

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 23, 1824.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 20th of November 1824.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS Majesty having been pleased to appoint the Right Honourable George Howard, commonly called Viscount Morpeth, to be Lord Lieutenant of the east riding of the county of York; his Lordship this day took the oaths appointed to be taken thereupon, instead of the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 19th of October 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to authorise the importation into or exportation from the United Kingdom, or from any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any goods, wares, or merchandise which may be legally imported or exported in foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties only, and with the like drawbacks, bounties, and allowances as are charged or granted upon similar goods, wares, or merchandise when imported or exported in British vessels; provided always, that before any such Order or Orders shall be issued, satisfactory proof shall have been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into or exported from the foreign country in whose favour such remission of duties, or such drawbacks, bounties, or allowances shall be granted, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances when imported into or exported from such foreign country in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported or exported in vessels of such country: And whereas by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to indemnify all persons concerned in advising, issuing, or acting under a certain Order in Council, for regulating the tonnage duties on certain foreign vessels; and to amend an Act of the last session of Parliament, for authorising His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in any foreign vessels," His Majesty is authorised (in certain cases), by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to permit and authorise the entry into any port or ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or of any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties of tonnage only as are or may be charged or granted upon or in respect of British vessels: And whereas satisfactory proof has been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into or exported from the ports of His Serene Highness the Duke of Oldenburgh, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances when imported or exported in British vessels as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported into or exported from the said ports in Oldenburgh vessels; and that British vessels are charged with no other or higher tonnage duties on their entrance into the ports of Oldenburgh, than are levied on Oldenburgh vessels; His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in him by the Acts above recited, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the date of this Order, Oldenburgh vessels entering the ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in ballast or laden, direct from any of the ports of Oldenburgh, or departing from the ports of the said United Kingdom, together with the cargoes on board the same, such cargoes consisting of articles which may be legally imported or exported, shall not be subject to any other or higher duties or charges whatever than are or shall be levied on British vessels entering or departing from such ports, or on similar articles when imported into or exported from such ports in British vessels; and also that such articles when exported from the said ports in Oldenburgh vessels, shall be entitled to the same bounties, drawbacks, and allowances, that are granted on similar articles when exported in British vessels.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 19th of October, 1824.

PRESENT;

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage." His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by any Order or Orders in Council, in all cases in which British vessels, of less burthen than sixty tons, are not required by law to take pilots, to exempt foreign vessels, being of less burthen than sixty tons, from taking on-board a pilot to conduct them into or from any of the ports of the United Kingdom, any law, custom, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding; His Majesty, by virtue of the power vested in him by the said Act, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date of this Order, all vessels belonging to the inhabitants of Bremen, and being of less burthen than sixty tons, which shall enter in or clear out from any of the ports of the United Kingdom, shall be, and they are hereby exempted from taking on board a pilot to conduct them into or from any such port; in all cases where British vessels, being of less burthen than sixty tons, are not required by law to take pilots, any law, custom, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 14th of August, 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the tenth of March last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar), will expire on the nineteenth day of September next; and whereas it is judged expedient that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service), do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the nineteenth of September next), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar) or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High

Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. C. C. Greville

Exchequer Bill-Office, November 22, 1824.

THE Exchequer Bills dated in the months of October, November, and December 1823, viz. 58 Geo. 3, cap. 45, for building additional churches; 3 Geo. 4, cap. 86, for carrying on public works and fisheries; 4 Geo. 4, cap. 100, £14,700,000, 1823, with the interest due thereon, will be paid off on the 14th day of December 1824, when the interest will cease. Such bills will be received daily (holidays excepted), from ten o'clock till one, until and including the 10th day of December, at this Office, where lists are to be obtained, containing instructions for arranging the bills. The bearers must endorse each bill with their usual signatures, and write their names and residences at the bottom of each list; and where the names of holders are inserted in bills, the bearers, not being such holders, must previously obtain their endorsements. The bearers must attend to give receipts for the payment.

Payment may be obtained, if required, previous to the said 14th day of December, upon leaving the bills for examination one day prior to that on which such payment is desired.

New bills, bearing an interest of one penny half-penny by the day upon every one hundred pounds, and dated the said 14th day of December, may be obtained in whole or in part payment of principal, upon stating the required amount on the lists, delivered on or before the said 10th day of December, which new bills, with the interest on the bills exchanged, will be issued on the 15th day of December 1824.

