

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 1824.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 19th of October 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to authorise the importation into or exportation from the United Kingdom, or from any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any goods, wares, or merchandise which may be legally imported or exported in foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties only, and with the like drawbacks, bounties, and allowances as are charged or granted upon similar goods, wares, or merchandise when imported or exported in British vessels; provided always, that before any such Order or Orders shall be issued, satisfactory proof shall have been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into or exported from the foreign country in whose favour such remission of duties, or such drawbacks, bounties, or allowances shall be granted, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances when imported into or exported from such foreign country in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported or exported in vessels of such country: And whereas by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to indemnify all persons concerned in advising, issuing, or acting under a

"certain Order in Council, for regulating the tonnage duties on certain foreign vessels; and to amend an Act of the last session of Parliament, for authorising His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in any foreign vessels," His Majesty is authorised (in certain cases), by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to permit and authorise the entry into any port or ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or of any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties of tonnage only as are or may be charged or granted upon or in respect of British vessels: And whereas satisfactory proof has been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into or exported from the ports of His Serene Highness the Duke of Oldenburgh, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances when imported or exported in British vessels as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported into or exported from the said ports in Oldenburgh vessels; and that British vessels are charged with no other or higher tonnage duties on their entrance into the ports of Oldenburgh, than are levied on Oldenburgh vessels; His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in him by the Acts above recited, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the date of this Order, Oldenburgh vessels entering the ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in ballast or laden, direct from any of the ports of Oldenburgh, or departing from the ports of the said United Kingdom, together with the cargoes on board the same, such cargoes consisting of articles which may be legally imported or exported, shall not be subject to any other or higher duties or charges whatever than are or shall be levied on British vessels entering or departing from such ports, or on similar articles when imported into or exported from such ports in British vessels; and also that such articles when exported from the said ports in Oldenburgh vessels, shall be entitled to the same bounties, drawbacks, and allowances, that are granted on similar articles when exported in British vessels:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 19th of October 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by any Order or Orders in Council, in all cases in which British vessels, of less burthen than sixty tons, are not required by law to take pilots, to exempt foreign vessels, being of less burthen than sixty tons, from taking on board a pilot to conduct them into or from any of the ports of the United Kingdom, any law, custom, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding; His Majesty, by virtue of the power vested in him by the said Act, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date of this Order, all vessels belonging to the inhabitants of Bremen, and being of less burthen than sixty tons, which shall enter in or clear out from any of the ports of the United Kingdom, shall be, and they are hereby exempted from taking on board a pilot to conduct them into or from any such port, in all cases where British vessels, being of less burthen than sixty tons, are not required by law to take pilots, any law, custom, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 19th of October 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by His Majesty in Council, that the Parliament be prorogued, from Thursday the fourth day of November next, to Thursday the sixth day of January next.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 14th of August 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the tenth of March last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar), will expire on the nineteenth day of September next; and whereas it is judged expedient that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service), do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the nineteenth of September next), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar) or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf, first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

NOTICE is hereby given, that an application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill for making and constructing wet docks and basins, with wharfs, jetties, railways, locks, and bridges; for receiving ships, vessels, and barges, and unloading, loading, and ballasting the same, and for towing such ships, vessels, and barges into and out of the said docks and basins; and for lighting the said docks, and the entrances thereto, with gas, and thereby enabling ships, vessels, and barges to enter and go out of, and be unloaded, loaded, and ballasted in the said docks and basins at all hours of the day or night; and for diverting so much of the roads made under and by virtue of an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-second year of His late Majesty, intituled "An Act for establishing a ferry over the River Thames from Greenwich to the Isle of Dogs, in the county of Middlesex, and for making and maintaining roads to communicate therewith," as interfere with or run across the spot of ground on which it is proposed to make and construct such wet docks, basins, and wharfs; which said docks, basins, wharfs, railways, and bridges are intended to be made in the Isle of Dogs, in the parish of All Saints, Poplar, in the county of Middlesex.—Dated this 4th day of November 1824.

Alliston and Hundleby, Solicitors, Freeman's-court, Cornhill.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session thereof, for leave to bring in a Bill and to obtain an Act for making, constructing, and maintaining a certain wet dock or wet docks, warehouses, sheds, basins, cuts, and other works, for the reception and better accommodation of ships and vessels, especially those connected with the coal trade, and the cargoes thereof, and to have two or more communications with the River Thames; and which wet dock or docks, warehouses, sheds, basins, cuts, and other works, together with all requisite sluices, drains, wharfs, quays, bridges, railways, footways, paths, ways, or roads appertaining thereto, are proposed to be situate in and pass into and through the parish of All Saints, Poplar, in the Isle of Dogs, in the county of Middlesex, and in the Tower division or hamlet thereof. And it is proposed to fix and limit in and by the said Bill, tolls, rates, and dues to be taken for the use of the said dock or docks, basins, cuts, warehouses, sheds, wharfs, railways, quays, and other works.—Dated this 6th day of November 1824.

