

this Office every day (Sundays excepted), with their registers of benefits and blanks.

And the Commissioners appointed to take in the benefit tickets of the first lottery for the year 1823, do hereby give notice, that they will attend at their Office in Somerset-Place, on Friday the 29th instant, from ten o'clock in the forenoon to two o'clock in the afternoon, to take in and enter the benefit tickets drawn on Tuesday the 5th day of October instant, being the first day of drawing the same lottery, to be exchanged for certificates, pursuant to the Act of Parliament in that behalf.

And for further dispatch thereof, the said Commissioners will take in and enter the tickets in class A, at one seat, and the tickets in class B, at another seat; and the persons possessed thereof are directed to bring with their tickets separate lists thereof, marked A and B, formed in numerical order, adapted to each of the said seats, and at the bottom of each list to write the name and proper additions of the person entitled to the value of the said tickets.

And the said Commissioners also give further notice, that certificates for the value of the said tickets will be delivered out on Wednesday the 3d day of November next, at twelve o'clock at noon; after which the said Commissioners will take in and enter tickets in their usual monthly entry; and all persons are desired to observe, they must bring duplicates of their lists when they come for their certificates.

The Commissioners also give further notice, that a bond of indemnity must be entered into by two respectable housekeepers (to be approved by the said Commissioners), together with the person entitled to the value of any ticket or tickets which may have been lost, or to any ticket or tickets the checks of which may have been torn or destroyed, before the Commissioners can grant certificates for the same; and that in case of a lost ticket, an affidavit must also be made of the circumstances attending the loss of the same, before one of the Honourable Barons of His Majesty's Court of Exchequer.

LONDON DOCKS.

London Dock-House, Princes-Street, October 8, 1824.

WHEREAS sundry casks of wine and spirits, landed prior to the year 1818, are now remaining in the vaults of the London Dock Company, for which no claimants have appeared for several years, and the charges on which amount to more than their estimated value; the Court of Directors of the London Dock Company do hereby give notice, that the said wine and spirits will be sold, by public auction, on Wednesday the 3d November next, at twelve o'clock, at the Hambro' Coffee-House, Water-Lane, Tower-Street, previously to which, information respecting them will be given to any claimant, upon application being made at the Superintendent's Office, and if any person or persons can satisfactorily prove that the said casks of wine or spirits belong to them, they will be delivered to their order, upon payment of the charges due, and in the event of their selling for a sum not sufficient to cover the charges, the owners will be held responsible for the deficiency, and in case of their producing a sum of money more than sufficient to defray the charges, and the expences of sale, the overplus will be paid to the parties entitled thereto.
