

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 16, 1824.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 19th of October 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to authorise the importation into or exportation from the United Kingdom, or from any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any goods, wares, or merchandise which may be legally imported or exported in foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties only, and with the like drawbacks, bounties, and allowances as are charged or granted upon similar goods, wares, or merchandise when imported or exported in British vessels; provided always, that before any such Order or Orders shall be issued, satisfactory proof shall have been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into or exported from the foreign country in whose favour such remission of duties, or such drawbacks, bounties, or allowances shall be granted, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances when imported into or exported from such foreign country in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported or exported in vessels of such country: And whereas by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to indemnify all persons concerned in advising, issuing, or acting under a certain Order in Council, for regulating the tonnage duties on certain foreign vessels; and to amend an Act of the last session of Parliament, for authorising His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in any foreign vessels," His Majesty is authorised (in certain cases), by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to permit and authorise the entry into any port or ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or of any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties of tonnage only as are or may be charged or granted upon or in respect of British vessels: And whereas satisfactory proof has been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into or exported from the ports of His Serene Highness the Duke of Oldenburgh, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances when imported or exported in British vessels as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported into or exported from the said ports in Oldenburgh vessels; and that British vessels are charged with no other or higher tonnage duties on their entrance into the ports of Oldenburgh, than are levied on Oldenburgh vessels; His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in him by the Acts above recited, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the date of this Order, Oldenburgh vessels entering the ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in ballast or laden, direct from any of the ports of Oldenburgh, or departing from the ports of the said United Kingdom, together with the cargoes on board the same, such cargoes consisting of articles which may be legally imported or exported, shall not be subject to any other or higher duties or charges whatever than are or shall be levied on British vessels entering or departing from such ports, or on similar articles when imported into or exported from such ports in British vessels; and also that such articles when exported from the said ports in Oldenburgh vessels, shall be entitled to the same bounties, drawbacks, and allowances, that are granted on similar articles when exported in British vessels:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 19th of October 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council,

IT is this day ordered by His Majesty in Council, that the Parliament be prorogued, from Thursday the fourth day of November next, to Thursday the sixth day of January next.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 14th of August 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the tenth of March last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar), will expire on the nineteenth day of September next; and whereas it is judged expedient that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service), do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the nineteenth of September next), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar) or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf, first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

William Statham, Town Clerk.

4th November 1824.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made in the ensuing session of Parliament, for a Bill to amend, enlarge, and vary some of the powers contained in an Act of Parliament, of the twenty-first year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, and of another Act, of the twenty-eighth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, for lighting, watching, and cleansing the streets and other places within the town of Liverpool, in the county palatine of Lancaster; and to increase the rates on the inhabitants of the parish of Liverpool, for carrying the said two Acts, and the said intended Bill, into execution.—Dated at Liverpool aforesaid, the 4th day of November 1824.

Edward Blackstock, Clerk to the Commissioners of the Watch, Scavengers, and Lamps.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill to extend, enlarge, alter, explain, and amend, the several Acts of Parliament now in force relating to the docks and harbour of Liverpool; and for authority for the Trustees of the said docks to build additional docks and basins, and graving or repairing docks within the town and parish of Liverpool, and in the adjacent township of Toxteth-park, in the parish of Walton-on-the-hill, in the county of Lancaster; and also to build and provide basins, inclined planes, slips, piers, jetties, or wharfs, and other accommodations in the said town and parish of Liverpool, and in the said adjacent township of Toxteth-park, for vessels, ferry, and other boats and craft navigated by steam or otherwise; and for authority to charge a tonnage or other rate upon certain vessels for the use of the same accommodations; and for power to make additional laws, rules, and regulations, for the management of all such vessels and of the ferry, and all other boats and craft plying for hire upon the River Mersey, and for the prevention of the throwing of rubbish, ballast, or other things into the port; and also for the regulation of all porters and other persons attending and plying for hire at the stairs, slips, piers, or basins, now established or hereafter to be made within the port of Liverpool, or at packets or other vessels arriving at or departing from the same; and for further powers for the regulation and removal of vessels in the docks or basins in certain cases; and for authority for Justices of the Peace to award compensation for damage done to vessels in the port of Liverpool.