William Tooke, No. 3, Holborn-court, Gray's-inn.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made in the ensuing session of Parliament, for a Bill for the better pavement and sewage of the town and parish of Liverpool, in the county palatine of Lancaster, and for raising rates to defray the expences of the same.

William Statham, Town Clerk.

Edward Blackstock, Clerk to the Surveyors of Highways.

4th November 1824.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made in the ensuing session of Parliament, for a Bill for the better regulation of buildings within the town of Liverpool, in the county palatine of Lancaster, and the prevention of accidents from the insecure mode of erecting the same; and also to authorise the making of bye laws, rules, and regulations for governing vessels and craft resorting to the said town, and using the docks, basins, or quays belonging to the Corporation there; and for the appointment of one or more Coroner or Coroners for the borough, in lieu of the present Coroners.

William Statham, Town Clerk.

4th November 1824.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made in the ensuing session of Parliament, for a Bill to amend, enlarge, and vary some of the powers contained in an Act of Parliament, of the twenty-first year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, and of another Act, of the twenty-eighth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, for lighting, watching, and cleansing the streets and other places within the town of Liverpool, in the county palatine of Lancaster; and to increase the rates on the inhabitants of the parish of Liverpool, for carrying the said two Acts, and the said intended Bill, into execution.—Dated at Liverpool aforesaid, the 4th day of November 1824.

Edward Blackstock, Clerk to the Commissioners of the Watch, Scavengers, and Lamps.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill to extend, enlarge, alter, explain, and amend, the several Acts of Parliament now in force relating to the docks and harbour of Liverpool; and for authority for the Trustees of the said docks to build additional docks and basins, and graving or repairing docks within the town and parish of Liverpool, and in the adjacent township of Toxteth-park, in the parish of Walton-on-the-hill, in the county of Lancaster; and also to build and provide basins, inclined planes, slips, piers, jetties, or wharfs, and other accommodations in the said town and parish of Liverpool, and in the said adjacent township of Toxteth-park, for vessels, ferry, and other boats and craft navigated by steam or otherwise; and for authority to charge a tonnage or other rate upon certain vessels for the use of the same accommodations; and for power to make additional laws, rules, and regulations, for the management of all such vessels and of the ferry, and all other boats and craft plying for hire upon the River Mersey, and for the prevention of the throwing of rubbish, ballast, or other things into the port; and also for the regulation of all porters and other persons attending and plying for hire at the stairs, slips, piers, or basins, now established or hereafter to be made within the port of Liverpool, or at packets or other vessels arriving at or departing from the same; and for further powers for the regulation and removal of vessels in the docks or basins in certain cases; and for authority for Justices of the Peace to award compensation for damage done to vessels in the port of Liverpool, or in the docks or basins, or to the floating light vessel, or to any of the buoys, mooring-chains, or marks, in the said docks or harbour of Liverpool, or to the tackle belonging to the same, and to settle disputes regarding the remuneration to be paid for taking up anchors and cables in the said port, and for power to authorise and regulate returns for over entries of goods at the Dock-Office, and to make returns of duties levied upon damaged goods and merchandize, and the time within which the same may be made; and also to revise, alter and equalize the existing rates and duties levied and raised on goods, wares, and merchandizes, imported and exported to and from the said port; and also to make further regulations for the transfers of assignments of the rates and duties granted by the Trustees of the Liverpool Docks by registering the same at the Dock-Office; and also for authority to purchase land, buildings, and premises, for the purpose of additional dock or quay-room, or for approaches thereto, and for empowering the said Trustees to raise upon the security of the said rates and duties, by sale of assignments thereof, by annuities or otherwise, a further sum of money for the general purposes of the Trust, and for power to establish a communication by telegraph or otherwise with the port of Liverpool, either from or near Holyhead, in Anglesea, or from or near Hoylake, in Cheshire, as may be most expedient; and also to erect any lighthouses in or near the port, and to light the same for the better security of the navigation, and for authority to purchase and pay for, or to rent and hire such land, houses, or buildings as may be necessary for the establishment of the said communication or for the said lighthouses, and for further powers to purchase or rent land near the said docks, in the town and parish of Liverpool aforesaid, or in the township of Toxteth-park aforesaid, for the purpose of depositing timber and other goods, until the same are measured and passed by the Revenue Officers; and also for powers to make bye laws, rules, and regulations relative to the loading and unloading of timber and other goods and merchandize, and relative to the manner of using the said land, so to be provided as aforesaid, with authority to receive a rent, or to fix and receive a rate, or other charge, for the use thereof; and also for further provisions for the more effectual punishment of pilfering upon the dock-quays; and generally for altering, amending, and rendering more effectual the provisions of the Acts now in force in relation to the docks and harbour of Liverpool, and to make such further regulations, and to give such further powers, as may be necessary for carrying into execution the purposes aforesaid.

