

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 25, 1824.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 14th of August 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the tenth of March last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar), will expire on the nineteenth day of September next; and whereas it is judged expedient that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service), do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the nineteenth of September next), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar) or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf, first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty

" to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 14th of August 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by His Majesty in Council, that the Parliament be prorogued from Tuesday the twenty-fourth day of this instant August to Thursday the fourth day of November next.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 14th of August 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to authorise the importation into or exportation from the United Kingdom, or from any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any goods, wares, or merchandise which may be legally imported or exported in foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties only, and with the like drawbacks, bounties, and allowances as are charged or granted upon similar goods, wares, or merchandise when imported or exported in British vessels; provided always, that before any such Order or Orders shall be issued, satisfactory proof shall have been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into or exported from the foreign country in whose favour such remission of duties, or such drawbacks, bounties, or allowances shall be granted, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances when imported into or exported from such foreign country in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported or exported in vessels of such country: And whereas by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to indemnify all persons concerned in advising, issuing, or acting under a certain Order in Council, for regulating the tonnage duties on certain foreign vessels; and to amend an Act of the last session of Parliament, for authorising His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in any foreign vessels," His Majesty is authorised (in certain cases), by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to permit and authorise the entry into any port or ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or of any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties of tonnage only as are or may be charged or granted upon or in respect of British vessels: And whereas satisfactory proof has been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into or exported from the territories of the Free Hansiatic Republic of Bremen, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances, when imported or exported in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported or exported from Bremen in Bremen vessels; and that British vessels are charged with no other or higher tonnage duties on their entrance into the territories of Bremen, than are levied on Bremen vessels; His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in him by the Acts above recited, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the tenth day of July last, Bremen vessels entering the ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in ballast or laden, or departing from the ports of the said United Kingdom, together with the cargoes on board the same, such cargoes consisting of articles which may be legally imported or exported, shall not be subject to any other or higher duties or charges whatever, than are or shall be levied on British vessels entering or departing from such ports, or on similar articles when imported into or exported from such ports in British vessels; and also that such articles, when exported from the said ports in Bremen vessels, shall be entitled to the same bounties, drawbacks, and allowances that are granted on similar articles when exported in British vessels:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 14th of August 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to authorise the importation into or exportation from the United Kingdom, or from any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any goods, wares, or merchandise, which may be legally imported or exported in foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties only, and with the like drawbacks, bounties, and allowances, as are charged or granted upon similar goods, wares, or merchandise, when imported or exported in British vessels; provided always, that before any such Order or Orders shall be issued, satisfactory proof shall have been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise, imported into or exported from the foreign country in whose favour such remission of duties, or such drawbacks, bounties, or allowances, shall be granted, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances, when imported into or exported from such foreign country in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise, when imported or exported in vessels of such country: And whereas by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to indemnify all persons concerned in advising, issuing, or acting, under a certain

