the First Lottery for the Year 1823.

Lottery-Office, Somerset-Place,
November 13, 1824.

THE Managers and Directors of the Lotteries do hereby give notice, that numbers of tickets and shares thereof may be registered for the purpose of receiving information of their fates after the drawing, and may be examined at this Office every day (Sundays excepted), with their registers of benefits and blanks.

And the said Managers and Directors do hereby give further notice, that they will cut off the benefit tickets to be put into the wheel before the third day of drawing the first lottery for the year 1823, into box B, on Thursday the 9th day of December next, at eleven o'clock in the morning, at this Office.

And the said Managers and Directors do hereby give further notice, that they will attend and oversee the drawing of the tickets of the said third and of the fourth day of the said first lottery for the year 1823, on Thursday the 16th and Friday the 31st days of December next, at Coopers'-Hall, in Basinghall-Street, within the City of London.

Lottery-Office, Somerset-Place,
November 13, 1824.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Managers and Directors of the Lotteries will draw five hundred numbers, to decide the fates of one thousand tickets (the lottery being in two classes), on Thursday the 16th day of December next, being the third day of drawing the first lottery for the year 1823, at Coopers'-Hall, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London.

L. Hesse.

Lottery-Office, Somerset-Place,
November 13, 1824.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Managers and Directors of the Lotteries will draw and discharge nine thousand four hundred numbers, to decide the fates of eighteen thousand eight hundred tickets (the lottery being in two classes), on Friday the 31st day of December next, being the fourth and last day of drawing the first lottery for the year 1823, at Coopers'-Hall, in Basinghall-Street, within the City of London.

L. Hesse.

Payment of Prizes drawn on the 3d Day of November instant, being the second Day of Drawing the first Lottery for the Year 1823.

Lottery-Office, Somerset-Place,
November 13, 1824.

THE Commissioners appointed for managing the Lotteries do hereby give notice, that numbers of tickets and shares thereof may be registered:

for the purpose of receiving information of their fates after the drawing, and may be examined at this Office every day (Sundays excepted), with their registers of benefits and blanks.

And the Commissioners appointed to take in the benefit tickets of the first lottery for the year 1823, do hereby give notice, that they will attend at their Office in Somerset-Place, on Thursday the 25th instant, from ten o'clock in the forenoon to two o'clock in the afternoon, to take in and enter the benefit tickets drawn on Wednesday the 3d day of November instant, being the second day of drawing the same lottery, to be exchanged for certificates, pursuant to the Act of Parliament in that behalf.

And for further dispatch thereof, the said Commissioners will take in and enter the tickets in class A, at one seat, and the tickets in class B, at another seat; and the persons possessed thereof are directed to bring with their tickets separate lists thereof, marked A and B, formed in numerical order, adapted to each of the said seats, and at the bottom of each list to write the name and proper additions of the person entitled to the value of the said tickets.

And the said Commissioners also give further notice, that certificates for the value of the said tickets will be delivered out on Saturday the 27th day of November instant, at twelve o'clock at noon; after which the said Commissioners will take in and enter tickets in their usual monthly entry; and all persons are desired to observe, they must bring duplicates of their lists when they come for their certificates.

The Commissioners also give further notice, that a bond of indemnity must be entered into by two respectable housekeepers (to be approved by the said Commissioners), together with the person entitled to the value of any ticket or tickets which may have been lost, or to any ticket or tickets the checks of which may have been torn or destroyed, before the Commissioners can grant certificates for the same; and that in case of a lost ticket, an affidavit must also be made of the circumstances attending the loss of the same, before one of the Honourable Barons of His Majesty's Court of Exchequer.

Office of Ordnance, November 5, 1824

THE Principal Officers of His Majesty's Ordnance do hereby give notice, that proposals will be received at their Office in Pall-Mall, on or before Monday the 29th November instant, from such persons as may be willing to purchase about 120 tons of unserviceable iron ordnance, together with a quantity of unserviceable shot of various natures, now in store at His Majesty's Gun-Wharf at Chatham, from which station the ordnance and shot are to be removed by the purchasers.

