Published by Authority.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 30, 1824.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 19th of October 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to authorise the importation into or exportation from the United Kingdom, or from any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any goods, wares, or merchandise which may be legally imported or exported in foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties only; and with the like drawbacks, bounties, and allowances as are charged or granted upon similar goods, wares, or merchandise when imported or exported in British vessels; provided always, that before any such Order or Orders shall be issued, satisfactory proof shall have been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into or exported from the foreign country in whose favour such remission of duties, or such drawbacks, bounties, or allowances shall be granted, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances when imported into or exported from such foreign country in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported or exported in vessels of such country: And whereas by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to indemnify all persons concerned in advising, issuing, or acting under a

"certain Order in Council, for regulating the tonnage duties on certain foreign vessels; and to amend an Act of the last session of Parliament, for authorising His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in any foreign vessels," His Majesty is authorised (in certain cases), by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to permit and authorise the entry into any port or ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or of any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties of tonnage only as are or may be charged or granted upon or in respect of British vessels: And whereas satisfactory proof has been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into or exported from the ports of His Serene Highness the Duke of Oldenburg, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances when imported or exported in British vessels as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported into or exported from the said ports in Oldenburg vessels; and that British vessels are charged with no other or higher tonnage duties on their entrance into the ports of Oldenburg, than are levied on Oldenburg vessels; His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in him by the Acts above recited, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the date of this Order, Oldenburg vessels entering the ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in ballast or laden, direct from any of the ports of Oldenburg, or departing from the ports of the said United Kingdom, together with the cargoes on board the same, such cargoes consisting of articles which may be legally imported or exported, shall not be subject to any other or higher duties or charges whatever than are or shall be levied on British vessels entering or departing from such ports, or on similar articles when imported into or exported from such ports in British vessels; and also that such articles when exported from the said ports in Oldenburgh vessels, shall be entitled to the same bounties, drawbacks, and allowances, that are granted on similar articles when exported in British vessels:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Jas. Buller.

At the Court at Windsor, the 19th of October 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by any Order or Orders in Council, in all cases in which British vessels, of less burthen than sixty tons, are not required by law to take pilots, to exempt foreign vessels, being of less burthen than sixty tons, from taking on board a pilot to conduct them into or from any of the ports of the United Kingdom, any law, custom, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding; His Majesty, by virtue of the power vested in him by the said Act, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and thus hereby ordered, that from and after the date of this Order, all vessels belonging to the inhabitants of Bremen, and being of less burthen than sixty tons, which shall enter in or clear out from any of the ports of the United Kingdom, shall be, and they are hereby exempted from taking on board a pilot to conduct them into or from any such port, in all cases where British vessels, being of less burthen than sixty tons, are not required by law to take pilots, any law, custom, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Jas. Buller.

At the Court at Windsor, the 19th of October 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council;

IT is this day ordered by His Majesty in Council, that the Parliament be prorogued, from Thursday the fourth day of November next, to Thursday the sixth day of January next.

At the Court at Carlton-House, the 14th of August 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the tenth of March last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar), will expire on the nineteenth day of September next; and whereas it is judged expedient that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service), do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the nineteenth of September next), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar), or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf, first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation of Order in Council:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greyville.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 14th of August 1824.