“ Order in Council for regulating the tonnage duties on certain foreign vessels; and to amend an Act of the last session of Parliament, for authorising His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in any foreign vessels.” His Majesty is authorised (in certain cases), by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty’s Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to permit and authorise the entry into any port or ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or of any other of His Majesty’s dominions, of any foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties of tonnage only as are or may be charged or granted upon or in respect of British vessels: And whereas satisfactory proof has been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into or exported from the territories of the Free Hansiatic Republic of Lubeck, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances, when imported or exported in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported or exported from Lubeck in Lubeck vessels; and that British vessels are charged with no other or higher tonnage duties on their entrance into the territories of Lubeck, than are levied on Lubeck vessels; His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in him by the Acts above recited, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the first day of this instant August, Lubeck vessels entering the ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in ballast or laden, or departing from the ports of the said United Kingdom, together with the cargoes on board the same, such cargoes consisting of articles which may be legally imported or exported, shall not be subject to any other or higher duties or charges whatever, than are or shall be levied on British vessels entering or departing from such ports, or on similar articles when imported into or exported from such ports in British vessels; and also that such articles, when exported from the said ports in Lubeck vessels, shall be entitled to the same bounties, drawbacks, and allowances, that are granted on similar articles when exported in British vessels:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty’s Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 23d of June 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING’s Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the present session of Parliament, intituled “ An Act for the transportation of offenders from Great Britain,” it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time to appoint any place or places beyond the seas, either within or without His Majesty’s dominions, to which felons and other offenders under sentence or order of transportation or banishment should be conveyed; His Majesty was this day pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to appoint the islands of New South Wales and Van Dieman’s Land, and all islands adjacent thereto, to be places to which felons and other offenders now being or hereafter to be under sentence or order of transportation or banishment, shall be conveyed under the provisions of the said recited Act: And whereas by the same Act it is further enacted, that it should be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders in Council, to declare His royal will and pleasure that male offenders, convicted in Great Britain, and being under sentence or order of transportation, should be kept to labour in any part of His Majesty’s dominions out of England, to be named in such Order or Orders in Council, His Majesty was further pleased, by and with the advice aforesaid, to declare His royal will and pleasure, that male offenders, convicted in Great Britain, and being under sentence or order of transportation, shall be kept to hard labour in His Majesty’s colony of Bermuda: And His Majesty’s Principal Secretaries of State for the time being are to take the necessary measures herein as to them may respectively appertain.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 30th of June 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING’s Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His present Majesty’s reign, intituled “ An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage,” His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty’s Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to authorise the importation into or exportation from the United Kingdom, or from any other of His Majesty’s dominions, of any goods, wares, or merchandise, which may be legally imported or exported in foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties only, and with the like drawbacks, bounties, and allowances, as are charged or granted upon similar goods, wares, or merchandise, when imported or exported in British vessels, provided always, that before any such Order or Orders shall be issued, satisfactory proof shall have been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise, imported into or exported from the foreign country in whose favour such remission of duties, or such drawbacks, bounties, or allowances, shall be granted, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances, when imported into or exported from such foreign country in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise, when imported or exported in vessels of such country: And whereas by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to indemnify all persons concerned in advising, issuing, or acting, under a certain Order in Council for regulating the tonnage duties on certain foreign vessels; and to amend an Act of the last session of Parliament, for authorising His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in any foreign vessels," His Majesty is authorised (in certain cases), by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to permit and authorise the entry into any port or ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or of any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties of tonnage only as are or may be charged or granted upon or in respect of British vessels; and whereas satisfactory proof has been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise, imported into or exported from the ports of Denmark, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances, when imported or exported in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported or exported from Denmark in Danish vessels; and that British vessels are charged with no other or higher tonnage duties on their entrance into the ports of Denmark, than are levied on Danish vessels; His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in him by the Acts above recited, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the first day of July next, Danish vessels entering the ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in ballast or laden, or departing from the ports of the said United Kingdom, together with the cargoes on board the same, such cargoes consisting of articles which may be legally imported or exported, shall not be subject to any other or higher duties or charges whatever, than are or shall be levied on British vessels entering or departing from such ports, or on similar articles when imported into or exported from such ports in British vessels; and also that such articles, when exported from the said ports in Danish vessels, shall be entitled to the same bounties, drawbacks, and allowances that are granted on similar articles when exported in British vessels:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

ESSEX LIEUTENANCY.

Chelmsford, September 15, 1824.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a General Meeting of His Majesty's Lieutenancy of the county of Essex will be holden at the Shire-Hall, in Chelmsford; in and for the said county, on Tuesday the 5th day of October next, at twelve o'clock at noon, to proceed in the execution of the several Acts of Parliament relating to the militia.

By order of the Right Honourable Lord Braybrooke, His Majesty's Lieutenant of the said county, Parker, Clerk of the General Meetings of Lieutenancy.

GLOUCESTERSHIRE MILITIA.

