Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 14, 1824.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 14th of August 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the tenth of March last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar), will expire on the nineteenth day of September next; and whereas it is judged expedient that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service), do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the nineteenth of September next), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar) or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf, first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greyellé,

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 14th of August 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by His Majesty in Council, that the Parliament be prorogued from Tuesday the twenty-fourth day of this instant August to Thursday the fourth day of November next.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 14th of August 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to authorise the importation into or exportation from the United Kingdom, or from any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any goods, wares, or merchandise which may be legally imported or exported in foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties only, and with the like drawbacks, bounties, and allowances as are charged or granted upon similar goods, wares, or merchandise when imported or exported in British vessels; provided always, that before any such Order or Orders shall be issued, satisfactory proof shall have been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into or exported from the foreign country in whose favour such remission of duties, or such drawbacks, bounties, or allowances shall be granted, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances when imported into or exported from such foreign country in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported or exported in vessels of such country: And whereas by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to indemnify all persons concerned in advising, issuing, or acting under a certain Order in Council, for regulating the tonnage duties on certain foreign vessels; and to amend an Act of the last session of Parliament, for authorising His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in any foreign vessels," His Majesty is authorised (in certain cases), by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to permit and authorise the entry into any port or ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or of any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties of tonnage only as are or may be charged or granted upon or in respect of British vessels: And whereas satisfactory proof has been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into or exported from the territories of the Free Hansiatic Republic of Bremen, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances, when imported or exported in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported or exported from Bremen in Bremen vessels; and that British vessels are charged with no other or higher tonnage duties on their entrance into the territories of Bremen, than are levied on Bremen vessels; His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in him by the Acts above recited, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the tenth day of July last, Bremen vessels entering the ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in ballast or laden, or departing from the ports of the said United Kingdom, together with the cargoes on board the same, such cargoes consisting of articles which may be legally imported or exported, shall not be subject to any other or higher duties or charges whatever, than are or shall be levied on British vessels entering or departing from such ports, or on similar articles when imported into or exported from such ports in British vessels; and also that such articles, when exported from the said ports in Bremen vessels, shall be entitled to the same bounties, drawbacks, and allowances that are granted on similar articles when exported in British vessels:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 14th of August 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to authorise the importation into or exportation from the United Kingdom, or from any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any goods, wares, or merchandise, which may be legally imported or exported in foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties only, and with the like drawbacks, bounties, and allowances, as are charged or granted upon similar goods, wares, or merchandise, when imported or exported in British vessels; provided always, that before any such Order or Orders shall be issued, satisfactory proof shall have been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise, imported into or exported from the foreign country in whose favour such remission of duties, or such drawbacks, bounties, or allowances, shall be granted, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances, when imported into or exported from such foreign country in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise, when imported or exported in vessels of such country: And whereas by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to indemnify all persons concerned in advising, issuing, or acting, under a certain Order in Council for regulating the tonnage duties on certain foreign vessels; and to amend an Act of the last session of Parliament, for authorising His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in any foreign vessels," His Majesty is authorised (in certain cases), by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to permit and authorise the entry into any port or ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or of any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties of tonnage only as are or may be charged or granted upon or in respect of British vessels: And whereas satisfactory proof has been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into or exported from the territories of the Free Hansiatic Republic of Lubeck, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances, when imported or exported in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported or exported from Lubeck in Lubeck vessels; and that British vessels are charged with no other or higher tonnage duties on their entrance into the territories of Lubeck, than are levied on Lubeck vessels; His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in him by the Acts above recited, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the first day of this instant August, Lubeck vessels entering the ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in ballast or laden, or departing from the ports of the said United Kingdom, together with the cargoes on board the same, such cargoes consisting of articles which may be legally imported or exported, shall not be subject to any other or higher duties or charges whatever, than are or shall be levied on British vessels entering or departing from such ports, or on similar articles when imported into or exported from such ports in British vessels; and also that such articles, when exported from the said ports in Lubeck vessels, shall be entitled to the same bounties, drawbacks, and allowances, that are granted on similar articles when exported in British vessels:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 23d of June 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the present session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for the transportation of offenders from Great Britain," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time to appoint any place or places beyond the seas, either within or without His Majesty's dominions, to which felons and other offenders under sentence or order of transportation or banishment should be conveyed; His Majesty was this day pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to appoint the islands of New South Wales and Van Dieman's Land, and all islands adjacent thereto, to be places to which felons and other offenders now being or hereafter to be under sentence or order of transportation or banishment, shall be conveyed under the provisions of the said recited Act: And whereas by the same Act it is further enacted, that it should be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders in Council, to declare His royal will and pleasure that male offenders, convicted in Great Britain, and being under sentence or order of transportation, should be kept to labour in any part of His Majesty's dominions out of England, to be named in such Order or Orders in Council, His Majesty was further pleased, by and with the advice aforesaid, to declare His royal will and pleasure, that male offenders, convicted in Great Britain, and being under sentence or order of transportation, shall be kept to hard labour in His Majesty's colony of Bermuda: And His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the time being are to take the necessary measures herein as to them may respectively appertain.