PRESENT.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to authorise the importation into or exportation from the United Kingdom, or from any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any goods, wares, or merchandise which may be legally imported or exported in foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties only, and with the like drawbacks, bounties, and allowances as are charged or granted upon similar goods, wares, or merchandise when imported or exported in British vessels; provided always, that before any such Order or Orders shall be issued, satisfactory proof shall have been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into or exported from the foreign country in whose favour such remission of duties, or such drawbacks, bounties, or allowances shall be granted, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances when imported into or exported from such foreign country in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported or exported in vessels of such country: And whereas by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to indemnify all persons concerned in advising, issuing, or acting under a certain Order in Council, for regulating the tonnage duties on certain foreign vessels; and to amend an Act of the last session of Parliament, for authorising His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in any foreign vessels," His Majesty is authorised (in certain cases), by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to permit and authorise the entry into any port or ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or of any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties of tonnage only as are or may be charged or granted upon or in respect of British vessels: And whereas satisfactory proof has been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into or exported from the territories of the Free Hanziatic Republic of Bremen, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances, when imported or exported in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported or exported from Bremen in Bremen vessels; and that British vessels are charged with no other or higher tonnage duties on their entrance into the territories of Bremen, than are levied on Bremen vessels; His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in him by the Acts above recited, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order; and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the tenth day of July last, Bremen vessels entering the ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in ballast or laden, or departing from the ports of the said United Kingdom, together with the cargoes on-board the same, such cargoes consisting of articles which may be legally imported or exported, shall not be subject to any other or higher duties or charges whatever, than are or shall be levied on British vessels entering or departing from such ports, or on similar articles when imported into or exported from such ports in British vessels; and also that such articles, when exported from the said ports in Bremen vessels, shall be entitled to the same bounties, drawbacks, and allowances that are granted on similar articles when exported in British vessels.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

WIDOWS' PENSIONS.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Widows of Commission and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy, receiving pensions from the Charity established for their relief, will be paid their pensions due the 30th September last, at No. 10, New-Square, Lincoln's-Inn, by Edward Finch Hatton, Esq. the Paymaster of the Charity, viz.

The Widows of Flag-Officers, Superannuated Rear-Admirals, Captains, Commanders, Lieutenants, and Masters, on Wednesday the 10th of November;

The Widows of Surgeons, Pursers, and Boat-swains, on Thursday the 11th of November;

And the Widows of Gunners and Carpenters, on Friday the 12th of November; and on every succeeding Thursday, between the hours of ten and twelve.

And notice is further given, that remittance bills will be sent on the 10th of November, to those Widows resident in the country, who have requested to be paid their pensions near their respective residences. J. W. Croker.

Navy-Office, October 25, 1824.

THE Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having appointed money for the payment of half-pay to Sea Officers, from the 1st of July to the 30th of September, according to His Majesty's establishment in that behalf; these are to give notice, that the several payments will begin to be made at the Pay-Office, by the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, at ten o'clock in the morning, on the following days, viz.

On the 1st, 2d, and 3d of November, to Admirals, Captains, and their Attornies.

On the 4th, 5th, 8th, 9th, and 10th of November, to Lieutenants and Chaplains, and their Attornies.

On the 11th and 12th of November, to Masters, Surgeons, and Pursers, and their Attornies.

After which the lists will be recalled the first and third Wednesday in every month, that all persons may then and there attend to receive what may become payable to them, and bring with them an affidavit as required by Order in Council of 30th July 1819, the forms of which were published in an advertisement from this Office, dated 16th September 1819, and may be procured at the Office of the Treasurer of the Navy; and in case any of the said Officers should not be able to attend themselves, but employ Attornies for that purpose, the said Attornies are to produce similar affidavits from the persons they are employed by.

Where Officers are abroad on leave, their agents are to produce attested copies of such leave, before the half-pay can be paid.

