TUESDAY, OCTOBER 12, 1824.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 14th of August 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by His Majesty in Council, that the Parliament be prorogued from Tuesday the twenty-fourth day of this instant August to Thursday the fourth day of November next.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 14th of August 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to authorise the importation into or exportation from the United Kingdom, or from any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any goods, wares, or merchandise which may be legally imported or exported in foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties only, and with the like drawbacks, bounties, and allowances as are charged or granted upon similar goods, wares, or merchandise when imported or exported in British vessels; provided always, that before any such Order or Orders shall be issued, satisfactory proof shall have been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into or exported from the foreign country in whose favour such remission of duties, or such drawbacks, bounties, or allowances shall be granted, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances when imported into or exported from such foreign country in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported or exported in vessels of such country: And whereas by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to indemnify all persons concerned in advising, issuing, or acting under a certain Order in Council, for regulating the tonnage duties on certain foreign vessels; and to amend an Act of the last session of Parliament, for authorising His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in any foreign vessels," His Majesty is authorised (in certain cases), by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to permit and authorise the entry into any port or ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or of any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties of tonnage only as are or may be charged or granted upon or in respect of British vessels: And whereas satisfactory proof has been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into or exported from the territories of the Free Hansiatic Republic of Bremen, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances, when imported or exported in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported or exported from Bremen in Bremen vessels; and that British vessels are charged with no other or higher tonnage duties on their entrance into the territories of Bremen, than are levied on Bremen vessels; His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in him by the Acts above recited, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the tenth day of July last, Bremen vessels entering the ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in ballast or laden, or departing from the ports of the said United Kingdom, together with the cargoes on board the same, such cargoes consisting of articles which may be legally imported or exported, shall not be subject to any other or higher duties or charges whatever, than are or shall be levied on British vessels entering or departing from such ports, or on similar articles when imported into or exported from such ports in British vessels; and also that such articles, when exported from the said ports in Bremen vessels, shall be entitled to the same bounties, drawbacks, and allowances that are granted on similar articles when exported in British vessels:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Notice to the Creditors of William Brown, sen. Grocer, in Ayr.

Ayr, October 1, 1824.

AT a meeting of the Creditors of the said William Brown, sen. held at Ayr this day, the Bankrupt made offer of a composition of 7s. per pound to his Creditors, with security, to be paid by equal instalments at four, eight, and twelve months from the date of his discharge, which offer was unanimously entertained; and the Trustee hereby intimates, that another meeting is to be held within the King's Arms Inn, Ayr, on Tuesday the 26th of October current, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, for the purpose of finally deciding on said offer.

NOTICE.

Glasgow, October 7, 1824.

ALLEXANDER MEIN, Accountant, in Glasgow, hereby intimates, that he has been confirmed Trustee on the sequestrated estate of James Graham, Manufacturer, Candle-rigg-Court, Glasgow; and that the Sheriff of Lanarkshire has fixed Friday the 2d day of October current, and Tuesday the 9th day of November next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon on each day, for the public examination of the Bankrupt and others acquainted with his affairs, in terms of the Statute, within the Sheriff's Chambers, Glasgow. That a general meeting of the Creditors will be held within the Office of Hugh Kerr, Writer, No. 32, Bannockburn-Street, Glasgow, upon Wednesday the 10th day of November next, at One in the Afternoon; and that another general meeting of the Creditors will be held within the said Hugh Kerr's Office, upon Wednesday the 24th day of November next, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon, to choose Commissioners, and give directions to the Trustee for the recovery and disposal of the Bankrupt's estate.

The Creditors are requested to lodge their claims and vouchers of debt, with oaths of verity thereto, with the Trustee, betwixt and the said 10th of November next; and if they are not so lodged, betwixt and the 24th day of June next, the parties neglecting to do so shall have no share of the first distribution of the Bankrupt estates.

Notice to the Creditors of Robert Murr and Son, Merchants, Leith, and of Alexander Murr, sole surviving Partner of that Company, as an Individual.

Edinburgh, October 7, 1824.

AT a meeting of the Creditors of the said Robert Murr and Son, and of Alexander Murr, sole surviving Partner of that concern, as an individual, held upon the 7th day of October current, being the first lawful day after the second examination of the Bankrupt, an offer of composition of 5s. per pound was made upon all their just and lawful debts, payable by two instalments of 2s. 6s. per pound each, at eight and twelve months from the date of the decree of Court, approving of said offer, and to find good security for the amount of said composition, as also to pay the expenses of sequestration, including the Trustee's commission; which offer the Creditors, and agents for Creditors present, thought fair and reasonable, and instructed the Trustee to call another meeting to decide upon said offer.—The Trustee, therefore, hereby intimates, that another meeting will be held at Edinburgh, within the Royal-Exchange Coffee-House there, upon Friday the 29th day of said month of October, at Twelve o'Clock Noon, to decide upon said offer, and the security to be proposed for payment thereof.—Of all which notice is hereby given.

Notice to the Creditors of William Munro, Esq. of Achany, Cattle-Dealer, &c.

Tain, October 6, 1824.

THE Trustee hereby gives notice, that his accounts of intrusions with the sequestrated estate have been audited by the Commissioners, in terms of the Statute; and that, as the Trustee is greatly in advance for the estate, there will be no fund for division among the Creditors until the heritable property be sold, and the price paid. Under existing circumstances, however, the Trustee and Commissioners have considered it proper to call a general meeting of the Creditors, and they are accordingly hereby required to meet within Ellison's Inn, Tain, on Friday the 29th of October current, at Two o'Clock P. M. to give instructions to the Trustee regarding subjects of the greatest importance to the estate.
