

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 19, 1824.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 19th of October 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by His Majesty in Council, that the Parliament be prorogued, from Thursday the fourth day of November next, to Thursday the sixth day of January next.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 14th
of August 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the tenth of March last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Straights of Gibraltar), will expire on the nineteenth day of September next; and whereas it is judged expedient that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service), do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the nineteenth of September next), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Straights of Gibraltar) or ship or lade any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf, first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act

" to empower His Majesty to prohibit the expor" tation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or " ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty
" to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre,
" gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammu" nition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to " restrain the exportation of naval stores, and " more effectually to prevent the exportation of " salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohi" bited by Proclamation or Order in Council:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Grenville.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 14th
of August 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to authorise the importation into or exportation from the United Kingdom, or from any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any goods, wares, or merchandise which may be legally imported or exported in foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties only, and with the like drawbacks, bounties, and allowances as are charged or granted upon similar goods, wares, or merchandise when imported or exported in British vessels; provided always, that before any such Order or Orders shall be issued, satisfactory proof shall have been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into, or exported from the foreign country in whose favour such remission of duties, or such drawbacks, bounties, or allowances shall be granted, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances when imported into or exported from such foreign country in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported or exported in vessels of such country: And whereas by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to indemnify all persons concerned in advising, issuing, or acting under a certain Order in Council, for regulating the tonnage duties on certain foreign vessels; and to amend an Act of the last session of Parliament, for authorising His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in any foreign vessels," His Majesty is authorised (in certain cases), by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to permit and authorise the entry into any port or ports of the United Kingdom, of Great Britain and Ireland, or of any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties of tonnage only as are or may be charged or granted upon or in respect of British vessels: And whereas satisfactory proof has been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into or exported from the territories of the Free Hansiatic Republic of Bremen, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances, when imported or exported in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported or exported from Bremen in Bremen vessels; and that British vessels are charged with no other or higher tonnage duties on their entrance into the territories of Bremen, than are levied on Bremen vessels; His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in him by the Acts above recited, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the tenth day of July last, Bremen vessels entering the ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in ballast or laden, or departing from the ports of the said United Kingdom, together with the cargoes on board the same, such cargoes consisting of articles which may be legally imported or exported, shall not be subject to any other or higher duties or charges whatever, than are or shall be levied on British vessels entering or departing from such ports, or on similar articles when imported into or exported from such ports in British vessels; and also that such articles, when exported from the said ports in Bremen vessels, shall be entitled to the same bounties, drawbacks, and allowances that are granted on similar articles when exported in British vessels:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greyville;

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 14th of August, 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to authorise the importation into or exportation from the United Kingdom, or from any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any goods, wares, or merchandise, which may be legally imported or exported in foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties only, and with the like drawbacks, bounties, and allowances, as are charged or granted upon similar goods, wares, or merchandise, when imported or exported in British vessels; provided always, that before any such Order or Orders shall be issued, satisfactory proof shall have been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise, imported into or exported from the foreign country in whose favour such remission of duties, or such drawbacks, bounties, or allowances, shall be granted, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances, when imported into or exported from such foreign country in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise, when imported or exported in vessels of such country: And whereas by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to indemnify all persons concerned in advising, issuing, or acting, under a certain

" Order in Council for regulating the tonnage duties on certain foreign vessels; and to amend an Act of the last session of Parliament, for authorising His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in any foreign vessels," His Majesty is authorised (in certain cases), by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to permit and authorise the entry into any port or ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or of any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties of tonnage only as are or may be charged or granted upon or in respect of British vessels: And whereas satisfactory proof has been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into or exported from the territories of the Free Hanseatic Republic of Lubeck, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances, when imported or exported in British vessels; as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported or exported from Lubeck in Lubeck vessels; and that British vessels are charged with no other or higher tonnage duties on their entrance into the territories of Lubeck, than are levied on Lubeck vessels; His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in him by the Acts above recited, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the first day of this instant August, Lubeck vessels entering the ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in ballast or laden, or departing from the ports of the said United Kingdom, together with the cargoes on board the same, such cargoes consisting of articles which may be legally imported or exported, shall not be subject to any other or higher duties or charges whatever, than are or shall be levied on British vessels entering or departing from such ports, or on similar articles when imported into or exported from such ports in British vessels; and also that such articles, when exported from the said ports in Lubeck vessels, shall be entitled to the same bounties, drawbacks, and allowances, that are granted on similar articles when exported in British vessels:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 25th of May 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage," His Majesty is authorised, by