N. B. All Exchequer Bills, dated prior to October 1823, have been advertised to be paid off.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application will be made in the ensuing session of Parliament, for leave to bring in a Bill to alter, amend, extend, enlarge, and explain the several Acts passed in the fourteenth, forty-second, and forty-fifth years of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third; for the making and establishing of public quays or wharfs, and docks, at Kingston-upon-Hull; and for raising a further sum of money for carrying into execution the said Act, passed in the forty-second year of the reign of His said Majesty; and to alter, amend, and extend the rates and duties authorised by the said Acts to be taken on ships and vessels frequenting the said port, and to impose new and additional rates and duties, or reduce and regulate the rates and duties on ships and vessels frequenting the said port, where the same may be deemed necessary; and to lay rates and duties on certain goods, wares, and merchandises imported into and exported from the said port; and also to make a new dock in the parish of the Holy Trinity, in the town and county of the town of Kingston-upon-Hull aforesaid, and in the parish of Sculcoates, in the county of York, to form a communication between the Old Dock and the Humber Dock, at Kingston-upon-Hull; and to purchase land and buildings for the making of the said new dock, and of quays, wharfs, roads, and other conveniences thereto belonging, and to lay duties on sloops, lighters, and other craft frequenting the said port; and also to extend the powers and authorities contained in the said several Acts of the fourteenth, forty-second, and forty-fifth years of the reign of His late Majesty, to the said intended dock, quays, wharfs, and works; and also to make all the quays and wharfs of the present docks in the said port, and of the said intended dock, legal quays, and wharfs for the landing, re-landing, and discharging, and lading and shipping any goods, wares, and merchandises whatsoever within the port of Hull aforesaid; and also for the better prevention of thefts, frauds, and depredations in and about the said quays, and other works thereunto belonging; and also to release and exonerate the Dock Company, at Kingston-upon-Hull, from certain covenants entered into by the said Dock Company to build and maintain a certain brick wall, on land late of the said Dock Company, in the parish of Sculcoates, in the county of York, in order to divide the said land from land now or late of Henry Grimston, Esq. and the Reverend William Mason, Clerk; and generally to alter, amend, and render more effectual the provisions of the Acts now in force in relation to the said docks, and the management of the affairs of the said Dock Company; and to make such further and additional regulations, and give such further and additional powers as may be necessary for carrying into execution the purposes aforesaid, and the purposes of the intended Act.—Dated this 18th day of October 1824.

Tho. Frost, Solicitor to the Dock Company of Kingston-upon-Hull.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to alter, amend, and enlarge the terms and powers of an Act passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for supplying the towns of Old and New Brentford, and the villages of Turnham-Green, Hammersmith, and Kensington, in the county of Middlesex, with Gas;" and to enable the said Company to add to their capital by issuing an additional number of shares; and to extend their premises, works, and line of lighting, and which line of lighting is intended to pass through the parish of Saint Mary, Hanwell; the township of New Brentford; the parish of Saint Mary, Ealing; the several parishes of Saint Nicholas, Chiswick; Acton; and Fulham; the hamlet of Hammersmith; the detached part of the parish of Saint Luke, Chelsea; the several parishes of Saint Mary Abbots, Kensington; and Saint Luke, Chelsea; the detached part of the parish of Saint Margaret, Westminster; the several parishes of Saint Mary, Paddington; Saint Pancras; Saint John, Hampstead; Saint Mary-lebone; Saint George, Hanover-square; Saint John the Evangelist, Westminster; Saint Margaret, Westminster; Saint Martin-in-the-Fields, and Saint James, Westminster; Saint Leonard, Heston; All Saints, Isleworth; Saint Mary, Twickenham; Saint Mary, Teddington; and Saint Mary, Hampton; the hamlets of Hampton-Court and Hampton-Wick, in the county of Middlesex; the parish of Kingston-upon-Thames; Petersham; and Battersea; the hamlets of Ham and Hatch; the parish of Richmond; and the hamlet of Kew, in the county of Surrey, and for other purposes.—Dated this 22d day of November 1824.

