

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 2, 1824.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 14th of August 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the tenth of March last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar), will expire on the nineteenth day of September next; and whereas it is judged expedient that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service); do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the nineteenth of September next), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar) or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf, first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 14th of August 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by His Majesty in Council, that the Parliament be prorogued from Tuesday the twenty-fourth day of this instant August to Thursday the fourth day of November next.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 14th of August 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to authorise the importation into or exportation from the United Kingdom, or from any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any goods, wares, or merchandise which may be legally imported or exported in foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties only, and with the like drawbacks, bounties, and allowances as are charged or granted upon similar goods, wares, or merchandise when imported or exported in British vessels; provided always, that before any such Order or Orders shall be issued, satisfactory proof shall have been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into or exported from the foreign country in whose favour such remission of duties, or such drawbacks, bounties, or allowances shall be granted, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances when imported into or exported from such foreign country in British vessels as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported or exported in vessels of such country; And whereas by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to indemnify all persons concerned in advising, issuing, or acting under a certain Order in Council, for regulating the tonnage duties on certain foreign vessels; and to amend an Act of the last session of Parliament, for authorising His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in any foreign vessels," His Majesty is authorised (in certain cases), by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to permit and authorise the entry into any port or ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or of any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties of tonnage only as are or may be charged or granted upon or in respect of British vessels: And whereas satisfactory proof has been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into or exported from the territories of the Free Hansiatic Republic of Bremen, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances, when imported or exported in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported or exported from Bremen in Bremen vessels; and that British vessels are charged with no other or higher tonnage duties on their entrance into the territories of Bremen, than are levied on Bremen vessels; His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in him by the Acts above recited, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the tenth day of July last, Bremen vessels entering the ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in ballast or laden, or departing from the ports of the said United Kingdom, together with the cargoes on board the same, such cargoes consisting of articles which may be legally imported or exported, shall not be subject to any other or higher duties or charges whatever, than are or shall be levied on British vessels entering or departing from such ports, or on similar articles when imported into or exported from such ports in British vessels; and also that such articles, when exported from the said ports in Bremen vessels, shall be entitled to the same bounties, drawbacks, and allowances that are granted on similar articles when exported in British vessels:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 14th of August 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to authorise the importation into or exportation from the United Kingdom, or from any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any goods, wares, or merchandise, which may be legally imported or exported in foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties only, and with the like drawbacks, bounties, and allowances, as are charged or granted upon similar goods, wares, or merchandise, when imported or exported in British vessels; provided always, that before any such Order or Orders shall be issued, satisfactory proof shall have been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise, imported into or exported from the foreign country in whose favour such remission of duties, or such drawbacks, bounties, or allowances, shall be granted, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances, when imported into or exported from such foreign country in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise, when imported or exported in vessels of such country: And whereas by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to indemnify all persons concerned in advising, issuing, or acting, under a certain

“ Order in Council for regulating the tonnage duties on certain foreign vessels; and to amend an Act of the last session of Parliament, for authorising His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in any foreign vessels,” His Majesty is authorised (in certain cases), by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty’s Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to permit and authorise the entry into any port or ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or of any other of His Majesty’s dominions, of any foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties of tonnage only as are or may be charged or granted upon or in respect of British vessels: And whereas satisfactory proof has been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into or exported from the territories of the Free Hansiatic Republic of Lubeck, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances, when imported or exported in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported or exported from Lubeck in Lubeck vessels; and that British vessels are charged with no other or higher tonnage duties on their entrance into the territories of Lubeck, than are levied on Lubeck vessels; His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in him by the Acts above recited, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the first day of this instant August, Lubeck vessels entering the ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in ballast or laden, or departing from the ports of the said United Kingdom, together with the cargoes on board the same, such cargoes consisting of articles which may be legally imported or exported, shall not be subject to any other or higher duties or charges whatever, than are or shall be levied on British vessels entering or departing from such ports, or on similar articles when imported into or exported from such ports in British vessels; and also that such articles, when exported from the said ports in Lubeck vessels, shall be entitled to the same bounties, drawbacks, and allowances, that are granted on similar articles when exported in British vessels:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty’s Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 23d of June 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING’s Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the present session of Parliament, intituled “ An Act for the transportation of offenders from Great Britain,” it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time to appoint any place or places beyond the seas, either within or without His Majesty’s dominions, to which felons and other offenders under sentence or order of transportation or banishment should be conveyed; His Majesty was this day pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to appoint the islands of New South Wales and Van Dieman’s Land, and all islands adjacent thereto, to be places to which felons and other offenders now being or hereafter to be under sentence or order of transportation or banishment, shall be conveyed under the provisions of the said recited Act: And whereas by the same Act it is further enacted, that it should be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders in Council, to declare His royal will and pleasure that male offenders, convicted in Great Britain, and being under sentence or order of transportation, should be kept to labour in any part of His Majesty’s dominions out of England, to be named in such Order or Orders in Council, His Majesty was further pleased, by and with the advice aforesaid, to declare His royal will and pleasure, that male offenders, convicted in Great Britain, and being under sentence or order of transportation, shall be kept to hard labour in His Majesty’s colony of Bermuda: And His Majesty’s Principal Secretaries of State for the time being are to take the necessary measures herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Wm. Andrews, Solicitor for the Bill, 28, Great Winchester-Street.

