

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 23, 1824.

At the Court at Windsor, the 19th of October 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to authorise the importation into, or exportation from the United Kingdom, or from any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any goods, wares, or merchandise which may be legally imported or exported in foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties only, and with the like drawbacks, bounties, and allowances as are charged or granted upon similar goods, wares, or merchandise when imported or exported in British vessels; provided always, that before any such Order or Orders shall be issued, satisfactory proof shall have been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into or exported from the foreign country in whose favour such remission of duties, or such drawbacks, bounties, or allowances shall be granted, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances when imported into or exported from such foreign country in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported or exported in vessels of such country: And whereas by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to indemnify all persons concerned in advising, issuing, or acting under a certain Order in Council, for regulating the tonnage duties on certain foreign vessels, and to amend an Act of the last session of Parliament, for authorising His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in any foreign vessels," His Majesty is authorised (in certain cases), by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to permit and authorise the entry into any port or ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or of any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties of tonnage only as are or may be charged or granted upon or in respect of British vessels: And whereas, satisfactory proof has been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into or exported from the ports of His Serene Highness the Duke of Oldenburgh, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances when imported or exported in British vessels as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported into or exported from the said ports in Oldenburgh vessels; and that British vessels are charged with no other or higher tonnage duties on their entrance into the ports of Oldenburgh, than are levied on Oldenburgh vessels; His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in him by the Acts above recited, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the date of this Order, Oldenburgh vessels entering the ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in ballast or laden, direct from any of the ports of Oldenburgh, or departing from the ports of the said United Kingdom, together with the cargoes on board the same, such cargoes consisting of articles which may be legally imported or exported, shall not be subject to any other or higher duties or charges whatever than are or shall be levied on British vessels entering or departing from such ports, or on similar articles when imported into or exported from such ports in British vessels; and also that such articles when exported from the said ports in Oldenburgh vessels, shall be entitled to the same bounties, drawbacks, and allowances, that are granted on similar articles when exported in British vessels:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 19th of October 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by any Order or Orders in Council, in all cases in which British vessels, of less burthen than sixty tons, are not required by law to take pilots, to exempt foreign vessels, being of less burthen than sixty tons, from taking on board a pilot to conduct them into or from any of the ports of the United Kingdom, any law, custom, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding; His Majesty, by virtue of the power vested in him by the said Act, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date of this Order, all vessels belonging to the inhabitants of Bremen, and being of less burthen than sixty tons, which shall enter in or clear out from any of the ports of the United Kingdom, shall be, and they are hereby exempted from taking on board a pilot to conduct them into or from any such port, in all cases where British vessels, being of less burthen than sixty tons, are not required by law to take pilots, any law, custom, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 19th of October 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by His Majesty in Council, that the Parliament be prorogued, from Thursday the fourth day of November next, to Thursday the sixth day of January next.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 14th of August 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the tenth of March last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar), will expire on the nineteenth day of September next; and whereas it is judged expedient that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service), do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the nineteenth of September next), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Straights of Gibraltar) or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf, first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 14th of August 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to authorise the importation into or exportation from the United Kingdom, or from any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any goods, wares, or merchandise, which may be legally imported or exported in foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties only, and with the like drawbacks, bounties, and allowances as are charged or granted upon similar goods, wares, or merchandise when imported or exported in British vessels; provided always, that before any such Order or Orders shall be issued, satisfactory proof shall have been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into or exported from the foreign country in whose favour such remission of duties, or such drawbacks, bounties, or allowances shall be granted, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances when imported into or exported from such foreign country in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported or exported in vessels of such country: And whereas by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to indemnify all persons concerned in advising, issuing, or acting under a certain Order in Council, for regulating the tonnage duties on certain foreign vessels; and to amend an Act of the last session of Parliament, for authorising His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in any foreign vessels," His Majesty is authorised (in certain cases), by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to permit and authorise the entry into any port or ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or of any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties of tonnage only as are or may be charged or granted upon or in respect of British vessels: And whereas satisfactory proof has been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into or exported from the territories of the Free Hanziatic Republic of Bremen, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances, when imported or exported in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported or exported from Bremen in Bremen vessels; and that British vessels are charged with no other or higher tonnage duties on their entrance into the territories of Bremen, than are levied on Bremen vessels; His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in him by the Acts above recited, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the tenth day of July last, Bremen vessels entering the ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in ballast or laden, or departing from the ports of the said United Kingdom, together with the cargoes on board the same, such cargoes consisting of articles which may be legally imported or exported, shall not be subject to any other or higher duties or charges whatever, than are or shall be levied on British vessels entering or departing from such ports, or on similar articles when imported into or exported from such ports in British vessels; and also that such articles, when exported from the said ports in Bremen vessels, shall be entitled to the same bounties, drawbacks, and allowances that are granted on similar articles when exported in British vessels:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commis-signers of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons whom it may concern, that application will be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill for draining, paving, cleansing, lighting, watching, removing and preventing nuisances in, and otherwise improving and keeping in repair, the streets and other public passages and places which are and shall be made in or upon certain pieces of ground, now or heretofore called Tothill Fields, or nearly adjoining thereto, in the several parishes of St. John the Evangelist and St. Margaret, or one of them, in the city or liberties of Westminster, now or heretofore belonging to the Dean and Chapter of the Collegiate Church of St. Peter, in Westminster, their grantees, lessees, or undertenants—Dated this 16th day of October 1824.