Thos. Jullion, Brentford, Solicitor for the Bill.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill to extend, enlarge, alter, explain, and amend, the several Acts of Parliament now in force relating to the docks and harbour of Liverpool; and for authority for the Trustees of the said docks to build additional docks and basins, and graving or repairing docks within the town and parish of Liverpool, and in the adjacent township of Toxteth-park, in the parish of Walton-on-the-hill, in the county of Lancaster; and also to build and provide basins, inclined planes, slips, piers, jetties, or wharfs, and other accommodations in the said town and parish of Liverpool, and in the said adjacent township of Toxteth-park, for vessels, ferry, and other boats and craft navigated by steam or otherwise; and for authority to charge a tonnage or other rate upon certain vessels for the use of the same accommodations; and for power to make additional laws, rules, and regulations, for the management of all such vessels and of the ferry, and all other boats and craft plying for hire upon the River Mersey, and for the prevention of the throwing of rubbish, ballast, or other things into the port; and also for the regulation of all porters and other persons attending and plying for hire at the stairs, slips, piers, or basins, now established or hereafter to be made within the port of Liverpool, or at packets or other vessels arriving at or departing from the same; and for further powers for the regulation and removal of vessels in the docks or basins in certain cases; and for authority for Justices of the Peace to award compensation for damage done to vessels in the port of Liverpool, or in the docks or basins, or to the floating light vessel, or to any of the buoys, mooring-chains, or marks, in the said docks or harbour of Liverpool, or to the tackle belonging to the same, and to settle disputes regarding the remuneration to be paid for taking up anchors and cables in the said port, and for power to authorise and regulate returns for over entries of goods at the Dock-Office, and to make returns of duties levied upon damaged goods and merchandize, and the time within which the same may be made; and also to revise, alter and equalize the existing rates and duties levied and raised on goods, wares, and merchandizes, imported and exported to and from the said port; and also to make further regulations for the transfers of assignments of the rates and duties granted by the Trustees of the Liverpool Docks by registering the same at the Dock-Office; and also for authority to purchase land, buildings, and premises, for the purpose of additional dock or quay-room, or for approaches thereto, and for empowering the said Trustees to raise upon the security of the said rates and duties, by sale of assignments thereof, by annuities or otherwise, a further sum of money for the general purposes of the Trust, and for power to establish a communication by telegraph or otherwise with the port of Liverpool, either from or near Holyhead, in Anglesea, or from or near Hoylake, in Cheshire, as may be most expedient; and also to erect any lighthouses in or near the port, and to light the same for the better security of the navigation, and for authority to purchase and pay for, or to rent and hire such land, houses, or buildings as may be necessary for the establishment of the said communication or for the said lighthouses, and for further powers to purchase or rent land near the said docks, in the town and parish of Liverpool aforesaid, or in the township of Toxteth-park aforesaid, for the purpose of depositing timber and other goods, until the same are measured and passed by the Revenue Officers; and also for powers to make bye laws, rules, and regulations relative to the loading and unloading of timber and other goods and merchandize, and relative to the manner of using the said land, so to be provided as aforesaid, with authority to receive a rent, or to fix and receive a rate, or other charge, for the use thereof; and also for further provisions for the more effectual punishment of pilfering upon the dock-quays; and generally for altering, amending, and rendering more effectual the provisions of the Acts now in force in relation to the docks and harbour of Liverpool, and to make such further regulations, and to give such further powers, as may be necessary for carrying into execution the purposes aforesaid.

Thomas Foster, Solicitor to the Trustees of the Liverpool Docks.

Grimsby Haven Navigation, &c.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made in the next session of Parliament, for an Act to amend and render more effectual an Act of the thirty-sixth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for widening, deepening, enlarging, altering, and improving the haven of the town and port of Great Grimsby, in the county of Lincoln," and another Act of the thirty ninth year of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act for enabling the Grimsby Haven Company to finish and complete the navigation of the said haven, and for amending an Act, passed in the thirty-sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, for widening, deepening, enlarging, altering, and improving the haven of the town and port of Great Grimsby, in the county of Lincoln;" and likewise by the said intended Act to enable the said Grimsby Haven Company to raise a sum of money for paying off their existing debts, and for cleansing, deepening, scouring out, and repairing the dock, haven, and harbour or outfall of the said town and port of Great Grimsby; and to enable the said Grimsby Haven Company to erect and maintain a pier or piers, jetty or jetties, and other works in, adjoining, or near the said dock, haven, and harbour or outfall, or some or one of them; and to receive and take tolls, rates, and duties for or in respect of passengers, goods, cattle, wares, merchandize, and things entering into or departing from the said port: and which said dock, haven, and harbour or outfall, or such parts thereof as are intended to be cleansed, deepened, scoured out, and repaired, are situate in the parish and township of Great Grimsby aforesaid: and in which said intended Act, provisions are intended to be proposed for increasing, altering, and extending the existing tolls, rates, or duties granted by the said Acts of the thirty-sixth and thirty-ninth years of His said late Majesty, or either of them; and generally to give such further and additional powers as may be necessary for carrying into execution the purposes thereof.—Dated this 2d day of November 1824.

By order,

Jno. Squire, Clerk to the Grimsby Haven Company.

Joseph Daubney, Geo. Babb.
