

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 1824.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 19th of October 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to authorise the importation into or exportation from the United Kingdom, or from any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any goods, wares, or merchandise which may be legally imported or exported in foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties only, and with the like drawbacks, bounties, and allowances as are charged or granted upon similar goods, wares, or merchandise when imported or exported in British vessels; provided always, that before any such Order or Orders shall be issued, satisfactory proof shall have been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into or exported from the foreign country in whose favour such remission of duties, or such drawbacks, bounties, or allowances shall be granted, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances when imported into or exported from such foreign country in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported or exported in vessels of such country: And whereas by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to indemnify all persons concerned in advising, issuing, or acting under a certain Order in Council, for regulating the tonnage duties on certain foreign vessels; and to amend an Act of the last session of Parliament, for authorising His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in any foreign vessels," His Majesty is authorised (in certain cases), by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to permit and authorise the entry into any port or ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or of any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties of tonnage only as are or may be charged or granted upon or in respect of British vessels: And whereas satisfactory proof has been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into or exported from the ports of His Serene Highness the Duke of Oldenburgh, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances when imported or exported in British vessels as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported into or exported from the said ports in Oldenburgh vessels; and that British vessels are charged with no other or higher tonnage duties on their entrance into the ports of Oldenburgh, than are levied on Oldenburgh vessels; His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in him by the Acts above recited, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the date of this Order, Oldenburgh vessels entering the ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in ballast or laden, direct from any of the ports of Oldenburgh, or departing from the ports of the said United Kingdom, together with the cargoes on board the same, such cargoes consisting of articles which may be legally imported or exported, shall not be subject to any other or higher duties or charges whatever than are or shall be levied on British vessels entering or departing from such ports, or on similar articles when imported into or exported from such ports in British vessels; and also that such articles when exported from the said ports in Oldenburgh vessels, shall be entitled to the same bounties, drawbacks, and allowances, that are granted on similar articles when exported in British vessels:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 19th of October 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties, and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage." His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by any Order or Orders in Council, in all cases in which British vessels, of less burthen than sixty tons, are not required by law to take pilots, to exempt foreign vessels, being of less burthen than sixty tons, from taking on board a pilot to conduct them into or from any of the ports of the United Kingdom, any law, custom, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding; His Majesty, by virtue of the power vested in him by the said Act, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date of this Order, all vessels belonging to the inhabitants of Bremen, and being of less burthen than sixty tons, which shall enter in or clear out from any of the ports of the United Kingdom, shall be, and they are hereby exempted from taking on board a pilot to conduct them into or from any such port, in all cases where British vessels, being of less burthen than sixty tons, are not required by law to take pilots, any law, custom, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

CARMARTHENSHIRE.

Llandilo, November 4, 1824.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a General Meeting of His Majesty's Lieutenancy of the county of Carmarthen will be held at the Magistrates-Room, in the town of Llandilo, in the said county, on Saturday the 4th day of December next, at noon, for the purpose of receiving the returns of persons fit and liable to serve in the regular militia, and also to audit, allow, and confirm the accounts of the Clerks of the General and Sub-division Meetings of the said county.

By order of the Lieutenancy,

John Rees, Clerk General Meetings.