Blake, White, Ainge, and Blake, No. 14, Essex-Street.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application will be made in the ensuing session of Parliament, for leave to bring in a Bill "to establish a Company for lighting the cities of London and Westminster, and the liberties thereof and parts adjacent within the county of Middlesex, with oil gas."—Dated this 14th day of October 1824.

Martineau and Malton, Solicitors for the Bill.

NOTICE is hereby given, to all persons whom it may concern, that application will be made in the next session of Parliament by the Governors and Directors of the poor and watch of the united parishes of Saint Andrew, Holborn, above the Bars, and Saint George the Martyr, in the county of Middlesex, for leave to bring in a Bill to extend, alter and amend an Act passed in the thirty-ninth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter 41, intituled "An Act for better regulating and employing the poor, and for more effectually watching the squares, streets, lanes and other places within that part of the parish of Saint Andrew, Holborn, which lies above the Bars, in the county of Middlesex, and the parish of Saint George, the Martyr, in the said county," so far as the same has been found defective and insufficient for the general purposes thereof, particularly as far as regards the settling and ascertaining the sums to be raised for the relief of the poor, and the assessing, collecting and recovering the rates and the payment thereof, as well by occupiers as by landlords and owners, and the levying the same, and the duties of the collectors thereof, and as to the appointment of overseers of the poor; and also to vest in the Governors and Directors of the poor of the said united parishes for the time being, the power of appointing a sufficient number of constables and headboroughs for the said parishes, and persons to examine weights and measures therein, with proper authorities for the discharge of those duties, which power and authorities are now exercised by the Court Leet of our Lord the King, held in and for the manor of Portpool; and otherwise to extend, amend and enlarge the powers of the said Act as far as shall be found necessary for carrying the objects thereof into execution.—Dated this 18th day of October 1824.

John S. Taylor, Vestry Clerk and Solicitor,
14, Great James-Street, Bedford-Row.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Trustees under the Act of Parliament, of the thirty-second year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act to enable the inhabitants of the parish of St. Botolph without Aldersgate, in the city of London, to raise money, &c." intend, at the expiration of six calendar months from the date hereof, to pay off and discharge four of the several bonds for one hundred pounds each, granted to the late Thomas Isherwood, Esq. under and by virtue of the said Act.—Dated this 23d day of October 1824. Samuel Fisher, Clerk.

5, Queen-Street, Cheapside.

CONTRACT FOR LINSEED OIL.

Navy-Office, October 6, 1824.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 28th instant, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying His Majesty's several Yards with Linseed Oil.

A sample of the oil, and a form of the tender, may be seen at this Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed, unless the party, or an agent for him, attends.

Every tender must be accompanied by a letter, addressed to the Navy Board, and signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £1000, for the due performance of the contract. G. Smith.

Navy-Office, October 8, 1824.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 28th of this month, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, Commissioner Cunningham will put up to sale, in His Majesty's Yard at Chatham, several lots of

Old Stores,

Consisting of Rope Shakings, Canvas, Iron of various sorts, Slops, Marine Clothing, Top-pets, Leakage Tar, &c. &c. &c.

lying in His Majesty's Yards at Chatham and Sheerness.

Persons wishing to view the lots, must apply to the Commissioner at Chatham, and to the Officers of Sheerness Yard, for notes of admission for that purpose.

Catalogues and conditions of sale may be had here, and at the Yards. G. Smith.

CONTRACT FOR OATS.

Commissariat Department, Treasury-Chambers, October 18, 1824.

SUCH persons as are desirous of contracting with the Agent for Commissariat Supplies to deliver 621,000lb of Oats, at the Ordnance Depot in Tooley-Street, may receive particulars of the contract at this Office, between the hours of ten and four, and deliver their tenders, sealed up and directed to the Agent for Commissariat Supplies, marking thereon "Tender for Oats," on or before Tuesday the 2d November next; but none will be received after twelve o'clock on that day; nor will any proposal be noticed unless made on or annexed to a printed particular, and the prices inserted in words at length; nor unless a letter be subjoined to such proposal, signed by two persons of known property, engaging to become bound with the party tendering, in the sum expressed in the particulars, for the due performance of the contract.

Custom-House, London, October 18, 1824.
