Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 31, 1824.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 14th of August 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to authorise the importation into or exportation from the United Kingdom, or from any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any goods, wares, or merchandise which may be legally imported or exported in foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties only, and with the like drawbacks, bounties, and allowances as are charged or granted upon similar goods, wares, or merchandise when imported or exported in British vessels; provided always, that before any such Order or Orders shall be issued, satisfactory proof shall have been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into or exported from the foreign country in whose favour such remission of duties, or such drawbacks, bounties, or allowances shall be granted, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances when imported into or exported from such foreign country in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported or exported in vessels of such country: And whereas by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to indemnify all persons concerned in advising, issuing, or acting under a certain Order in Council, for regulating the tonnage duties on certain foreign vessels; and to amend an Act of the last session of Parliament, for authorising His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to permit and authorise the entry into any port or ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or of any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties of tonnage only as are or may be charged or granted upon or in respect of British vessels: And whereas satisfactory proof has been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into or exported from the territories of the Free Hanziatic Republic of Bremen, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances, when imported or exported in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported or exported from Bremen in Bremen vessels; and that British vessels are charged with no other or higher tonnage duties on their entrance into the territories of Bremen, than are levied on Bremen vessels; His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in him by the Acts above recited, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the tenth day of July last, Bremen vessels entering the ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in ballast or laden, or departing from the ports of the said United Kingdom, together with the cargoes on board the same, such cargoes consisting of articles which may be legally imported or exported, shall not be subject to any other or higher duties or charges whatever, than are or shall be levied on British vessels entering or departing from such ports, or on similar articles when imported into or exported from such ports in British vessels; and also that such articles, when exported from the said ports in Bremen vessels, shall be entitled to the same bounties, drawbacks, and allowances that are granted on similar articles when exported in British vessels:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 14th of August 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intitled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to authorise the importation into or exportation from the United Kingdom, or from any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any goods, wares, or merchandise, which may be legally imported or exported in foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties only, and with the like drawbacks, bounties, and allowances, as are charged or granted upon similar goods, wares, or merchandise, when imported or exported in British vessels; provided always, that before any such Order or Orders shall be issued, satisfactory proof shall have been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise, imported into or exported from the foreign country in whose favour such remission of duties, or such drawbacks, bounties, or allowances, shall be granted, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances, when imported into or exported from such foreign country in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise, when imported or exported in vessels of such country: And whereas by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intitled "An Act to indemnify all persons concerned in advising, issuing, or acting, under a certain Order in Council for regulating the tonnage duties on certain foreign vessels; and to amend an Act of the last session of Parliament, for authorising His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in any foreign vessels," His Majesty is authorised (in certain cases), by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to permit and authorise the entry into any port or ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or of any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties of tonnage only as are or may be charged or granted upon or in respect of British vessels: And whereas satisfactory proof has been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into or exported from the territories of the Free Hansiatic Republic of Lubeck, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances, when imported or exported in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported or exported from Lubeck in Lubeck vessels; and that British vessels are charged with no other or higher tonnage duties on their entrance into the territories of Lubeck, than are levied on Lubeck vessels; His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in him by the Acts above recited, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the first day of this instant August, Lubeck vessels entering the ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in ballast or laden, or departing from the ports of the said United Kingdom, together with the cargoes on board the same, such cargoes consisting of articles which may be legally imported or exported, shall not be subject to any other or higher duties or charges whatever, than are or shall be levied on British vessels entering or departing from such ports, or on similar articles when imported into or exported from such ports in British vessels; and also that such articles, when exported from the said ports in Lubeck vessels, shall be entitled to the same bounties, drawbacks, and allowances, that are granted on similar articles when exported in British vessels:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 14th of August 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by His Majesty in Council, that the Parliament be prorogued from Tuesday the twenty-fourth day of this instant August to Thursday the fourth day of November next.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 23d of June 1824.