Gloucester, September 16, 1824.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Annual General Meeting of Lieutenancy for the county of Gloucester will be held at the King's Head Inn, in the city of Gloucester, on Tuesday the 5th day of October next, at twelve o'clock at noon (being the last Tuesday preceding the 10th of the same month), pursuant to the directions of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the forty-second year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for amending the laws relating to the militia in England, and for augmenting the militia," to take into consideration the issuing of precepts for returning lists of persons liable to serve in the militia, and for other purposes.

By order of the Lord Lieutenant,

Thos. Davis, Clerk of the General Meetings.

RULES AND ORDERS FOR REGULATING THE TRADE BETWEEN GREAT BRITAIN AND IRELAND.

AFTER our hearty commendations—whereas by an Act of Parliament, passed in the fourth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to repeal the several duties and drawbacks of Customs chargeable and allowable in Ireland, on the importation and exportation of certain foreign and colonial goods, wares, and merchandises, and to grant other duties and drawbacks in lieu thereof, equal to the duties and drawbacks chargeable and allowable thereon in Great Britain;" it is, amongst other things, enacted, that at any time after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer, or for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or any three of them, by any warrant or order, in writing, signed by him or them, and published in the London and Dublin Gazettes, to direct and declare that from a day, to be named in such warrant or order, the trade between Great Britain and Ireland shall be taken and deemed to be a coasting trade, and from and after the day mentioned in such warrant or order, such trade shall be and become a coasting trade accordingly, and all ships and vessels in which goods, wares, or merchandise shall be transported, carried, and conveyed from any port in Great Britain, to any port in Ireland, or from any port in Ireland, to any port in Great Britain, respectively, shall be deemed and taken and held to be coasting ships and vessels to all intents and purposes whatsoever, subject nevertheless to such rules, regulations, restrictions, and conditions, and to such penalties and forfeitures as are hereinafter provided and contained;

We, the undersigned, Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, pursuant to and in execution of the powers vested in us, in and by the said Act, do hereby direct and declare, that the trade between Great Britain and Ireland shall, from and after the 10th day of October 1823, be taken and deemed to be a coasting trade; and we hereby approve of the following rules and orders for the mode of entry of all ships and vessels, and of all goods, wares, and merchandises, inwards and outwards, in Great Britain and Ireland respectively:

RULES AND ORDERS OUTWARDS.

That the entry of every ship or vessel, required by the said Act to be made, before any goods are laden on board the same, to be carried from one country to the other, shall be in form and manner following, that is to say;

The master of such ship or vessel, or his agent, shall sign a bill of entry of the same, setting forth the name of the vessel, and of the port to which she belongs, and the tonnage according to the register of such vessel, and the name of the master, and of the port for which she is bound, and the place where she takes in her lading, and shall deliver such bill to the Collector of the Customs at the port at which it is intended that such vessel shall be laden, who shall register the same in a book to be kept by him for that purpose.

And the entry of all such goods, wares, and merchandise, as are subject to duty of Customs or Excise in either country, or are prohibited to be exported from either country to foreign parts, required by the said Act to be made, before the same be laden on board any ship or vessel to be exported from one country to the other, shall be in form and manner following, that is to say:

The exporter of such goods, or his agent, shall sign a bill of entry of such goods, expressed in words at length, setting forth the quantity and description of such goods, and the name of the exporter, and the name of the vessel in which the same are to be exported, and of the master of such vessel, and of the port to which the goods are to be conveyed, and shall deliver such bill of entry, together with two copies of the same, expressed in figures, to the Collector and Comptroller of the port at which such goods are to be laden, who shall each retain one such copy, and shall sign such bill of entry, and return the same to the exporter, or his agent, as a sufferance for the shipment of the goods intended and authorised to be shipped by virtue of the same, and such exporter, or his agent, shall endorse upon such sufferance the particulars of the goods intended to be so shipped, setting forth the marks and numbers and descriptions of all the packages, and the quantities and descriptions of the goods contained therein, and shall sign such indorsement, and deliver the same, together with a copy thereof, also signed by him, to the Coastwaiter or other proper Officer, in whose presence, or by whose authority, the goods are to be shipped, who is to retain such copy, and to certify, on the back of the sufferance, the due shipment of the goods, returning the same to the Collector and Comptroller, in order that they may prepare a full and particular transire for the exportation of the goods, to accompany the same to the port of destination.

