Gabb, Solicitors.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session thereof, for leave to bring in a Bill and to obtain an Act for making, constructing, and maintaining a certain wet dock or wet docks, warehouses, sheds, basins, cuts, and other works, for the reception and better accommodation of ships and vessels, especially those connected with the coal trade, and the cargoes thereof, and to have two or more communications with the River Thames; and which wet dock or docks, warehouses, sheds, basins, cuts, and other works, together with all requisite sluices, drains, wharfs, quays, bridges, railways, footways, paths, ways, or roads appertaining thereto, are proposed to be situate in and pass into and through the parish of All Saints, Poplar, in the Isle of Dogs, in the county of Middlesex, and in the Tower division or hamlet thereof. And it is proposed to fix and limit in and by the said Bill, tolls, rates, and dues to be taken for the use of the said dock or docks, basins, cuts, warehouses, sheds, wharfs, railways, quays, and other works.—Dated this 6th day of November 1824.

William Tooke, No. 3, Holborn-court, Gray's-inn.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made in the ensuing session of Parliament, for a Bill for the better pavement and sewage of the town and parish of Liverpool, in the county palatine of Lancaster, and for raising rates to defray the expences of the same.

William Statham, Town Clerk.

Edward Blackstock, Clerk to the Surveyors of Highways.

4th November 1824.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made in the ensuing session of Parliament, for a Bill for the better regulation of buildings within the town of Liverpool, in the county palatine of Lancaster, and the prevention of accidents from the insecure mode of erecting the same; and also to authorise the making of bye laws, rules, and regulations for governing vessels and craft resorting to the said town, and using the docks, basins, or quays belonging to the Corporation there; and for the appointment of one or more Coroner or Coroners for the borough, in lieu of the present Coroners.

William Statham, Town Clerk.

4th November 1824.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made in the ensuing session of Parliament, for a Bill to amend, enlarge, and vary some of the powers contained in an Act of Parliament, of the twenty-first year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, and of another Act, of the twenty-eighth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, for lighting, watching, and cleansing the streets and other places within the town of Liverpool, in the county palatine of Lancaster; and to increase the rates on the inhabitants of the parish of Liverpool, for carrying the said two Acts, and the said intended Bill, into execution.—Dated at Liverpool aforesaid, the 4th day of November 1824.

Edward Blackstock, Clerk to the Commissioners of the Watch, Scavengers, and Lamps.

NOTICE is hereby given, that an application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill for making and constructing wet docks and basins, with wharfs, jetties, railways, locks, and bridges, for receiving ships, vessels, and barges, and unloading, loading, and ballasting the same, and for towing such ships, vessels, and barges into and out of the said docks and basins; and for lighting the said docks, and the entrances thereto, with gas, and thereby enabling ships, vessels, and barges to enter and go out of, and be unloaded, loaded, and ballasted in the said docks and basins at all hours of the day or night; and for diverting so much of the roads made under and by virtue of an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-second year of His late Majesty, intituled "An Act for establishing a ferry over the River Thames from Greenwich to the Isle of Dogs, in the county of Middlesex, and for making and maintaining roads to communicate therewith," as interfere with or run across the spot of ground on which it is proposed to make and construct such wet docks, basins, and wharfs; which said docks, basins, wharfs, railways, and bridges are intended to be made in the Isle of Dogs, in the parish of All Saints, Poplar, in the county of Middlesex.—Dated this 4th day of November 1824.

Aliston and Hundleby, Solicitors, Freeman's-court, Cornhill.

Office of Ordnance, November 5, 1824.

THE Principal Officers of His Majesty's Ordnance do hereby give notice, that proposals will be received at their Office in Pall-Mall, on or before Monday the 29th November instant, from such persons as may be willing to purchase about 120 tons of unserviceable iron ordnance, together with a quantity of unserviceable shot of various natures, now in store at His Majesty's Gun-Wharf at Chatham, from which station the ordnance and shot are to be removed by the purchasers.