IN obedience to an order of the Court of Lord Mayor and Aldermen, dated the 26th day of October 1824, made in pursuance of an Act of Parliament, passed in the eighteenth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third (ch. 67), intituled "An Act for authorising the Justices of the Peace for the county of Middlesex to sell the present Sessions-house for the said county, and for enabling them to build another Sessions-house in a more convenient situation, and to keep the same in repair, and for applying the sum of £11,000, to be borrowed upon the credit of the surplus of a certain fund commonly called the Orphan's Fund, towards defraying the expence of building the said Sessions-house;" also of a certain other Act, passed in the said year (ch. 72), intituled "An Act for erecting a building for holding the Courts and exercising the jurisdiction of the Dean and Chapter of the Collegiate Church of Saint Peter, in Westminster, within the city and liberties of Westminster, and for holding the Quarter Sessions of the Peace and transacting the other public business of the said city and liberty, and for appropriating part of the surpluses of the Orphan's Fund towards defraying the expence thereof;" also of a certain other Act, passed in the said year (ch. 78), intituled "An Act for applying the sum of £9000, to arise out of the surpluses of a certain fund commonly called the Orphan's Fund, for the purpose of making a passage for carriages from Spitalfields to Bishopsgate-street, in the county of Middlesex;" also of a certain other Act, passed in the said year (ch. 51), intituled "An Act for applying the sum of £4000, to arise out of the surpluses of a certain fund commonly called the Orphan's Fund, towards completing the paving of the town and borough of Southwark, and certain parts adjacent, in the county of Surrey;" and also of a certain other Act of Parliament, made and passed in the fifty-second year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for increasing the fund for watching, lighting, cleansing, watering, and repairing Blackfriars-bridge;" I do hereby give notice, that between the hours of ten in the forenoon and two in the afternoon, on the 26th day of April next ensuing, at my Office of Chamberlain of the City of London, in Guildhall, London, the principal sums of money, together with all interest due on the said 26th day of April next ensuing, upon the under-mentioned bonds, being part of the said sums, raised by the authority of the aforesaid Acts of the 18th Geo. 3, under the common seal of this city, some part of which are made payable to Benjamin Hopkins, Esq. his executors, administrators, or assigns, and the remainder thereof made payable to John Wilkes, Esq. his executors, administrators, or assigns (by indorsement), will then be paid off, at my said Office at Guildhall, to the several and respective person or persons respectively entitled to receive the same; and that from thenceforth the interest on the said bonds will cease and determine. And, in further obedience to the said order, I do hereby give notice, that if the said several persons, respectively entitled to the said bonds, or any of them, shall be minded to be paid the said several principal sums, with such interest as may become due in respect thereof, at any time previous to the said 26th day of April, and will severally declare such their intention, in writing under their hands, and deliver such declaration at my said Office of Chamberlain of the City of London, between the hours of ten in the morning and two in the afternoon, ten days previously to the day on which they, or any of them, shall elect to receive the same (the usual holidays of the said Office excepted), I will, on the day expressed in such declaration, at my said Office, pay to the several persons the principal sums respectively due to them in discharge of the said bonds, together with all interest as shall on the day specified in such declaration for the payment thereof have become due thereon; and which interest or annuity will, upon the said day expressed in such declaration for payment, cease and determine, viz.

Two hundred and six bonds, of one hundred pounds each, numbered 704 to 909, both inclusive.

Richard Clark, Chamberlain.

Guildhall, October 27, 1824.

Hundreds of Loes and Wilford, in the County of Suffolk.

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons whom it may concern, that application will be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill for altering, amending, and enlarging the powers and provisions of two several Acts of Parliament, the one, passed in the thirty-first year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for the better relief and employment of the poor within the hundreds of Loes and Wilford, in the county of Suffolk;" and the other, passed in the fiftieth year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act for amending an Act, passed in the thirty-first year of His present Majesty, for the better relief and employment of the poor within the hundreds of Loes and Wilford, in the county of Suffolk;" and that in the said Bill provision is intended to be made, for enabling and empowering the Directors and Acting Guardians acting under the authority of the said first mentioned Act, to alter and vary the period of taking the averages directed by the last mentioned Act, by taking the same annually as they shall deem proper, and from the time of first taking such last mentioned averages, to take fresh and new averages annually, and also to make such alterations in the assessments upon the several parishes, hamlets, and places within the said hundreds of Loes and Wilford, as on any taking of such new averages shall appear just and necessary; and for other purposes therein mentioned.—Dated this 14th day of October 1824.

By order,

Wood and Son, Solicitors.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application will be made in the ensuing session of Parliament, for leave to bring in a Bill "to establish a Company for lighting the cities of London and Westminster, and the liberties thereof and parts adjacent within the county of Middlesex, with oil gas."—Dated this 14th day of October 1824.

Martineau and Malton, Solicitors for the Bill.

NOTICE is hereby given, that an application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing Session, for leave to bring in a Bill for making and constructing wet docks, with wharfs, railways, and bridges, for receiving ships, vessels, and barges, especially those connected with the coal trade of London; and unloading, loading, and ballasting the same; and for towing such ships, vessels, and barges, into and out of the said docks; and for lighting the said docks and the entrances thereto with gas, and thereby enabling ships, vessels, and barges, to enter and go out of and be unloaded, loaded, and ballasted, in the said docks, at all hours of the day or night; and for connecting the said docks with roads leading to and from the tunnel, under the River Thames, from Rotherhithe to Wapping, which said docks, wharfs, railways, and bridges, are intended to be made in the parish of Saint Mary, Rotherhithe, in the county of Surrey, and in the parish of Saint Paul, Deptford, in the county of Kent.—Dated this 29th day of October 1824.
