but in gain, and they are forced to give way to i the Violence of the Commonalty, who by the clote and fubtle Practices of thole who propole advan-tages to themfelves in the publick enforcers, are every day more and more confirmed in their box flinacy, under the pretence of maintaining their Priviledges.

Hamburg, March 9. The Letters we receive from Copenbagen inform us. That the King of Denmark will have a Flect of 30 Men of War at Sea this Summer ; That he is going to raile 5 500 Horfe and 2500 Foot, and that the Officers that are to be employed in these new Levics have most of them received their Coumillions. And from Berlin they -write, That the Elector of Brandenburg will raife 4000 Men, to recruit his flanding Regiments. Amidd these Preparations there is much discourse of Peace, and we are sold, That the Elector of Brandanburg docs very much endeavour, by his initter sat Kienna, to dispose that Court to Treat with the Crown of France-upon the Proposals which the Brench Amballadors made at Francfort. From Warfaw we have an account, That the Count de Wal-Jaffain, Ambaffatior Extraordinary from the Emperor, did meer-with great opposition if his Negodation concerning the League of Inutural Defence between the Emperor and that Crown, which has -been to often fpoken of, but that it was believed he would overcome it. The difference between the Magiltrates and the Purghers of this City, about executing the Imperial Decret, Concerning Poleman, mentioned in our laft, is compoled.

& Hague, March 13. The ninth and tenth Inflant, the Members of the States of Holland artived here, and the 11th they were compleatly affembled, the Prince of Orange, who came to Towir the Night bofore, from Dieren, being present in their Allem-bly. The Deputies of the Admiralties, who went home when the States of Holland Ialt Adjourned, are likewife returned hither, and it is expected a final Refolution will how be quickly taken concern-ing the Equipage of 24 Men of War, of which there has been fo much talk. The Letters from Hamburg fay, That a new League is Treating by the Ambalfador at Copenhagen, and that the French Freuch King offers that Grown a monthly Sublidy of therectore chouland Crowns; That the King of Depmark railes eight or nine thouland"Men, to fir ngthen the forces he has already of Foot, and that he is fitting but a Flect of 30 Men of War; That the Elector of Brandenburg does the wife taile Men, and that his Electoral Highness has lately dedarud to a Foreign Miniller at his Court, "That he shought nothing was more to be defired, in the present conjuncture of Affairs, than that a firm Peace may be established, and that he will never sto any shing to the prejudice of the Empires" and that at the Conference ar Soeff a'Leaghe has bech soncluded between the King of Demnark , the Elector of Brandenburg, the Elector of Cologne, and the Bilhop of Munifier, for the defence and Securi-ty of their respective Ferritories and Dominions. , Jarw, Marchay. The Court is now at Pillers-Canez, not having flayed to long at complegne by two or three days as it was believed they would; They will be back at Perfailer on the 23; after hating palled two days he St. Cloud Wile Doctors of the Sorbonne have had Teveral Meetings, to confider of the Proposition they received from the Parliament, concerning the Popes Authority, but are Bot yet come to any Determination therein, and an the mean time all people have their Eyes upon them begaule of the inicencies of the Subjact. The Pope has dectared ne will fend hither the Bilhop of Fano, in Quality of his Nuncio Extraordinary, to prefent the Bleft Clouts to the Duke of Burguar and it was reported. That he was already on his journey, and that he would be here in few days; but the laft Letters from Rome told us, That we must not expect him till after f_{eff} is is a Step which it's generally believed will be impro-ved to facilitate an accommodation between the two Courts. The Council of State have within thefe few days made a Decree, by which they forbid the Cordeliers, the Recollects, and other Religious, of the Order of St. Francis, to obey their General, who is a Spaniard, which it's flid is done in return to the Frohibition which the King of Spain has laid upon the Jesuits within his Domini-ons, to acknowledge the General of their Order, (who was lately choken) because he made his first Vilit to the French Ambaliador at Rome. 1 24.