and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to authorise the importation into or exportation from the United Kingdom, or from any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any goods, wares, or merchandise which may be legally imported or exported in foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties only, and with the like drawbacks, bounties, and allowances as are charged or granted upon similar goods, wares, or merchandise when imported or exported in British vessels; provided always, that before any such Order or Orders shall be issued, satisfactory proof shall have been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into or exported from the foreign country in whose favour such remission of duties, or such drawbacks, bounties, or allowances shall be granted, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances when imported into or exported from such foreign country in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported or exported in vessels of such country: And whereas by an Act, passed in the present session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to indemnify all persons concerned in advising, issuing, or acting under a certain Order in Council, for regulating the tonnage duties on certain foreign vessels; and to amend an Act of the last session of Parliament, for authorising His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in any foreign vessels," His Majesty is authorised (in certain cases), by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to permit and authorise the entry into any port or ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or of any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties or tonnage only as are or may be charged or granted upon or in respect of British vessels: And whereas satisfactory proof has been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into or exported from the Kingdom of Hanover, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances when imported or exported in British vessels as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported or exported from the said Kingdom of Hanover, in Hanoverian vessels; and that British vessels are charged with no other or higher tonnage duties on their entrance into the ports of the Kingdom of Hanover, than are levied on Hanoverian vessels; His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in him by the Acts above recited, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the first of this instant May, Hanoverian vessels entering or departing from the ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, together with the cargoes on board the same, such cargoes consisting of articles which may be legally imported or exported, shall not be subject to any other or higher duties or charges whatever than are or shall be levied on British vessels entering or departing from such ports, or on similar articles when imported into or exported from such ports in British vessels; and also that such articles when exported from the said ports in Hanoverian vessels, shall be entitled to the same bounties, drawbacks, and allowances, that are granted on similar articles when exported in British vessels:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly,

Jas. Buller.

At the Court at Carlton-House, the 23d of June 1824.

PRESENT.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the present session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for the transportation of offenders from Great Britain," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time to appoint any place or places beyond the seas, either within or without His Majesty's dominions, to which felons and other offenders under sentence or order of transportation or banishment should be conveyed; His Majesty was this day pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to appoint the islands of New South Wales and Van Dieman's Land, and all islands adjacent thereto, to be places to which felons and other offenders now being or hereafter to be under sentence or order of transportation or banishment, shall be conveyed under the provisions of the said recited Act: And whereas by the same Act it is further enacted, that it should be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders in Council, to declare His royal will and pleasure that male offenders, convicted in Great Britain, and being under sentence or order of transportation, should be kept to labour in any part of His Majesty's dominions out of England, to be named in such Order or Orders in Council, His Majesty was further pleased, by and with the advice aforesaid, to declare His royal will and pleasure, that male offenders, convicted in Great Britain, and being under sentence or order of transportation, shall be kept to hard labour in His Majesty's colony of Bermuda: And His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the time being are to take the necessary measures herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas. Buller.

