount on the lists, delivered on or before the said 13th day of September, which new bills, with the interest on the bills exchanged, will be issued on the 22d day of September 1824.

N. B. All Exchequer Bills, dated prior to July 1823, have been advertised to be paid off.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session thereof, for leave to bring in a Bill and to obtain an Act, for making, constructing, and maintaining certain wet docks, warehouses, basins, cuts, and other works, to be called Saint Katharine's Docks, and to have two or more communications with the River Thames; and which wet docks, warehouses, basins, cuts, and other works, together with all requisite sluices, drains, wharfs, bridges, footways, paths, ways, or roads appertaining thereto, are proposed to be situate or pass into or through the parish of Saint Botolph without Aldgate, in the county of Middlesex, and the parish or precinct of Saint Katharine, near the Tower of London, in the said county of Middlesex; such parishes and precinct being respectively situate within the Tower Division or Hamlets, in the said county of Middlesex. And it is proposed to fix and limit in and by the said bill, tolls, rates, and dues to be taken for the use of the said docks, basins, cuts, quays, wharfs, warehouses, and other works.—Dated this 19th day of August 1824.

Wm. Tople, Solicitor, No. 3, Holborn-Court, Gray's-Inn.

COURT OF SEWERS—TOWER HAMLETS.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Court of Sewers for the Tower Hamlets will be holden on Wednesday the 15th day of September next ensuing, at two o'clock precisely, at the Office of Sewers, in Great Alie-Street, in the county of Middlesex.

Whereas the warrant and decree of Sewer, enacted and declared at a session of Sewers holden on the 30th day of August in the year 1821, appears to have been made on the same day with the presentment of the Jury, and it may be doubted whether the same be good and binding, by reason that sufficient time was not given for the parties assessed by the said presentment to traverse the same;

Notice is, therefore, hereby given, that at the last Court of Sewers, holden on the 16th day of June last past, the Court did repeal the said decree, in order that all parties, who may be so advised, may appear and traverse the said presentment at the next Court to be holden as above-mentioned. Dated this 16th day of August 1824.

John W. Unwin, Clerk to the said Commissioners.

Navy-Office, August 17, 1824.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that the contract for Wylam Coals for Gibraltar, advertised to be made on the 25th instant, is put off. G. Smith.

CONTRACT FOR TALLOW CANDLES.

Navy-Office, August 17, 1824.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 2d of September next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying His Majesty's Yards at Deptford, Woolwich, Chatham, and Sheerness, or any one or more of them, with Tallow Candles.

Samples of the candles, and a form of the tender, may be seen at this Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party, or an agent for him, attends.

Every tender must be accompanied by a letter addressed to the Navy Board, and signed by a responsible person, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £400, for the due performance of the contract. G. Smith

CONTRACT FOR CLEANSING AND REPAIRING FLOCK BEDS AND BOLSTERS AND BLANKETS, AND FOR CLEANSING HAMMOCKS AND COTS.

Navy-Office, August 17, 1824

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 2d of September next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for Cleansing and repairing Flock Beds and Bolsters and Blankets, and for cleansing Hammocks and Cots.

The articles to be taken by the contractor from His Majesty's Yard at Deptford, and to be returned by him into store at the said Yard when cleansed and repaired.

A form of the tender may be seen at this Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed, unless the party, or an agent for him, attends.

Every tender must be accompanied by a letter addressed to the Navy Board, and signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £500, for the due performance of the contract. G. Smith.

East India-House, August 18, 1824.

THE Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, do hereby give notice,

That the Committee of Buying and Warehouses will be ready, on or at any time before Wednesday the 8th September next, to receive proposals in writing, sealed up, from such persons as may be willing to supply the Company with a quantity of

Iron Shot;

And that the conditions of the said contract may be had on application to the Clerk of the said Committee, with whom the proposals must be left before eleven o'clock in the forenoon of the said 8th September, after which hour the Committee will not receive any tender.

Joseph Dart, Secretary.

South Sea-House, August 5, 1824.

THE Court of Directors of the South Sea Company give notice, that the transfer-books of Old South Sea Annuities will be shut on Friday the 3d of September next, at two o'clock, and opened on Friday the 22d of October following.

Nathaniel Simpson, Secretary.

Hudson's-Bay-House, August 18, 1824.

THE Governor and Company of Adventurers of England trading into Hudson's-Bay will hold a General Court, at their House in Fenchurch-Street, on Tuesday the 7th September next, for the purpose of considering the propriety of increasing the capital stock of the Company; and on special affairs

By order of the Governor and Committee of the said Company,

William Smith, Secretary.

N. B. The chair will be taken at twelve o'clock precisely.

London, August 13, 1824.
