A DISPATCH, of which the following is a copy, was yesterday received at the Office of His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs.

*Paris, September 16, 1824,
Half past Four A. M.*

SIR,

I REGRET to acquaint you, that His Most Christian Majesty expired at four o'clock this morning, after a protracted agony.

I have the honour to be, &c.

(Signed) CHS. STUART.

To the Right Hon. George Canning,
&c. &c. &c.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, September 18, 1824.

ORDERS for the Court's going into mourning, on Thursday next the 23d instant, for His late Most Christian Majesty, viz.

The Ladies to wear black silk, fringed or plain linen, white gloves, necklaces and ear-rings, black or white shoes, fans and tippets.

Undress—White or grey lustrings, tabbies or damasks.

The Gentlemen to wear black, full trimmed, fringed or plain linen, black swords and buckles.

Undress—Grey frocks.

The Court to change the mourning on Thursday the 7th of October next, viz,

The Ladies to wear black silk or velvet, coloured ribbons, fans and tippets, or plain white, or white and gold, or white and silver stuffs, with black ribbons.

The Gentlemen to wear black coats, and black or plain white, or white and gold, or white and silver stuff waistcoats, full trimmed, coloured swords and buckles.

And on Thursday the 14th of October next, the Court to go out of mourning.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 14th of August 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the tenth of March last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar), will expire on the nineteenth day of September next; and whereas it is judged expedient that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service), do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the nineteenth of September next), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or