And if such goods be prohibited to be exported to foreign parts, or liable to duty on such exportation (except the duty of ten shillings per cent. on the value of the goods exported), the Collector or Comptroller shall require the exporter to give the usual coast bond for the removal of such goods, but such bond shall not be required for any other goods.

The goods to be shipped within the legal hours, and at one of the legal quays, or at a sufferance wharf.

RULES AND ORDERS INWARDS.

And the entry of any ship or vessel which is required by the said Act to be made, upon oath, within twenty-four hours after her arrival in any port of either country from the other, shall be in form and manner following, that is to say:

The master of such ship or vessel shall declare, upon oath, before the Collector or Comptroller of such port, to the best of his knowledge, the particular marks, numbers, and descriptions of every package or parcel of such goods on board his vessel as are liable to duties of Customs or Excise in either country, or of a sort the like of which is prohibited to be imported into either country from foreign parts, and the description and quantities of the goods in each package or parcel, and shall deliver to the Collector or Comptroller the transire or several transires which accompanied the same from the port of exportation in the other country.

And the entry required by the said Act to be made of such goods, before the same be unladen, shall be in form and manner following, that is to say:

The importer, or his agent, shall sign a bill of entry of such goods, written in words at length, setting forth the name of the ship, and of the master, and of the port where the same were shipped, and of the importer, and the quantity and description of the goods, and the number and denomination of the package containing the same, and of the place where the goods are intended to be landed; and in the margin of such bill of entry shall delineate the respective marks and numbers of such package, and shall deliver the same, together with two copies thereof, to the Collector or Comptroller, who shall each retain one of such copies, and shall sign such bill of entry, and transmit the same, as their warrant, to the Coastwaiter, or other proper Officer, in whose presence, or by whose authority, the goods are to be unladen, and who is to retain such warrant as his authority for delivery of the goods expressed therein.

And if such goods be liable to any duty of Customs upon importation into one country from the other, the importer, or his agent, shall, at the time of delivery of such bill of entry to the Collector or Comptroller, and before the same shall be signed by either of them, pay down to such Collector the full amount of such duties.

The goods to be landed in legal hours, and at one of the legal quays, or at a sufferance wharf.

For which this shall be your warrant.

G. C. H. SOMERSET.

To the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs.

CONTRACTS for supplying PROVISIONS for CONVICTS on board HULKS.

London, September 21, 1824.

SUCH persons as are desirous of contracting with the Superintendent of Convicts, to supply

Bread, Meat, Cheese, Barley, Oatmeal, Salt, and Beer, for the Convicts on board the Hulks at Portsmouth, Woolwich, Deptford, Sheerness, and Chatham,

may receive particulars of the contracts on applying to the Superintendent of Convicts, No. 15, Lambeth-Terrace, and on board the several Hulks, and deliver their tenders at the Commissariat-Office, Treasury-Chambers, sealed up and directed to the Superintendent of Convicts, marking thereon "Tender to furnish Supplies for Convicts," on or before Tuesday the 12th October; but none will be received after twelve o'clock on that day; nor will any proposal be noticed unless made on or annexed to a printed particular, and the prices inserted in words at length; nor unless a letter be subjoined to such proposal, signed by two persons of known property engaging to become bound with the party tendering, in the sum expressed in the particulars, for the due performance of the contract.

CONTRACTS FOR STRAW.

Commissariat Department, Treasury-
Chambers, September 23, 1824.

SUCH persons as are desirous of contracting with the Agent for Commissariat Supplies, to furnish for twelve months, from the 1st of November next, such quantities of Straw for filling Paillasses,

as may from time to time be required at barracks and ordnance stations in the under-mentioned counties and islands, may receive particulars of the contracts on applying at this Office, between the hours of ten and four; and to the respective Barrack-Masters in the islands of Guernsey, Jersey, and Alderney; and deliver their tenders at this Office, marking thereon
"Tender for Straw," until twelve o'clock on Thursday the 14th October.