And as by Act of Parliament passed in the thirty-fifth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for establishing a more easy and expeditious method for the payment of Officers belonging to His Majesty's Navy," it is enacted by the twentieth clause of the said Act, "that if any Commissioned or Warrant Naval Officer who shall be entitled to receive half-pay, and shall be desirous to receive and be paid the same at or near the place of his residence, he may apply to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, in London, to have such half-pay paid at or near the place of his residence, &c. in the manner pointed out by the said Act;" and by a further Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for enabling the Officers in His Majesty's Navy, and their representatives, to draw for and receive their half-pay," it is enacted by the first and third clauses of the said Act, "that if any Officer in His Majesty's Navy, who shall be entitled to receive any sum of money for or on account of his half-pay, shall be desirous of drawing a bill of exchange for the same upon the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, instead of receiving the same by remittance bill, he shall signify such desire, by letter, to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy; and that if any Officer in His Majesty's Navy, who shall be entitled to receive any sum of money for or on account of half-pay, shall be desirous of having his half-pay paid to him by extract at any of His Majesty's Dock-Yards where Clerks for the payment of wages for the Navy shall reside, instead of receiving the same by remittance bill or bill of exchange, he is to apply either to the proper Clerk, at the Navy Pay-Office, in London, or at the Pay-Office at such Dock-Yard, signifying such his desire;" notice is hereby further given, that the half-pay ending the 30th of September 1824, will commence paying on the 1st of November; and all persons desirous of drawing for or of having their half-pay remitted to them, may apply as above directed.

MEM.—Bills of exchange drawn under or by virtue of the Act above recited, are not liable to the stamp duty.

No persons residing out of His Majesty's dominions are entitled to the privileges of this Act.

J. W. Morton.

PORTLAND LIGHTS.

Trinity-House, London, October 28, 1824.

THE works which have for some time past been in execution, by order of the Corporation of Trinity-House, for the improvement of the Portland Lights, of which notice was issued on the 9th September last, being nearly complete, notice is hereby given, that, on and from the 15th November next, the High Light, formerly a fixed light, will be exhibited on the revolving principle, with three faces, each face exhibiting its greatest light every two minutes.

The Low Light will continue stationary as before, but its power and magnitude so considerably increased, as to render its effect more general for the benefit of navigation.

By command of the Corporation,

J. Herbert, Secretary.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application will be made in the ensuing session of Parliament, for leave to bring in a Bill "to establish a Company for lighting the cities of London and Westminster, and the liberties thereof and parts adjacent within the county of Middlesex, with oil gas."—Dated this 14th day of October 1824.

Martineau and Malton, Solicitors for the Bill.

NOTICE is hereby given, to all persons whom it may concern, that application will be made in the next session of Parliament by the Governors and Directors of the poor and watch of the united parishes of Saint Andrew, Holborn, above the Bars, and Saint George the Martyr, in the county of Middlesex, for leave to bring in a Bill to extend, alter and amend an Act passed in the thirty-ninth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter 41, intitled "An Act for better regulating and employing the poor, and for more effectually watching the squares, streets, lanes and other places within that part of the parish of Saint Andrew, Holborn, which lies above the Bars, in the county of Middlesex, and the parish of Saint George, the Martyr, in the said county," so far as the same has been found defective and insufficient for the general purposes thereof, particularly as far as regards the settling and ascertaining the sums to be raised for the relief of the poor, and the assessing, collecting and recovering the rates and the payment thereof, as well by occupiers as by landlords and owners, and the levying the same, and the duties of the collectors thereof, and as to the appointment of overseers of the poor; and also to vest in the Governors and Directors of the poor of the said united parishes, for the time being, the power of appointing a sufficient number of constables and headboroughs for the said parishes, and persons to examine weights and measures therein, with proper authorities for the discharge of those duties, which power and authorities are now exercised by the Court Leet of our Lord the King, held in and for the manor of Portpool, and otherwise to extend, amend and enlarge the powers of the said Act as far as shall be found necessary for carrying the objects thereof into execution.—Dated this 18th day of October 1824.

John S. Taylor, Vestry Clerk and Solicitor,
14, Great James-Street, Bedford-Row.

Thames and Medway Canal.

Maidstone, October 16, 1824.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the tunnel of the said canal was completed and opened on Thursday the 14th day of October instant, and that that event is to be considered the completion of the said tunnel and canal for all purposes relating to optional loan notes, or otherwise to which such completion has reference.

By order of the Committee,

Wm. Scudamore, Clerk.

CONTRACT FOR OATS.

Commissariat Department, Treasury-Chambers, October 18, 1824.