Further particulars may be had upon application at the Secretary's Office, in Pall-Mall, between the hours of ten and four o'clock; also at the Gun-Wharf at Chatham, where the ordnance and shot may be viewed; and the proposals must be sealed up and indorsed "Proposals for purchase of Ordnance and Shot at Chatham;" but no proposal will be admitted after twelve o'clock on Monday the 29th instant; neither will any tender be noticed, unless the party making it, or an agent in his behalf, shall attend.

By order of the Board,

William Griffin, Secretary.

IF the Relations or Next of Kin of David Freeman, who was for many years in the service of the Right Honourable Dowager Countess Macartney, of Chiswick, in the County of Middlesex, and died there in the month of May last past, will apply to Mr. John Lock, of Hammersmith, in the said County of Middlesex, Wine-Merchant, they will bear of something to their advantage.

Whereas Thomas Palmer, of the City of Bath, Chanceryman, did, by indenture, dated the 17th day of November 1823, assign the whole of his goods, chattels, and effects to Trustees, therein named, for the equal benefit of his Creditors; and whereas the said Trustees have fully executed and performed (as far as in their opinion is practicable), the trust reposed in them by the said indenture; notice is hereby given, that a meeting of the Creditors of the said Thomas Palmer will be held on Monday the 6th day of December next, at Twelve o'Clock, at the Office of Mr. John Maule, Solicitor, Broad-Street, Bath, pursuant to the direction of the said deed of trust, when the Trustees will produce their account, for the inspection of the Creditors present at such meeting, previous to making a dividend of the monies that have come to their hands amongst the Creditors of the said Thomas Palmer.

TO be sold, pursuant to two several Orders of the High Court of Chancery, bearing date respectively the 15th of July 1815, and the 31st of July 1820; made in a Cause Hayton v. Price, with the approbation of James Trower, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Public Sale-Room of the said Court, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, on Monday the 20th of December 1824, between the hours of One and Two o'Clock in the Afternoon, in three lots;

Several closes of freehold arable, pasture, and hop land, containing together, by admeasurement, more or less, 21A. 2R. 34P. situate in the Parish of, and adjoining to, the Town of Cranbrooke, in the County of Kent, desirably situated for building.

Particulars to be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings aforesaid; of Messrs. Arlinton, Gregory, and Faulkner, Solicitors, Bedford-Row, Middlesex; of Messrs. Stephenson and Bateman, Solicitors, Southampton-Buildings; of Messrs. Wootton and Co. Tokenhouse-Yard; and of Messrs. Kadeliffe and Co. Solicitors, Liverpool.

TO be peremptorily sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause of Giles against Andrade, with the approbation of John Springett Harvey, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, by a person to be appointed by him for that purpose, at the King's-Arms Inn, in the Town of Lancaster, on Friday the 24th day of December next, between the hours of Two and Three;

A large and convenient freehold dwelling-house and offices, lately occupied as a Bank, by Messrs. Worswick and Company, in Church-Street, in Lancaster, with a garden behind the same, and which were comprised in lot No. 9, of the particular under which the former sale took place in October last.

Particulars may be had (gratis), at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London; of Messrs. Bell and Brodick, Solicitors, Bow-Church-Yard; and of Messrs. Wilson and Higgin, in Lancaster; and at the place of sale, and the principal Inns, in the neighbouring Towns.