Proposals are to be made separately for each county in South Britain, for the whole of the barracks in North Britain, and also for the whole of those in the three islands of Guernsey, Jersey, and Alderney; but no proposal will be noticed, unless made on or annexed to a printed particular, and the prices inserted in words at length; nor unless a letter be subjoined to such proposal from a person of known property, engaging to become bound with the party tendering, for the due performance of the contract.

Office of Ordnance, September 20, 1824.

THE Principal Officers of His Majesty's Ordnance do hereby give notice, that proposals will be received at their Office in Pall-Mall, on or before Friday the 1st October, from such persons as may be willing to purchase

100 Tons of Remelted Pig Lead, in store at the Royal Laboratory, Woolwich; where the same may be viewed.

The proposals must be delivered, sealed up, and indorsed "Proposals for purchase of Lead;" but no proposal can be admitted after the 1st October next, at twelve o'clock at noon; neither will any tender be noticed, unless the party making it, or an agent in his behalf, shall attend.

By order of the Board,
William Griffin, Secretary.

East India-House, September 22, 1824.

THE Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, do hereby give notice,

That a special General Court of the said Company will be held at their House, in Leadenhall-Street, on Wednesday the 29th instant, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, for the purpose of submitting for confirmation, the resolution of the General Court of this day, approving the resolution of the Court of Directors of the 7th July last, granting a pension of £300 per annum to Mrs. Franklyn, formerly the widow of Major-General Stevenson, of the Madras Establishment; also the resolution of the General Court of this day, approving a resolution of the Court of Directors of the 14th July, granting to Mr. James Marjoribanks, of the Bengal Civil Service, the sum of rupees, 69,026.

The reports required by the bye-law, cap. 6, sect. 19 and 20; together with the documents upon which the said resolutions have been formed, are open at this House for the perusal of the Proprietors.

The Court of Directors do also give notice, that the said General Court is made further special, for the purpose of submitting for confirmation the resolution of the General Court of this day, approving the resolution of the Court of Directors of the 21st July last, appointing Mr. Robert Martin Leeds, Purveyor at the Military Seminary, and Steward of the Company's estate at Addiscombe, with a salary of (£400) four hundred pounds per annum.

Copy of the said resolution now lies open at this House, for the perusal of the Proprietors.

Joseph Dart, Secretary.

East India-House, September 22, 1824.

THE Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, do hereby give notice,

That the Committee of Buying and Warehouses will be ready to receive proposals in writing, sealed up, on or before Wednesday the 6th October next, from such persons as may be willing to supply the Company with

Military Clothing;

And that the conditions of the contract may be seen on application to the Clerk of the said Committee, with whom the proposals must be left before eleven o'clock in the forenoon of the said 6th October next, after which hour the Committee will not receive any tender.

Joseph Dart, Secretary.

London Assurance-House, Birchin-Lane, Cornhill.

Corporation of the London Assurance of Houses and Goods from Fire. Established by Royal Charter in the Year 1720, for making Assurances against Loss or Damage by Fire, and for assuring Lives.

September 22, 1824.

NOTICE is hereby given to persons assured against fire by this Corporation, that printed receipts for the premiums due at Michaelmas are now ready to be delivered at the London Assurance-House, Birchin-Lane, where attendance is given daily from ten o'clock in the morning till four in the afternoon, for assuring houses and other buildings, household goods, goods in trade, merchandize, ships in harbour, cargoes in ships and in lighters on rivers and canals, ships building and repairing, farming stock, &c. from loss or damage by fire; and also for assuring lives.

The proposals for assurance from fire and on lives are delivered at the Office.

Notice is likewise given, that the fifteen days allowed by the Corporation after the quarter day on policies of assurance from fire, will expire on the 14th October.

By order of the Court of Directors,

John Laurence, Secretary