THE Lord Ordinary officiating on the Bills has this day sequestrated the whole estates and effects of the said William Hodge; and appointed his Creditors to meet in the house of George Scott, Vintner, in Kent-Street, Glasgow, on Monday the 20th of September current, at One o'Clock Afternoon, to name an Interim Factor; and again, at the same place and hour, on Monday the 4th day of October next, to choose a Trustee.—Of all which notice is hereby given, in terms of the Statute.

Notice to the Creditors of Patrick Murdoch, Merchant, in Hamilton.

Edinburgh, September 9, 1824.

THE Lord Ordinary officiating on the Bills, of this date, sequestrated the whole estate, real and personal, of the said Patrick Murdoch; and appointed his Creditors to meet within the Wheat-Sheaf Tavern, in Glasgow, upon Friday the 17th day of September current, at One o'Clock Afternoon, to choose an Interim Factor; and, at the same time and place upon Saturday the 2d day of October next, to choose a Trustee upon said sequestrated estate, in terms of the Statute.

Notice to the Creditors of John Ewart, Cabinet-Maker and Upholsterer, Gilmour-Street, Paul's-Work, Edinburgh.

Edinburgh, September 10, 1824.

DONALD BAIN, Accountant, in Edinburgh, hereby intimates to all concerned, that his election as Trustee on the sequestrated estate of the said John Ewart has been confirmed by the Lord Ordinary on the Bills, and that the Sheriff of the County of Edinburgh has fixed Wednesday the 22d day of September current, and Wednesday the 6th day of October next, for the public examinations of the Bankrupt, within the Sheriff-Clerk's Office, Edinburgh, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon each day. Further, that a general meeting of said Creditors is to be held within the Trustee's Chambers, 45, Great King-Street, Edinburgh, on Thursday the 7th day of October next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, and the Trustee requires the Creditors to produce their claims and vouchers or grounds of debt, with their oaths on the verity thereof, at or previous to the said meeting, if not already produced, and hereby intimates, that unless the said productions are made betwixt and the 1st day of May next, the party neglecting shall have no share in the first distribution of the debtor's estate. Farther, that another general meeting of the said Creditors is to be held, at the same place and hour, on Wednesday the 20th day of October next, to give directions to the Trustee, and to name Commissioners on the said estate.—All in terms of the Statute.

Notice to the Creditors of Robert Marr and Son, Merchants, in Leith, as a Company, and of Alexander Marr, sole surviving Partner of that concern, as an Individual.

Edinburgh, September 7, 1824.

JOHAN MARTIN, residing in High-Terrace, Edinburgh, Trustee upon the sequestrated estates of the said Robert Marr and Son, as a Company, and of Alexander Marr, sole surviving Partner of that concern, as an Individual, hereby intimates, that the Sheriff of Edinburgh has fixed Wednesday the 22d day of September current, and Wednesday the 6th day of October next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon of each day, for the first and second examinations of the Bankrupts, and others connected with their affairs, the said examinations to proceed in the Sheriff's Office, Edinburgh.

The Trustee also intimates, that two meetings of the Creditors of the said Robert Marr and Son, as a Company, and of Alexander Marr, sole surviving Partner of that concern, as an Individual, will be held within the Royal Exchange-Coffee-House, Edinburgh,—one on Thursday the 7th day of October next, being the first lawful day after the second examination of the Bankrupt, and the other on Thursday the 21st day of the said month of October next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon each day, and at the last meeting to elect Commissioners and instruct the Trustee, all in terms of the Statute.

And the Trustee hereby requires the Creditors to produce in his hands their claims and grounds of debt, with oaths of verity thereon, at or previous to said first-mentioned meeting; and unless the said productions are made on or betwixt the 5th day of June next, the party neglecting will draw no share in the first dividend.