or in the docks or basins, or to the floating light vessel, or to any of the buoys, mooring-chains, or marks, in the said docks or harbour of Liverpool, or to the tackle belonging to the same, and to settle disputes regarding the remuneration to be paid for taking up anchors and cables in the said port, and for power to authorise and regulate returns for over entries of goods at the Dock-Office, and to make returns of duties levied upon damaged goods and merchandize, and the time within which the same may be made; and also to revise, alter and equalize the existing rates and duties levied and raised on goods, wares, and merchandizes, imported and exported to and from the said port; and also to make further regulations for the transfers of assignments of the rates and duties granted by the Trustees of the Liverpool Docks by registering the same at the Dock-Office; and also for authority to purchase land, buildings, and premises, for the purpose of additional dock or quay-room, or for approaches thereto, and for empowering the said Trustees to raise upon the security of the said rates and duties, by sale of assignments thereof, by annuities or otherwise, a further sum of money for the general purposes of the Trust, and for power to establish a communication by telegraph or otherwise with the port of Liverpool, either from or near Holyhead, in Anglesea, or from or near Hoylake, in Cheshire, as may be most expedient; and also to erect any lighthouses in or near the port, and to light the same for the better security of the navigation, and for authority to purchase and pay for, or to rent and hire such land, houses, or buildings as may be necessary for the establishment of the said communication or for the said lighthouses, and for further powers to purchase or rent land near the said docks, in the town and parish of Liverpool aforesaid, or in the township of Toxteth-park aforesaid, for the purpose of depositing timber and other goods, until the same are measured and passed by the Revenue Officers; and also for powers to make bye laws, rules, and regulations relative to the loading and unloading of timber and other goods and merchandize, and relative to the manner of using the said land, so to be provided as aforesaid, with authority to receive a rent, or to fix and receive a rate, or other charge, for the use thereof; and also for further provisions for the more effectual punishment of pilfering upon the dock-quays; and generally for altering, amending, and rendering more effectual the provisions of the Acts now in force in relation to the docks and harbour of Liverpool, and to make such further regulations, and to give such further powers, as may be necessary for carrying into execution the purposes aforesaid.

Thomas Foster, Solicitor to the Trustees of the Liverpool Docks,

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons whom it may concern, that an application will be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill for making, constructing, and maintaining certain wet docks, warehouses, basins, cuts, and other works, to be called the Bermondsey Dock, and to have two or more communications with the River Thames; and which wet docks, warehouses, basins, cuts, and other works, together with all requisite sluices, drains, wharfs, bridges, railways, footways, paths, ways, or roads appertaining thereto, are proposed to be situate and made within the parish of Saint Mary Magdalen, Bermondsey, in the county of Surrey; and it is proposed to fix and limit, in and by the said Bill, the tolls, rates, and dues to be taken for the use of the said docks, basins, warehouses, and other works.—Dated this 8th day of November 1824.

Gatty, Haddan, Gatty, and Haddan, Solicitors, Angel-court, Throgmorton-street.

Hundreds of Loes and Wilford, in the County of Suffolk.

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons whom it may concern, that application will be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill for altering, amending, and enlarging the powers and provisions of two several Acts of Parliament, the one, passed in the thirty-first year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for the better relief and employment of the poor within the hundreds of Loes and Wilford, in the county of Suffolk;" and the other, passed in the fiftieth year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act for amending an Act, passed in the thirty-first year of His present Majesty, for the better relief and employment of the poor within the hundreds of Loes and Wilford, in the county of Suffolk;" and that in the said Bill provision is intended to be made, for enabling and empowering the Directors and Acting Guardians acting under the authority of the said first mentioned Act, to alter and vary the period of taking the averages directed by the last mentioned Act, by taking the same annually as they shall deem proper, and from the time of first taking such last mentioned averages, to take fresh and new averages annually, and also to make such alterations in the assessments upon the several parishes, hamlets, and places within the said hundreds of Loes and Wilford, as on any taking of such new averages shall appear just and necessary; and for other purposes therein mentioned.—Dated this 14th day of October 1824.

The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that every entry should be clearly documented, including the date, amount, and purpose of the transaction. This ensures transparency and allows for easy reconciliation of accounts.

In the second section, the author outlines the various methods used to collect and analyze data. These methods include direct observation, interviews, and the use of specialized software tools. Each method is described in detail, highlighting its strengths and potential limitations.

The third section focuses on the results of the data analysis. It presents a series of tables and graphs that illustrate the trends and patterns identified in the data. The author provides a detailed interpretation of these results, explaining their significance in the context of the study.

Finally, the document concludes with a summary of the findings and a discussion of their implications. The author suggests several areas for further research and provides practical recommendations based on the study's results.