CONTRACT FOR IRON REELS FOR WINDING YARN.

Navy-Office, September 27, 1824.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 14th of October next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying His Majesty's Dock-Yard at Woolwich with Iron Reels for Winding Yarn.

A pattern of the reels, and a form of the tender, may be seen at this Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed, unless the party, or an agent for him, attends.

Every tender must be accompanied by a letter addressed to the Navy Board, and signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £500, for the due performance of the contract. G. Smith.

East India-House, September 29, 1824.

THE Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, do hereby give notice,

That the present interest of (£3 10s.) three pounds ten shillings per cent. per annum on the Company's Bonds, shall cease and determine on the 5th day of April 1825:

That from and after the said 5th day of April, they shall carry only an interest of (£3) three pounds per cent. per annum:

That the holders of Bonds will be allowed to bring them in to be marked for continuation, at the said interest of (£3) three pounds per cent. per annum, until the 29th day of March 1825; and that such Bonds as shall not be marked for continuation as aforesaid, on or before the 29th day of March 1825 shall be liable to be paid off on the said 5th day of April 1825, with the interest due thereon, from which date unmarked Bonds shall not carry any interest.

Joseph Dart, Secretary.

East India-House, September 29, 1824

THE Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, do hereby give notice,

That sundry articles of baggage and presents are remaining in the Company's Warehouses, which have been detained for the payment of the duties arising to the Crown thereupon;

The proprietors thereof are hereby informed, that all goods falling under the above description, which shall have been uncleared six months from the clearing inwards of the ships by which they were imported, will be sold at the Company's candle, on Wednesday the 24th November 1824.

Particulars may be known by making application to Mr. William Evans, at the Baggage Warehouse, in New-Street, Bishopsgate-Street.

Joseph Dart, Secretary.

East India-House, September 29, 1824.

THE Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, do hereby give notice,

That the Committee of Buying and Warehouses will be ready to receive proposals in writing, sealed up, on or before Wednesday the 20th October next, from such persons as may be willing to supply the Company with

Boots for Soldiers;

And that the conditions of the contract may be seen on application to the Clerk of the said Committee, with whom the proposals must be left before eleven o'clock in the forenoon of the said 20th October next, after which hour the Committee will not receive any tender.

Joseph Dart, Secretary.

East India Dock-House, London;
October 1, 1824.

THE Court of Directors of the East India Dock Company do hereby give notice, that a General Meeting of the Proprietors of the said Company will be held at their House, in St. Helen's-Place, Bishopsgate-Street, on Friday next the 8th instant, at twelve o'clock, for the purpose of considering of a dividend on the capital stock of the Company for the half year ending at Michaelmas last.

By order of the Court,

John Farran, Secretary.

N. B. The chair will be taken at one o'clock precisely.

Messrs. Strange, Dashwood and Co's. Creditors.

Notice is hereby given, that the joint Creditors of Messrs Strange, Dashwood, Agnew and Peacocke, (formerly carrying on business as Bankers under the firm of Strange, Dashwood and Co.) who have proved their debts and executed the deed of trust, dated the 19th day of July 1803, entered into by the said firm for the benefit of their Creditors, may receive a third dividend of two shillings and sixpence in the pound on their respective debts, upon applying at the Office of Mr. Leake, No. 20, Donsbire-Street, Portland-Place, on Wednesday the 6th day of October, and every Thursday and Friday, Tuesday and Wednesday thence following, between the hours of Eleven and three o'Clock; and all persons claiming to be entitled to receive such dividends, either as Executors, Administrators, Trustees, Assignees, or otherwise than in their own right, are requested to leave at the said Mr. Leake's Office, for inspection, two days previously to their applying for such dividends, the original authority under which they claim to be so entitled, or a copy thereof; and in case they shall leave only a copy thereof, they will be required to produce the original at the time they receive their dividends. And all persons holding cash notes, post notes, or bills of the said firm will be required to produce the same, upon applying for the dividend thereon.