SUCH persons as are desirous of contracting with the Agent for Commissariat Supplies to deliver 621,000lb of Oats at the Ordnance Depôt in Tooley-Street, may receive particulars of the contract at this Office, between the hours of ten and four, and deliver their tenders, sealed up and directed to the Agent for Commissariat Supplies, marking thereon "Tender for Oats," on or before Tuesday the 2d November next; but none will be received after twelve o'clock on that day; nor will any proposal be noticed unless made on or annexed to a printed particular, and the prices inserted in words at length; nor unless a letter be subjoined to such proposal, signed by two persons of known property, engaging to become bound with the party tendering, in the sum expressed in the particulars, for the due performance of the contract.

Navy-Office, October 26, 1824

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 4th of November next, at twelve o'clock at noon, the Officers of His Majesty's Yard at Woolwich will put up to sale, in that Yard, several lots of

AVERAGE PRICE OF BROWN OR MUSCOVADO SUGAR,

Computed from the RETURNS made in the Week ending the 27th day of October 1824,

Is Twenty-nine Shillings and Five Pence Halfpenny per Hundred Weight,

Exclusive of the Duties of Customs paid or payable thereon on the IMPORTATION thereof into GREAT BRITAIN.

Grocers' Hall,
October 30, 1824.

By Authority of Parliament,

THOMAS NETTLESHIPP, Clerk of the Grocers' Company.

Notice is hereby given, that the Copartnership hitherto subsisting between Charles Heath, Thomas Heath, and William Hawkins Heath, of Andover, in the County of Southampton, in the several businesses of Bankers, Brewers, Wine and Spirit Merchants, and Coal-Merchants, and carried on under the firm of Charles Heath, Thomas Heath, and William Hawkins Heath, is this day dissolved by mutual consent, so far as regards the said Charles Heath; and that the said several businesses will hereafter be carried on by and under the firm of Thomas Heath and William Hawkins Heath.—Dated this 9th day of June 1824.

Charles Heath.
Thomas Heath.
W. H. Heath.

WE, James Swift and Matthew Rhodes, both of Sheffield, in the County of York, Scissor-Makers and Cutlers, do hereby give notice, that all the Partnership concerns and business heretofore carried on by us, under the firm of Swift and Rhodes, Scissor-Makers and Cutlers, were dissolved by mutual consent on the 9th day of August last.—Witness our hands this 28th day of October 1824.

James Swift.
Matthew Rhodes.

THE Partnership hitherto subsisting between the undersigned, George Boardman and William Boardman, as Spirit and Porter-Merchants, in Liverpool, under the firm of George Boardman and Co. is this day dissolved by mutual consent; all Partnership accounts will be received and paid by the said William Boardman.—Dated the 28th day of October 1824.

George Boardman.
Wm. Boardman.

Notice is hereby given, that the business of Hay and Straw-Salesman, heretofore carried on by the undersigned, Thomas Vines, in the White-Chapel and Borough Markets, under the name or firm of Thomas Vines and John Pitt, will in future be carried on by and in the name of Thomas Vines only, the said John Pitt having no connection or interest therein.—Dated this 26th day of October 1824.

Thos. Vines.
John Pitt.

Union Shipping Company of Aberdeen.

THE Contract of the Union Shipping Company of Aberdeen having expired some time ago, and the affairs being now about to be wound up, notice is hereby given to all persons having claims against said Company, or the Brig Concord, or the Brig Union, both of Aberdeen, under the management of said Company, to lodge their several claims with William White, Insurance-Broker, in Aberdeen, late Manager of the Company, within one month from this date; and failing such claims being lodged within that period the funds will be divided, and no claims after that date will be sustained.—Aberdeen, October 19, 1824.

ALL persons having any claim or demand on Mr. William Smith, late of Portman-Place, Edgeware-Road, in the County of Middlesex, deceased, or on his estate, are requested to remit an account thereof to us, in order that the same may be liquidated.