Whereas by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause wherein James Weeks is plaintiff, and John Taplin and others are defendants, it is referred to James Stephen, Esquire, one of the Masters of the said Court,

To inquire who were the next of kin of James Gearle, the testator, who resided at Worting, in the County of Southampton, and died on the 5th day of March 1810, and who were the next of kin of the testator's first wife at his decease, and also at the decease of the testatrix Ann Gearle, the second wife of the said testator, and who died at Worting aforesaid, on the 11th day of December 1822, and if any of them are dead, who are now their personal representatives; and whether Richard Tubb, Daniel Tubb, and John Tubb and their sisters, and John Maynard and Thomas Maynard, named in the will of the said testatrix, were of any and what degree of kindred to the said testator, or to his first wife, and what sisters of the said Richard Tubb, Daniel Tubb and John Tubb were living at the death of the said testatrix, and whether such persons are living or dead, and if dead, who are their representatives; and whether William Crockford, in the testatrix's will named, and his brother John Crockford are living, and if dead, who are their personal representatives, and who were at the death of the said testatrix the children of the said William Crockford, and of the respective persons described in the testatrix's will as her husband's late cousins, John Crockford and — Burgess, widow, deceased, and whether they were of any degree of kindred to the testator, or his first wife, and who are now the personal representatives of any of such children as may have since died, and what persons the said testatrix intended to take by the names of Richard Mayland, of Woolverton, in her will named, and of the said Richard Mayland's sister; and whether they were of any degree of relationship to the testator or his first wife, and if such persons are dead, who are their personal representatives; and whether there were, at the death of the said testatrix, any and what persons living answering the description of her late husband's cousins, now or lately residing at New Town, near Newbury, in the County of Berks, and their brothers and sisters, and of her late husband's former wife's nephews and nieces, and whether they were of any and what degree of kindred to the testator or his first wife, and who are now the personal representatives of any of such persons as may be dead; and whether there were at the death of the said testatrix, any and what person living answering the description of William Crate, of Hartley Wintney, and who was the heir at law of the testator, and of his first wife at the testator's decease, and who were the heirs at law of the testator and of his late wife respectively, at the decease of the said testatrix, and who are the personal representatives of such heirs at law as have died since the testatrix, and who is now entitled under such heirs at law to any freehold estate, which such heirs could have inherited from the testator or his first wife at their decease, or the decease of the testatrix, and who is now the testator's heir at law, and whether any of the testator's next of kin at his death, died leaving any and what children, and who are now the personal representatives of any of such children as have since died, and who is now entitled to the real estate by the said testatrix, devised in the residuary clause in her will to the issue of the kindred and relations of the testator, who have died in case the same is a good devise; all the before named persons and all persons answering any of the above descriptions, either as heirs at law next of kin, or representatives, are, on or before the 15th day of December next, to come in before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, and make out their claims, or they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Mocatta against Varitas, the Next of Kin of Esther Benhabach, late of Leman-Street, Goodman's-Fields, in the County of Middlesex, deceased, Widow of Joseph Benhabach, late of Mansel-Street, Goodman's-Fields aforesaid, also deceased, who were living at the time of her death (which happened in the month of December 1822), and the personal representative or representatives of such of them as have since died, are, by their Solicitors, forthwith to come in before William Wingfield, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, to prove such kindred or representation, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery made in a Cause Mocatta against Varitas, the Next of Kin Joseph Benhabach, late of Mansel-Street, Goodman's-Fields, in the County of Middlesex, Gentleman, deceased, who were living at the time of the death of Esther Benhabach, the Widow and Executrix of the said Joseph Benhabach (which happened in or about the month of December 1822), and the personal representative or representatives of such of them as have since died, are, by their Solicitors, forthwith to come in before William Wingfield, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, to prove such kindred or representation, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Gurley and another against Bickley and others, the Creditors of James M'Kenzie, late of the London-Road, in the County of Surrey, Wholesale Shoe-Manufacturer, deceased (who died in the month of February 1823), are forthwith to come in and prove their debts before James William Farrer, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the Court of Chancery of the County-Palatine of Lancaster, bearing date the 7th day of September 1824, made in a Cause Widows v. Hesford and others, the Creditors of Peter Hesford the younger, late of Croft, in the Parish of Winwick, in the said County, Yeoman (who died on or about the 31st day of December 1810), are to come in and prove their debts before William Shawe, Esq. the Registrar of the said Court, at his Office, in Preston, in the said County, on or before the 1st day of January 1825, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.