Whitehall, September 29, 1824.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto William-Charles Hoar, Esq. only son and heir apparent of William Hoar, of Middleton St. George, in the county palatine of Durham, Esq. Barrister at Law, Recorder of Durham, and nephew of the late Sir Charles Hoar-Harland, of Sutton-hall, in the county of York, Bart, deceased, His royal licence and authority, that he and his issue may, in compliance with the wish and desire expressed by Dame Anne Hoar-Harland, of Sutton-hall aforesaid, widow and relict of the said Sir Charles Hoar-Harland, and only daughter and heir of Philip Harland, of the same place, Esq. take and use the surname of Harland only, and bear and quarter the arms of Harland in the first quarter with his own family arms; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise His Majesty's said royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that this His Majesty's concession and declaration be registered in His College of Arms.

NOTICE is hereby given, to all persons whom it may concern, that application will be made in the next session of Parliament by the Governors and Directors of the poor and watch of the united parishes of Saint Andrew, Holborn, above the Bars, and Saint George the Martyr, in the county of Middlesex, for leave to bring in a Bill to extend, alter and amend an Act passed in the thirty-ninth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter 41, intituled "An Act for better regulating and employing the poor, and for more effectually watching the squares, streets, lanes and other places within that part of the parish of Saint Andrew, Holborn, which lies above the Bars, in the county of Middlesex, and the parish of Saint George, the Martyr, in the said county," so far as the same has been found defective and insufficient for the general purposes thereof, particularly as far as regards the settling and ascertaining the sums to be raised for the relief of the poor, and the assessing, collecting and recovering the rates and the payment thereof, as well by occupiers as by landlords and owners, and the levying the same, and the duties of the collectors thereof, and as to the appointment of overseers of the poor; and also to vest in the Governors and Directors of the poor of the said united parishes for the time being, the power of appointing a sufficient number of constables and headboroughs for the said parishes, and persons to examine weights and measures therein, with proper authorities for the discharge of those duties, which power and authorities are now exercised by the Court Leet of our Lord the King, held in and for the manor of Portpool, and otherwise to extend, amend and enlarge the powers of the said Act as far as shall be found necessary for carrying the objects thereof into execution.—Dated this 18th day of October 1824.

John S. Taylor, Vestry Clerk and Solicitor, 14, Great James-Street, Bedford-Row.

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons whom it may concern, that application will be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill for draining, paving, cleansing, lighting, watching, removing and preventing nuisances in, and otherwise improving and keeping in repair, the streets and other public passages and places which are and shall be made in or upon certain pieces of ground called Tothill-Fields, in the parish of St. John the Evangelist, in the city or liberties of Westminster, belonging to the Dean and Chapter of the Collegiate Church of St. Peter, in Westminster, and now in the tenure of Messrs. Alexander Copland and Henry Rowles, their under-tenants or assigns, by virtue of leases granted thereof by the said Dean and Chapter.—Dated this 2d day of October 1824.

Blake, White, Ainge, and Blake, No. 14, Essex-Street.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made in the next session of Parliament, for leave to bring in a Bill and to obtain an Act of Parliament, to alter and amend an Act, passed in the fifty-first year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for completing and maintaining the East Country Dock at Rotherhithe, in the county of Surrey," and to enlarge the powers of the said Act:

R. S. Wadson, Solicitor, No. 11, Austin-Friars, London.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act for repealing or altering certain powers and provisions of an Act of King Charles the Second, intituled "An Act for endowment of a church at Shadwell, now in the parish of Stepney, in Middlesex, and making of it parochial distinct from Stepney;" and to enable the Trustees for carrying into execution an Act of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for rebuilding the church and improving the church-yard of the parish of St. Paul, Shadwell, in the county of Middlesex;" and an Act of His present Majesty, for raising a further sum of money for carrying into execution the said last-mentioned Act, and for amending the same, to take from the Rector of the said parish certain land and houses adjoining to and on the west side of the present church-yard of the said parish, for the purpose of enlarging and improving the said church-yard, and erecting an engine-house, vestry-room, and other buildings and offices for the use of the said parish; and to make the said Rector a suitable remuneration for the same, by an annual stipend or otherwise; and to enable the said Rector to convey the said land and houses to the said Trustees for the purposes aforesaid; and to vest in the said Trustees the surplus of the rates raised under the said first-mentioned Act, to be by them applied in furtherance of the objects aforesaid.—Dated the 9th day of October 1824.