Further particulars may be had upon application at the Secretary's Office, in Pall-Mall, between the hours of ten and four o'clock; also at the Gun-Wharf at Chatham, where the ordnance and shot may be viewed; and the proposals must be sealed up and indorsed "Proposals for purchase of Ordnance and Shot at Chatham;" but no proposal will be admitted after twelve o'clock on Monday the 29th instant; neither will any tender be noticed, unless the party making it, or an agent in his behalf, shall attend.

By order of the Board,

William Griffin, Secretary.

TO be peremptorily sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Pettingal against Glover, with the approbation of William Wingfield, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Public Sale-Room of the Court, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on Wednesday the 15th day of December 1824, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon;

Certain freehold and copyhold estates, late the property of the Reverend Richard Glover, deceased, consisting of the advowson and alternate right of patronage and presentation unto the rectory and church of Virley, otherwise Salcot Virley, in the County of Essex, together with the next presentation thereto.

Also a freehold cottage and land, situate in the Parish of Rinslip, in the County of Middlesex, and several copyhold messuages, cottages, and land, held of the manor of Rinslip.

Also a freehold messuage or tenement, and several parcels of arable, meadow, and pasture land, situate in the Parishes of Tolleshurst-Darcey and Tolleshurst-Major, in the County of Essex, with the tythes of corn and grain growing thereon.

And also a copyhold messuage, tenement, and land, holden of the manor of Tolleshurst-Glynes.

Printed particulars whereof may be had at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane; and of Mr. Charles Dodd, Solicitor, Billiter-Street, Leadenhall-Street, London.

Whereas by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause wherein Thomas Bowler and Elizabeth Susannah, his wife, are plaintiffs, and the Right Honourable Thomas Lord Dacre and others are defendants, it was referred to James William Farrer, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire and state to the Court whether Richard Nowland and Henrietta, his wife, in the pleadings respectively named, had any other and what children or child beside the said plaintiff Elizabeth Susannah Bowler, and whether such children or child, or any and which of them, are or is now living or dead, and if dead when he, she, or they respectively died, and at what age, and who were or was the legal personal representatives or representative of such child or children (if any) who might have died since, attaining the age of 21 years.—Any persons or person claiming to be the children or child of the said Richard Nowland and Henrietta, his wife (which said Richard Nowland died at Bombay, in the East Indies, in or about the year 1802, and the said Henrietta Nowland died at Calcutta, in the East Indies, in or about the month of December 1805), or the legal personal representatives or representative of such child or children who may have died since, attaining the age of 21 years, are forthwith to come in before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, and make out their kindred and representation, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Whereas by an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Moore v. Scott, it was referred to James William Farrer, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire and certify what mortgages or other incumbrances there were affecting the real estates late belonging to Ann Scott, Widow, the testatrix in the pleadings of the said Cause named, and to state the priorities of such mortgages and incumbrances.—All persons who have any mortgages or other specific incumbrances affecting the real estates of the said testatrix, and which estates are situate at Ginton with Peakirk, and other places, in the County of Northampton, are forthwith to come in and prove the same before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Order.

Whereas by an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Jones against Mackilwain, it was, amongst other things, referred to William Courtenay, Esq.

one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire and state to the Court who, at the decease of Ezekiel Mackilwain, late of Lymington, in the County of Hants, Esq. deceased (who died on or about the 21st of June 1808), was or were his heir or co-heirs at law and next of kin, and whether such heir or co-heirs at law and next of kin, or any or either, and which of them, are or is living or dead, and if dead when did he, she, or they respectively die, and who are or is the personal representatives or representative of such deceased heir or co-heirs at law and next of kin, and who are or is now the heir or co-heirs at law of the said Ezekiel Mackilwain.—Any person or persons claiming to be such heir or co-heirs and next of kin, or personal representatives or representative of such next of kin so dying, are forthwith to come in and make out their descent, prove their kindred, and make out their claims, before the said Master Courtenay, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Order.