Thomas Foster, Solicitor to the Trustees of the Liverpool Docks.

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons whom it may concern, that an application will be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill for making, constructing, and maintaining certain wet docks, warehouses, basins, cuts, and other works, to be called the Bermondsey Dock, and to have two or more communications with the River Thames; and which wet docks, warehouses, basins, cuts, and other works, together with all requisite sluices, drains, wharfs, bridges, railways, footways, paths, ways, or roads appertaining thereto, are proposed to be situate and made within the parish of Saint Mary Magdalen, Bermondsey, in the county of Surrey; and it is proposed to fix and limit, in and by the said Bill, the tolls, rates, and dues to be taken for the use of the said docks, basins, warehouses, and other works.—Dated this 8th day of November 1824.

Gatty, Haddan, Gatty, and Haddan, Solicitors, Angel-court, Throgmorton-street.

Hundreds of Loes and Wilford, in the County of Suffolk.

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons whom it may concern, that application will be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill for altering, amending, and enlarging the powers and provisions of two several Acts of Parliament, the one, passed in the thirty-first year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for the better relief and employment of the poor within the hundreds of Loes and Wilford, in the county of Suffolk;" and the other, passed in the fiftieth year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act for amending an Act, passed in the thirty-first year of His present Majesty, for the better relief and employment of the poor within the hundreds of Loes and Wilford, in the county of Suffolk;" and that in the said Bill provision is intended to be made, for enabling and empowering the Directors and Acting Guardians acting under the authority of the said first mentioned Act, to alter and vary the period of taking the averages directed by the last mentioned Act, by taking the same annually as they shall deem proper, and from the time of first taking such last mentioned averages, to take fresh and new averages annually, and also to make such alterations in the assessments upon the several parishes, hamlets, and places within the said hundreds of Loes and Wilford, as on any taking of such new averages shall appear just and necessary; and for other purposes therein mentioned.—Dated this 14th day of October 1824.

By order,
Wood and Son, Solicitors.

NOTICE is hereby given, that an application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing Session, for leave to bring in a Bill for making and constructing wet docks, with wharfs, railways, and bridges, for receiving ships, vessels, and barges, especially those connected with the coal trade of London; and unloading, loading, and ballasting the same; and for towing such ships, vessels, and barges, into and out of the said docks; and for lighting the said docks and the entrances thereto with gas, and thereby enabling ships, vessels and barges, to enter and go out of and be unloaded, loaded, and ballasted, in the said docks, at all hours of the day or night; and for connecting the said docks with roads leading to and from the tunnel, under the River Thames, from Rotherhithe to Wapping, which said docks, wharfs, railways, and bridges, are intended to be made in the parish of Saint Mary, Rotherhithe, in the county of Surrey, and in the parish of Saint Paul, Deptford, in the county of Kent.—Dated this 29th day of October 1824.

Sweet, Stokes, and Carr, Solicitors, Basinghall-street.

A plan of the docks, entrances, &c may be inspected, and further information be obtained, on application at the Office of Mr. Brunel, Civil Engineer, No. 30, Bridge-street, Blackfriars, London.

WHEREAS at an Extraordinary General Court of the Members of the Alliance British and Foreign Life and Fire Assurance Company, held this day, at No. 3, New Court, St. Swithen's-Lane, in the City of London, it was unanimously resolved, that the laws or regulations of the said Company, contained in the one hundred and forty-fourth Article of the Deed of Settlement, of the 4th day of August last, should be amended, altered and repealed as follows, (that is to say), that whereas by the said clause it is declared that no Director or Auditor shall hold any Office in any other Company established or to be established for effecting Assurances, and if any Director or Auditor shall take or hold an Office in any such other Company, his Office of Director or Auditor shall immediately become vacant, the said law or regulation should be repealed, and that in lieu thereof the law or regulation of the said Company should be, that no Director or Auditor shall hold any Office in any other Company established or to be established for effecting Assurances upon lives, and survivorships, and against loss or damage by fire, or for either of those purposes, and if any Director or Auditor shall take or hold an Office in any such other Company, his Office of Director or Auditor shall immediately become vacant; this is therefore to give notice, that an Extraordinary General Court of the Members of the said Company will be holden at No. 3, New Court, St. Swithen's-Lane aforesaid, on Monday the 6th day of December next, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon precisely, to confirm the proceedings of the above-mentioned Extraordinary General Court.—Dated the 8th day of November 1824.

By order of the Board of Direction,
A. Hamilton, Secretary.

Office for Taxes, Somerset-Place,
November 8, 1824.

PURSUANT to Acts, passed in the forty-second and fifty-third years of His late Majesty's reign, notice is hereby given, that the price of the Three per Centum Reduced Bank Annuities, sold at the Bank of England this day, was £95 and under £96 per Centum.

By order of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes,