Thomas West, Solicitor for the Bill.

CONTRACT FOR LINSEED OIL.

Navy-Office, October 6, 1824.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 28th instant, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying His Majesty's several Yards with Linseed Oil.

A sample of the oil, and a form of the tender, may be seen at this Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed, unless the party, or an agent for him, attends.

Every tender must be accompanied by a letter, addressed to the Navy Board, and signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £1000, for the due performance of the contract. G. Smith.

Navy-Office, October 8, 1824.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 28th of this month, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, Commissioner Cunningham will put up to sale, in His Majesty's Yard at Chatham, several lots of

Old Stores,

Consisting of Rope, Shakings, Canvas, Iron of various sorts, Slops, Marine Clothing, Top-pets, Leakage Tar, &c. &c. &c.

lying in His Majesty's Yards at Chatham and Sheerness.

Persons wishing to view the lots, must apply to the Commissioner at Chatham, and to the Officers of Sheerness Yard, for notes of admission for that purpose.

Catalogues and conditions of sale may be had here, and at the Yards. G. Smith.

ARMY CONTRACTS.

Commissariat Department, Treasury-Chambers, September 29, 1824.

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons desirous of contracting to supply the following articles for the use of the Army, viz.

BEEF and MUTTON, to His Majesty's Land Forces in Cantonments, Quarters, and Barracks, in the under-mentioned Counties and Island,

Devon, Hauts,
Dorset, Isle of Wight,

And in the several Counties of North Britain;

That the deliveries are to commence on and for the 25th day of November next; that proposals in writing, sealed up and marked "Tender for Army Supplies," will be received at this Office on or before Tuesday the 26th day of October next; but none will be received after twelve o'clock on that day.

Proposals must be made separately for each county and island, except for the counties comprising North Britain all of which must be included in one tender; and each proposal must have the letter which is annexed to the tender properly filled up by two persons of known property, engaging to become bound with the party tendering, in the amount stated in the printed particulars, for the due performance of the contract; and no proposal will be noticed unless made on a printed tender, and the prices expressed in words at length; and should it so happen that during the continuance of the contract no proposals should be supplied by virtue of the same; the amount of the stamps on the contract and bond, paid in the first instance by the contractor, shall be refunded to him.

Particulars of the contracts may be had upon application at these Chambers, between the hours of ten and four.

Office for Taxes, Somerset-Place,
October 19, 1824.

PURSUANT to Acts, passed in the forty-second and fifty-third years of His late Majesty's reign, notice is hereby given, that the price of the Three per Centum Consolidated Bank Annuities, sold at the Bank of England this day, was £96 and under £97 per Centum.

By order of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, E. Bates, Secretary.

LONDON DOCKS.

London Dock-House, Princes-Street, October 8, 1824.

WHEREAS sundry casks of wine and spirits, landed prior to the year 1818, are now remaining in the vaults of the London Dock Company, for which no claimants have appeared for several years, and the charges on which amount to more than their estimated value; the Court of Directors of the London Dock Company do hereby give notice, that the said wine and spirits will be sold, by public auction, on Wednesday the 3d November next, at twelve o'clock, at the Hambro' Coffee-House, Water-Lane, Tower-Street, previously to which, information respecting them will be given to any claimant, upon application being made at the Superintendent's Office, and if any person or persons can satisfactorily prove that the said casks of wine or spirits belong to them, they will be delivered to their order, upon payment of the charges due, and in the event of their selling for a sum not sufficient to cover the charges, the owners will be held responsible for the deficiency, and in case of their producing a sum of money more than sufficient to defray the charges; and the expences of sale, the overplus will be paid to the parties entitled thereto.

Geo. Robinson, Secretary.