PRESENT.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the present session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for the transportation of offenders from Great Britain," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time to appoint any place or places beyond the seas, either within or without His Majesty's dominions, to which felons and other offenders under sentence or order of transportation or banishment should be conveyed; His Majesty was this day pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to appoint the islands of New South Wales and Van Dieman's Land, and all islands adjacent thereto, to be places to which felons and other offenders now being or hereafter to be under sentence or order of transportation or banishment, shall be conveyed under the provisions of the said recited Act: And whereas by the same Act it is further enacted, that it should be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders in Council, to declare His royal will and pleasure that male offenders, convicted in Great Britain, and being under sentence or order of transportation, should be kept to labour in any part of His Majesty's dominions out of England, to be named in such Order or Orders in Council, His Majesty was further pleased, by and with the advice aforesaid, to declare His royal will and pleasure, that male offenders, convicted in Great Britain, and being under sentence or order of transportation, shall be kept to hard labour in His Majesty's colony of Bermuda: And His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the time being are to take the necessary measures herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Whitehall, August 26, 1824.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, in the night of Monday the 16th instant, the gardens of Emanuel Goodhart, Esq. in Langley-park, in the parish of Beckenham, in the county of Kent, were feloniously entered by two or more men, and Thomas Morgan, an under gardener, was shot, and is since dead of his wounds;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually shot at and wounded the said Thomas Morgan) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—The said reward to be paid on conviction by the said Emanuel Goodhart, Esq.

Admiralty-Office, August 28, 1824.

THIS is to give notice to all whom it may concern, that Messrs. Thomas Haisom and Co. of No. 19, George's-street, Stonehouse, Plymouth, have, in pursuance of the Act of the 46 Geo. 3. cap. 153, given me notice, dated the 14th instant, of their intention to build a quay on some land on the north side of Mount Batten, in Catwater, within the port of Plymouth, adjoining the premises of Mr. Northmore, for the purpose of shipping the stone that may be raised on the said land.

J. W. Croker.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill for making a wet dock in the Isle of Dogs, with proper basins, aqueducts, and locks, connected with the River Thames, in the parish of All Saints, Poplar, in the county of Middlesex; and it is proposed to fix and limit in the said Bill, tolls and dues to be taken for the use of the said dock, basins, wharfs, and locks.

29, Lombard-street.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Commissioners for paving, cleansing, lighting, and watching the streets, lanes, passages, and places within the East Division of the town and borough of Southwark, and certain parts adjacent in the county of Surrey, and for preventing annoyances therein, and also for opening, widening, and better regulating the several streets, lanes, and passages, within the said East Division and parts adjacent, intend to apply to Parliament in the next session for an Act to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers of an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for paving the streets and lanes within the town and borough of Southwark, and certain parts adjacent, in the county of Surrey, and for cleansing, lighting, and watching the same, and also the courts, yards, alleys, and passages adjoining thereto, and for preventing annoyances therein;" and also of another Act, passed in the eleventh year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to explain and amend so much of an Act of the sixth year of His present Majesty, for paving the town and borough of Southwark, in the county of Surrey, as relates to the Commissioners of Sewers, and for regulating the manner of taxing churches and other public buildings, within the limits of the said Act;" and also of another Act, passed in the twenty-eighth year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act for enabling the Commissioners for putting in execution an Act, made in the sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, for paving the streets and lanes within the town and borough of Southwark, and certain parts adjacent, in the county of Surrey, and for cleansing, lighting, and watching the same, and also the courts, yards, alleys, and passages adjoining thereto, and for preventing annoyances therein; to open, widen, and better regulate the several streets, lanes, and passages within the East Division, in the said Act described." In which said Bill provision is intended to be made for defining the boundaries of the said East Division and parts adjacent, and other places comprised within the limits of the said Acts, and for altering, increasing, and otherwise regulating the rates leviable for the aforesaid purposes; and to alter or repeal so much of an Act, passed in the fifty-seventh year of the reign of His said late Majesty, King George the Third, intituled, "An Act for better paving, improving, and regulating the streets of the metropolis, and removing and preventing nuisances and obstructions therein," as relates to the mode of rating wharfs, within the limits of the first abovementioned Acts, which said East Division and parts adjacent is or are situate in the several parishes of Saint Olave, Saint John, and Saint Thomas, in the town and borough of Southwark, and part of the parish of Saint Mary Magdalen, Bermondsey, in the county of Surrey.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.

All persons having any claims or demands against or upon the estate and effects of John Hincksman, late of Watling-Street, in the City of London, Manchester-Warehouseman, deceased, are requested forthwith to send an account thereof to Mr. Robert Gardner, No. 15, Watling-Street, the Executor of the said John Hincksman, in order to their discharge.

LANCASHIRE.—FREEHOLD ESTATE.