London, September 30, 1824

RICHARD COPPIN, of Margate, Carpenter, having, by a certain Indenture, bearing date the 28th of January 1822, assigned over his effects to Trustees, for the benefit of his Creditors, notice is hereby given, that such claimants may receive, on the 6th day of November next, a dividend on their respective amounts, by applying to Messrs. Josh. Dowson and Co. 74, Bankside, Southwark; and those who have not already furnished particulars of their demands to the said J. Dowson and Co. are requested to transmit the same (post paid), on or before the 20th day of October, or they will be excluded the benefit of the said dividend.

FREEHOLDS AT GREAT YARMOUTH.

TO be peremptorily sold by auction, by Mr. William Seaman, at the Black Lion Inn, Great Yarmouth, on Thursday the 14th day of October instant, at Three of the Clock in the Afternoon, pursuant to an order of the Court of Chancery, the following estates, late the property of Mr. James Sayers, a Bankrupt;

Lot 1. A freehold messuage or dwelling-house, with a yard and premises in front, now in the occupation of Mr. Burnett, very-conveniently situated for business in Mr. James Hurry's Row, within two doors of the quay. The rooms in the yard might easily be converted into a counting-house.

Lot 2. A spacious freehold ware-house and yard, situate in Goddard, the Whitesmith's-Row, at present untenanted.

Conditions of sale and further particulars may be had on application to Messrs. Parkinson and Staff, Solicitors, Norwich.