GOREN and PRICE, Solicitors to the Executors, Orchard-Street, Portman-Square, London.

To the Creditors of William Downing, late of Cattle-Gate Farm, Northaw, near Enfield, Middlesex, deceased.

Rugby, October 27, 1824.

Notice is hereby given, that the Executors and family of the said William Downing will pay to his Creditors 6s. 8d. in the pound on their respective debts, provided they meet me at Eight o'Clock precisely, on Monday Morning the 8th of November now next, at Mr. Newman's, the Green Man Inn, Barnet, where I shall attend, for one hour, for the express purpose of paying the same; and such of his Creditors as shall not so attend will be entirely excluded the said payment, which is a voluntary contribution, there being no assets applicable for that purpose from the estate of the said William Downing.

W. F. WHATISLAW, Solicitor to the Executors and Family.

United Colony of Demerary and Essequibo.

August 30, 1824.

Notice is hereby given to the Creditors of the following estates, to render in, duly authenticated, their respective claims against said estates at the Orphan-Chamber for unadministered estates of this Colony, on pain that unless they be so registered, within one year from this date, they will for ever be excluded from any share thereof.

Marshal's-Office.—Summons by Edict.

BY virtue of authority received from His Excellency Henry Beard, Esq. Lieutenant-Governor and Commander in Chief, in and over the Colony of Berbice, and its dependencies, &c. &c. &c. President in all Courts and Colleges within the same, sole Judge of the Court of Vice-Admiralty, &c. &c. &c. dated the 10th of August 1824;

I, the undersigned, at the instance of A. G. Burmester, an inhabitant of this Colony, in quality as sole testamentary heir of the late H. Sneepeel, deceased, do hereby, for the first time, summon by edict all known and unknown Credefors or Claimants against the estate of the abovenamed H. Suerpel, deceased, to appear before the Bar of the Honourable the Court of Civil Justice of this Colony, at its Session, to be holden in the month of January 1825, and following Sessions, for the purpose of there rendering in their respective claims, properly substantiated, and in due form and time, against abovenamed estate:—Whereas in default of which, and after the expiration of the fourth and last edictal, will be proceeded against the non-appearsers according to law.

This first edictal summons published as customary.—Berbice, the 14th August 1824.

K. FRANCKEN, First Marshal.

[Inserted by Mr. Guitard, Notary Public, 27, Birch Lane, Cornhill.]

TO be sold by auction, pursuant to a Decree of the Court of Chancery of the County-Palatine of Lancaster, made in a Cause Parkinson and others against Tuson and others, before William Shawe, Esq. Registrar of the said Court, at the house of William Halliday, the sign of the Red Lion, in Woodplumpton, in the said County, on Monday the 15th day of November next, at Four o'Clock in the Afternoon, subject to such conditions as may be then and there produced;

Lot 1.—The fee simple and inheritance of and in all that messuage, farm, or tenement, situate, lying, and being at Blackleach, in the Township of Woodplumpton aforesaid, called and known by the name of Harrison's, consisting of a newly erected and commodious dwelling-house, orchard, garden, cottage, with weaving for ten pairs of looms, barn, stable, shippin, and other outbuildings thereunto belonging, and the several closes of arable, meadow, and pasture land occupied therewith, called the Barn Field, Five Lands, Great Meadow, Broad Field, Little Brook Meadow, Great End, and the Two Intacks, containing 11½ A. of the customary measure there used or thereabouts, in the possession of Thomas Livesey and his undertenant.

Lot 2.—A close of pasture land, called Moss-Field, situate in Woodplumpton aforesaid, containing two acres, of the like measure, in the possession of the said Thomas Livesey.

The tenant will shew the premises. Printed particulars may be had (gratis) at the Registrar's Office, in Preston, and any further information obtained on application to Mr. Roger Tuson, of Houghton, or at the Office of Mr. Walker, Solicitor, Preston.

TO be peremptorily sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Newton v.