To be sold to the best bidders, pursuant to a Decree of His Majesty's Court of Exchequer at Westminster made in a Cause Buckley v. Saville and others, with the approbation of Jeffries Spranger, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, on a day to be hereafter advertised, at the house of Mr. Rd. Fletcher, called or known by the sign of the Angel Inn, Oldham, in the County of Lancaster, in four lots:

A freehold estate, called the Lower Brook Estate, comprising a messuage or farm-house, a mill, and several fields or parcels of land, containing in the whole upwards of four acres, statute measure, situate in Strides, in the Parish of Saddleworth, in the West Riding of the County of York, and which was formerly the property of Mr. Abraham Savill, deceased.

Further particulars may shortly be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, No. 17, Mitre-Court-Buildings, Inner-Temple, London; of Messrs. Hurd and Johnson, Solicitors, No. 7, King's-Bench-Walk, in the Inner-Temple aforesaid; or of Mr. Clarkson, of Rochdale, in the County of Lancaster, Solicitor; and at the Angel Inn, Oldham.

To be sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in the Causes Wonham v. Burberry, and Burberry v. Wonham, before James Stephen, Esquire, one of the Masters of the said Court, at the public Sale-Room of the said Court, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery Lane, London, in the month of October next, in two lots;

Certain freehold and copyhold farms, called Sturtswold and Youngland's, situate at Newdigate, near Reigate, in the County of Surrey, comprising about 150 acres of rich arable meadow and pasture land, and a freehold cottage adjoining, late the estates of Thomas Wonham, deceased, and now in the occupation of Thomas Wonham.

Printed particulars may shortly be had (gratis), at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings aforesaid; of Messrs. Daniell, Sewell and Daniell, Solicitors, Essex-Street, Strand; Mr. Gey, Solicitor, Holborn-Court, Gray's Inn, London; Mr. Broughton, Solicitor, Reigate; and of Mr. Thomas Wonham on the estate, who will shew the same.

Whereas by an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a certain Cause therein depending, wherein William West and Samuel West are the plaintiffs, and the Company of Proprietors of the River Medway and others are the defendants, it was, among other things, referred to William Wingfield, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire who was or were entitled to the share in the navigation of the said River, purchased by John Colgate, late of Tunbridge, in the County of Kent, Mercer and Shop-keeper (who died intestate in the month of July 1778), and who was or were entitled to the arrears of dividends which had accrued and been declared upon the said navigation shares since the death of the said John Colgate; pursuant, therefore, to the said Order, all persons claiming to be entitled to any interest in any such share or dividends are, by their Solicitors, forthwith to come in before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, and make out the claims, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Order.

Ursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Preston and another against Martiney and others, the Creditors of Francis William Palmer, late of Reading, in the County of Berks, Gentleman, deceased (who died some time in the year 1813), are forthwith to come in and prove their debts before James William Farrer, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Order.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against William Munk, late of High-Street, Southwark, in the County of Surrey; and since of Warwick-Place, White-Cross-Street, in the County of Middlesex, Dealer in Spruce, Dealer and Chapman (a prisoner for debt in the custody of the Marshal of His Majesty's Prison of the Bench), are desired to meet the Assignee of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Thursday the 2d day of September next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee selling or disposing of all or any part of the household furniture, stock in trade, goods, chattels, and effects of the said Bankrupt, to any person or persons whomsoever, either by public auction, valuation, or private contract, for such price or prices, in money or upon such credit, terms, and security as the said Assignee shall deem most advantageous; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee paying or reimbursing, out of the said estate, certain wages and monies paid by the Solicitors to the said Commission to certain persons, to be named at the said meeting; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee convening such meeting or meetings of the Commissioners or the major part of them under the said Commission, from time to time, for the examination of the said Bankrupt and witnesses as he shall be advised, and defraying the expences of and attending the same, out of the said Bankrupt's estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee commencing and prosecuting one or more action or actions at law, or suit or suits in equity as he shall deem expedient, for the recovery of the Bankrupt's reversionary estate and interest of and in certain freehold land in the County of Kent, and the title deeds relating to the same; and also to the said Assignee relinquishing and delivering up possession of the Bankrupt's premises in Warwick-Place aforesaid, to the landlord thereof; and likewise to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee commencing, prosecuting, or defending any other suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery of any part of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

Whereas a Commission of Bankrupt, bearing date on or about the 25th day of May 1824, was awarded and issued forth against William Griffith, of Beaumaris, in the County of Anglesea, Currier, Dealer and Chapman; This is to give notice, that the said Commission is, under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, superseded.