Pursuant to a Decree of the Court of Chancery of the County-Palatine of Lancaster, bearing date the 7th day of September 1824, made in a Cause Abbotson against Croft and others, the Creditors of Isabel North, late of Gunnerthwaite, in the said County-Palatine, Widow (who died on or about the 3d day of August 1823), are to come in and prove their debts before William Shawe, Esq. the Registrar of the said Court, at his Office, in Preston, in the said County, on or before the 13th day of November 1824, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the Court of Chancery of the County-Palatine of Lancaster, bearing date the 7th day of September 1824, made in a Cause Abbotson against Croft and others, the Creditors of William Harrison North, late of Gunnerthwaite, in the said County, Esq. deceased, are to come in and prove their debts before William Shawe, Esq. Registrar of the said Court, at his Office, in Preston, in the said County, on or before the 13th day of November 1824, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Samuel Drinkwater, of Liverpool, in the County of Lancaster, Timber-Merchant (Partner with John Forbes, since deceased, of Miramichi, in North America, Timber-Merchant, carrying on business at Liverpool aforesaid, under the firm of Samuel Drinkwater and Company, and at Miramichi aforesaid, under the firm of Drinkwater and Forbes), are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Friday the 6th day of October instant, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, at the Office of Mr. James Morrow, Solicitor, Statham's-Buildings, Lord-Street, Liverpool aforesaid, to consider and determine upon the most advantageous and effectual manner of collecting, recovering, getting in, and disposing of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects in Miramichi aforesaid, or elsewhere, and taking payment for the same, in bills of exchange or other securities; and also to determine upon the best method of collecting and recovering the outstanding debts due to the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, or to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of the same, or otherwise, as they shall deem most beneficial, and to execute such transfer, assignment, or other instrument, in writing, as may be necessary in that behalf; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Edward Lloyd Rowland, of Ruabon, in the County of Denbigh, Iron-Master, are requested (in consequence of dissatisfaction having been expressed upon the subject by several of the Creditors) to meet the Assignee of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Monday the 25th day of October instant, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, at the Wynnstay Arms Inn, in Wrexham, in the said County of Denbigh, to take into consideration the accounts and transactions between the said Bankrupt and a certain person, to be named at such meeting; and to determine whether any and what steps are to be taken in respect of a certain security for a large sum of money, given by the said Bankrupt to the same person; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Henry Nancies, of Warford Court, Throgmorton-Street, in the City of London Merchant (surviving Partner of Richard Muilman Trench Chiswell, late of the same place, Merchant, deceased; trading under the firm of Richard Muilman and Company), are requested to meet the surviving Assignee of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Tuesday the 19th of October instant, at One of the Clock in the Afternoon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the said City of London, to take into consideration certain proposals made for compromising a suit in Chancery, instituted by the said Assignee, and now pending against the Administrators, with the will annexed, of the estate of Edmund Boehm, Esq. deceased, and other persons, for the recovery of a debt alleged to be due to the said Assignee, and to decide upon the propriety of his assenting to or dissenting from the terms of compromise proposed, or effecting a settlement of the suit upon such other terms as the Creditors may deem advisable; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Matthew Smith, of Cokermonth, in the County of Cumberland, Mercer and Draper, Dealer and Chapman, are desired to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on the 9th day of October instant, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Office of Messrs. Steel and Sons, Solicitors, Cokermonth, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of the stock in trade of the said Bankrupt, and his interest in the messuage, dwelling-house, shop, and garden, situate in Cokermonth aforesaid, now in the occupation of Sarah Smith, Widow, the tenant for life thereof, by private contract, upon such terms, and to take such securities from the purchaser or purchasers for the payment of his, her, or their purchase-money as the said Assignees shall think fit; and generally to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees taking all such other measures as they may consider necessary for the benefit of the said estate and effects; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Joseph Swindells, late of Portwood, within Brinnington, in the County of Chester, House-Builer, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Monday the 25th day of October instant, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Dog and Patridge Inn, in Stockport, in the said County of Chester, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees raising sufficient money to pay off and discharge a certain mortgage affecting the Bankrupt's freehold property; or to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of the said Bankrupt's freehold estate, by public auction or private contract as they shall think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying and allowing, out of the said Bankrupt's estate, to certain Creditors, to be named at such meeting, certain expences incurred by them in obtaining an office copy of the schedule filed by the said Bankrupt in the Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, and certain other expences incurred in causing the said Bankrupt to be remanded by the said Court; and to the Assignees having power to act for the benefit of the said estate as they shall think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity against certain persons, to be named at such meeting, for the recovery of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Richard Blundell, late of Liverpool, in the County of Lancaster, Distiller, Miller, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Wednesday the 13th day of October instant, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon, at the Office of Messrs. Radcliffe and Duncan, the Solicitors to the said Assignees, situate in Exchange-Street-West, in Liverpool aforesaid, for the purpose of considering a proposal concerning the distillery, messuages, buildings, and hereditaments, in Liverpool, at the time of the bankruptcy, in the occupation of the said Bankrupt as purchaser thereof under a contract for the same, which proposal is made by the vendors of the said property, who claim to have a considerable lien thereon for unpaid purchase-money and interest, such proposal being, that the said property shall, on terms to be agreed upon, be let by the said vendors, with the consent of the said Assignees, to a tenant; and also to consider a proposal concerning certain utensils, goods, and chattels upon the said distillery and other premises, which are claimed by the said vendors, but which the said Assignees consider to be part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, also made by the said vendors, which proposal is, that, without prejudice to the rights and interests of the said vendors and Assignees, the said utensils, goods, and chattels shall be sold to the person or persons who may be willing to become tenant or tenants of the said distillery and hereditaments, at a valuation, on the principle of a price as between an out-going and an in-coming tenant, and upon an agreement that, out of the purchase-money for the same, an extent of the Crown against the said Bankrupt, now levied thereon, and on other chattels, part of the said Bankrupt's estate, should be satisfied, so far as respects the said utensils, goods, and chattels, and that the remainder of the said purchase money shall be deposited to abide the event of the differences concerning the said utensils, goods, and chattels between the said Vendors and the said Assignees, and to come to a determination concerning the said proposals; and to assent to or dissent from all contracts or agreements (if any) that may in the mean time be entered into concerning the premises, which (if any) will be entirely subject to the approbation of the said meeting, such meeting being by adjournment from the 27th of September last; and also at such adjourned meeting to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling, or joining in selling, or consenting to the sale of the said distillery and other premises, and to the application of the proceeds of such sale in the first place in or towards payment to the said Vendors of the said purchase money remaining unpaid, and the surplus (if any) to the said Assignees; and to consider and determine upon such other matters relating to the said Bankrupt's estate as may then and there be submitted.
